Borrowings under the First Lien Term Loan Facility will bear interest at a rate equal to, at the option of the Parent Borrower, either (i) the then applicable Eurocurrency Rate plus an Applicable Rate of 4.50% or (ii) the then applicable Base Rate plus an Applicable Rate of 3.50%; provided that, in each case, the respective Applicable Rates shall be subject to a 25 basis point step-down if either (x) the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio is less than or equal to 3.70:1.00 or (y) the Term B Loans have a B1 rating from Moody's and a B rating from S&P. In addition, the First Lien Term Loan Facility requires the Parent Borrower to prepay outstanding term loan borrowings, subject to certain exceptions, with:

All obligations under the First Lien Term Loan Facility are unconditionally guaranteed by each of the Parent Borrower's existing and future direct and indirect material, wholly owned domestic subsidiaries, subject to certain exceptions. The obligations are secured by first priority security interest in each of the Parent Borrower's subsidiaries' capital stock (subject to certain exceptions) and substantially all of the Parent Borrower's and the other Loan Party's property and assets (other than the ABL Priority Collateral), (the "Term Loan Priority Collateral"), in each case subject to certain exceptions, and a second priority security interest in the ABL Priority Collateral (as defined below).

In addition to paying interest on outstanding principal under the ABL Facility, the Parent Borrower is required to pay a commitment fee at a rate equal to 0.250% or 0.375% per annum based on average daily revolving credit exposure under the ABL Facility in respect of the unutilized commitments thereunder. The Parent Borrower is also required to pay customary agency fees under each ABL Facility as well as letter of credit participation fees computed at a rate per annum equal to the Applicable Rate for Eurocurrency Rate Loans on the dollar equivalent of the daily stated amount of outstanding letters of credit, plus such letter of credit issuer’s customary documentary and processing fees and charges and a fronting fee computed at a rate equal to 0.125% per annum on the daily stated amount of each letter of credit under the ABL Facility.

The Parent Issuer is obligated to make an offer to purchase all outstanding Notes in cash at 101% of the aggregate principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to but excluding the date of purchase, upon a change of control.

The Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the First Merger were amended (as amended, the "Bylaws") as of the effective time of the First Merger to reflect certain governance terms provided in the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, immediately following the effective time of the First Merger, the Company caused its board to consist of ten directors, (i) eight of whom were selected by Omega Parent, and (ii) two of whom were members of the BioScrip's board immediately prior to the effective time of the First Merger (the "Continuing BioScrip Directors"). Furthermore, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Company amended its Bylaws, effective as of the effective time of the First Merger to provide that, if, following the closing, any Continuing BioScrip Director resigns or is unable to serve for any other reason prior to the first anniversary following the first annual meeting after the effective time of the First Merger (in each case, a "Removed Designee"), then, in each case, the remaining Continuing BioScrip Director (if any) will recommend a replacement for such Removed Designee to the Governance, Compliance and Nominating Committee of the Company's board, which will consider such replacement (and, if not approved by such committee, any additional replacements recommended by the remaining Continuing BioScrip Director) in good faith.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Bylaws, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 3.4 and are incorporated herein by reference.

Exhibit A

THIRD AMENDED AND RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION
OF BIOSCRIP, INC.

ARTICLE ONE

The name of the corporation is BioScrip, Inc. (the "Corporation").

ARTICLE TWO

The address of the Corporation's registered office in the State of Delaware is 1209 Orange Street, in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle 19801. The name of its registered agent at such address is The Corporation Trust Company.

ARTICLE THREE

The nature and purpose of the business of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware ("DGCL").

ARTICLE FOUR

Section 1. Authorized Shares. The total number of shares of all classes of capital stock which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is 1,050,000,000 shares, consisting of two classes as follows:

1. 50,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "Preferred Stock"); and
2. 1,000,000,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "Common Stock").

The Preferred Stock and the Common Stock shall have the designations, rights, powers and preferences and the qualifications, restrictions and limitations thereof, if any, set forth below.

Section 2. Preferred Stock. The Board of Directors of the Corporation (the "Board of Directors") is authorized, subject to limitations prescribed by law, to provide, by resolution or resolutions for the issuance of shares of Preferred Stock in one or more series, and with respect to each series, to establish the number of shares to be included in each such series, and to fix the voting powers (if any), designations, powers, preferences, and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, if any, of the shares of each such series, and any qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof. The powers (including voting powers), preferences, and relative, participating, optional and other special rights of each series of Preferred Stock and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, if any, may differ from those of any and all other series at any time outstanding. Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock, the number of authorized shares of Preferred Stock may be increased or decreased (but not below the number of shares thereof then outstanding) by the approval of the Board of Directors and by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in voting power of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in an election of directors, without the separate vote of the holders of the Preferred Stock as a class, irrespective of the provisions of Section 242(b)(2) of the DGCL.

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Board of Directors by this Article Four, the Board of Directors created a series of (i) 825,000 shares of Preferred Stock designated as the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (the “Series A Preferred Stock”) by filing the Certificate of Designations of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of the Corporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the “Secretary of State”) on March 9, 2015, as amended by that certain Certificate of Amendment filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on August 6, 2019 (as amended, the “Series A Certificate of Designations”) and (ii) 625,000 shares of Preferred Stock designated as the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock (the “Series C Preferred Stock”) by filing the Certificate of Designations of Series C Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of the Corporation with the Secretary of State on June 14, 2016 (the “Series C Certificate of Designations”). The voting powers, designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights of the shares of (x) the Series A Preferred Stock, and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions thereof, are as set forth in the Series A Certificate of Designations, and are incorporated herein by reference and (y) the Series C Preferred Stock, and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions thereof, are as set forth in the Series C Certificate of Designations, and are incorporated herein by reference.

Section 3. Common Stock.

(a) Except as otherwise provided by the DGCL or the Certificate of Incorporation and subject to the rights of holders of any series of Preferred Stock, all of the voting power of the stockholders of the Corporation shall be vested in the holders of the Common Stock. Each share of Common Stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote for each share held by such holder on all matters voted upon by the stockholders of the Corporation; provided, however, that, except as otherwise required by law, holders of Common Stock, as such, shall not be entitled to vote on any amendment to this Certificate of Incorporation (including any certificate of designation relating to any series of Preferred Stock) that relates solely to the terms of one or more outstanding series of Preferred Stock if the holders of such affected series are entitled, either separately or together with the holders of one or more other such series, to vote thereon pursuant to this Certificate of Incorporation (including any certificate of designation relating to any series of Preferred Stock) or pursuant to the DGCL.

(b) Except as otherwise required by law or expressly provided in this Certificate of Incorporation, each share of Common Stock shall have the same powers, rights and privileges and shall rank equally, share ratably and be identical in all respects as to all matters.

(c) Subject to the rights of the holders of Preferred Stock and to the other provisions of applicable law and this Certificate of Incorporation, holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive equally, on a per share basis, such dividends and other distributions in cash, securities or other property of the Corporation if, as and when declared thereon by the Board of Directors from time to time out of assets or funds of the Corporation legally available therefor.

(d) Subject to the rights of holders of Preferred Stock, in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, after payment or provision for payment of the Corporation's debts and any other payments required by law and amounts payable upon shares of Preferred Stock ranking senior to the shares of Common Stock upon such dissolution, liquidation or winding up, if any, the remaining net assets of the Corporation shall be distributed to the holders of shares of Common Stock and the holders of shares of any other class or series ranking equally with the shares of Common Stock upon such dissolution, liquidation or winding up, equally on a per share basis.

ARTICLE FIVE

Section 1. Board of Directors. Except as otherwise provided in this Certificate of Incorporation, the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Number of Directors. Subject to any rights of the holders of any class or series of Preferred Stock to elect additional directors under specified circumstances or otherwise, the number of directors which shall constitute the Board of Directors shall initially be 10 and, thereafter, shall be fixed from time to time exclusively by resolution of the Board.

Section 3. Election and Term of Office. The directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast; provided that, whenever the holders of any class or series of capital stock of the Corporation are entitled to elect one or more directors pursuant to the provisions of this Certificate of Incorporation (including, but not limited to, any duly authorized certificate of designation), such directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast by such holders. At each annual meeting of stockholders, each director shall be elected to hold office until the next annual meeting and until his or her successor shall be elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, disqualification, resignation or removal. Nothing in this Certificate of Incorporation shall preclude a director from serving consecutive terms. Elections of directors need not be by written ballot unless the Bylaws of the Corporation (as amended and/or restated the "Bylaws") shall so provide.

Section 4. Newly-Created Directorships and Vacancies. Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding and except as otherwise set forth in that certain Director Nomination Agreement between the Corporation and HC Group, newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors or any vacancies in the Board of Directors resulting from death, resignation, disqualification, removal from office or any other cause may be filled only by resolution of a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and may not be filled in any other manner. A director elected or appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office and until his or her successor is elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal. A director elected or appointed to fill a position resulting from an increase in the number of directors shall hold office until the next election of directors and until his or her successor is elected and qualified, or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal. No decrease in the authorized number of directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

Section 5. Removal and Resignation of Directors. Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding and notwithstanding any other provision of this Certificate of Incorporation, (i) prior to the first date (the "Trigger Date") on which HC Group Holdings I, LLC ("HC Group") and its Affiliated Companies (as defined herein) cease to beneficially own (directly or indirectly) 50% or more of the voting power of the then outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation then entitled to vote generally in the election of directors ("Voting Stock"), directors may be removed with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of stockholders representing at least a majority of the voting power of the then outstanding shares of Voting Stock, voting together as a single class and (ii) on and after the Trigger Date, directors may be removed with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of stockholders representing at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 $\frac{2}{3}$ %) of the voting power of the then outstanding shares of Voting Stock, at a meeting of the Corporation's stockholders called for that purpose. Any director may resign at any time upon written notice to the Corporation.

Section 6. Rights of Holders of Preferred Stock. Notwithstanding the provisions of this ARTICLE FIVE, whenever the holders of one or more series of Preferred Stock shall have the right, voting separately or together with the holders of one or more other series, to elect directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, the election, term of office, filling of vacancies and newly created directorships and other features of such directorship shall be subject to the rights of such series of Preferred Stock. During any period when the holders of any series of Preferred Stock, voting separately as a series or together with one or more series, have the right to elect additional directors, then upon commencement and for the duration of the period during which such right continues: (i) the then otherwise total authorized number of directors of the Corporation shall automatically be increased by such specified number of directors, and the holders of such Preferred Stock shall be entitled to elect the additional directors so provided for or fixed pursuant to said provisions, and (ii) each such additional director shall serve until such director's successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, or until such director's right to hold such office terminates pursuant to said provisions, whichever occurs earlier, subject to his or her earlier death, resignation, disqualification or removal. Except as otherwise provided by the Board of Directors in the resolution or resolutions establishing such series, whenever the holders of any series of Preferred Stock having such right to elect additional directors are divested of such right pursuant to the provisions of such stock, the terms of office of all such additional directors elected by the holders of such stock, or elected to fill any vacancies resulting from the death, resignation, disqualification or removal of such additional directors, shall forthwith terminate (in which case each such director thereupon shall cease to be qualified as, and shall cease to be, a director) and the total authorized number of directors of the Corporation shall automatically be reduced accordingly.

Section 7. Advance Notice. Advance notice of stockholder nominations for the election of directors and of business to be brought by stockholders before any meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation shall be given in the manner provided in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE SIX

Section 1. Limitation of Liability.

(a) To the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL as it now exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader exculpation than permitted prior thereto), no director of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages arising from a breach of fiduciary duty as a director.

(b) Any amendment, repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such amendment, repeal or modification with respect to any act, omission or other matter occurring prior to such amendment, repeal or modification.

ARTICLE SEVEN

Section 1. Action by Written Consent. Prior to the Trigger Date, any action which is required or permitted to be taken by the Corporation's stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares of the Corporation's stock entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. From and after the Trigger Date, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Corporation's stockholders may be taken only at a duly called annual or special meeting of the Corporation's stockholders and the power of stockholders to consent in writing without a meeting is specifically denied; provided, however, that any action required or permitted to be taken by the holders of Preferred Stock, voting separately as a series or separately as a class with one or more other such series, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, to the extent expressly so provided the resolutions creating such series of Preferred Stock.

Section 2. Special Meetings of Stockholders. Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding and to the requirements of applicable law, special meetings of stockholders of the Corporation may be called only (i) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Board of Directors pursuant to a written resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of the majority of the total number of directors that the Corporation would have if there were no vacancies or (ii) prior to the Trigger Date, by the Chairman of the Board of Directors at the written request of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the then outstanding shares of Voting Stock in the manner provided for in the Bylaws. Any business transacted at any special meeting of stockholders shall be limited to the purpose or purposes stated in the notice of the meeting.

ARTICLE EIGHT

Section 1. Certain Acknowledgments. In recognition and anticipation that (i) certain of the directors, partners, principals, officers, members, managers and/or employees of HC Group or its Affiliated Companies (as defined below) may serve as directors or officers of the Corporation and (ii) HC Group and its Affiliated Companies engage and may continue to engage in the same or similar activities or related lines of business as those in which the Corporation, directly or indirectly, may engage and/or other business activities that overlap with or compete with those in which the Corporation, directly or indirectly, may engage, and (iii) that the Corporation and its Affiliated Companies may engage in material business transactions with HC Group and its Affiliated Companies, and that the Corporation is expected to benefit therefrom, the provisions of this ARTICLE EIGHT are set forth to regulate and define the conduct of certain affairs of the Corporation as they may involve HC Group and/or its Affiliated Companies and/or their respective directors, partners, principals, officers, members, managers and/or employees, including any of the foregoing who serve as officers or directors of the Corporation (collectively, the “Exempted Persons”), and the powers, rights, duties and liabilities of the Corporation and its officers, directors and stockholders in connection therewith. As used in this Certificate of Incorporation, “Affiliated Companies” shall mean (a) Madison Dearborn Partners, LLC, Madison Dearborn Partners VI-A&C, L.P., Madison Dearborn Partners VI-B, L.P. and MDP Global Investors Limited (collectively, the “MDP Group”), (b) Walgreens Company, (c) any entity that controls, is controlled by or under common control with HC Group, the MDP Group or Walgreens Company (other than the Corporation and any company that is controlled by the Corporation) and any investment funds managed by the MDP Group and (d) in respect of the Corporation, any company controlled by the Corporation.

Section 2. Competition and Corporate Opportunities. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, none of the Exempted Persons shall have any fiduciary duty to refrain from engaging directly or indirectly in the same or similar business activities or lines of business as the Corporation or any of its Affiliated Companies, and no Exempted Person shall be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for breach of any fiduciary duty solely by reason of any such activities of HC Group, its Affiliated Companies or such Exempted Person. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Corporation, on behalf of itself and its Affiliated Companies, renounces any interest or expectancy of the Corporation and its Affiliated Companies in, or in being offered an opportunity to participate in, business opportunities that are from time to time presented to the Exempted Persons, even if the opportunity is one that the Corporation or its Affiliated Companies might reasonably be deemed to have pursued or had the ability or desire to pursue if granted the opportunity to do so, and each Exempted Person shall have no duty to communicate or offer such business opportunity to the Corporation or its Affiliated Companies and, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, shall not be liable to the Corporation, any of its Affiliated Companies or its stockholders for breach of any fiduciary or other duty, as a director, officer or stockholder of the Corporation solely, by reason of the fact that HC Group, its Affiliated Companies or any such Exempted Person pursues or acquires such business opportunity, sells, assigns, transfers or directs such business opportunity to another person or fails to present such business opportunity, or information regarding such business opportunity, to the Corporation or any of its Affiliated Companies. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2, the Corporation does not renounce any interest or expectancy it may have in (i) any business opportunity that is expressly offered to any Exempted Person solely in his or her capacity as a director or officer of the Corporation, and not in any other capacity, or (ii) any business opportunity that any Exempted Person first learns of in his or her capacity as a director or officer of the Corporation.

Section 3. Certain Matters Deemed Not Corporate Opportunities. In addition to and notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this ARTICLE EIGHT, a corporate opportunity shall not be deemed to belong to the Corporation if it is a business opportunity the Corporation is not financially able or contractually permitted or legally able to undertake, or that is, from its nature, not in the line of the Corporation's business or is of no practical advantage to it or that is one in which the Corporation has no interest or reasonable expectancy.

Section 4. Amendment of this Article. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary elsewhere contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding, and in addition to any vote required by applicable law, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least eighty percent (80%) of the voting power of the then outstanding shares of Voting Stock, voting together as a single class, shall be required to alter, amend or repeal, or to adopt any provision inconsistent with, this ARTICLE EIGHT; provided however, that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, neither the alteration, amendment or repeal of this ARTICLE EIGHT nor the adoption of any provision of this Certificate of Incorporation inconsistent with this ARTICLE EIGHT shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any Exempted Person for or with respect to any activities or opportunities which such Exempted Person becomes aware prior to such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption.

Section 5. Deemed Notice. Any person or entity purchasing or otherwise acquiring or holding any interest in any shares of the Corporation shall be deemed to have notice of and to have consented to the provisions of this ARTICLE EIGHT.

ARTICLE NINE

Section 1. Amendments to the Bylaws. Subject to the rights of holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding, in furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by law, prior to the Trigger Date, the Bylaws may be amended, altered or repealed and new bylaws made by (i) the Board of Directors or (ii) in addition to any vote of the holders of any class or series of capital stock of the Corporation required herein (including any resolution or certificate of designations setting forth the terms of any series of Preferred Stock) and any other vote otherwise required by applicable law, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of all of the then outstanding shares of Voting Stock, voting together as a single class. On and after the Trigger Date, the Bylaws may be amended, altered or repealed and new bylaws made by (i) the Board or (ii) in addition to any of the holders of any class or series of capital stock of the Corporation required herein (including any certificate of designation relating to any series of Preferred Stock), the Bylaws or applicable law, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 $\frac{2}{3}$ %) of the voting power of the then outstanding Voting Stock, voting together as a single class.

Section 2. Amendments to this Certificate of Incorporation. Subject to the rights of holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding, notwithstanding any other provision of this Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws, and in addition to any affirmative vote of the holders of any particular class or series of the capital stock required by law or otherwise, no provision of ARTICLE FIVE, ARTICLE SIX, ARTICLE SEVEN, ARTICLE NINE or ARTICLE TEN of this Certificate of Incorporation may be altered, amended or repealed in any respect, nor may any provision of this Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws inconsistent therewith be adopted, unless in addition to any other vote required by this Certificate of Incorporation or otherwise required by law, (i) prior to the Trigger Date, such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all outstanding shares of Voting Stock, voting together as a single class, and (ii) from and after the Trigger Date, such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption is approved by the affirmative vote of holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 $\frac{2}{3}$ %) of the voting power of all outstanding shares of Voting Stock, voting together as a single class, at a meeting of the Corporation's stockholders called for that purpose.

ARTICLE TEN

Section 1. Exclusive Forum. Unless this Corporation consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (or, if the Court of Chancery does not have jurisdiction, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware) shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of the Corporation, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer, employee or stockholder of the Corporation to the Corporation or the Corporation's stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim arising pursuant to any provision of the DGCL or as to which the DGCL confers jurisdiction on the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, the Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws or (iv) any action asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine.

Section 2. Notice. Any Person purchasing or otherwise acquiring or holding any interest in shares of capital stock of the Corporation (including, without limitation, shares of Common Stock) shall be deemed to have notice of and to have consented to the provisions of this ARTICLE TEN.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

If any provision or provisions of this Certificate of Incorporation shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable as applied to any circumstance for any reason whatsoever, the validity, legality and enforceability of such provisions in any other circumstance and of the remaining provisions of this Certificate of Incorporation (including, without limitation, each portion of any paragraph of this Certificate of Incorporation containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable that is not itself held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall not, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENT TO THE CERTIFICATE OF DESIGNATIONS
OF
SERIES A CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK,
PAR VALUE $0.0001 PER SHARE,
OF BIOSCRIP, INC.

BioScrip, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Corporation"), hereby certifies as follows:

FIRST: The Corporation's Certificate of Designations of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "Series A Certificate of Designations"), which was filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on March 9, 2015, is hereby amended to add the following new Section 18 thereto:

18 Redemption; Conversion.

(a) Redemption and Conversion at the Option of the Corporation Following Merger. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, immediately following the effectiveness of both the mergers (the "Mergers") pursuant to and in accordance with the Agreement and Plan of Merger (as amended or modified, the "Merger Agreement"), dated March 14, 2019, by and among the Corporation, Beta Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation, Beta Sub, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, HC Group Holdings I, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, and HC Group Holdings II, Inc., a Delaware corporation (as amended from time to time), a copy of which shall be maintained by the Secretary of the Corporation and provided to any stockholder of the Corporation without charge upon request (the date of the effectiveness of the Mergers, the "Redemption Date"), without any further action on the part of the Corporation or any stockholder thereof, (i) (A) four one-hundredths (4/100) of each share of Series A Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation on March 9, 2015 then issued and outstanding shall automatically be converted into 2.5226 shares of Common Stock and (B) four one-hundredths (4/100) of each share of Series A Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation on July 29, 2015 then issued and outstanding shall automatically be converted into 2.4138 shares of Common Stock and (ii) the remaining portion of all Series A Preferred Stock (constituting ninety-six one-hundredths (96/100) of each share of Series A Preferred Stock subject to conversion pursuant to the immediately preceding clause (i)) shall be redeemed, to the extent of funds lawfully available therefor, for an amount in cash equal to 120% of the Liquidation Preference of such share of Series A Preferred Stock as of the Redemption Date (the "Redemption Price"), in each case in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 18. In the event the Redemption Date occurs on a date during a Regular Dividend Period, the Liquidation Preference per share of Series A Preferred Stock shall include Accrued Dividends (in addition to all prior Accrued Dividends) calculated in accordance with Section 3(a)(ii) for such partial period through the Redemption Date. For purposes of the conversion and redemption set forth in this Section 18, each share of Series A Preferred Stock held by each holder thereof shall be aggregated with all other shares of Series A Preferred Stock held by such holder. The Corporation shall not be required to issue any fractional shares of Common Stock resulting from the conversion of a holder's shares of Series A Preferred Stock as provided hereby, and, in lieu of issuing any such fractional share of Common Stock, the Corporation may pay to the holder thereof cash in amount equal to the fair value (which shall be the last reported sale price of a share of Common Stock on the exchange on which the shares of Common Stock are trading on the most recent day of trading prior to the Redemption Date) of the fractional share of Common Stock otherwise issuable to such holder.

