Forward Looking Statements

This press release includes statements that may constitute "forward-looking statements," that involve substantial risks and uncertainties. These statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You can identify these statements by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as "may," "should," "could," "anticipate," "estimate," "expect," "project," "intend," "plan," "believe," "predict," "potential," "continue" or comparable terms. These forward-looking statements include, among others, statements about the Company's expectations with respect to the proposed offering, including its intention to offer and sell shares and its intended use of proceeds from the offering. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may cause actual results to be materially different from any results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. For example, there are risks associated with market conditions, the underwriters fulfilling their obligations to purchase the shares in the offering and the Company's ability to satisfy certain conditions precedent to the closing of the offering; as well as the risks described in the Company's periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including, but not limited to, the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012. The Company does not undertake any duty to update these forward-looking statements after the date hereof, even though the Company's situation may change in the future. All of the forward-looking statements herein are qualified by these cautionary statements.