(b) Notice of Redemption and Conversion Following Merger. As promptly as practicable following the effective time of the Mergers, the Corporation shall give notice (or cause notice to be given) to each holder of Series A Preferred Stock of the conversion and redemption on the Redemption Date of such holder's shares of Series A Preferred Stock, which notice may include a letter of transmittal in such form as the Corporation determines appropriate for the surrender of the certificate(s) representing the shares of Series A Preferred Stock converted and redeemed pursuant to this Section 18 in exchange for the shares of Common Stock into which such shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall have been converted, and payment of the cash, if any, representing the fair value of any fractional share of Common Stock otherwise issuable to a holder following any such conversion and the aggregate Redemption Price for the shares of Series A Preferred Stock so redeemed. Such notice shall be given by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the holders of record of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock at their respective last addresses appearing on the books of the Corporation. Any notice mailed as provided in this Section 18(b) shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the holder receives such notice, but failure duly to give such notice by mail, or any defect in such notice or in the mailing thereof, to any holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock subject to conversion and redemption as provided in Section 18(a) hereof shall not affect the validity or effectiveness of the conversion or redemption of such holder's shares of Series A Preferred Stock or of any other shares of Series A Preferred Stock so converted and redeemed. Each notice of redemption and conversion given to a holder shall state the place or places where certificates representing shares of Series A Preferred Stock converted and redeemed pursuant to Section 18(a) hereof are to be surrendered in exchange for (x) a certificate representing the aggregate number of whole shares of Common Stock into which such shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall have been converted pursuant to Section 18(a) hereof and (y) payment of cash in an amount equal to the sum of (1) the aggregate Redemption Price for such shares of Series A Preferred Stock plus (2) the fair value of any fractional shares of Common Stock otherwise issuable to such holder as a result of the conversion of such holder's shares of Series A Preferred Stock into Common Stock. If the certificate(s) representing any shares of Series A Preferred Stock are alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the holder thereof shall surrender, in lieu of such certificate(s), an affidavit that such certificate(s) have been lost, stolen or destroyed and an indemnity or bond in an amount the Corporation determines to be sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate(s) or the issuance of any new certificate representing the shares of Common Stock into which such shares shall have been converted.

(c) Effectiveness of Redemption and Conversion. Notwithstanding that any certificate(s) representing shares of Series A Preferred Stock converted and redeemed pursuant to Section 18(a) hereof shall not have not been surrendered for cancellation and exchange, (i) from and after the effectiveness of the conversion of a holder's shares of Series A Preferred Stock on the Redemption Date, all shares of Series A Preferred Stock held by such holder and so converted shall cease to be outstanding (and shall cease to accrue dividends) and shall be cancelled and retired, and the holder of such shares shall have no further rights with respect to such shares, other than the right to receive the shares of Common Stock into which such shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall have been converted pursuant to Section 18(a) hereof (and payment of cash in an amount equal to the fair value of fractional shares of Common Stock otherwise issuable to such holder upon such conversion), upon compliance with the terms and conditions of this Section 18, and (ii) from and after the redemption of a holder's shares of Series A Preferred Stock on the Redemption Date, upon the earlier of such time as the Corporation shall have paid or set apart for payment the Redemption Price for such shares, all shares of Series A Preferred Stock held by such holder and so redeemed shall cease to be outstanding (and shall cease to accrue dividends) and shall be cancelled and retired, and the holder of such shares shall have no further rights with respect to such shares, other than the right to receive the Redemption Price thereof, without interest, upon compliance with the terms and conditions of this Section 18. At the time of the conversion and redemption provide by Section 18(a), until surrendered as provided herein, any certificate representing shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be deemed to represent only the shares of Common Stock into which such shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall have been converted and the right to receive payment of the fair value of any fractional share of Common Stock otherwise issuable upon any such conversion and of the aggregate Redemption Price for such shares of Series A Preferred Stock so redeemed.

(c) Matters Regarding the Merger Agreement. In the event of a conflict between this Section 18 and any other section of this Series A Certificate of Designations, this Section 18 shall prevail. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Series A Certificate of Designations, the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement shall not constitute a Change of Control, a Liquidation Event or a Deemed Liquidation Event for purposes hereof and shall be permitted without any right, consent, notice, entitlement or other procedural requirement arising out of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, except as set forth in this Section 18.

SECOND: The foregoing amendment was duly adopted by (i) the board of directors of the Corporation in accordance with the provisions of Section 242 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and (ii) the affirmative vote of holders representing not less than (a) a majority in voting power of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon and (b) a majority of the outstanding shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, in each case, in accordance with Section 242 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and the Series A Certificate of Designations.

Section 1.1 Offices. The Corporation may have offices at such places both within and without the State of Delaware as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

ARTICLE 2
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Place of Meeting. Meetings of the stockholders shall be held at such place, within the State of Delaware or elsewhere, as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors. If no place is so fixed for a meeting, it shall be held at the Corporation's then principal executive office.

Section 2.2 Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of stockholders shall be held, unless the Board of Directors shall fix some other hour or date therefor, at 10:00 o'clock A.M. on the third Wednesday of May in each year, if not a legal holiday under the laws of Rhode Island, and, if a legal holiday, then on the next succeeding secular day not a legal holiday under the laws of Rhode Island, at which the stockholders shall elect by plurality vote a Board of Directors, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 2.3 Notice of Annual Meetings. Written notice of the annual meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting, the means of remote communication, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting and the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, if such record date is different from the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of the meeting, shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting as of the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to notice of the meeting not less than 10 days nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting.

Section 2.4 List of Stockholders. The officer who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least 10 days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting; provided, however, if the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote is less than 10 days before the meeting date, the list shall reflect the stockholders entitled to vote as of the tenth day before the meeting date, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting for a period of at least 10 days prior to the meeting: (i) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that the information required to gain access to such list is provided with the notice of the meeting, or (ii) during ordinary business hours, at the principal place of business of the Corporation. If the meeting is to be held at a place, then the list shall be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present. If the meeting is to be held solely by means of remote communication, then the list shall also be open to the examination of any stockholder during the whole time of the meeting on a reasonably accessible electronic network, and the information required to access such list shall be provided with the notice of the meeting.

Section 2.5 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the stockholders, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation, may be called by the Chairman or the Vice Chairman and shall be called by the Chief Operating Officer or Secretary at the request in writing of a majority of the Board of Directors. Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting. Business transacted at any special meeting of stockholders shall be limited to the purposes stated in the Corporation's notice.

Written notice of a special meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting, the means of remote communication, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting, the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, if such record date is different from the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of the meeting, and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting as of the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to notice of the meeting not less than 10 days nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting.

Section 2.7 Quorum; Voting. The holders of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business except as otherwise provided by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified. If the adjournment is for more than thirty days, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting. When a quorum is present at any meeting, except for elections of directors, which shall be decided by plurality vote, the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock having voting power present in person or represented by proxy shall decide any question brought before such meeting, unless the question is one upon which by express provision of statute or of the Certificate of Incorporation, a different vote is required, in which case such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such question. Unless otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, each stockholder shall at every meeting of stockholders be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy for each share of the capital stock having voting power held by such stockholder, but no shares shall be voted pursuant to a proxy more than three years after the date of the proxy unless the proxy provides for a longer period.

Section 2.8 Action Without a Meeting. Unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and shall be delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in the State, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders are recorded. Delivery made to a corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. Every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each stockholder who signs the consent and no written consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless, within sixty days after the earliest dated consent delivered in the manner required by this Section to the corporation, written consents signed by a sufficient number of stockholders to take action are delivered in the manner required by this Section to the Corporation. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing and who, if the action had been taking at a meeting, would have been entitled to notice of the meeting if the record date for notice of such meeting had been the date that written consents signed by a sufficient number of holders or members to take the action were delivered to the Corporation as provided in this Section 2.08.

Section 2.9 Advance Notice of Nominations and Stockholder Business.

(a) Stockholder Business at Annual Meetings of Stockholders.

(1) At an annual meeting of stockholders, only such business (other than nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors, which must be made in compliance with and is governed exclusively by Section 2.09(c) of these By-Laws) shall be conducted at an annual meeting of the stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting (i) specified in the Corporation's notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) given by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, (ii) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (iii) by any stockholder of the Corporation who (x) was a stockholder of record at the time of giving of notice provided for in Section 2.09(a)(2) and at the time of the annual meeting, (y) is entitled to vote at the annual meeting and (z) complied with the notice procedures set forth in Section 2.09(a)(2). For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing clause (iii) of this Section 2.09(a)(1) shall be the exclusive means for a stockholder to propose such business (other than business included in the Corporation's proxy materials pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) before an annual meeting of stockholders.

(2) For business (other than nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors, which must be made in compliance with and is governed exclusively by Section 2.09(c) of these By-Laws) to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder pursuant to clause (iii) of paragraph (a)(1) of this Section 2.09, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in proper written form to the secretary of the Corporation and such business must otherwise be appropriate for stockholder action under the provisions of the laws of Delaware. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to the secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than 90 days and not more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the 120th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. In no event shall any adjournment, deferral or postponement of an annual meeting or the announcement thereof commence a new time period for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above. To be in proper written form, such stockholder's notice shall set forth as to each matter the stockholder proposes to bring before the annual meeting (i) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting (including the specific text of any resolutions or actions proposed for consideration and if such business includes a proposal to amend the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, the specific language of the proposed amendment) and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, (ii) the name and address, as they appear on the Corporation's books, of the stockholder proposing such business, the residence name and address (if different from the Corporation's books) of such proposing stockholder and any Stockholder Associated Person (defined below) covered by clauses (iii), (iv) and (vi) below, (iii) the class and number of shares of stock of the Corporation which are directly or indirectly held of record or beneficially owned by such stockholder and by any Stockholder Associated Person with respect to the Corporation's securities, a description of any derivative positions (including, without limitation, any short position, profits interest, option, warrant, convertible security, stock appreciation right, or similar right with an exercise or conversion privilege or a settlement payment or mechanism at a price related to any class or series of shares of the Corporation or with a value derived in whole or in part from the value of any class or series of shares of the Corporation, whether or not such instrument or right shall be subject to settlement in the underlying class or series of capital stock of the Corporation or otherwise and any performance-related fees to which such stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person is entitled based, directly or indirectly, on any increase or decrease in the value of shares of capital stock of the Corporation) held or beneficially held by the stockholder and any Stockholder Associated Person and whether and the extent to which a Hedging Transaction (as defined below) has been entered into by or on behalf of such stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person, (iv) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person and any other person or entity (including their names) in connection with the proposal of such business by such stockholder and any material interest of such stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person or such other person or entity in such business, (v) a representation that such stockholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the annual meeting to bring such business before the meeting, and (vi) a representation as to whether such stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person intends to deliver a proxy statement and/or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the Corporation's outstanding shares required to approve the proposal and/or otherwise to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of the proposal. In addition, any stockholder who submits a notice pursuant to this Section 2.09(a) is required to update and supplement the information disclosed in such notice, if necessary, in accordance with Section 2.09(d)(2). "Hedging Transaction" means, with respect to a stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person, any hedging or other transaction (such as borrowed or loaned shares) or series of transactions, or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding, the effect or intent of which is to increase or decrease the voting power of such stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person with respect to the Corporation's securities. "Stockholder Associated Person" of any stockholder means (x) any person controlling, directly or indirectly, or acting in concert with, such stockholder, (y) any beneficial owner of shares of stock of the Corporation owned of record or beneficially by such stockholder or (z) any person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with such Stockholder Associated Person.

(b) Stockholder Business at Special Meetings of Stockholders. Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting.

(c) Director Nominations.

(1) Except for directors who are elected by the Board of Directors pursuant to the provisions of Section 3.02 of these By-Laws, only persons shall be eligible for election to the Board of Directors who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 2.09(c).

(2) Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders only (i) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (ii) by any stockholder of the Corporation who (x) was a stockholder of record at the time of giving of notice provided for in Section 2.09(c)(3) and at the time of the annual meeting, (y) is entitled to vote at the annual meeting and (z) complied with the notice procedures set forth in Section 2.09(c)(3). For the avoidance of doubt, clause (ii) of this Section 2.09(c)(2) shall be the exclusive means for a stockholder to make nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors at an annual meeting of stockholders.

(3) To be timely, a stockholder's notice referred to in Section 2.09(c)(2) must have been delivered in proper written form to the secretary of the Corporation at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than 90 days and not more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the 120th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. In no event shall any adjournment, deferral or postponement of an annual meeting or the announcement thereof commence a new time period for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above. To be in proper written form, such stockholder's notice shall set forth (i) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election to the Board of Directors, (a) the name, age, business address and residence address of the person, (b) the principal occupation or employment of the person, (c) the class or series and number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation which are directly or indirectly owned beneficially or of record by the person, (d) the date such shares were acquired and the investment intent of such acquisition, and (e) any other information relating to the person that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for a contested election of directors (even if an election contest or proxy solicitation is not involved), or is otherwise required, pursuant to Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving if elected); and (ii) as to the stockholder giving the notice (u) the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, the residence name and address (if different from the Corporation's books) of such proposing stockholder and any Stockholder Associated Person covered by clauses (v), (w), (y) and (z) below, (v) the class and number of shares of stock of the Corporation which are directly or indirectly held of record or beneficially owned by such stockholder and by any Stockholder Associated Person with respect to the Corporation's securities, a description of any derivative positions (including, without limitation, any short position, profits interest, option, warrant, convertible security, stock appreciation right, or similar right with an exercise or conversion privilege or a settlement payment or mechanism at a price related to any class or series of shares of the Corporation or with a value derived in whole or in part from the value of any class or series of shares of the Corporation, whether or not such instrument or right shall be subject to settlement in the underlying class or series of capital stock of the Corporation or otherwise and any performance-related fees to which such stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person is entitled based, directly or indirectly, on any increase or decrease in the value of shares of capital stock of the Corporation) held or beneficially held by the stockholder and any Stockholder Associated Person and whether and the extent to which a Hedging Transaction has been entered into by or on behalf of such stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person, (w) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person and each proposed nominee and any other person or persons (including their names) pursuant to which the nomination(s) are to be made by such stockholder, (x) a representation that such stockholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the persons named in its notice, (y) any other information relating to such stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for a contested election of directors (even if an election contest or proxy solicitation is not involved), or is otherwise required, pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and (z) a representation as to whether such stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person intends to deliver a proxy statement and/or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the Corporation's outstanding capital stock required to approve the nomination and/or otherwise to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of the nomination. In addition, any stockholder who submits a notice pursuant to this Section 2.09(c)(3) is required to update and supplement the information disclosed in such notice, if necessary, in accordance with Section 2.09(d)(2).

(4) Notwithstanding anything in the first sentence of paragraph (c)(3) of this Section 2.09 to the contrary, in the event that the number of directors to be elected to the Board of Directors is increased and there is no public announcement naming all of the nominees for director or specifying the size of the increased Board of Directors made by the Corporation at least 100 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a stockholder's notice required by paragraph (c)(3) of this Section 2.09 shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for any new positions created by such increase, if it shall be delivered to the secretary of the Corporation at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation.

(5) Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at a special meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting only (i) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (ii) provided that the Board of Directors has determined that directors shall be elected at such special meeting, by any stockholder of the Corporation who (x) was a stockholder of record at the time of giving of notice provided for in Section 2.09(c)(6) and at the time of the special meeting, (y) is entitled to vote at the special meeting and (z) complied with the notice procedures set forth in Section 2.09(c)(6). For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing clause (ii) of this Section 2.09(c)(5) shall be the exclusive means for a stockholder to propose nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors at a special meeting of stockholders.

(6) Any nominations by stockholders at a special meeting of stockholders pursuant to Section 2.09(c)(5) must be made pursuant to timely notice in proper written form as described in this Section 2.09(c)(6) to the secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice referred to in Section 2.09(c)(5) must have been delivered in proper written form to the secretary of the Corporation at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not earlier than the 120th day prior to such special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such special meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement is made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at such meeting. In no event shall any adjournment, deferral or postponement of a special meeting or the announcement thereof commence a new time period for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above. To be in proper written form, such stockholder's notice shall set forth all of the information required by, and otherwise be in compliance with, the third sentence of paragraph (c)(3) of this Section 2.09. In addition, any stockholder who submits a notice pursuant to this Section 2.09(c)(6) is required to update and supplement the information disclosed in such notice, if necessary, in accordance with Section 2.09(d)(2).

(d) General.

(1) Except for directors who are elected by the Board of Directors pursuant to the provisions of Section 3.02 of these By-Laws, only such persons who are nominated in accordance and compliance with the procedures set forth in Section 2.09(c) of these By-Laws shall be eligible for election to the Board of Directors at a meeting of stockholders and only such other business (other than nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors, which is governed exclusively by Section 2.09(c) of these By-Laws) shall be conducted at an annual meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the annual meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 2.09(a). The presiding officer of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before an annual or special meeting was made in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 2.09 and, if any proposed nomination or business is not in compliance with this Section 2.09, to declare that such defective nomination or proposal be disregarded.

(2) Any stockholder who submits a notice of proposal for business or nomination for election pursuant to this Section 2.09 is required to update and supplement the information disclosed in such notice, if necessary, so that the information provided or required to be provided in such notice shall be true and correct as of the record date for providing notice of the meeting of stockholders and as of the date that is ten (10) business days prior to such meeting of the stockholders or any adjournment or postponement thereof, and such update and supplement shall be delivered to the secretary of the Corporation at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than five (5) business days after the record date for providing notice of the meeting of stockholders (in the case of the update and supplement required to be made as of such record date), and not later than eight (8) business days prior to the date for the meeting of stockholders or any adjournment or postponement thereof (in the case of the update and supplement required to be made as of ten (10) business days prior to the meeting of stockholders or any adjournment or postponement thereof).

(3) For purposes of this Section 2.09, "public announcement" shall mean disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press, Business Wire, PR Newswire or comparable news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Sections 13, 14, or 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.09, a stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of state law and of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this Section 2.09; provided, however, that any references in these By-Laws to the Exchange Act or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder are not intended to and shall not limit the requirements applicable to nominations or proposals as to any other business to be considered pursuant to Section 2.09(a), (b) and (c) of these By-Laws. Nothing in this Section 2.09 shall be deemed to affect any rights of stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Corporation's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act.

ARTICLE 3 DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Number and Term of Office. The number of directors of the Corporation shall be such number as shall be designated from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors and initially shall be two. The directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders, except as provided in Section 3.02 hereof. Each director elected shall hold office for a term of one year and shall serve until his successor is elected and qualified or until his earlier death, resignation or removal. Directors need not be stockholders.

Section 3.2 Vacancies. Vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and the directors so chosen shall hold office until the next annual election and until their successors are duly elected and shall qualify, unless sooner displaced. If there are no directors in office, then an election of directors may be held in the manner provided by statute. If, at the time of filling any vacancy or any newly created directorship, the directors then in office shall constitute less than a majority of the whole board (as constituted immediately prior to any such increase), the Court of Chancery may, upon application of any stockholder or stockholders holding at least 10 percent of the total number of the shares at the time outstanding having the right to vote for such directors, summarily order an election to be held to fill any such vacancies or newly created directorships, or to replace the directors chosen by the directors then in office.

Section 3.3 Resignations. Any director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors, the Chairman, the Chief Operating Officer, the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect at the time of receipt thereof or at any later time specified therein; and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 3.4 Direction of Management. The business of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of its Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these By-Laws directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 3.5 Place of Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either within or without the State of Delaware.

Section 3.6 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and place as shall from time to time be determined by the Board.

Section 3.7 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, the Vice Chairman or the Chief Executive Officer on 2 days' notice to each director; either personally (including telephone), or in the manner specified in Section 4.01; special meetings shall be called by the Chairman, the Vice Chairman or the Secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of two directors.

The act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof at which there is a quorum present shall be the act of the Board of Directors or such committee, as the case may be, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 3.9 Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board or committee.

Section 3.10 Participation in Meetings. One or more directors may participate in any meeting of the Board or committee thereof by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating can hear each other.

Section 3.11 Committees of Directors. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution, shall have and may exercise all of the powers and authority of the Board of Directors and may authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it, but no such committee shall have the power or authority in reference to amending the Certificate of Incorporation (except that a committee may, to the extent authorized in the resolution providing for the issuance of shares of stock adopted by the Board of Directors, fix any preferences or rights of such shares relating to dividends, redemption, dissolution, any distribution of assets of the Corporation or the conversion into, or the exchange of such shares for, shares of any other class or classes or any other series of the same or any other class or classes of stock of the Corporation), adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the stockholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the Corporation's property and assets, recommending to the stockholders a dissolution of the Corporation or a revocation of a dissolution, or amending the By-Laws of the Corporation; and, unless the resolution expressly so provides, no such committee shall have the power or authority to declare a dividend, to authorize the issuance of stock, or to adopt a certificate of ownership and merger. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section 6.1 Indemnification. Any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving while a director or officer of the Corporation at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, agent, fiduciary or other representative of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, shall be indemnified by the Corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, excise taxes and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding to the full extent permissible under Delaware law.

Section 6.2 Advances. Any person claiming indemnification within the scope of Section 6.01 shall be entitled to advances from the Corporation for payment of the expenses of defending actions against such person in the manner and to the full extent permissible under Delaware law.

Section 6.3 Procedure. On the request of any person requesting indemnification under Section 6.01, the Board of Directors or a committee thereof shall determine whether such indemnification is permissible or such determination shall be made by independent legal counsel if the Board or committee so directs or if the Board or committee is not empowered by statute to make such determination.

Section 6.4 Other Rights. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by this Article 6 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any insurance or other agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to actions in their official capacity and as to actions in another capacity while holding an office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

Section 6.5 Insurance. The Corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, agent, fiduciary or other representative of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of these By-laws.

ARTICLE 7
CERTIFICATES OF STOCK

Section 7.1 Stock Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate in the form prescribed by the Board of Directors signed on behalf of the Corporation by the Chairman or Vice Chairman or Chief Executive Officer or Chief Operating Officer or an Executive Vice President or Vice President and by the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer, or the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Corporation, representing the number of shares owned by him in the Corporation. Any or all signatures on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such person were such officer, transfer agent, or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 7.2 Lost Certificates. The Board of Directors may direct a new certificate or certificates to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate or certificates, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate or certificates, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 7.3 Transfers of Stock. Upon surrender to the Corporation or the transfer agent of the Corporation of a certificate for shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer, it shall be the duty of the Corporation to issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 7.4 Fixing Record Date. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may fix a record date for the purpose of determining the stockholders entitled to notice of any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock or for the purpose of any other lawful action. Such record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors and such record date shall not be (i) in the case of such a meeting of stockholders, more than 60 nor less than 10 days before the date of the meeting of stockholders, or (ii) in the case of consents in writing without a meeting, more than 10 days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, or (iii) in other cases, more than 60 days prior to the payment or allotment or change, conversion or exchange or other action. If the board of directors fixes a record date to determine the stockholders entitled to notice of any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, such date shall also be the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting unless the board of directors determines, at the time it fixes such record date, that a later date on or before the date of the meeting shall be the date for making such determination. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting, and in such case shall also fix as the record date for stockholders entitled to notice of such adjourned meeting the same or an earlier date as that fixed for determination of stockholders entitled to vote in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 7.04 at the adjourned meeting.

Section 7.5 Registered Stockholders. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of stock to receive dividends and to vote as such owner, and shall be entitled to hold liable for calls and assessments a person registered on its books as the owner of stock, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to, or interest in, such stock on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by the laws of Delaware.

(s) Except as expressly set forth herein or in the other Notes Documents, with respect to any provision in this Indenture or the other Notes Documents that requires (i) any document or item to be satisfactory or acceptable to “the Controlling Parties” or (ii) any matter to be subject to the agreement, consent or approval of (or consultation with or the instruction or direction from) “the Controlling Parties”, (A) if neither the GS Disposition Date nor the Ares Disposition Date has occurred, such requirement shall be satisfied if and only if such document or item is satisfactory or acceptable to, or such agreement, approval or consent has been received from (or such consultation has been made with or such instruction or direction has been received from), both the GS Purchasers and the Ares Purchasers, (B) if the Ares Disposition Date has occurred but the GS Disposition Date has not occurred, such requirement shall be satisfied if and only if such document or item is satisfactory or acceptable to, or such agreement, approval or consent has been received from (or such consultation has been made with or such instruction or direction has been received from), the GS Purchasers, (C) if the GS Disposition Date has occurred but the Ares Disposition Date has not occurred, such requirement shall be satisfied if and only if such document or item is satisfactory or acceptable to, or such agreement, approval or consent has been received from (or such consultation has been made with or such instruction or direction has been received from), the Ares Purchasers and (D) if the Sell-Down Date has occurred, such requirement shall be satisfied if and only if such document, item or matter is satisfactory or acceptable to, or such agreement, approval or consent has been received from (or such consultation has been made with or such instruction or direction has been received from), the Required Holders.

(t) Notwithstanding clause (s) of this Section 1.02, except as expressly set forth herein or in the other Notes Documents, with respect to any provision in this Indenture or the other Notes Documents permitting any action to be taken, or request or instruction to be made, by “any Controlling Party” or “any of the Controlling Parties”, (i) if neither the GS Disposition Date nor the Ares Disposition Date has occurred, such action may be taken, or such request or instruction may be made, by any or all of the Purchasers, (ii) if the Ares Disposition Date has occurred but the GS Disposition Date has not occurred, such action may be taken, or such request or instruction may be made, by any or all of the GS Purchasers, (iii) if the GS Disposition Date has occurred but the Ares Disposition Date has not occurred, such action may be taken, or such request or instruction may be made, by any or all of the Ares Purchasers and (iv) if the Sell-Down Date has occurred, such action may be taken, or such request or instruction may be made, by the Required Holders.

(u) Except as expressly set forth herein, (i) with respect to any provision in this Indenture that requires (A) any document or item to be satisfactory or acceptable to the Designated First Lien Representative or (B) any matter to be subject to the agreement, consent or approval of the Designated First Lien Representative, such requirement shall be satisfied if and only if the corresponding document or item under the applicable First Lien Loan Documents is satisfactory or acceptable to, or the corresponding agreement, approval or consent under the applicable First Lien Loan Documents has been received from, the Designated First Lien Representative for purposes of the applicable First Lien Loan Documents and (ii) with respect to any provision in this Indenture permitting any action to be taken, or request or instruction to be made, by the Designated First Lien Representative under this Indenture, such action, request or instruction shall be deemed to have been taken or made, as applicable, for purposes of this Indenture if and only if the Designated First Lien Representative has taken the corresponding action, or made the corresponding request or instruction, under the applicable First Lien Loan Documents; provided that notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in this Indenture, nothing in this Indenture purports to grant any rights to, or impose any obligations on, the Designated First Lien Representative under this Indenture.

Section 1.03 Accounting Terms. All accounting terms not specifically or completely defined herein shall be construed in conformity with, and all financial data (including financial ratios and other financial calculations) required to be submitted pursuant to this Indenture shall be prepared in conformity with, GAAP, except as otherwise specifically prescribed herein. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all such financial statements shall be prepared without giving effect to any election under FASB ASC 825 (or any similar accounting principle) permitting a Person to value its financial liabilities at the fair value thereof. Notwithstanding any other provision contained herein, (a) any obligation of any Person that would have been treated as an operating lease for purposes of GAAP as of December 14, 2018 (whether or not such obligation was in effect on such date) shall be accounted for as an operating lease for purposes of this Indenture, notwithstanding any actual or proposed change in GAAP (whether on a prospective or retroactive basis) after such date and shall not be treated as Indebtedness, Attributable Indebtedness or a Capitalized Lease and (b) all terms of an accounting or financial nature used herein shall be construed, and all computations of amounts and ratios referred to herein shall be made, without giving effect to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards 141R or ASC 805 (or any other financial accounting standard having a similar result or effect).

Section 1.04 Rounding. Any financial ratios required to be maintained by the Parent Issuer pursuant to this Indenture (or required to be satisfied in order for a specific action to be permitted under this Indenture) shall be calculated by dividing the appropriate component by the other component, carrying the result to one place more than the number of places by which such ratio is expressed herein and rounding the result up or down to the nearest number (with a rounding up if there is no nearest number).

Section 1.05 References to Agreements, Laws, Etc. Unless otherwise expressly provided herein, (a) references to Organization Documents, agreements (including the Notes Documents, the ABL Financing Documents and the First Lien Loan Documents) and other Contractual Obligations shall be deemed to include all subsequent amendments, restatements, refinancings, extensions, supplements and other modifications thereto, but only to the extent that such amendments, restatements, refinancings, extensions, supplements and other modifications are not prohibited by any Notes Document; and (b) references to any Law shall include all statutory and regulatory provisions consolidating, amending, replacing, supplementing or interpreting such Law. Any term or section reference herein or in the other Notes Documents which refers to a defined term or section reference in any Organization Document, agreement, Contractual Obligation or Law shall be deemed to be a cross-reference to the same or comparable defined term or section reference, as applicable, in any such amendment, Refinancing, restatement, renewal, restructuring, extension, supplement or other modification to such Organization Document, agreement, Contractual Obligation or any such consolidation, amendment, replacement, supplement or interpretation of such Law.

Section 1.06 Times of Day. Unless otherwise specified, all references herein to times of day shall be references to New York, New York time (daylight or standard, as applicable).

Section 1.07 Timing of Payment or Performance. Except as otherwise provided in this Indenture or any other applicable Notes Document, when the payment of any obligation or the performance of any covenant, duty or obligation is stated to be due or performance required on a day which is not a Business Day, the date of such payment or performance shall extend to the immediately succeeding Business Day.

Section 1.08 Pro Forma Calculations.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, financial ratios and tests, including the Total Net Leverage Ratio, the Senior Secured Net Leverage Ratio, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio, the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio and compliance with covenants determined by reference to Consolidated EBITDA or Total Assets, shall be calculated in the manner prescribed by this Section 1.08; provided that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in clauses (b), (c), (d) or (e) of this Section 1.08, when calculating any such ratio or test for purposes of the incurrence of any Indebtedness, cash and Cash Equivalents resulting from the incurrence of such Indebtedness shall be excluded from the pro forma calculation of any applicable ratio or test for purposes of determining net Indebtedness. In addition, whenever a financial ratio or test is to be calculated on a pro forma basis, the reference to the “Test Period” for purposes of calculating such financial ratio or test shall be deemed to be a reference to, and shall be based on, the most recently ended Test Period for which internal financial statements of the Parent Issuer are available (as determined in good faith by the Parent Issuer).

(b) For purposes of calculating any financial ratio or test or compliance with any covenant determined by reference to Consolidated EBITDA or Total Assets, Specified Transactions (with any incurrence or repayment of any Indebtedness in connection therewith to be subject to clause (d) of this Section 1.08 (other than Indebtedness incurred or repaid under any revolving credit facility or line of credit)) that have been made (i) during the applicable Test Period or (ii) subsequent to such Test Period and prior to or simultaneously with the event for which the calculation of any such ratio is made shall be calculated on a pro forma basis assuming that all such Specified Transactions (and any increase or decrease in Consolidated EBITDA, Total Assets and the component financial definitions used therein attributable to any Specified Transaction) had occurred on the first day of the applicable Test Period (or, in the case of Total Assets, on the last day of the applicable Test Period). If since the beginning of any applicable Test Period any Person that subsequently became a Restricted Subsidiary or was merged, amalgamated or consolidated with or into the Parent Issuer or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries since the beginning of such Test Period shall have made any Specified Transaction that would have required adjustment pursuant to this Section 1.08, then such financial ratio or test (or Consolidated EBITDA or Total Assets) shall be calculated to give pro forma effect thereto in accordance with this Section 1.08.

(c) Whenever pro forma effect is to be given to the Transactions, a Specified Transaction or the implementation of an operational initiative or operational change, the pro forma calculations shall be made in good faith by a responsible financial or accounting officer of the Parent Issuer and may include, for the avoidance of doubt, the amount of “run-rate” cost savings, operating expense reductions, operating initiatives, other operating improvements and synergies projected by the Parent Issuer in good faith to be realized as a result of specified actions taken, committed to be taken or expected to be taken (in the good faith determination of the Parent Issuer) (calculated on a pro forma basis as though such cost savings, operating expense reductions, operating initiatives, other operating improvements and synergies had been realized on the first day of such period and as if such cost savings, operating expense reductions and synergies were realized during the entirety of such period) and “run-rate” means the full recurring benefit for a period that is associated with any action taken, committed to be taken or with respect to which substantial steps have been taken or are expected to be taken (including any savings expected to result from the elimination of a public target’s compliance costs with public company requirements) net of the amount of actual benefits realized during such period from such actions, and any such adjustments shall be included in the initial pro forma calculations of such financial ratios or tests and during any subsequent Test Period in which the effects thereof are expected to be realized relating to the Transactions, such Specified Transaction or such implementation of an operational initiative or operational change; provided that (A) such amounts are reasonably identifiable and factually supportable in the good faith judgment of the Parent Issuer, (B) except as set forth in the definition of “Consolidated EBITDA”, such actions are taken, committed to be taken or with respect to which substantial steps have been taken or are expected to be taken no later than twenty-four (24) months after the date of the Transactions, such Specified Transaction or implementation of such operational initiative or operational change, (C) no amounts shall be added pursuant to this clause (c) to the extent duplicative of any amounts that are otherwise added back in computing Consolidated EBITDA (or any other components thereof), whether through a pro forma adjustment or otherwise, with respect to such period, (D) it is understood and agreed that, subject to compliance with the other provisions of this Section 1.08(c), amounts to be included in pro forma calculations pursuant to this Section 1.08(c) may be included in Test Periods in which the Specified Transaction to which such amounts relate to is no longer being given pro forma effect pursuant to Section 1.08(b) and (E) any increase in Consolidated EBITDA as a result of cost savings, operating expense reductions, operating initiatives, other operating improvements and synergies pursuant to this Section 1.08(c) (other than related to the Transactions) shall be subject to the limitations set forth in clause (a)(vii) of the definition of Consolidated EBITDA.

(d) In the event that (w) the Parent Issuer or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries incurs (including by assumption or guarantees) or repays (including by redemption, repayment, amortization, retirement, discharge, defeasance or extinguishment) any Indebtedness (other than Indebtedness incurred or repaid under any revolving credit facility or line of credit), (x) the Parent Issuer or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries issues, repurchases or redeems Disqualified Equity Interests, (y) any Restricted Subsidiary issues, repurchases or redeems Preferred Stock or (z) the Parent Issuer or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries establishes or eliminates (or designates or undesignates) any Designated Revolving Commitments, in each case included in the calculations of any financial ratio or test, (i) during the applicable Test Period or (ii) subsequent to the end of the applicable Test Period and prior to or simultaneously with the event for which the calculation of any such ratio is made, then such financial ratio or test shall be calculated giving pro forma effect to such incurrence or repayment of Indebtedness, or such issuance or redemption of Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock, in each case to the extent required, as if the same had occurred on the last day of the applicable Test Period (except in the case of the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio (or similar ratio), in which case such incurrence, assumption, guarantee, redemption, repayment, retirement, discharge, defeasance or extinguishment of Indebtedness or such issuance, repurchase or redemption of Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock will be given effect, as if the same had occurred on the first day of the applicable Test Period) and for all purposes, such financial ratio or test shall be calculated giving pro forma effect to the full amount of any undrawn Designated Revolving Commitments as if such full amount of Indebtedness thereunder had been incurred thereunder throughout such period.

(e) If any Indebtedness bears a floating rate of interest and is being given pro forma effect, the interest on such Indebtedness shall be calculated as if the rate in effect on the date of the event for which the calculation of the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio (or similar ratio) is made had been the applicable rate for the entire period (taking into account any interest hedging arrangements applicable to such Indebtedness). Interest on a Capitalized Lease Obligation shall be deemed to accrue at an interest rate reasonably determined by a Financial Officer of the Parent Issuer to be the rate of interest implicit in such Capitalized Lease Obligation in accordance with GAAP. Interest on Indebtedness that may optionally be determined at an interest rate based upon a factor of a prime or similar rate, a eurocurrency rate interbank offered rate, or other rate, shall be determined to have been based upon the rate actually chosen, or if none, then based upon such optional rate chosen as the Parent Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiaries may designate.

(f) (I) In connection with the calculation of the Total Net Leverage Ratio, the Senior Secured Net Leverage Ratio, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio or the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio for purposes of incurring Indebtedness (including Preferred Stock) or Disqualified Equity Interests under this Indenture, no effect (pro forma or otherwise) shall be given to any Indebtedness (or Preferred Stock) or Disqualified Equity Interests being incurred (or commitments obtained) on the same date (or on a such other subsequent date which otherwise require Pro Forma Effect to be given to such incurrence (or obtaining of commitments)) pursuant to any fixed dollar basket or basket based on Consolidated EBITDA; and (II) in connection with the calculation of the Total Net Leverage Ratio, the Senior Secured Net Leverage Ratio, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio or the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio for purposes of incurring any Lien under this Indenture, no effect (pro forma or otherwise) shall be given to any Liens being incurred on the same date (or on a such other subsequent date which otherwise require Pro Forma Effect to be given to such incurrence) pursuant to any fixed dollar basket or basket based on Consolidated EBITDA.

(g) Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture or any Notes Document to the contrary, when (a) determining compliance with any provision of this Indenture which requires the calculation of the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio, the Senior Secured Net Leverage Ratio or the Total Net Leverage Ratio, (b) determining compliance with any provision of this Indenture which requires that no Default or Event of Default has occurred, is continuing or would result therefrom, (c) determining compliance with any provision of this Indenture which requires compliance with any representations and warranties set forth herein or (d) testing availability under baskets set forth in this Indenture (including baskets measured as a percentage of Consolidated EBITDA), in each case in connection with a Limited Condition Transaction, the date of determination of such ratio or other provisions, determination of whether any Default or Event of Default has occurred, is continuing or would result therefrom, determination of compliance with any representations or warranties or the availability under any baskets shall, at the option of the Parent Issuer (the Parent Issuer's election to exercise such option in connection with any Limited Condition Transaction, an "LCT Election", which LCT Election may be in respect of one or more of clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) above), be deemed to be the date the definitive agreements (or other relevant definitive documentation) for such Limited Condition Transaction are entered into (the "LCT Test Date"). If on a pro forma basis after giving effect to such Limited Condition Transaction and the other transactions to be entered into in connection therewith (including any incurrence or issuance of Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock and the use of proceeds thereof), with such ratios and other provisions calculated as if such Limited Condition Transaction or other transactions had occurred at the beginning of the most recent Test Period ending prior to the LCT Test Date for which internal financial statements are available (as determined in good faith by the Parent Issuer), the Parent Issuer could have taken such action on the relevant LCT Test Date in compliance with the applicable ratios, default provisions or other provisions, such ratios, default provisions or other provisions shall be deemed to have been complied with on such date. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) if, following the LCT Test Date, any of such ratios, default provisions or other provisions are exceeded or breached as a result of fluctuations in such ratio (including due to fluctuations in Consolidated EBITDA or other components of such ratio (including due to fluctuations of the Target of any Limited Condition Transaction, including its cash and Cash Equivalents or the amount of such Indebtedness)) or other provisions at or prior to the consummation of the relevant Limited Condition Transaction, such ratios, default provisions or other provisions will not be deemed to have been exceeded or failed to have been satisfied as a result of such fluctuations solely for purposes of determining whether the Limited Condition Transaction is permitted hereunder and (ii) such ratios and compliance with such conditions shall not be tested at the time of consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction or related Specified Transactions. If the Parent Issuer has made an LCT Election for any Limited Condition Transaction, then in connection with any subsequent calculation of any ratio, basket availability or compliance with any other provision hereunder on or following the relevant LCT Test Date and prior to the earliest of the date on which such Limited Condition Transaction is consummated and the date that the definitive agreement for such Limited Condition Transaction is terminated or expires without consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction, any such ratio, basket or compliance with any other provision hereunder shall be calculated on a pro forma basis assuming such Limited Condition Transaction and other transactions in connection therewith (including any incurrence or issuance of Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock, and the use of proceeds thereof) had been consummated on the LCT Test Date; provided that for purposes of any such calculation of the Fixed Charges Coverage Ratio, Fixed Charges will be calculated using an assumed interest rate for the Indebtedness to be incurred in connection with such Limited Condition Transaction based on the indicative interest margin contained in any financing commitment documentation with respect to such Indebtedness or, if no such indicative interest margin exists, as reasonably determined by the Parent Issuer in good faith.

Section 1.09 Currency Generally. For purposes of determining compliance with Sections 4.01, 4.03, 4.05, 4.06 and 4.13 and the definition of "Permitted Investments" with respect to any amount of Indebtedness or Investment in a currency other than Dollars, no Default shall be deemed to have occurred solely as a result of changes in rates of currency exchange occurring after the time such Indebtedness or Investment is incurred (so long as such Indebtedness or Investment, at the time incurred, made or acquired, was permitted hereunder).

For purposes of determining the Senior Secured Net Leverage Ratio, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio, the Total Net Leverage Ratio or any other leverage-based ratio or test under this Indenture, the amount of Indebtedness shall reflect the currency translation effects, determined in accordance with GAAP, of Swap Contracts permitted hereunder for currency exchange risks with respect to the applicable currency in effect on the date of determination of the Dollar equivalent of such Indebtedness

Section 1.10 LIBOR Discontinuation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in the other Notes Documents, if, with respect to any Interest Period, the rate of interest used to calculate the “Adjusted LIBOR Rate” for such Interest Period is not available on the Determination Date for such Interest Period for any reason (as determined by the Calculation Agent), then the rate of interest used to calculate the “Adjusted LIBOR Rate” for such Interest Period shall be (I) at any time prior to the Sell-Down Date, a comparable or successor floating rate reasonably acceptable to the Parent Issuer and the Controlling Parties and certified in an Officer’s Certificate delivered to the Trustee and the Calculation Agent and (II) at any time from and after the Sell-Down Date, a comparable or successor floating rate that is, at such time, broadly accepted by the syndicated loan market for loans denominated in Dollars as determined by the Parent Issuer (and certified in an Officer’s Certificate delivered to the Trustee and the Calculation Agent) or, if no such broadly accepted comparable successor rate exists at such time, a successor index rate as the Parent Issuer may determine with the consent of the Required Holders (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) and certified in an Officer’s Certificate delivered to the Trustee and the Calculation Agent; provided that (i) any such successor rate shall be applied by the Trustee in a manner consistent with market practice, (ii) to the extent such market practice is not administratively feasible for the Trustee, such successor rate shall be applied in a manner as otherwise reasonably determined by the Trustee, without recourse or liability, in consultation with the Parent Issuer, which shall be binding upon the Holders and certified in an Officer’s Certificate delivered to the Trustee and the Calculation Agent and (iii) in no event shall such successor floating rate be less than 0.00% per annum. In the event that the Trustee and Calculation Agent have not received an Officer’s Certificate of the Parent Issuer establishing a successor rate by the date which is five (5) Business Days prior to an Interest Payment Date, then the Adjusted LIBOR Rate in effect for the Interest Period to which such Interest Payment Date relates shall be the Adjusted LIBOR Rate that applied for the immediately preceding Interest Period.

THE NOTES

Section 2.01 Form and Dating.

(a) General. The Notes and the Trustee's certificate of authentication will be substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto. The Notes may have notations, legends or endorsements required by law, stock exchange rule or usage. Each Note will be dated the date of its authentication. The Notes shall be issued in minimum denominations of $1.00 and any integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof. The terms and provisions contained in the Notes will constitute, and are hereby expressly made, a part of this Indenture and the Issuers, the Guarantors, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent, by their execution and delivery of this Indenture, expressly agree to such terms and provisions and to be bound thereby. However, to the extent any provision of any Note conflicts with the express provisions of this Indenture, the provisions of this Indenture shall govern and be controlling.

(b) Global Notes. Notes issued in global form will be substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto (including the Global Note Legend thereon and the "Schedule of Exchanges of Interests in the Global Note" attached thereto). Notes issued in definitive form will be substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto (but without the Global Note Legend thereon and without the "Schedule of Increases or Decreases in the Global Note" attached thereto). Each Global Note will represent such of the outstanding Notes as will be specified therein and each shall provide that it represents the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes from time to time endorsed thereon and that the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes represented thereby may from time to time be reduced or increased, as appropriate, to reflect exchanges, redemptions and PIK Payments. Any endorsement of a Global Note to reflect the amount of any increase or decrease in the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes represented thereby shall be made by the Trustee or the Notes Custodian, at the direction of the Trustee, in accordance with Section 2.06(h) (or, in the case of any increase resulting from a PIK Payment, in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Indenture (including Section 2.01(e)) and the Notes).

(c) [reserved]

(d) Euroclear and Clearstream Procedures Applicable. The provisions of the "Operating Procedures of the Euroclear System" and "Terms and Conditions Governing Use of Euroclear" and the "General Terms and Conditions of Clearstream Banking" and "Customer Handbook" of Clearstream shall be applicable to transfers of beneficial interests in the Regulation S Global Notes that are held by Participants through Euroclear or Clearstream.

(e) PIK Payments. If the Parent Issuer is permitted to exercise the 100% PIK Option or 50% PIK Option for any Interest Period and does so exercise the 100% PIK Option or 50% PIK Option with respect to such Interest Period, the Parent Issuer shall pay the applicable amount of PIK Interest for such Interest Period in respect of each outstanding Note on the Interest Payment Date in respect of such Interest Period by increasing the principal amount of each such outstanding Note at the end of such Interest Period by an amount equal to the PIK Interest applicable to each such outstanding Note (rounded up to the nearest whole Dollar), and an adjustment shall be made by the Trustee, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, to reflect such increase, with respect to Global Notes, in the “Schedule of Increases or Decreases in the Global Note” and, with respect to Definitive Notes, on the books and records of the Trustee (a “PIK Payment”). Following any increase in the principal amount of the outstanding Notes as a result of a PIK Payment, the Notes will bear interest on such increased principal amount from and after the date of such PIK Payment. Unless the context otherwise requires, for all purposes under this Indenture (including for purposes of calculating any redemption price or redemption amount), references to the “principal” and the “principal amount” of any Notes includes any increase in the principal amount thereof due to the addition of PIK Interest thereto as a result of any PIK Payment. If the Parent Issuer is permitted to exercise the 100% PIK Option or 50% PIK Option for any Interest Period and desires to exercise the 100% PIK Option or 50% PIK Option for such Interest Period, the Parent Issuer must deliver a notice to the Trustee no later than the day that is fifteen days prior to the first day of such Interest Period, which notice (x) indicates which PIK Option is being exercised for such Interest Period and (y) certifies that the Parent Issuer is permitted to exercise such PIK Option for such Interest Period pursuant to the terms of the Indenture and the Notes and is so exercising such PIK Option for such Interest Period (such notice, a “PIK Notice”); provided that, with respect to the Interest Period commencing on and including the Closing Date and to but excluding November 6, 2019, (i) a PIK Notice indicating that the 100% PIK Option is being exercised and certifying that the Parent Issuer is permitted to exercise such PIK Option for such Interest Period shall be deemed to have been delivered to the Trustee in accordance with the procedures described in this Section 2.01(e) and the Notes and (ii) the 100% PIK Option shall be deemed to have been validly exercised for such Interest Period.

Section 2.02 Execution and Authentication. One Responsible Officer of each Issuer shall sign the Notes for each Issuer by manual, facsimile or pdf signature. If the Responsible Officer whose signature is on a Note no longer holds that office at the time the Trustee authenticates the Note, the Note shall be valid nevertheless.

A Note shall not be valid until an authorized officer of the Trustee manually authenticates the Note. The signature of the Trustee on a Note shall be conclusive evidence that such Note has been duly and validly authenticated and issued under this Indenture. A Note shall be dated the date of its authentication.

The Trustee will, upon receipt of a written order of the Parent Issuer signed by one Responsible Officer of the Parent Issuer (an “Issuer Order”), authenticate Notes for original issue that may be validly issued under this Indenture. On the Closing Date, the Trustee shall, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, authenticate and deliver Notes in an aggregate principal amount of $400,000,000. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture or any other Notes Document, the aggregate principal amount of the Notes that may be issued, authenticated and delivered under this Indenture may not exceed $400,000,000 (provided that nothing in this sentence will restrict the making of PIK Payments or the issuance of any Notes pursuant to Sections 2.06 or 2.07; provided further that in no event shall the aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding at any time under this Indenture exceed $400,000,000 (exclusive of PIK Payments)). The immediately preceding sentence is referred to in this Indenture as the “Closed Indenture Provision”.

The Trustee may appoint an agent (the “Authenticating Agent”) reasonably acceptable to the Parent Issuer to authenticate the Notes. Unless limited by the terms of such appointment, any such Authenticating Agent may authenticate Notes whenever the Trustee may do so. Each reference in this Indenture to authentication by the Trustee includes authentication by the Authenticating Agent. An Authenticating Agent has the same rights as any Registrar, Paying Agent or agent for service of notices and demands.

Section 2.03 Registrar, Transfer Agent and Paying Agent. The Parent Issuer shall maintain an office or agency where Notes may be presented for registration (the “Registrar”), an office or agency where Notes may be presented for transfer or for exchange (the “Transfer Agent”) and an office or agency where Notes may be presented for payment (the “Paying Agent”). The Registrar shall keep a register of the Notes (including the principal amount thereof and stated interest payable thereon) and of their transfer and exchange (the “Notes Register”). The registered Holder will be treated as the owner of the Notes for all purposes. Only registered Holders will have rights under this Indenture and the Notes. The Parent Issuer may have one or more co-registrars, one or more co-transfer agents and one or more additional paying agents. The term “Paying Agent” includes any additional paying agent and the term “Registrar” includes any co-registrar.

The Parent Issuer shall notify the Trustee in writing of the name and address of any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Registrar not a party to this Indenture. If the Parent Issuer fails to maintain a Registrar, Transfer Agent or Paying Agent, the Trustee shall act as such. The Parent Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries may act as Paying Agent, Registrar or Transfer Agent.

The Parent Issuer initially appoints The Depository Trust Company, its nominees and successors (“DTC”) to act as Depository with respect to the Global Notes. The Parent Issuer initially appoints the Trustee as the Registrar, Transfer Agent and Paying Agent for the Notes and the Parent Issuer may remove any Registrar, Transfer Agent or Paying Agent without prior notice to the Holders, but upon written notice to such Registrar, Transfer Agent or Paying Agent and to the Trustee; provided, however, that no such removal shall become effective until (i) acceptance of any appointment by a successor as evidenced by an appropriate agreement entered into by the Parent Issuer and such successor Registrar, Transfer Agent or Paying Agent, as the case may be, and delivered to the Trustee and the passage of any waiting or notice periods required by DTC procedures or (ii) written notification to the Trustee that the Trustee shall serve as Registrar, Transfer Agent or Paying Agent until the appointment of a successor in accordance with clause (i) above. The Registrar, Transfer Agent or Paying Agent may resign at any time upon written notice to the Parent Issuer and the Trustee.

Section 2.04 Paying Agent to Hold Money in Trust. Prior to 11:00 a.m. New York City time, on each due date of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Note is due and payable, the Parent Issuer shall deposit with the Paying Agent a sum sufficient in immediately available funds to pay such principal, premium or interest when due. The Parent Issuer shall require the Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) to agree in writing that such Paying Agent shall hold in trust for the benefit of Holders or the Trustee all money held by such Paying Agent for the payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Notes (whether such assets have been distributed to it by an Issuer or other obligors on the Notes), shall notify the Trustee in writing of any default by the Parent Issuer or any Guarantor in making any such payment and shall during the continuance of any default by an Issuer (or any other obligor upon the Notes) or any Guarantor in the making of any payment in respect of the Notes, upon the written request of the Trustee, forthwith deliver to the Trustee all sums held in trust by such Paying Agent for payment in respect of the Notes together with a full accounting thereof. If the Parent Issuer or a subsidiary of the Parent Issuer acts as Paying Agent, it shall segregate the money held by it as Paying Agent and hold it as a separate trust fund. The Parent Issuer at any time may require a Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) to pay all money held by it to the Trustee and to account for any funds or assets disbursed by such Paying Agent. Upon complying with this Section 2.04, the Paying Agent (if other than the Parent Issuer or a subsidiary of the Parent Issuer) shall have no further liability for the money delivered to the Trustee. Upon any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or similar proceeding with respect to the Parent Issuer, the Trustee shall serve as Paying Agent for the Notes.

Section 2.05 Holder Lists. The Trustee shall preserve in as current a form as is reasonably practicable the most recent list available to it of the names and addresses of Holders. If the Trustee is not the Registrar, the Parent Issuer shall furnish, or cause the Registrar to furnish, to the Trustee in writing at least three Business Days before each Interest Payment Date and at such other times as the Trustee may request in writing, a list in such form and as of such date as the Trustee may reasonably require of the names and addresses of Holders and the Parent Issuer.

Section 2.06 Transfer and Exchange.

(a) Transfer and Exchange of Global Notes. A Global Note may not be transferred except as a whole by the Depository to a nominee of the Depository, by a nominee of the Depository to the Depository or to another nominee of the Depository, or by the Depository or any such nominee to a successor Depository or a nominee of such successor Depository. A beneficial interest in a Global Note may not be exchanged for a Definitive Note unless:

(1) the Parent Issuer delivers to the Trustee notice from the Depository that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depository or that it is no longer a clearing agency registered under the Exchange Act and, in either case, a successor Depository is not appointed by the Parent Issuer within 120 days after the date of such notice from the Depository; or

(2) there has occurred and is continuing an Event of Default with respect to the Notes and (i) a Holder requests that its Global Note be exchanged for one or more Definitive Notes or (ii) a Beneficial Owner of Notes requests that its beneficial interest in a Global Note be exchanged for a Definitive Note.

Upon the occurrence of any of the preceding events in clause (1) or (2) above, Definitive Notes delivered in exchange for any Global Note or beneficial interests therein shall be registered in the names, and issued in any authorized denomination, requested by or on behalf of the Depositary (in accordance with its customary procedures). Global Notes also may be exchanged or replaced, in whole or in part, as provided in Sections 2.07 and 2.09. Every Note authenticated and delivered in exchange for, or in lieu of, a Global Note or any portion thereof, pursuant to this Section 2.06 or Section 2.07 or 2.09, shall be authenticated and delivered in the form of, and shall be, a Global Note, except for Definitive Notes issued subsequent to any of the events in clause (1) or (2) above and pursuant to Section 2.06(b)(2)(B) and Section 2.06(c). A Global Note may not be exchanged for another Note other than as provided in this Section 2.06(a); provided, however, beneficial interests in a Global Note may be transferred and exchanged as provided in Section 2.06(b) or (c).

(b) Transfer and Exchange of Beneficial Interests in the Global Notes. The transfer and exchange of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will be effected through the Depositary, in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture and the Applicable Procedures. Beneficial interests in the Restricted Global Notes will be subject to restrictions on transfer comparable to those set forth herein to the extent required by the Securities Act. Transfers of beneficial interests in the Global Notes also will require compliance with either subparagraph (1) or (2) below, as applicable, as well as one or more of the other following subparagraphs, as applicable:

(1) Transfer of Beneficial Interests in the Same Global Note. Beneficial interests in any Restricted Global Note may be transferred to Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in the same Restricted Global Note in accordance with the transfer restrictions set forth in the Private Placement Legend; provided, however, that prior to the expiration of the Restricted Period, transfers of beneficial interests in the Regulation S Global Note may not be made to a U.S. Person or for the account or benefit of a U.S. Person (other than to any Purchaser or pursuant to Rule 144A). Beneficial interests in any Unrestricted Global Note may be transferred to Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note. No written orders or instructions shall be required to be delivered to the Registrar to effect the transfers described in this Section 2.06(b)(1).

(2) All Other Transfers and Exchanges of Beneficial Interests in Global Notes. In connection with all transfers and exchanges of beneficial interests that are not subject to Section 2.06(b)(1), the transferor of such beneficial interest must deliver to the Registrar either:

(A) both:

(i) a written order from a Participant or an Indirect Participant given to the Depositary in accordance with the Applicable Procedures directing the Depositary to credit or cause to be credited a beneficial interest in another Global Note in an amount equal to the beneficial interest to be transferred or exchanged; and

(ii) instructions given in accordance with the Applicable Procedures containing information regarding the Participant account to be credited with such increase; or

(B) both:

(i) a written order from a Participant or an Indirect Participant given to the Depositary in accordance with the Applicable Procedures directing the Depositary to cause to be issued a Definitive Note in an amount equal to the beneficial interest to be transferred or exchanged; and

(ii) instructions given by the Depositary to the Registrar containing information regarding the Person in whose name such Definitive Note shall be registered to effect the transfer or exchange referred to in clause (i) above;

provided that in no event shall Definitive Notes be issued upon the transfer or exchange of beneficial interests in the Regulation S Global Note prior to (A) the expiration of the applicable Restricted Period and (B) the receipt by the Registrar of any certification of Beneficial Ownership required pursuant to Rule 903(b)(3)(ii)(B) under the Securities Act and in the form of Exhibit B or Exhibit C, as applicable, hereto. Upon satisfaction of all of the requirements for transfer or exchange of beneficial interests in Global Notes contained in this Indenture and the Notes or otherwise applicable under the Securities Act, the Trustee shall adjust the principal amount of the relevant Global Note(s) pursuant to Section 2.06(h).

(3) Transfer of Beneficial Interests to Another Restricted Global Note. A beneficial interest in any Restricted Global Note may be transferred to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in another Restricted Global Note if the transfer complies with the requirements of Section 2.06(b)(2) and the Registrar receives the following:

(A) if the transferee will take delivery in the form of a beneficial interest in the 144A Global Note, a certificate in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (1) thereof;

(B) if the transferee will take delivery in the form of a beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Note, a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (2) thereof; and

(C) if the transferee will take delivery in the form of a beneficial interest in the IAI Global Note, a certificate to the Registrar substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications, certificates and Opinion of Counsel required by item (3) thereof, if applicable.

(4) Transfer and Exchange of Beneficial Interests in a Restricted Global Note for Beneficial Interests in an Unrestricted Global Note. A beneficial interest in any Restricted Global Note may be exchanged by any holder thereof for a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note or transferred to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note if the exchange or transfer complies with the requirements of Section 2.06(b)(2) and:

(A) such Notes are sold or exchanged pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act; or

(B) the Registrar receives the following:

(i) if the holder of such beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note proposes to exchange such beneficial interest for a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note, a certificate from such holder substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto, including the certifications in item (1)(a) thereof; or

(ii) if the holder of such beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note proposes to transfer such beneficial interest to a Person who shall take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note, a certificate from such holder substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (4) thereof;

and, in each such case set forth in this subparagraph (4), if the Parent Issuer or Registrar so requests or if the Applicable Procedures so require, an Opinion of Counsel in form reasonably acceptable to the Parent Issuer and Registrar to the effect that such exchange or transfer is in compliance with the Securities Act and that the restrictions on transfer contained herein and in the Private Placement Legend are no longer required in order to maintain compliance with the Securities Act.

If any such transfer or exchange is effected pursuant to subparagraph (4) above at a time when an Unrestricted Global Note has not yet been issued, the Parent Issuer shall issue and, upon receipt of an Issuer Order in accordance with Section 2.02, the Trustee shall authenticate one or more Unrestricted Global Notes in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of beneficial interests transferred or exchanged pursuant to subparagraph (4) above. Beneficial interests in an Unrestricted Global Note cannot be exchanged for, or transferred to Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of, a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note.

(c) Transfer or Exchange of Beneficial Interests for Definitive Notes.

(1) Beneficial Interests in Restricted Global Notes to Restricted Definitive Notes. If any holder of a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note proposes to exchange such beneficial interest for a Restricted Definitive Note or to transfer such beneficial interest to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a Restricted Definitive Note, then, upon occurrence of any of the events in clause (1) or (2) of Section 2.06(a) and receipt by the Registrar of the following documentation:

(A) if the holder of such beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note proposes to exchange such beneficial interest for a Restricted Definitive Note, a certificate from such holder substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto, including the certifications in item (2)(a) thereof;

(B) if such beneficial interest is being transferred to a QIB in accordance with Rule 144A, a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (1) thereof;

(C) if such beneficial interest is being transferred to a Non-U.S. Person in an offshore transaction in accordance with Rule 903 or Rule 904, a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (2) thereof;

(D) if such beneficial interest is being transferred pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act in accordance with Rule 144, a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (3)(a) thereof;

(E) if such beneficial interest is being transferred to an Institutional Accredited Investor in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act other than those listed in subparagraphs (B) through (D) above, a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications, certificates and Opinion of Counsel required by item (3)(d) thereof, if applicable;

(F) if such beneficial interest is being transferred to any Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries, a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (3)(b) thereof; and

(G) if such beneficial interest is being transferred pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act, a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (3)(c) thereof,

the Trustee shall cause the aggregate principal amount of the applicable Global Note to be reduced accordingly pursuant to Section 2.06(h), and the Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, authenticate and mail to the Person designated in the instructions provided, a Restricted Definitive Note in the appropriate principal amount. Any Restricted Definitive Note issued in exchange for a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note pursuant to this Section 2.06(c)(1) shall be registered in such name or names and in such authorized denomination or denominations as the holder of such beneficial interest shall instruct the Trustee and the Registrar through instructions from the Depositary and the Participant or Indirect Participant. The Trustee shall mail such Restricted Definitive Notes to the Persons in whose names such Notes are so registered. Any Restricted Definitive Note issued in exchange for a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note pursuant to this Section 2.06(c)(1) (except transfers pursuant to clause (G) above) shall bear the Private Placement Legend and shall be subject to all restrictions on transfer contained therein.

(2) Beneficial Interests in Regulation S Global Note to Definitive Notes. Notwithstanding Sections 2.06(c)(1)(A) and (C), a beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Note may not be exchanged for a Definitive Note or transferred to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a Definitive Note prior to (A) the expiration of the applicable Restricted Period and (B) the receipt by the Registrar of any certificates required pursuant to Rule 903(b)(3)(ii)(B) under the Securities Act and in the form of Exhibit B or Exhibit C, as applicable, hereto, except in the case of a transfer pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act other than Rule 903 or Rule 904.

(3) Beneficial Interests in Restricted Global Notes to Unrestricted Definitive Notes. A holder of a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note may exchange such beneficial interest for an Unrestricted Definitive Note or may transfer such beneficial interest to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of an Unrestricted Definitive Note only upon the occurrence of any of the events in clause (1) or (2) of Section 2.06(a) and if the Registrar receives the following:

(A) if the holder of such beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note proposes to exchange such beneficial interest for an Unrestricted Definitive Note, a certificate from such holder substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto, including the certifications in item (1)(b) thereof; or

(B) if the holder of such beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note proposes to transfer such beneficial interest to a Person who shall take delivery thereof in the form of an Unrestricted Definitive Note, a certificate from such holder substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (4) thereof;

and, in each such case set forth in this subparagraph (3), if the Parent Issuer or Registrar so requests or if the Applicable Procedures so require, an Opinion of Counsel in form reasonably acceptable to the Parent Issuer and Registrar to the effect that such exchange or transfer is in compliance with the Securities Act and that the restrictions on transfer contained herein and in the Private Placement Legend are no longer required in order to maintain compliance with the Securities Act.

The Trustee shall cause the aggregate principal amount of the applicable Global Note to be reduced accordingly pursuant to Section 2.06(h), and the Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, authenticate and mail to the Person designated in the instructions provided pursuant to the following sentence a Definitive Note in the appropriate principal amount. Any Unrestricted Definitive Note issued in exchange for a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note pursuant to this Section 2.06(c)(3) shall be registered in such name or names and in such authorized denomination or denominations as the holder of such beneficial interest shall instruct the Registrar through instructions to the Trustee and the Registrar from or through the Depository and the Participant or Indirect Participant. The Trustee will mail such Unrestricted Definitive Notes to the Persons in whose names such Notes are so registered. Any Unrestricted Definitive Note issued in exchange for a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note pursuant to this Section 2.06(c)(3) will not bear the Private Placement Legend.

(4) Beneficial Interests in Unrestricted Global Notes to Unrestricted Definitive Notes. If any holder of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note proposes to exchange such beneficial interest for a Definitive Note or to transfer such beneficial interest to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a Definitive Note, then, upon the occurrence of any of the events in clause (1) or (2) of Section 2.06(a) and satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 2.06(b)(2), the Trustee shall cause the aggregate principal amount of the applicable Global Note to be reduced accordingly pursuant to Section 2.06(h), and the Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and mail to the Person designated in the instructions a Definitive Note in the appropriate principal amount. Any Definitive Note issued in exchange for a beneficial interest pursuant to this Section 2.06(c)(4) will be registered in such name or names and in such authorized denomination or denominations as the holder of such beneficial interest requests through instructions to the Registrar from or through the Depository and the Participant or Indirect Participant. The Trustee will mail such Definitive Notes to the Persons in whose names such Notes are so registered. Any Definitive Note issued in exchange for a beneficial interest pursuant to this Section 2.06(c)(4) will not bear the Private Placement Legend.

(d) Transfer and Exchange of Definitive Notes for Beneficial Interests.

(1) Restricted Definitive Notes to Beneficial Interests in Restricted Global Notes. If any Holder of a Restricted Definitive Note proposes to exchange such Note for a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note or to transfer such Restricted Definitive Note to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note, then, upon receipt by the Registrar of the following documentation:

(A) if the Holder of such Restricted Definitive Note proposes to exchange such Note for a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note, a certificate from such Holder substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto, including the certifications in item (2)(b) thereof;

(B) if such Restricted Definitive Note is being transferred to a QIB in accordance with Rule 144A, a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (1) thereof;

(D) if such Restricted Definitive Note is being transferred pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act in accordance with Rule 144, a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (3)(a) thereof;

(E) if such Restricted Definitive Note is being transferred to an Institutional Accredited Investor in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act other than those listed in subparagraphs (B) through (D) above, a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications, certificates and Opinion of Counsel required by item (3)(d) thereof, if applicable;

(F) if such Restricted Definitive Note is being transferred to any Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries, a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (3)(b) thereof; and

(G) if such Restricted Definitive Note is being transferred pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act, a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (3)(c) thereof, the Trustee will cancel the Restricted Definitive Note and increase or cause to be increased the aggregate principal amount of the applicable Restricted Global Note.

(2) Restricted Definitive Notes to Beneficial Interests in Unrestricted Global Notes. A Holder of a Restricted Definitive Note may exchange such Note for a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note or transfer such Restricted Definitive Note to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note only if the Registrar receives the following:

Upon satisfaction of the conditions of any of the subparagraphs in this Section 2.06(d)(2), the Trustee will cancel the Restricted Definitive Note and increase or cause to be increased the aggregate principal amount of the Unrestricted Global Note.

(3) Unrestricted Definitive Notes to Beneficial Interests in Unrestricted Global Notes. A Holder of an Unrestricted Definitive Note may exchange such Note for a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note or transfer such Definitive Notes to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note at any time. Upon receipt of a request for such an exchange or transfer, the Trustee will cancel the applicable Unrestricted Definitive Note and increase or cause to be increased the aggregate principal amount of one of the Unrestricted Global Notes.

If any such exchange or transfer from a Definitive Note to a beneficial interest is effected pursuant to subparagraph (2) or (3) above at a time when an Unrestricted Global Note has not yet been issued, the Issuers will issue and, upon receipt of an Issuer Order in accordance with Section 2.02, the Trustee will authenticate one or more Unrestricted Global Notes in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Definitive Notes so transferred.

(e) Transfer and Exchange of Definitive Notes for Definitive Notes. Upon request by a Holder of Definitive Notes and such Holder's compliance with the provisions of this Section 2.06(e), the Registrar will register the transfer or exchange of Definitive Notes. Prior to such registration of transfer or exchange, the requesting Holder must present or surrender to the Registrar the Definitive Notes duly endorsed or accompanied by a written instruction of transfer or exchange in form satisfactory to the Registrar duly executed by such Holder or by its attorney, duly authorized in writing. At any time prior to such cancellation, if any beneficial interest in a Global Note is exchanged for or transferred to a Person who will take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in another Global Note or for Definitive Notes, the principal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note will be reduced accordingly and an endorsement shall be made on such Global Note by the Trustee or by the Depositary at the direction of the Trustee to reflect such reduction; and if the beneficial interest is being exchanged for or transferred to a Person who will take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in another Global Note, such other Global Note will be increased accordingly and an endorsement shall be made on such Global Note by the Trustee or by the Depositary at the direction of the Trustee to reflect such increase.

(i) General Provisions Relating to Transfers and Exchanges.

(1) To permit registrations of transfers and exchanges, the Issuers will execute and the Trustee will authenticate Global Notes and Definitive Notes upon receipt of an Issuer Order in accordance with Section 2.02 or at the Registrar’s request.

(2) No service charge will be made to a holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note or to a Holder of a Definitive Note for any registration of transfer or exchange, but the Parent Issuer may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or similar governmental charge payable in connection therewith (other than any such transfer taxes or similar governmental charge payable upon exchange or transfer pursuant to Section 2.09, 3.23, 3.24, 3.25, 5.06 or 9.05 or the penultimate paragraph of Section 2.02).

(3) Neither the Registrar, the Trustee nor any Issuer shall be required to register the transfer of or exchange any Note selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Note being redeemed in part.

(4) All Global Notes and Definitive Notes issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Global Notes or Definitive Notes shall be the valid obligations of the Issuers, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Global Notes or Definitive Notes surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

(5) None of the Issuer, the Registrar or the Trustee shall be required (A) to issue, to register the transfer of or to exchange any Notes during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 days before the transmission of a notice of redemption of the Notes to be redeemed pursuant to Section 5.03 and ending at the close of business on the day of such transmission, (B) to register the transfer of or to exchange any Note so selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Note being redeemed in part, (C) to register the transfer of or to exchange a Note between a Record Date and the next succeeding Interest Payment Date or (D) to register the transfer of or to exchange any Notes selected for redemption or tendered (and not withdrawn) for repurchase in connection with a Change of Control Offer or an Asset Sale Offer.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a Holder, including the Depositary that is the Holder of a Global Note, may make, give or take, by a proxy or proxies duly appointed in writing, any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided in this Indenture to be made, given or taken by Holders, and the Depositary that is the Holder of a Global Note may provide its proxy or proxies to the beneficial owners of interests in any such Global Note through such Depositary's standing instructions and customary practices.

(7) Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Note at the office or agency of the Parent Issuer designated pursuant to Section 3.06, the Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and mail, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more replacement Notes of any authorized denomination or denominations of a like aggregate principal amount.

(8) At the option of the Holder, subject to Section 2.06(a), Notes may be exchanged for other Notes of any authorized denomination or denominations of a like aggregate principal amount upon surrender of the Notes to be exchanged at such office or agency. Whenever any Global Notes or Definitive Notes are so surrendered for exchange, the Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, the replacement Global Notes and Definitive Notes to which the Holder making the exchange is entitled in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.02.

(9) All certifications, certificates and Opinions of Counsel required to be submitted to the Registrar pursuant to this Section 2.06 to effect a registration of transfer or exchange may be submitted by facsimile or by electronic transmission or mail.

(10) [Reserved].

(11) The Trustee shall have no obligation or duty to monitor, determine or inquire as to compliance with any restrictions on transfer imposed under this Indenture or under applicable law with respect to any transfer of any interest in any Note (including any transfers between or among Participants or Beneficial Owners of interests in any Global Note) other than to require delivery of such certificates and other documentation or evidence as are expressly required by, and to do so if and when expressly required by the terms of, this Indenture, and to examine the same to determine substantial compliance as to form with the express requirements hereof. Neither the Trustee nor any Agent shall have any responsibility or liability for any actions taken or not taken by the Depositary.

Section 2.07 Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Notes.

If a mutilated Note is surrendered to the Registrar or if the Holder of a Note claims that the Note has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the Issuers shall issue and the Trustee shall, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, authenticate a replacement Note if the requirements of Section 8-405 of the UCC are met, such that the Holder (a) satisfies the Parent Issuer and the Trustee that such Note has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken within a reasonable time after such Holder has notice of such loss, destruction or wrongful taking and the Registrar has not registered a transfer prior to receiving such notification, (b) makes such request to the Parent Issuer and the Trustee prior to the Note being acquired by a protected purchaser as defined in Section 8-303 of the UCC (a “protected purchaser”) and (c) satisfies any other reasonable requirements of the Trustee; provided, however, if after the delivery of such replacement Note, a protected purchaser of the Note for which such replacement Note was issued presents for payment or registration such replaced Note, the Trustee and/or the Parent Issuer shall be entitled to recover such replacement Note from the Person to whom it was issued and delivered or any Person taking therefrom, except a protected purchaser, and shall be entitled to recover upon the security or indemnity provided therefor to the extent of any loss, damage, cost or expense incurred by the Parent Issuer or the Trustee in connection therewith. Such Holder shall furnish an indemnity bond sufficient in the judgment of the (i) Trustee to protect the Trustee and (ii) the Parent Issuer to protect the Issuers, the Trustee, the Paying Agent and the Registrar, from any loss which any of them may suffer if a Note is replaced, and, in the absence of notice to the Parent Issuer, any Guarantor or the Trustee that such Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the Issuers shall execute, and upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall authenticate and make available for delivery, in exchange for any such mutilated Note or in lieu of any such destroyed, lost or stolen Note, a new Note of like tenor and principal amount, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding.

In case any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note has become or is about to become due and payable, the Parent Issuer in its discretion may, instead of issuing a new Note, pay such Note.

Upon the issuance of any new Note under this Section 2.07, the Parent Issuer may require that such Holder pay a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of counsel and of the Trustee) in connection therewith.

Subject to the proviso in the initial paragraph of this Section 2.07, every new Note issued pursuant to this Section 2.07, in lieu of any mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation of the Issuers, any Guarantor (if applicable) and any other obligor upon the Notes, whether or not the mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note shall be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be entitled to all benefits of this Indenture equally and proportionately with any and all other Notes duly issued hereunder.

The provisions of this Section 2.07 are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights and remedies with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes.

Section 2.08 Outstanding Notes. Notes outstanding at any time are all Notes authenticated by the Trustee except for those cancelled by it, those delivered to it for cancellation, those paid pursuant to Section 2.07 and those described in this Section 2.08 as not outstanding. A Note does not cease to be outstanding in the event the Issuers or an Affiliate of any Issuer holds the Note; provided, however, that (i) for purposes of determining which are outstanding for consent or voting purposes hereunder, the provisions of Section 13.05 shall apply and (ii) in determining whether the Trustee shall be protected in making a determination whether the Holders of the requisite principal amount of outstanding Notes are present at a meeting of Holders of Notes for quorum purposes or have consented to or voted in favor of any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver, amendment or modification hereunder, or relying upon any such quorum, consent or vote, only Notes which a Trust Officer of the Trustee has been notified in writing to be held by the Issuers or an Affiliate of any Issuer shall not be considered outstanding.

If a Note is replaced pursuant to Section 2.07 (other than a mutilated Note surrendered for replacement), it ceases to be outstanding unless the Trustee and the Parent Issuer receives proof satisfactory to them that the replaced Note is held by a protected purchaser. A mutilated Note ceases to be outstanding upon surrender of such Note and replacement pursuant to Section 2.07.

If the Paying Agent segregates and holds in trust, in accordance with this Indenture, on a Redemption Date or maturity date, money sufficient to pay all principal, premium, if any, and accrued interest payable on that date with respect to the Notes (or portions thereof) to be redeemed or maturing, as the case may be, and the Paying Agent is not prohibited from paying such money to the Holders on that date pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, then on and after that date such Notes (or portions thereof) cease to be outstanding and interest on them ceases to accrue.

Section 2.09 Temporary Notes. In the event that Definitive Notes are to be issued under the terms of this Indenture, until such Definitive Notes are ready for delivery, the Issuers may prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate temporary Notes. Temporary Notes shall be substantially in the form, and shall carry all rights, of Definitive Notes but may have variations that the Parent Issuer considers appropriate for temporary Notes. Without unreasonable delay, the Issuers shall prepare and the Trustee shall, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, authenticate Definitive Notes. After the preparation of Definitive Notes, the temporary Notes shall be exchangeable for Definitive Notes upon surrender of the temporary Notes at any office or agency maintained by the Parent Issuer for that purpose and such exchange shall be without charge to the Holder. Upon surrender for cancellation of any one or more temporary Notes, the Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, authenticate and make available for delivery in exchange therefor, one or more Definitive Notes representing an equal principal amount of Notes. Until so exchanged, the Holder of temporary Notes shall in all respects be entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture as a Holder of Definitive Notes.

Section 2.10 Cancellation. The Parent Issuer at any time may deliver Notes to the Trustee for cancellation. The Registrar and the Paying Agent shall forward to the Trustee any Notes surrendered to them for registration of transfer, exchange or payment. The Trustee or, at the direction of the Trustee, the Registrar or the Paying Agent, and no one else shall cancel all Notes surrendered for registration of transfer, exchange, payment or cancellation and dispose of such Notes in accordance with its internal policies and customary procedures (subject to the record retention requirements of the Exchange Act and the Trustee). If any Issuer or any Guarantor acquires any of the Notes, such acquisition shall not operate as a redemption or satisfaction of the Indebtedness represented by such Notes unless and until the same are surrendered to the Trustee for cancellation pursuant to this Section 2.10. The Issuers may not issue new Notes to replace Notes it has paid or delivered to the Trustee for cancellation for any reason other than in connection with a transfer or exchange.

At such time as all beneficial interests in a Global Note have either been exchanged for Definitive Notes, transferred, redeemed, repurchased or canceled, such Global Note shall be returned by DTC to the Trustee for cancellation or retained and canceled by the Trustee. At any time prior to such cancellation, if any beneficial interest in a Global Note is exchanged for Definitive Notes, transferred in exchange for an interest in another Global Note, redeemed, repurchased or canceled, the principal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note shall be reduced and an adjustment shall be made on the books and records of the Trustee (if it is then the Notes Custodian for such Global Note) with respect to such Global Note, by the Trustee or the Notes Custodian, to reflect such reduction.

Section 2.11 Payment of Interest; Defaulted Interest.

Interest on any Note which is payable, and is punctually paid or duly provided for, on any Interest Payment Date shall be paid to the Person in whose name such Note (or one or more Predecessor Notes) is registered at the close of business on the regular Record Date for such payment at the office or agency of the Parent Issuer maintained for such purpose pursuant to Section 2.03.

Any interest on any Note which is payable, but is not paid when the same becomes due and payable (and such nonpayment continues beyond the applicable cure period set forth in Section 6.01(a)(ii)) shall forthwith cease to be payable to the Holder on the regular Record Date, and such defaulted interest and (to the extent lawful) interest on such defaulted interest at the rate borne by the Notes and as provided in Section 6.03 (such defaulted interest and interest thereon herein, including any interest required to be paid under Section 6.03, collectively called "Defaulted Interest") shall be paid by the Issuers, at their election in each case, as provided in clause (a) or (b) below:

(a) The Issuers may elect to make payment of any Defaulted Interest to the Persons in whose names the Notes (or their respective predecessor Notes) are registered at the close of business on a Special Record Date (as defined below) for the payment of such Defaulted Interest, which shall be fixed in the following manner. The Parent Issuer shall notify the Trustee in writing of the amount of Defaulted Interest proposed to be paid on each Note and the date (not less than 10 days after such notice) of the proposed payment (the "Special Interest Payment Date"), and at the same time the Issuers shall deposit with the Trustee an amount of money equal to the aggregate amount proposed to be paid in respect of such Defaulted Interest or shall make arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for such deposit prior to the date of the proposed payment, such money when deposited to be held in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled to such Defaulted Interest as provided in this Section 2.11(a). Thereupon the Parent Issuer shall fix a record date (the "Special Record Date") for the payment of such Defaulted Interest, which date shall be not more than 20 calendar days and not less than 15 calendar days prior to the Special Interest Payment Date and not less than 10 calendar days after the receipt by the Trustee of the notice of the proposed payment. The Parent Issuer shall promptly notify the Trustee in writing of such Special Record Date, and in the name and at the expense of the Parent Issuer, the Trustee shall cause notice (such notice to be prepared by the Parent Issuer) of the proposed payment of such Defaulted Interest and the Special Record Date and Special Interest Payment Date therefor to be given in the manner provided for in Section 13.01, not less than 10 calendar days prior to such Special Record Date. Notice of the proposed payment of such Defaulted Interest and the Special Record Date and Special Interest Payment Date therefor having been so given, such Defaulted Interest shall be paid on the Special Interest Payment Date to the Persons in whose names the Notes (or their respective predecessor Notes) are registered at the close of business on such Special Record Date and shall no longer be payable pursuant to the provisions in Section 2.11(b).

(b) The Issuers may make payment of any Defaulted Interest in any other lawful manner not inconsistent with the requirements of any securities exchange on which the Notes may be listed, and upon such notice as may be required by such exchange, if, after written notice given by the Parent Issuer to the Trustee of the proposed payment pursuant to this Section 2.11(b), such manner of payment shall be deemed practicable by the Trustee in its sole and absolute discretion.

Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.11, each Note delivered under this Indenture upon registration of, transfer of or in exchange for or in lieu of any other Note shall carry the rights to interest accrued and unpaid, and to accrue, which were carried by such other Note.

Section 2.12 CUSIP and ISIN Numbers. The Issuers in issuing the Notes may use “CUSIP” and “ISIN” numbers and, if so, the Trustee shall use “CUSIP” and “ISIN” numbers in notices of redemption or purchase as a convenience to Holders; provided, however, that any such notice may state that no representation is made as to the correctness of such numbers either as printed on the Notes or as contained in any notice of a redemption or purchase and that reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers printed on the Notes, and any such redemption or purchase shall not be affected by any defect in or omission of such CUSIP and ISIN numbers. The Parent Issuer shall promptly notify the Trustee in writing of any change in the CUSIP and ISIN numbers.

Section 2.13 Additional Issuers.

(a) Each Issuer accepts joint and several liability hereunder in consideration of the financial accommodation to be provided by the Secured Parties under this Indenture and the other Notes Documents, for the mutual benefit, directly and indirectly, of each Issuer and in consideration of the undertakings of each Issuer to accept joint and several liability for the obligations of each Issuer.

(b) Each Issuer shall be jointly and severally liable for the Secured Obligations, regardless of which Issuer actually receives the proceeds of Notes issued under this Indenture or the amount of proceeds received or the manner in which any Secured Party accounts for the Secured Obligations on its books and records. Each Issuer’s obligations with respect to Notes, and each Issuer’s obligations arising as a result of the joint and several liability of such Issuer hereunder, with respect to the Notes and the other Secured Obligations owing by the Issuers hereunder, shall be separate and distinct obligations, but all such obligations shall be primary obligations of each Issuer.

(c) Each Issuer’s obligations arising as a result of the joint and several liability of such Issuer hereunder with respect to the Notes and the other Secured Obligations shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be unconditional irrespective of (A) the validity or enforceability, avoidance or subordination of the obligations of any other Issuer or of any promissory note or other document evidencing all or any part of the obligations of any other Issuer, (B) the absence of any attempt to collect the Secured Obligations from any other Issuer, any other guarantor, or any other security therefor, or the absence of any other action to enforce the same, (C) the waiver, consent, extension, forbearance or granting of any indulgence by any Secured Party with respect to any provision of any instrument evidencing the obligations of any other Issuer, or any part thereof, or any other agreement now or hereafter executed by any other Issuer and delivered to any Secured Party, (D) the failure by any Secured Party to take any steps to perfect and maintain its security interest in, or to preserve its rights to, any security or collateral for the obligations of any other Issuer, (E) any Secured Party’s election, in any proceeding instituted under the Bankruptcy Code of the United States, of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code of the United States, (F) any borrowing or grant of a security interest by any other Issuer, as Debtor In Possession under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code of the United States, (G) the disallowance of all or any portion of any Secured Party’s claim(s) for the repayment of the obligations of any other Issuer under Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code of the United States, or (H) any other circumstances which might constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor or of any other Issuer. With respect to each Issuer’s obligations arising as a result of the joint and several liability of such Issuer hereunder with respect to the Notes, such Issuer waives, until the Secured Obligations shall have been paid in full and this Indenture and the other Notes Documents shall have been terminated, any right to enforce any right of subrogation or any remedy which any Secured Party now has or may hereafter have against such Issuer, any endorser or any guarantor of all or any part of the Secured Obligations, and any benefit of, and any right to participate in, any security or collateral given to any Secured Party to secure payment of the Secured Obligations or any other liability of any Issuers to the Trustee or any Holder.

(d) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of any Event of Default, the Trustee and the Holders may proceed directly and at once, without notice, against any Issuer to collect and recover the full amount, or any portion of the Secured Obligations, without first proceeding against any other Issuer or any other Person, or against any security or collateral for the Secured Obligations. Each Issuer consents and agrees that the Trustee and the Holders shall be under no obligation to marshal any assets in favor of any Issuer or against or in payment of any or all of the Secured Obligations.

(e) After the Closing Date, the Parent Issuer may, at any time and from time to time, designate any Restricted Subsidiary that is a wholly-owned Domestic Subsidiary that is treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an Issuer by delivery to the Trustee of an Issuer Supplemental Indenture executed by such Subsidiary and the Parent Issuer, together with any documentation and other information with respect to such additional Issuer required by regulatory authorities under applicable “know your customer” and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including, without limitation, the USA Patriot Act requested by the Trustee (and to the extent not theretofore delivered on the Closing Date or otherwise), and satisfying the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement (including without limitation the actions as specified in Section 3.13 with respect to newly formed Subsidiaries), and upon such delivery and satisfaction, such Subsidiary shall for all purposes of this Indenture and the other Notes Documents be an Issuer and a party to this Issuer. As soon as practicable upon receipt of an Issuer Supplemental Indenture, the Trustee shall furnish a copy thereof to each Holder.

(b) promptly after the same are publicly available, copies of all annual, regular, periodic and special reports and registration statements which any Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary files with the SEC or with any Governmental Authority that may be substituted therefor (other than amendments to any registration statement (to the extent such registration statement, in the form it became effective, is delivered), exhibits to any registration statement and, if applicable, any registration statement on Form S 8) and in any case not otherwise required to be delivered to the Trustee and the Holders pursuant to any other clause of this Section 3.02; and

The Trustee shall not be obligated to monitor or confirm, on a continuing basis or otherwise, the Company's compliance with the covenants or with respect to any reports or other documents filed with the SEC or EDGAR or any website or dataseit under this Indenture, or participate in any conference calls.

The Parent Issuer shall maintain an office or agency where the Notes will be payable and where, if applicable, the Notes may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange and where notices and demands to or upon the Parent Issuer in respect of the Notes and this Indenture may be served. The corporate trust office of the Trustee, which initially shall be located at the notice address for the Trustee set forth in Section 13.01, shall be such office or agency of the Parent Issuer unless the Parent Issuer shall designate and maintain some other office or agency for one or more of such purposes. The Parent Issuer shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee of any change in the location of any such office or agency. If at any time the Parent Issuer shall fail to maintain any such required office or agency or shall fail to furnish the Trustee with the address thereof, such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands in respect of the Notes may be made or served at the corporate trust office of the Trustee, and the Issuer hereby appoints the Trustee as its agent to receive all such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands. The Parent Issuer shall, and shall cause each of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, (a) preserve, renew and maintain in full force and effect its legal existence under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its organization and (b) take all reasonable action to maintain all rights, privileges (including its good standing where applicable in the relevant jurisdiction), permits, approvals, licenses and franchises material to the ordinary conduct of its business, except, in the case of clause (a) or (b), to the extent (i) that failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect (except in the case of clause (a) with respect to the Parent Issuer) or (ii) pursuant to any transaction permitted by Sections 4.04 and 4.05.

Section 3.09 Maintenance of Properties. Section 3.11 Compliance with Laws. The Parent Issuer shall, and shall cause each of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, comply with the requirements of all Laws and all orders, writs, injunctions and decrees of any Governmental Authority applicable to it or to its business or property, except if the failure to comply therewith would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.12 Books and Records. The Parent Issuer shall, and will cause its Restricted Subsidiaries to, maintain proper books of record and account, in which entries that are full, true and correct in all material respects and are in conformity with GAAP and which reflect all material financial transactions and matters involving the assets and business of the Parent Issuer or a Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be (it being understood and agreed that certain Foreign Subsidiaries maintain individual books and records in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in their respective countries of organization and that such maintenance shall not constitute a breach of the representations, warranties or covenants hereunder).

Section 3.13 Additional Collateral; Additional Guarantors. At the Parent Issuer's expense, subject to the limitations and exceptions of this Indenture, including, without limitation, the provisions of the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement, the Intercreditor Agreements and any applicable limitation in any Collateral Document, the Parent Issuer shall, and shall cause each of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, take all action necessary or reasonably requested by any Controlling Party (or, if after the Sell-Down Date but prior to the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations, the Designated First Lien Representative) or the Collateral Agent to ensure that the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement continues to be satisfied, including:

(ii) to the extent requested to deliver such to the Designated First Lien Representative under the First Lien Financing Documents or, after the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations if reasonably requested by any Controlling Party or the Collateral Agent, within sixty (60) days after such request (or such longer period as the Controlling Parties (or, if after the Sell-Down Date but prior to the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations, the Designated First Lien Representative) may agree in writing in their reasonable discretion), deliver to the Collateral Agent customary legal opinions, board resolutions, good standing certificates and secretary's or assistant secretary's certificates consistent with those delivered on the Closing Date under Section 3.1(a) of the Note Purchase Agreement (conformed as appropriate) other than changes to such legal opinions resulting from a change in Law, change in fact or change to counsel's form of opinion (and prior to the Sell-Down Date, in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Controlling Parties) as to such matters set forth in this Section 3.13(a) as the Controlling Party, the Designated First Lien Representative or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, may reasonably request;

Section 3.14 Compliance with Environmental Laws. Except, in each case, to the extent that the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect, the Parent Issuer shall, and shall cause each of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, (a) comply, and use commercially reasonable efforts to take all reasonable actions to cause all lessees and other Persons operating or occupying its properties to comply, with all applicable Environmental Laws and Environmental Permits, (b) obtain and renew all Environmental Permits necessary for its operations and properties and (c) in each case to the extent the Note Parties are required by applicable Environmental Laws, conduct any investigation, remedial, cleanup or other corrective action necessary to address Hazardous Materials at any property or facility in accordance with applicable Environmental Laws.

Section 3.16 Designation of Subsidiaries. The Parent Issuer may at any time after the Closing Date designate any Restricted Subsidiary of the Parent Issuer (other than a Subsidiary Issuer (unless the Parent Issuer has delivered a notice terminating such Subsidiary Issuer's status as an Issuer hereunder in accordance with the definition of "Issuer")) as an Unrestricted Subsidiary or any Unrestricted Subsidiary as a Restricted Subsidiary; provided that (i) immediately before and after such designation, no Event of Default under Section 6.01(a) or (f) (solely with respect to the Parent Issuer) shall have occurred and be continuing and (ii) in no event shall an Unrestricted Subsidiary acquire (including pursuant to the designation of a Restricted Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary) Material IP from the Parent Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary. The designation of any Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary after the Closing Date shall constitute an Investment by the applicable Issuer therein at the date of designation as set forth in the definition of "Investment". All conditions precedent and representations contained in the Note Purchase Agreement, this Indenture and the other Notes Documents shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to effect the foregoing (and to permit the taking of the actions described above within the time periods required above, rather than as elsewhere provided in the Notes Documents); provided that (x) to the extent any representation and warranty would not be true because the foregoing actions were not taken on the Closing Date, the respective representation and warranty shall be required to be true and correct in all material respects at the time the respective action is taken (or was required to be taken) in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 3.19 and (y) all representations and warranties relating to the Collateral Documents shall be required to be true immediately after the actions required to be taken by this Section 3.19 have been taken (or were required to be taken) and the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the failure to take any of the actions required above, within the relevant time periods required above, shall give rise to an immediate Event of Default pursuant to this Indenture.

Section 3.20 Specified Beta Vendor Financing Statements. On or prior to the date that is six months after the Closing Date (or such later date as agreed to by the Designated First Lien Representative in its reasonable discretion), the Parent Issuer shall either (i) cause to be terminated those financing statements set forth on Schedule 3.20 (the “Specified Beta Vendor Financing Statements”) and terminate (or amend to remove any lien grant) any prime vendor agreement or other similar agreement between any one or more of the Parent Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries on the one hand and any vendor or similar contractual counterparty thereof on the other hand the obligations under which are secured by any collateral described in any Specified Beta Vendor Financing Statement (each such agreement, a “Specified Beta Vendor Agreement” and such obligations, the “Specified Beta Vendor Obligations”) or (ii) cause the Liens securing the Specified Beta Vendor Obligations to be subordinated to the Liens securing the Secured Obligations, the ABL Obligations and the First Lien Secured Obligations pursuant to one or more intercreditor agreements in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Controlling Parties in their reasonable discretion (the undertaking in this Section 3.20, the “Specified Post-Closing Undertaking”). Section 3.21 Fiscal Year. From and after the Closing Date, the Parent Issuer shall, and shall cause each of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, maintain its fiscal year as in effect on the Closing Date; provided, however, that the Parent Issuer may (x) align the dates of such fiscal year of any Restricted Subsidiary whose fiscal year ends on a date other than that of the Parent Issuer or (y) upon written notice to the Trustee change its fiscal year to any other fiscal year, and, in the case of this clause (y), the Parent Issuer and the Trustee will, and are hereby authorized by the Holders to, make any adjustments to this Indenture that are necessary to reflect such change in fiscal year (and that, prior to the Sell-Down Date, are reasonably satisfactory to the Controlling Parties).

Section 3.22 Quarterly Call. Following delivery (or, if later, required delivery) of financial statements pursuant to Section 3.01(a) or Section 3.01(b), upon the request of any Controlling Party (or, if after the Sell-Down Date, the Trustee acting at the direction of the Required Holders), the Parent Issuer shall host, at times selected by the Parent Issuer and reasonably acceptable to the Controlling Parties, quarterly conference calls with the Holders and Beneficial Owners of Notes to review the financial results of operations and the financial condition of the Parent Issuer and the Restricted Subsidiaries; it being understood and agreed that such conference calls may be a single conference call together with investors holding other securities or debt of the Parent Issuer and/or Restricted Subsidiaries, so long as the Holders and Beneficial Owners of Notes are given an opportunity to ask questions on such conference call.

Section 3.23 Change of Control

(a) If a Change of Control occurs, unless the Parent Issuer has previously or concurrently delivered a redemption notice with respect to all of the outstanding Notes under Section 5.07, the Parent Issuer shall make an offer to purchase all of the Notes pursuant to the offer described in this Section 3.23 (the “Change of Control Offer”) at a price in cash (the “Change of Control Payment”) equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to but excluding the date of purchase (the “Change of Control Offer Purchase Date”).

Within 30 days following any Change of Control, unless the Parent Issuer has previously or concurrently delivered a redemption notice with respect to all of the outstanding Notes under Section 5.07, the Parent Issuer will deliver notice of such Change of Control Offer electronically or by first-class mail, with a copy to the Trustee, to each Holder of Notes at the address of such Holder appearing in the security register or otherwise in accordance with the procedures of DTC, describing the transaction or transactions that constitute the Change of Control and with the following information:

- (B) the purchase price specified in Section 3.23(a) and the Change of Control Offer Purchase Date, which shall be no earlier than 30 days nor later than 60 days from the date such notice is delivered, except in the case of a conditional Change of Control Offer made in advance of a Change of Control as described in clause (H) below;
- (C) that any Note not properly tendered will remain outstanding and continue to accrue interest in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and the Notes;
- (D) that unless the Parent Issuer defaults in the payment of the Change of Control Payment, all Notes accepted for payment pursuant to the Change of Control Offer will cease to accrue interest on the Change of Control Offer Purchase Date;
- (E) that Holders electing to have any Notes purchased pursuant to a Change of Control Offer will be required to surrender such Notes, with the form entitled "Option of Holder to Elect Purchase" on the reverse of such Notes completed, to the Paying Agent specified in the notice at the address specified in the notice prior to the close of business on the third Business Day preceding the Change of Control Offer Purchase Date;
- (F) that Holders will be entitled to withdraw their tendered Notes and their election to require the Parent Issuer to purchase such Notes; provided that the Paying Agent receives, not later than the close of business on the second Business Day prior to the expiration date of the Change of Control Offer, a facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of the Holder of the Notes, the principal amount of Notes tendered for purchase, and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing its tendered Notes and its election to have such Notes purchased;
- (G) that Holders whose Notes are being purchased only in part will be issued new Notes and such new Notes will be equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the Notes surrendered, which unpurchased portion of the Notes must be equal to at least $1.00 or any integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof;
- (H) if such notice is delivered prior to the occurrence of a Change of Control, stating that a definitive agreement is in place for such Change of Control and the Change of Control Offer is conditional on the occurrence of such Change of Control and that the Change of Control Offer Purchase Date may be delayed until such condition shall be satisfied, and that such Change of Control Offer Purchase Date may not occur and that such notice may be rescinded in the event that such condition shall not have been satisfied by the Change of Control Offer Purchase Date, or by the Change of Control Offer Purchase Date as so delayed; and
- (I) the other instructions, as determined by the Parent Issuer, consistent with this Section 3.23, that a Holder must follow.

The Paying Agent will promptly deliver to each Holder of the Notes tendered the Change of Control Payment for such Notes, and the Trustee will, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, promptly authenticate and mail (or cause to be transferred by book-entry) to each Holder a new Note equal in principal amount to any unpurchased portion of the Notes surrendered, if any; provided that each such new Note will be in a principal amount of $1.00 or an integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof. The Parent Issuer will publicly announce the results of the Change of Control Offer on or as soon as practicable after the Change of Control Offer Purchase Date.

If the Change of Control Offer Purchase Date is on or after a Record Date and on or before the related Interest Payment Date, any accrued and unpaid interest up to (but not including) the Change of Control Offer Purchase Date shall be paid to the Person in whose name a tendered Note accepted for purchase is registered at the close of business on such Record Date, and unless the Parent Issuer defaults in making payment for such tendered Note pursuant to the Change of Control Offer, no additional interest shall be payable to Holders of such tendered Note.

- (b) On the Change of Control Offer Purchase Date, the Parent Issuer shall, to the extent permitted by law,
- (A) accept for payment all Notes issued by it or portions thereof properly tendered pursuant to the Change of Control Offer,

- (C) deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Trustee for cancellation the Notes so accepted together with an Officer's Certificate to the Trustee stating that such Notes or portions thereof have been tendered to and purchased by the Parent Issuer.

(c) The Parent Issuer shall not be required to make a Change of Control Offer following a Change of Control if (1) a third party makes the Change of Control Offer in the manner, at the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements set forth in this Section 3.23 and purchases all Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn under such Change of Control Offer or (2) a notice of redemption with respect to all of the outstanding Notes has been given pursuant to Section 5.07, unless and until there is a default in the payment of the redemption price on the applicable Redemption Date or the redemption is not consummated due to the failure of a condition precedent contained in the applicable redemption notice to be satisfied. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 3.23, a Change of Control Offer may be made in advance of a Change of Control, conditional upon such Change of Control, if a definitive agreement is in place for such Change of Control at the time of making of the Change of Control Offer.

(d) The Parent Issuer shall comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act and any other securities laws, rules and regulations thereunder to the extent such laws, rules or regulations are applicable in connection with the repurchase of Notes pursuant to a Change of Control Offer. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws, rules or regulations conflict with the provisions of this Indenture, the Parent Issuer shall comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and shall not be deemed to have breached its obligations described in this Indenture by virtue thereof.

(e) Other than as specifically provided in this Section 3.23, any purchase pursuant to this Section 3.23 shall be made pursuant to the applicable provisions of Sections 5.01 through 5.06.

Section 3.24 Offer to Purchase by Application of Net Proceeds.

(a) (1) If any Issuer or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries Disposes of any property or assets (other than any Disposition of any property or assets permitted by Section 4.05(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) (except as set forth in the proviso thereof), (g), (h), (i), (k), (l), (m), (n), (o), (p), (q), (r), (s), (t), (u), (v), (w), (x), (y), (z) or (aa)) that results in the receipt by any Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary of Net Proceeds or (2) any Casualty Event occurs that results in the receipt by any Issuer or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of Net Proceeds, then, in each case of clauses (1) and (2), such Issuer shall, subject to Section 3.24(b), apply 100% of such Net Proceeds on or prior to the date which is ten (10) Business Days after the date of the receipt by such Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary of such Net Proceeds (or if any Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary (A) intends to use proceeds of any such non-excluded Disposition within the applicable Repayment/Reinvestment Period in accordance with the first proviso in clause (a) of the definition of “Net Proceeds” or (B) has contractually committed prior to the last day of such Repayment/Reinvestment Period to use such proceeds pursuant to clauses (y) of the first proviso of clause (a) of the definition of “Net Proceeds”, such Issuer shall apply 100% of any such proceeds constituting Net Proceeds in accordance with such proviso on or prior to the date which is ten (10) Business Days after the expiration of such Repayment/Reinvestment Period) to commence an offer to all Holders to purchase Notes in accordance with the procedures specified in this Section 3.24(a) and Sections 3.24(c) through (g) (the “Asset Sale Offer”) at a price in cash equal to the sum of (i) 100% of the principal amount of such Notes, plus (ii) accrued and unpaid interest to (but excluding) the date of purchase (the “Asset Sale Offer Purchase Date”); provided that if at the time that any Asset Sale Offer would be required, any Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary is required to, or to offer to, use the Net Proceeds from the applicable Disposition or Casualty Event to purchase or prepay any Indebtedness that is secured by Liens on a pari passu basis in respect of the Term Loan Priority Collateral with Liens securing the Secured Obligations pursuant to the terms of the documentation governing such Indebtedness (“Other Applicable Indebtedness”), then such Issuer shall allocate the Net Proceeds from such Disposition or Casualty Event on a pro rata basis between the Notes, on the one hand, and such Other Applicable Indebtedness required to be purchased or prepaid, or required to be subject to an offer to purchase or prepay, pursuant to the documentation governing such Other Applicable Indebtedness on the other hand (determined on the basis of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Notes and Other Applicable Indebtedness required to be purchased or prepaid, or required to be subject to an offer to purchase or prepay, pursuant to the documentation governing such Other Applicable Indebtedness; provided that the portion of such Net Proceeds allocated to the Other Applicable Indebtedness shall not exceed the amount of Net Proceeds required to be allocated to such Other Applicable Indebtedness pursuant to the documentation governing such Other Applicable Indebtedness, and the remaining amount, if any, of such Net Proceeds shall be allocated to the Notes), with such Net Proceeds allocated to the Notes being used to make an Asset Sale Offer with respect to the Notes in accordance with the terms of this Section 3.24 and with such Net Proceeds allocated to such Other Applicable Indebtedness required to be purchased or prepaid, or required to be subject to an offer to purchase or prepay, pursuant to the documentation governing such Other Applicable Indebtedness being used to make the required purchase, prepayment or offer to purchase or prepay; provided further that to the extent the holders of Other Applicable Indebtedness decline to have such Indebtedness purchased or prepaid, the declined amount shall promptly (and in any event within ten (10) Business Days after the date of such rejection) be applied to make an Asset Sale Offer with respect to the Notes in accordance with the terms of this Section 3.24 without giving effect to this sentence. Payment for any Notes so purchased shall be made in the same manner as cash interest payments are made.

(I) that Holders whose Notes were purchased only in part shall be issued new Notes equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the Notes surrendered (or transferred by book-entry transfer) representing the same indebtedness to the extent not repurchased.

(g) If the aggregate principal amount of Notes or portions thereof tendered pursuant to the Asset Sale Offer is less than or equal to the Asset Sale Offer Amount, the Parent Issuer shall accept for payment all such Notes or portions thereof so tendered, and shall deliver to the Holders (with a copy to the Trustee) a notice stating that such Notes or such portions thereof were accepted for payment by the Parent Issuer in accordance with the terms of this Section 3.24. For purposes of determining compliance with this Section 4.03, in the event that an item of Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock (or any portion thereof) at any time, whether at the time of incurrence or issuance or upon the application of all or a portion of the proceeds thereof or subsequently, meets the criteria of more than one of the categories of permitted Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock described in Sections 4.03(a) through (dd) above, the Parent Issuer, in its sole discretion, will classify and may subsequently reclassify such item of Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock (or any portion thereof) in any one or more of the types of Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock described in Sections 4.03(a) through (dd) and will only be required to include the amount and type of such Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock in such of the above clauses as determined by the Parent Issuer at such time; provided that (x) all Indebtedness under the Notes Documents will be deemed to have been incurred in reliance on the exception in clause (a) above, (y) all Indebtedness under the ABL Credit Agreement shall be deemed to have been incurred in reliance on the exception in clause (z)(ii) above and (z) all Indebtedness under the First Lien Credit Agreement shall be deemed to have been incurred in reliance on the exception in clause (z)(i) above (with all Indebtedness under the First Lien Credit Agreement incurred on the Closing Date being deemed to have been incurred in reliance on the exception in clause (z)(i)(A) above). Subject to the preceding sentence, the Parent Issuer will be entitled to divide and classify an item of Indebtedness in more than one of the types of Indebtedness described in Sections 4.03(a) through (dd).

For purposes of determining compliance with any Dollar-denominated restriction on the incurrence of Indebtedness or issuance of Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock, the Dollar-equivalent principal amount of Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock denominated in a foreign currency shall be calculated based on the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date such Indebtedness was incurred, in the case of term debt, or first committed or first incurred (whichever yields the lower Dollar equivalent), in the case of revolving credit debt; provided that if such Indebtedness is incurred, or Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock is issued, to extend, replace, refund, refinance, renew or defease other Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock, as applicable, denominated in a foreign currency, and such extension, replacement, refunding, refinancing, renewal or defeasance would cause the applicable Dollar-denominated restriction to be exceeded if calculated at the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date of such extension, replacement, refunding, refinancing, renewal or defeasance, such Dollar-denominated restriction shall be deemed not to have been exceeded so long as the principal amount or liquidation preference, as applicable, of such refinancing Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock does not exceed the principal amount or liquidation preference, as applicable, of such Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock, as applicable, being extended, replaced, refunded, refinanced, renewed or defeased, plus the aggregate amount of fees, underwriting discounts, premiums (including tender premiums) and other costs and expenses (including OID, upfront fees or similar fees) incurred in connection with such refinancing.

The accrual of interest or dividends, the accretion of accreted value, the accretion or amortization of OID, and the payment of interest or dividends in the form of additional Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock, as the case may be, of the same class, accretion or amortization of OID or liquidation preference and increases in the amount of Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock outstanding solely as a result of fluctuations in the exchange rate of currencies, will, in each case, not be deemed to be an incurrence of Indebtedness or an issuance of Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock for purposes of this Section 4.03. The principal amount of any Indebtedness incurred or Disqualified Equity Interests issued to refinance other Indebtedness, if incurred in a different currency from the Indebtedness or Disqualified Equity Interests, as applicable, being refinanced, shall be calculated based on the currency exchange rate applicable to the currencies in which such respective Indebtedness or Disqualified Equity Interests is denominated that is in effect on the date of such refinancing. The principal amount of any non-interest bearing Indebtedness or other discount security constituting Indebtedness at any date shall be the principal amount thereof that would be shown on the consolidated balance sheet of the Parent Issuer dated such date prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, (x) no investments made by any Note Party in any Non-Note Party in the form of intercompany loans shall be evidenced by a promissory note unless such promissory note, to the extent required to be pledged thereunder, is pledged to the Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of the Security Agreement and (y) any investments in the form of intercompany loans constituting indebtedness of any Note Party owed to any Non-Note Party shall be unsecured and subordinated to the Secured Obligations on terms consistent with the subordination provisions of the Intercompany Note in each case, other than indebtedness owed by, or to, a Broker-Dealer Regulated Subsidiary.

(b) any Restricted Subsidiary may liquidate or dissolve or change its legal form if the Parent Issuer determines in good faith that such action is in the best interests of the Issuers and the Restricted Subsidiaries and is not materially disadvantageous to the Holders (it being understood that in the case of any change in legal form, a Subsidiary that is a Guarantor will remain a Guarantor unless such Guarantor is otherwise permitted to cease being a Guarantor hereunder);

(c) any Restricted Subsidiary may Dispose of all or substantially all of its assets (upon voluntary liquidation or otherwise) to an Issuer or to another Restricted Subsidiary; provided that if the transferor in such a transaction is a Note Party, then (i) the transferee must be a Note Party or (ii) to the extent constituting an Investment, such Investment must be a Restricted Payment permitted by Section 4.06 (other than Section 4.06(b)(xviii)) or a Permitted Investment;

(d) so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or would result therefrom, the Parent Issuer may merge, dissolve, liquidate or consolidate with any other Person; provided that (i) the Parent Issuer shall be the continuing or surviving corporation or (ii) if the Person formed by or surviving any such merger or consolidation is not the Parent Issuer or is a Person into which the Parent Issuer has been liquidated or dissolved (any such Person, the "Successor Parent Issuer"), (A) the Successor Parent Issuer shall be an entity organized or existing under the Laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (B) the Successor Parent Issuer shall expressly assume all the obligations of the Parent Issuer under this Indenture and the other Notes Documents to which the Parent Issuer is a party pursuant to a supplement hereto or thereto in form reasonably satisfactory to the Controlling Parties (or, if after the Sell-Down Date, the Trustee), (C) each Guarantor, unless it is the other party to such merger, dissolution, liquidation or consolidation, shall have confirmed that its Guarantee shall apply to the Successor Parent Issuer's obligations under the Notes Documents, (D) each Guarantor, unless it is the other party to such merger, dissolution, liquidation or consolidation, shall have reaffirmed that its obligations under the Security Agreement and other applicable Collateral Documents shall apply to the Successor Parent Issuer's obligations under the Notes Documents, (E) [reserved], and (F) the Parent Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate stating that such merger or consolidation and such supplement to this Indenture or any Collateral Document comply with this Indenture and customary legal opinions consistent with those delivered on the Closing Date (conformed as appropriate) other than changes to such legal opinions resulting from a change in Law, change in fact or change to counsel's form of opinion reasonably satisfactory to the Controlling Parties (or, if after the Sell-Down Date, the Trustee); provided further that if the foregoing are satisfied, the Successor Parent Issuer will succeed to, and be substituted for, the Parent Issuer under this Indenture;

(e) [reserved];

(f) so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or would result therefrom (solely in the case of a merger, amalgamation or consolidation involving a Note Party), any Restricted Subsidiary may merge, amalgamate or consolidate with any other Person in order to effect an Investment permitted pursuant to Section 4.06 (other than Section 4.06(b)(xviii)) or a Permitted Investment; provided that the continuing or surviving Person shall be a Restricted Subsidiary, which together with each other Restricted Subsidiary, shall have complied with the requirements of Section 3.13;

(g) the Note Parties and their Subsidiaries may consummate the Merger and the related transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (and documents related thereto) and any Permitted Reorganization; and

(h) so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or would result therefrom, a merger, consolidation, amalgamation, dissolution, liquidation, consolidation or Disposition, the purpose of which is to effect a Disposition permitted pursuant to Section 4.05 (other than Section 4.05(e)) may be consummated.

Notwithstanding the above, in the case of any merger, amalgamation or consolidation where the continuing or surviving Person is a Note Party or any liquidation into a Note Party, in each case, in accordance with this Section 4.04, any security interests granted to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties in the Collateral pursuant to the Collateral Documents shall remain in full force and effect and perfected (to at least the same extent as in effect immediately prior to such merger, consolidation, dissolution or liquidation) and all actions required to maintain said perfected status have been or will promptly be taken, in each case, as required by Sections 3.13 and 3.15.

Section 4.12 [Reserved]

Section 4.13 Modifications of Terms of Junior Financing. The Parent Issuer shall not and the Parent Issuer shall not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, amend, modify or change in any manner materially adverse to the interests of the Holders, as determined in good faith by the Parent Issuer, any term or condition of any Junior Financing Documentation in violation of any applicable Intercreditor Agreement or subordination agreement without the consent of the Controlling Parties (or, if after the Sell-Down Date, the Trustee) (in each case, such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned).

Section 4.14 Anti-layering. Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture or any other Notes Document to the contrary, the Parent Issuer shall not, and shall not permit any other Issuer or Guarantor to, directly or indirectly, incur any Indebtedness (including Indebtedness acquired or assumed as part of a Permitted Acquisition) that is contractually subordinated or junior in right of payment to any Indebtedness of such Issuer or such Guarantor, as the case may be, unless such Indebtedness is expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Notes or the applicable Guarantor’s Note Guarantee to the extent and in the same manner as such Indebtedness is subordinated in right of payment to other Indebtedness of any Issuer or such Guarantor, as the case may be (it being understood and agreed that Indebtedness shall not be considered contractually subordinated or junior in right of payment solely because it is unsecured or secured by Liens junior in priority to Liens securing other Indebtedness). In addition to the foregoing, notwithstanding anything in this Indenture or any other Notes Document to the contrary, the Issuers shall not, and shall not permit any Guarantor to, directly or indirectly, incur any Indebtedness that is secured and that is, by its express terms, subordinated as to rights to receive, or subject to turnover of, payments or proceeds of collateral to any other Indebtedness of an Issuer or a Guarantor secured in whole or in part by the same collateral (including any “first-loss” or “last-out” tranche under (x) the First Lien Credit Agreement or the ABL Credit Agreement or (y) the documentation governing any other First Lien Secured Obligations or ABL Obligations), unless (1) such Indebtedness ranks pari passu or junior in right of payment with the Notes and (2) the Liens securing such Indebtedness rank pari passu or junior to the Liens securing the Secured Obligations. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 4.14 to the contrary, nothing in this Section 4.14 shall restrict customary waterfall provisions in the First Lien Loan Documents, ABL Financing Documents or documents governing such other Indebtedness that in each case do not establish any “first-loss,” “last-out” or similar tranche.

Section 4.15 Restrictions on Certain Debt Purchases. Neither the Sponsor nor any non-Debt Fund Affiliate thereof shall, nor shall Issuers or any of the Restricted Subsidiaries permit the Sponsor or any non-Debt Fund Affiliate thereof to, acquire or hold, whether acquired in primary or secondary transactions, any First Lien Secured Obligations or ABL Obligations, except (a) in the case of Indebtedness under the First Lien Credit Agreement, as permitted under the terms of the First Lien Credit Agreement (as in effect on the Closing Date), (b) in the case of any other First Lien Secured Obligations, as may be provided in the documentation governing such other First Lien Secured Obligations; provided that the provisions in the documentation governing such other First Lien Secured Obligations are substantially identical to, or less favorable to the Sponsor and its non-Debt Fund Affiliates than, the provisions described in the foregoing clause (a), and (c) in the case of ABL Obligations, as permitted under the terms of the ABL Credit Agreement (as in effect on the Closing Date).

ARTICLE V.

REDEMPTION OF SECURITIES

Section 5.01 Notices and Opinions to Trustee.

If the Parent Issuer elects to redeem Notes pursuant to the optional redemption provisions of Section 5.07, it must furnish to the Trustee at least 15 days (or such shorter period as may be agreed to by the Trustee) but not more than 60 days before notice of redemption is required to be sent or cause to be sent to Holders pursuant to Section 5.03, an Officer's Certificate setting forth:

- (A) the clause of this Indenture pursuant to which the redemption shall occur;
- (B) the date of redemption (the "Redemption Date");
- (C) the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed; and
- (D) the redemption price;

provided that any Officer's Certificate pursuant to this Section 5.01 may be furnished more than 60 days prior to a Redemption Date if the Officer's Certificate is furnished in connection with Article VIII or Article XI.

Any optional redemption referenced in such Officer's Certificate may be canceled by the Parent Issuer at any time prior to notice of redemption being sent to any Holder and thereafter shall be null and void.

Section 5.02 Selection of Notes to Be Redeemed or Purchased. If less than all of the Notes are to be redeemed at any time, selection of Notes for redemption shall be made by the Trustee in accordance with the requirements of the principal national securities exchange, if any, on which the Notes are listed (to the extent such listing and the requirements thereof are known to the Trustee) and in accordance with the procedures and requirements of DTC, or, if the Notes are not so listed or such exchange prescribes no method of selection and the Notes are not held through DTC, on a pro rata basis; provided that no Notes of $1.00 or less shall be redeemed in part. If any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption that relates to such Note shall state the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed.

Section 5.03 Notice of Redemption.

(a) At least 15 days but not more than 60 days before a Redemption Date, the Parent Issuer will send or cause to be sent, by electronic delivery or by first class mail postage prepaid, a notice of redemption to each Holder whose Notes are to be redeemed at the registered address of such Holder or otherwise in accordance with the procedures of the DTC, except that redemption notices may be delivered electronically or mailed more than 60 days prior to a Redemption Date if the notice is issued in connection with a defeasance of the Notes or a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture pursuant to Articles VIII or XI.

(b) The notice will identify the Notes (including the CUSIP or ISIN number) to be redeemed and will state:

(A) the Redemption Date;

(B) the redemption price;

(C) if any Note is being redeemed in part, the portion of the principal amount of such Note to be redeemed and that, after the Redemption Date upon surrender of such Note, a new Note or Notes in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion will be issued upon cancellation of the original Note;

(D) the name and address of the Paying Agent;

(E) that Notes called for redemption must be surrendered to the Paying Agent to collect the redemption price;

(F) that, unless the Parent Issuer defaults in making such redemption payment, interest on Notes called for redemption ceases to accrue on and after the Redemption Date;

(G) the paragraph of the Notes and/or Section of this Indenture pursuant to which the Notes called for redemption are being redeemed;

(H) that no representation is made as to the correctness or accuracy of the CUSIP or ISIN number, if any, listed in such notice or printed on the Notes; and

(I) any conditions to redemption.

(c) If any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption that relates to that Note shall state the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed, in which case a portion of the original Note will be issued in the name of the Holder thereof upon cancellation of the original Note. In the case of a Global Note, an appropriate notation will be made on such Note to decrease the principal amount thereof to an amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof. Subject to the terms of the applicable redemption notice (including any conditions contained therein), Notes called for redemption become due on the date fixed for redemption. On and after the Redemption Date, unless the Parent Issuer defaults in the payment of the redemption price, interest ceases to accrue on Notes or portions of them called for redemption.

(d) At the Parent Issuer's request, the Trustee will give the notice of redemption in the Parent Issuer's name and at its expense; provided, however, that the Parent Issuer has delivered to the Trustee, at least three Business Days (or such shorter period as may be agreed to by the Trustee) before notice of redemption is required to be sent or caused to be sent to Holders pursuant to this Section 5.03, an Officer's Certificate requesting that the Trustee give such notice, which shall include a form of the notice setting forth the information provided in the preceding paragraphs of this Section 5.03.

(e) Notice of any redemption of the Notes may, at the Parent Issuer's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent. If such redemption or purchase is so subject to satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, such notice shall describe each such condition, and if applicable, shall state that, in the Parent Issuer's discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Parent Issuer in its sole discretion), or such redemption or purchase may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied (or waived by the Parent Issuer in its sole discretion) by the Redemption Date stated in such notice, or by the Redemption Date as so delayed. In addition, the Parent Issuer may provide in such notice that payment of the redemption price and performance of the Parent Issuer's obligations with respect to such redemption may be performed by another Person.

Section 5.04 Effect of Notice of Redemption. Once notice of redemption is sent in accordance with Section 5.03, Notes called for redemption become irrevocably due and payable on the Redemption Date at the redemption price stated in such notice, as such Redemption Date may be delayed in accordance with Section 5.03(e), unless such redemption is rescinded in accordance with Section 5.03(e).

Section 5.05 Deposit of Redemption or Purchase Price. Prior to 12:00 p.m. New York City time on the redemption or purchase date, the Parent Issuer will deposit with the Trustee or with the Paying Agent money sufficient to pay the redemption or purchase price of and accrued interest, if any, on, all Notes to be redeemed or purchased on that date. The Trustee or the Paying Agent will promptly return to the Parent Issuer any money deposited with the Trustee or the Paying Agent by the Parent Issuer in excess of the amounts necessary to pay the redemption or purchase price of, and accrued interest on, all Notes to be redeemed or purchased.

If the Parent Issuer complies with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, on and after the redemption or purchase date, interest, if any, will cease to accrue on the Notes or the portions of Notes called for redemption or purchase. If a Note is redeemed or purchased on or after an interest Record Date but on or prior to the related Interest Payment Date, then any accrued and unpaid interest shall be paid to the Person in whose name such Note was registered at the close of business on such Record Date. If any Note called for redemption or purchase is not so paid upon surrender for redemption or purchase because of the failure of the Parent Issuer to comply with the preceding paragraph, interest shall be paid on the unpaid principal, from the redemption or purchase date until such principal is paid, and to the extent lawful on any interest not paid on such unpaid principal, in each case at the rate provided in the Notes and in Section 3.05.

Section 5.06 Notes Redeemed or Purchased in Part. Upon surrender of a Note that is redeemed or purchased in part, the Parent Issuer will issue and, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee will authenticate for the Holder at the expense of the Parent Issuer a new Note equal in principal amount to the unredeemed or unpurchased portion of the Note surrendered; provided that each such new Note will be in a principal amount of $1.00 or integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof.

Section 5.07 Optional Redemption.

(a) Except pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section 5.07, the Notes will not be redeemable at the Parent Issuer's option.

(b) At any time and from time to time from and after the Closing Date, the Parent Issuer may redeem the Notes, upon notice in accordance with Section 5.03, in whole or in part, at a redemption price equal to the percentage of principal amount set forth below plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on the Notes redeemed, to, but excluding, the applicable Redemption Date, if redeemed during the twelve-month period beginning on August 6 of the year indicated below:

Year	Percentage
2019	103%
2020	102%
2021	101%
2022 and thereafter	100%

(c) Unless the Parent Issuer defaults in the payment of the redemption price, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes or portions thereof called for redemption on the applicable Redemption Date.

(d) Any redemption pursuant to this Section 5.07 shall be made pursuant to the provisions of Sections 5.01 through 5.06.

Section 5.08 Mandatory Redemption. The Parent Issuer is not required to make mandatory redemption or sinking fund payments with respect to the Notes; provided, however, that under certain circumstances, the Parent Issuer may be required to offer to purchase Notes under Sections 3.23, 3.24 and 3.25. The Parent Issuer may at any time and from time to time purchase Notes in the open market or otherwise.

ARTICLE VI.

DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

Section 6.01 Events of Default.

Any of the following events referred to in any of clauses (a) through (k) of this Section 6.01 from and after the Closing Date shall constitute an event of default (an "Event of Default"):

(a) Non-Payment. Any Note Party fails to pay (i) when and as required to be paid by this Indenture or any Note, any amount of principal of any Note or (ii) within five (5) Business Days after the same becomes due, any interest on any Note or any other amount payable hereunder or with respect to any other Notes Document; or

(b) Specific Covenants. Any Note Party fails to perform or observe any term, covenant or agreement contained in any of Sections 3.03(a), 3.08(a) (solely with respect to the Parent Issuer) or Article IV; provided that, with respect to any such Event of Default resulting from a failure to promptly provide notice of an Event of Default to the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03(a), subject to the last proviso of this Section 6.01, the subsequent provision of such notice by the Parent Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary to the Trustee shall cure the Event of Default resulting from such failure to timely deliver such notice; or

(c) Other Defaults. Any Note Party fails to perform or observe any other covenant or agreement (not specified in Section 3.01(a) or (b) above) contained in any Notes Document on its part to be performed or observed and such failure continues for thirty (30) days after receipt by the Issuers of written notice thereof from the Trustee or the Required Holders; or

(d) Representations and Warranties. Any representation, warranty or certification made or deemed made by any Note Party herein, in any other Notes Document, or in any document required to be delivered in connection herewith or therewith shall be incorrect in any material respect when made or deemed made, and, other than with respect to any incorrect Specified Representation (which shall not be subject to cure or a grace period), such incorrect representation or warranty (if curable as determined by the Parent Issuer in good faith) shall remain incorrect for a period of (i) in the case of any representation, warranty or certification made on the Closing Date (other than any Specified Representation), 90 days and (ii) in the case of any representation, warranty or certification made after the Closing Date, 30 days, in each case after notice thereof from the Trustee or the Required Holders to the Issuers; or

(e) Cross-Default. Any Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary (A) fails to make any principal or interest payment beyond the applicable grace period, if any, whether by scheduled maturity, required prepayment, acceleration, demand, or otherwise, in respect of any Indebtedness (other than Indebtedness under the Notes Documents) having an aggregate outstanding principal amount of not less than the Threshold Amount, or (B) fails to observe or perform any other agreement or condition relating to any such Indebtedness, or any other event occurs (other than, with respect to Indebtedness consisting of Swap Contracts, termination events or equivalent events pursuant to the terms of such Swap Contracts and not as a result of any other default thereunder by the Issuers or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries), the effect of which default or other event is to cause, or to permit the holder or holders of such Indebtedness (or a trustee or agent on behalf of such holder or holders or beneficiary or beneficiaries) to cause, with the giving of notice if required and beyond the applicable grace period, if any, such Indebtedness to become due or to be repurchased, prepaid, defeased or redeemed (automatically or otherwise), or an offer to repurchase, prepay, defease or redeem all of such Indebtedness to be made, prior to its stated maturity; provided that this clause (e)(B) shall not apply to (i) secured Indebtedness that becomes due as a result of the voluntary sale or transfer of the property or assets securing such Indebtedness, if such sale or transfer is permitted hereunder, (ii) any Indebtedness if (x) the sole remedy of the holder thereof in the event of the non-payment of such Indebtedness or the non-payment or non-performance of obligations related thereto or (y) the sole option is to elect, in each case, to convert such Indebtedness into Qualified Equity Interests and cash in lieu of fractional shares and (iii) in the case of Indebtedness which the holder thereof may elect to convert into Qualified Equity Interests, such Indebtedness from and after the date, if any, on which such conversion has been effected; provided further that any such failure described under clause (A) or (B) is unremedied and is not waived by the holders of such Indebtedness prior to any acceleration pursuant to Section 6.02; provided further, however that any “Event of Default” under and as defined in the ABL Credit Agreement or the First Lien Credit Agreement shall, in each case, not constitute an Event of Default under this clause (e) until the earlier to occur of (x) any failure to make any payment required to be made on the applicable final maturity date under the ABL Credit Agreement or the First Lien Credit Agreement, as applicable and (y) any acceleration of the ABL Obligations or the First Lien Secured Obligations under the ABL Credit Agreement or the First Lien Credit Agreement, as applicable; or

(f) Insolvency Proceedings, Etc. Other than with respect to dissolutions or liquidations permitted hereunder, the Parent Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary that is a Material Subsidiary institutes or consents to the institution of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law, or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or applies for or consents to the appointment of any receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator, liquidator, rehabilitator, administrator, administrative receiver or similar officer for it or for all or any material part of its property; or any receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator, liquidator, rehabilitator, administrator, administrative receiver or similar officer is appointed without the application or consent of such Person and the appointment continues undischarged or unstayed for sixty (60) consecutive days; or any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law relating to any such Person or to all or substantially all of its property is instituted without the consent of such Person and continues undismissed or unstayed for sixty (60) consecutive days, or an order for relief is entered in any such proceeding; or

(g) [reserved]

(h) Judgments. There is entered against any Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary that is a Material Subsidiary a final judgment or order for the payment of money in an aggregate amount exceeding the Threshold Amount (to the extent not paid or covered by independent third-party insurance or indemnity as to which the insurer or indemnitor has been notified of such judgment or order and has not denied coverage thereof) and such judgment or order shall not have been satisfied, vacated, discharged or stayed or bonded pending an appeal for a period of sixty (60) consecutive days; or

(i) Invalidity of Notes Documents. Any material provision of any Notes Document, at any time after its execution and delivery and for any reason other than as expressly permitted hereunder or thereunder (including as a result of a transaction permitted under Section 4.04 or 4.05 or as a result of acts or omissions by the Collateral Agent or any Holder which does not arise from a breach by a Note Party of its obligations under the Notes Documents or as a result of the occurrence of the Termination Date), ceases to be in full force and effect; or any Note Party contests in writing the validity or enforceability of any provision of any Notes Document or the validity or priority of a Lien as required by the Collateral Documents on a material portion of the Collateral; or any Note Party denies in writing that it has any or further liability or obligation under any Notes Document (other than as a result of the occurrence of the Termination Date), or purports in writing to revoke or rescind any Notes Document; provided that none of the foregoing shall apply to any Guarantor which is not a Material Subsidiary; or

(j) Collateral Documents. Any Collateral Document after delivery thereof pursuant to Section 3.1(a)(iv) of the Note Purchase Agreement or Section 3.13 or 3.15 of this Indenture shall for any reason (other than pursuant to the terms hereof or thereof including as a result of a transaction not prohibited under this Indenture) cease to create a valid and perfected Lien, with the priority required by the Collateral Documents on and security interest in any material portion of the Collateral purported to be covered thereby, subject to Liens permitted under Section 4.01, (x) except to the extent that any such perfection or priority is not required pursuant to the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement or results from the failure of the Collateral Agent to maintain possession of certificates actually delivered to it representing securities pledged under the Collateral Documents (or other pledged collateral actually delivered to it under the Collateral Documents) or to file Uniform Commercial Code continuation statements and (y) except as to Collateral consisting of Real Property to the extent that such losses are covered by a lender’s title insurance policy and such insurer has not denied coverage; or

(k) ERISA. (i) An ERISA Event occurs which has resulted or could reasonably be expected to result in liability of a Note Party or an ERISA Affiliate in an aggregate amount which would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, or (ii) a Note Party or any ERISA Affiliate fails to pay when due, after the expiration of any applicable grace period, any installment payment with respect to its withdrawal liability under Section 4201 of ERISA under any Multiemployer Plan which has resulted or could reasonably be expected to result in liability of a Note Party or an ERISA Affiliate in an aggregate amount which would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

provided that any Event of Default under the Notes Documents, other than any Event of Default which cannot be waived without the written consent of each affected Holder, shall be deemed not to be “continuing” (and shall be deemed to be “cured”) if the events, acts or conditions that gave rise to such event of default have been remedied or cured (including by payment, notice, taking any action or omitting to take any action) or have ceased to exist and the Issuers are otherwise in compliance with the Notes Documents; provided that the foregoing shall not be applicable with respect to any Default or Event of Default if the Issuers knowingly and willfully fail to give timely notice to the Trustee and the Holders of such Default or Event of Default required to be given under the Notes Documents.

Section 6.02 Acceleration. If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default described in Section 6.01(f) with respect to any Issuer) occurs and is continuing, (x) the Trustee (at the direction of the Required Holders) by written notice to the Parent Issuer may declare, or (y) the Required Holders, by written notice to the Parent Issuer and the Trustee, may declare, the principal of, premium, if any, and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on all the Notes to be due and payable. Upon such a declaration, such principal, premium and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, will be due and payable immediately. If an Event of Default described in Section 6.01(f) with respect to any Issuer occurs and is continuing, the principal of, premium, if any, and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on all the Notes will become and be immediately due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Holders.

Section 6.03 Other Remedies.

At any time when an Event of Default under Section 6.01(a) or (f) exists, any overdue amounts shall bear interest, to the fullest extent permitted by law, at a rate that is 2.00% per annum above the rate then borne by (in the case of such principal) such amount of principal outstanding or (in the case of interest or other amounts) the amount of principal outstanding to which such interest or other amount relates. Any additional interest that accrues by virtue of the operation of this Section 6.03 shall be payable in cash on demand and, to the extent applicable and subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, in accordance with Section 2.11.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may pursue any available remedy by proceeding at law or in equity to collect the payment of principal of, or premium, if any, or interest, if any, on the Notes or to enforce the performance of any provision of the Notes or this Indenture.

The Trustee may maintain a proceeding even if it does not possess any of the Notes or does not produce any of them in the proceeding. A delay or omission by the Trustee or any Holder in exercising any right or remedy accruing upon an Event of Default shall not impair the right or remedy or constitute a waiver of or acquiescence in the Event of Default. No remedy is exclusive of any other remedy. All available remedies are cumulative to the extent permitted by law.

Section 6.04 Waiver of Past Defaults. The Required Holders by written notice to the Trustee may, on behalf of all of the Holders, (a) waive, by their consent (including, without limitation, consents obtained in connection with a purchase of, or tender offer or exchange offer for, Notes), an existing Default or Event of Default and its consequences under this Indenture except (i) a Default or Event of Default in the payment of the principal of, or premium, if any, or interest on a Note or (ii) a Default or Event of Default in respect of a provision that under Section 9.02 cannot be amended without the consent of each Holder affected and (b) rescind any acceleration with respect to the Notes and its consequences if (1) such rescission would not conflict with any judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, (2) all existing Events of Default have been cured or waived except nonpayment of principal, premium, if any, or interest, if any, that has become due solely because of the acceleration, (3) to the extent the payment of such interest, if any, is lawful, interest on overdue installments of interest, premium, if any, and overdue principal, which has become due otherwise than by such declaration of acceleration, has been paid, including any additional interest required to be paid pursuant to Section 6.03, (4) the Parent Issuer has paid the Trustee its compensation and reimbursed the Trustee for its reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances then due and payable in accordance with Section 7.07 and (5) in the event of the cure or waiver of an Event of Default of the type described in clause (e) of Section 6.01, the Trustee shall have received an Officer's Certificate stating that such Event of Default has been cured or waived. No such rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right consequent thereto. When a Default or Event of Default is waived, it is deemed cured, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or Event of Default or impair any consequent right.

Section 6.05 Control by Majority. Subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, the Required Holders may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or the Collateral Agent or of exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee or the Collateral Agent. However, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with law or this Indenture or the Notes or, subject to Sections 7.01 and 7.02, that the Trustee determines is unduly prejudicial to the rights of other Holders (it being understood that the Trustee does not have an affirmative duty to ascertain whether or not any actions are unduly prejudicial to such Holders) or would involve the Trustee or the Collateral Agent in personal liability; provided, however, that the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with such direction. Prior to taking any such action hereunder, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to security or indemnification from the Holders satisfactory to each of them against all losses, liabilities and expenses that may be caused by taking or not taking such action.

Section 6.06 Limitation on Suits. Subject to Section 6.07, no Holder may pursue any remedy with respect to this Indenture or the Notes unless:

- (i) such Holder has previously given the Trustee written notice that an Event of Default is continuing;
- (ii) the Controlling Parties (or, after the Sell-Down Date, the Applicable Holders) have requested in writing to the Trustee to pursue the remedy;
- (iii) such Holders have offered in writing to the Trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to the Trustee against any loss, liability or expense;
- (iv) the Trustee has not complied with such request within 60 days after the receipt of the written request and the offer of security or indemnity; and
- (v) the Required Holders have not given the Trustee a written direction that, in the opinion of the Trustee, is inconsistent with such request within such 60-day period.

A Holder may not use this Indenture to prejudice the rights of another Holder or to obtain a preference or priority over another Holder (it being understood that the Trustee does not have an affirmative duty to ascertain whether or not such actions or forbearances are unduly prejudicial to such Holders).

Section 6.07 Rights of Holders to Receive Payment. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture (including, without limitation, Section 6.06), the right of any Holder to receive payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest, if any, on the Notes held by such Holder, on or after the respective due dates expressed or provided for in the Notes, or to bring suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after such respective dates, shall not be impaired or affected without the consent of such Holder.

Section 6.08 Collection Suit by Trustee. If an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(a) occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may recover judgment in its own name and as trustee of an express trust against the Issuers for the whole amount then due and owing (together with interest on any unpaid interest, if any, to the extent lawful) and the amounts provided for in Section 7.07.

Section 6.09 Trustee May File Proofs of Claim. The Trustee may file such proofs of claim and other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel) and the Holders allowed in any judicial proceedings relative to the Parent Issuer, the Parent Issuer's Subsidiaries or its or their respective creditors or properties and, unless prohibited by law or applicable regulations, may be entitled and empowered to participate as a member of any official committee of creditors appointed in such matter and may vote on behalf of the Holders in any election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other Person performing similar functions, and any Custodian in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder to make payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders, to pay to the Trustee any amount due it for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and its counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee under Section 7.07.

No provision of this Indenture shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Holder any plan of reorganization, arrangement, compromise, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder in any such proceeding.

Section 6.10 Priorities.

(a) Subject to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements, if the Trustee collects any money or property pursuant to this Article VI it shall pay out the money or property in the following order:

FIRST: to the Trustee for amounts due to it under Section 7.07 and to the Collateral Agent for amounts due to it under this Indenture and the other Notes Documents;

SECOND: to Holders for amounts due and unpaid on the Notes for principal, premium, if any, and interest, if any, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on the Notes for principal of, or premium, if any, and interest, respectively; and

THIRD: without duplication, to the GS Purchasers and any other Secured Parties for any other Secured Obligations owing to the GS Purchasers or such other Secured Parties under the Notes Documents; and FOURTH: to the Parent Issuer, or to the extent the Trustee collects any amount for any Guarantor, to such Guarantor.

(b) The Trustee may fix a record date and payment date for any payment to Holders pursuant to this Section 6.10.

Section 6.11 Undertaking for Costs. In any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee, a court in its discretion may require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and the court in its discretion may assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 6.11 does not apply to a suit by the Trustee, a suit by the Parent Issuer, a suit by a Holder pursuant to Section 6.07 or a suit by Holders of more than 10% in outstanding principal amount of the Notes.

ARTICLE VII.

TRUSTEE AND COLLATERAL AGENT

Section 7.01 Duties of Trustee.

(a) If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall exercise the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise as a prudent Person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such Person's own affairs.

(b) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default of which a Trust Officer of the Trustee has actual knowledge:

(A) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth as duties of the Trustee in this Indenture or the other Notes Documents and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(B) in the absence of bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates, opinions or orders furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture or the other Notes Documents, as the case may be. However, in the case of any such certificates or opinions which by any provisions hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, the Trustee shall examine such certificates and opinions to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Indenture, or the other Notes Documents, as the case may be (but need not confirm or investigate the accuracy of mathematical calculations or other facts stated therein).

(c) The Trustee may not be relieved from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(A) this paragraph does not limit the effect of paragraph (b) of this Section 7.01;

(B) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Trust Officer unless it is proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(C) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in accordance with a direction received by it pursuant to Section 6.05; and

(D) No provision of this Indenture or the other Notes Documents shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder or thereunder or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds to believe that repayment of such funds or adequate security or indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

(d) Every provision of this Indenture that in any way relates to the Trustee is subject to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this Section 7.01.

(e) The Trustee shall not be liable for interest or investment income on any money received by it except as the Trustee may agree in writing with the Parent Issuer.

(f) Money held in trust by the Trustee need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law, the Collateral Documents, the Intercreditor Agreements, Article VIII or Article XI.

(g) The Trustee shall furnish all notices, deliverables, certificates, financial statements and reports delivered, or required to be delivered, by any Note Party to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture or the other Notes Documents as promptly as practicable and, in any event, within five Business Days of receipt thereof to (i) the Holders, (ii) the GS Purchasers prior to the GS Disposition Date and (iii) the Ares Purchasers prior to the Ares Disposition Date.

Section 7.02 Rights of Trustee. Subject to Section 7.01:

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely on and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order or other paper or document (whether in its original, electronic or facsimile form) reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper Person. The Trustee need not investigate any fact or matter stated in the document.

(b) Before the Trustee acts or refrains from acting, it may require an Officer's Certificate or an Opinion of Counsel or both. The Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on an Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel.

(c) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts and powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through its attorneys and agents and shall not be responsible for the misconduct or negligence of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it hereunder.

(d) The Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith which it believes to be authorized or within its rights or powers conferred upon it by this Indenture.

(e) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its selection, and the advice or opinion of counsel relating to this Indenture or the other Notes Documents shall be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect of any action taken, omitted or suffered by it hereunder or under the Notes in good faith and in reliance on the advice or opinion of such counsel.

(f) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any Default or Event of Default unless a Trust Officer of the Trustee has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice of any event which is in fact such a Default or Event of Default is received by the Trustee at the corporate trust office of the Trustee specified in Section 3.06, and such notice references the Notes and this Indenture.

(g) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and to each agent, custodian and other Person employed to act hereunder, including the Registrar, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent, Collateral Agent and Calculation Agent.

(h) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture or the other Notes Documents at the request, order or direction of any of the Holders pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture, unless such Holders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to the Trustee against the losses, liabilities and expenses which may be incurred therein or thereby.

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any fact or matter unless such fact or matter is actually known to a Trust Officer of the Trustee or unless written notice of such fact or matter is received by the Trustee at the corporate trust office of the Trustee specified in Section 3.06.

(j) Whenever in the administration of this Indenture or the other Notes Documents the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder or thereunder, the Trustee (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) may, in the absence of bad faith or willful misconduct on its part, conclusively rely upon an Officer's Certificate.

(k) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, coupon or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit.

(l) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder.

(m) The Trustee may request that the Parent Issuer delivers an Officer's Certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to this Indenture or the other Notes Documents.

(n) In no event shall the Trustee be liable to any Person for special, punitive, indirect, consequential or incidental loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(o) Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Indenture, any demand, request, direction or notice from the Parent Issuer shall be sufficient if signed by one Responsible Officer of the Parent Issuer.

(p) The permissive rights of the Trustee enumerated hereunder shall not be construed as duties.

Section 7.03 Individual Rights of Trustee. The Trustee in its individual or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and may otherwise deal with the Parent Issuer, the Guarantors or their respective Affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee. Any Agent may do the same with like rights. However, the Trustee must comply with Sections 7.10. In addition, the Trustee shall be permitted to engage in transactions with the Parent Issuer; provided, however, that if the Trustee acquires any conflicting interest, the Trustee must (i) eliminate such conflict within 90 days of acquiring such conflicting interest, (ii) apply to the SEC for permission to continue acting as Trustee or (iii) resign.

Section 7.04 Trustee's Disclaimer. The Trustee shall not be responsible for and makes no representation as to the validity or adequacy of this Indenture or the Notes, shall not be accountable for the Parent Issuer's use of the proceeds from the sale of the Notes, shall not be responsible for the use or application of any money received by any Paying Agent other than the Trustee or any money paid to the Parent Issuer pursuant to the terms of this Indenture and shall not be responsible for any statement of the Parent Issuer in this Indenture or in any document issued in connection with the sale of the Notes or in the Notes other than the Trustee's certificate of authentication.

Section 7.05 Notice of Defaults. If a Default or Event of Default occurs and is continuing and if a Trust Officer has actual knowledge thereof, the Trustee shall send electronically or by first class mail to each Holder at the address set forth in the Notes Register notice of the Default or Event of Default within 45 days after it is actually known to a Trust Officer. Except in the case of a Default or Event of Default in payment of principal of, or premium, if any, or interest on any Note (including payments pursuant to the optional redemption or required repurchase provisions of such Note), the Trustee may withhold the notice if and so long as it in good faith determines that withholding the notice is in the interests of Holders.

Section 7.06 Notice of Listing. The Parent Issuer will promptly notify the Trustee in writing when the Notes are listed on any stock exchange and of any delisting thereof.

Section 7.07 Compensation and Indemnity. The Parent Issuer shall pay to the Trustee from time to time compensation for its services hereunder and under the other Notes Documents as the Parent Issuer and the Trustee shall from time to time agree in writing. The Trustee's compensation shall not be limited by any law on compensation of a trustee of an express trust. The Parent Issuer shall reimburse the Trustee upon request for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred or made by it, including, but not limited to, costs of collection, costs of preparing reports, certificates and other documents, costs of preparation and mailing of notices to Holders. Such expenses shall include the reasonable compensation and expenses, disbursements and advances of the agents, counsel, accountants and experts of the Trustee. The Parent Issuer shall indemnify the Trustee, its officers, directors, employees and agents against any and all fees, loss, liability, damages, claims or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred by it without willful misconduct or negligence, on its part in connection with the administration of this trust and the performance of its duties hereunder and under the other Notes Documents, including the reasonable costs and expenses of enforcing this Indenture (including this Section 7.07) and the other Notes Documents and of defending itself against any claims (whether asserted by any Holder, the Parent Issuer or any other Person); provided that the Parent Issuer need not pay for any settlement made without its consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). The Trustee shall notify the Parent Issuer promptly of any claim for which it may seek indemnity of which it has received written notice. Failure by the Trustee to so notify the Parent Issuer shall not relieve the Parent Issuer of its obligations hereunder. The Parent Issuer shall defend the claim and the Trustee shall provide reasonable cooperation at the Parent Issuer's expense in the defense. The Trustee shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Parent Issuer shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustee may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Parent Issuer if (a) the Parent Issuer has not otherwise assumed the Trustee's defense or (b) in the reasonable judgment of the Trustee, (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustee that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Parent Issuer.

To secure the Parent Issuer's payment obligations in this Section 7.07, the Trustee shall have a lien prior to the Notes on all money or property held or collected by the Trustee (other than money or property held in trust to pay principal of and premium and interest on the Notes). Such lien shall survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture. The Trustee's respective right to receive payment of any amounts due under this Section 7.07 shall not be subordinate to any other liability or Indebtedness of the Parent Issuer.

The Parent Issuer's payment obligations pursuant to this Section 7.07 shall survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture and the resignation or removal of the Trustee. Without prejudice to any other rights available to the Trustee under applicable law, when the Trustee incurs fees, expenses or renders services after the occurrence of an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(f), the fees and expenses (including the reasonable fees and expenses of its counsel) are intended to constitute expenses of administration under any Debtor Relief Law.

Section 7.08 Replacement of Trustee. The Trustee may resign at any time by so notifying the Parent Issuer in writing not less than 30 days prior to the effective date of such resignation. The Required Holders may remove the Trustee by so notifying the removed Trustee in writing not less than 30 days prior to the effective date of such removal and may appoint a successor Trustee with the Parent Issuer's written consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. The Parent Issuer shall remove the Trustee if:

- (a) the Trustee fails to comply with Section 7.10;
- (b) the Trustee is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent;
- (c) a receiver or other public officer takes charge of the Trustee or its property; or
- (d) the Trustee otherwise becomes incapable of acting.

If the Trustee resigns or is removed by the Parent Issuer or by the Required Holders and such Holders do not reasonably promptly appoint a successor Trustee as described in the preceding paragraph, or if a vacancy exists in the office of the Trustee for any reason (the Trustee in any such event being referred to herein as the retiring Trustee), the Parent Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee.

A successor Trustee shall deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Trustee and to the Parent Issuer. Thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective, and the successor Trustee shall have all the rights, powers and duties of the Trustee under this Indenture. The successor Trustee shall send a notice of its succession to Holders. The retiring Trustee shall, at the expense of the Parent Issuer, promptly transfer all property held by it as Trustee to the successor Trustee, subject to the lien provided for in Section 7.07.

If a successor Trustee does not take office within 60 days after the retiring Trustee resigns or is removed, the retiring Trustee or the Holders of at least 10% in principal amount of the Notes may petition, at the Parent Issuer's expense, any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

If the Trustee fails to comply with Section 7.10, unless the Trustee's duty to resign is stayed as provided in TIA Section 310(b), any Holder, who has been a bona fide Holder of a Note for at least six months, may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 7.08, the Parent Issuer's obligations under Section 7.07 shall continue for the benefit of the retiring Trustee. The predecessor Trustee shall have no liability for any action or inaction of any successor Trustee.

Section 7.09 Successor Trustee by Merger. If the Trustee consolidates with, merges or converts into, or transfers all or substantially all its corporate trust business or assets to, another corporation or banking association, the resulting, surviving or transferee corporation or banking association without any further act shall be the successor Trustee.

In case at the time such successor or successors by merger, conversion or consolidation to the Trustee shall succeed to the trusts created by this Indenture, and any of the Notes shall have been authenticated but not delivered, any such successor to the Trustee may adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor trustee, and deliver such Notes so authenticated; and in case at that time any of the Notes shall not have been authenticated, any successor to the Trustee may authenticate such Notes either in the name of any predecessor hereunder or in the name of the successor to the Trustee; provided that the right to adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor Trustee or authenticate Notes in the name of any predecessor Trustee shall only apply to its successor or successors by merger, consolidation or conversion.

Section 7.10 Eligibility; Disqualification. This Indenture shall always have a Trustee. The Trustee shall have a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000 as set forth in its most recent published annual report of condition, other than with respect to Ankura Trust Company, LLC which shall have a minimum combined capital and surplus as required by TIA Section 310(a)(2).

Section 7.11 [Reserved].

Section 7.12 Collateral Agent; Collateral Documents; Intercreditor Agreements.

(a) Ankura Trust Company, LLC, is hereby designated and appointed as the Collateral Agent of the Secured Parties under this Indenture and the other Notes Documents and Ankura Trust Company, LLC hereby accepts such designation and appointment.

(b) By their acceptance of the Notes, the Holders hereby authorize and direct the Trustee and Collateral Agent, as the case may be, to execute and deliver the Intercreditor Agreements and any Collateral Documents in which the Trustee or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, is named as a party, including any Collateral Documents and Intercreditor Agreements executed after the Closing Date. It is hereby expressly acknowledged and agreed that, in doing so, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent are (a) expressly authorized to make the representations attributed to Holders in any such agreements and (b) not responsible for the terms or contents of such agreements, or for the validity or enforceability thereof, or the sufficiency thereof for any purpose. Whether or not so expressly stated therein, in entering into, or taking (or forbearing from) any action under, the Intercreditor Agreements or any Collateral Documents, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent each shall have all of the rights, immunities, indemnities and other protections granted to it under this Indenture (in addition to those that may be granted to it under the terms of such other agreement or agreements).

(c) Upon the written request of the Parent Issuer, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent will execute and deliver the applicable Intercreditor Agreement(s) in connection with the incurrence by the Parent Issuer of Indebtedness permitted by this Indenture.

(d) In acting as Collateral Agent hereunder, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon and enforce each and all of the rights, privileges, immunities, indemnities and benefits of the Trustee under this Article VII; and any references in this Article VII to "Trustee" shall be references to "Collateral Agent".

Section 7.13 Replacement of Collateral Agent. The Collateral Agent may resign at any time by so notifying the Parent Issuer in writing not less than 30 days prior to the effective date of such resignation. The Required Holders may remove the Collateral Agent by so notifying the removed Collateral Agent in writing not less than 30 days prior to the effective date of such removal and may appoint a successor Collateral Agent with the Parent Issuer's written consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. The Parent Issuer shall remove the Collateral Agent if:

- (i) the Collateral Agent fails to comply with Section 7.10;
- (ii) the Collateral Agent is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent;
- (iii) a receiver or other public officer takes charge of the Collateral Agent or its property; or
- (iv) the Collateral Agent otherwise becomes incapable of acting.

If the Collateral Agent resigns or is removed by the Parent Issuer or by the Required Holders and such Holders do not reasonably promptly appoint a successor Collateral Agent as described in the preceding paragraph, or if a vacancy exists in the office of the Collateral Agent for any reason (the Collateral Agent in any such event being referred to herein as the retiring Collateral Agent), the Parent Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor Collateral Agent.

A successor Collateral Agent shall deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Collateral Agent and to the Parent Issuer. Thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Collateral Agent shall become effective, and the successor Collateral Agent shall have all the rights, powers and duties of the Collateral Agent under this Indenture. The successor Collateral Agent shall send a notice of its succession to Holders. The retiring Collateral Agent shall, at the expense of the Parent Issuer, promptly transfer all property held by it as Collateral Agent to the successor Collateral Agent, subject to the Lien provided for in Section 7.07.

If a successor Collateral Agent does not take office within 60 days after the retiring Collateral Agent re-signs or is removed, the retiring Collateral Agent or the Holders of at least 10% in principal amount of the Notes may petition, at the Parent Issuer's expense, any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Collateral Agent.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Section 7.13, the Parent Issuer's obligations under Section 7.07 shall continue for the benefit of the retiring Collateral Agent. The predecessor Collateral Agent shall have no liability for any action or inaction of any successor Collateral Agent.

ARTICLE VIII.

LEGAL DEFEASANCE AND COVENANT DEFEASANCE

Section 8.01 Option to Effect Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance; Defeasance. The Parent Issuer may, at its option and at any time, elect to have either Section 8.02 or 8.03 be applied to all outstanding Notes upon compliance with the conditions set forth in this Article VIII.

Section 8.02 Legal Defeasance and Discharge. Upon the Parent Issuer's exercise under Section 8.01 of the option applicable to this Section 8.02, each Issuer and each of the Guarantors will, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 8.04, be deemed to have been discharged from their obligations with respect to all outstanding Notes (including the Note Guarantees), this Indenture and the Collateral Documents on the date the conditions set forth in Section 8.04 are satisfied (hereinafter, "Legal Defeasance"). For this purpose, Legal Defeasance means that the Issuers and the Guarantors will be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire Indebtedness represented by the outstanding Notes (including the Note Guarantees), which will thereafter be deemed to be "outstanding" only for the purposes of Section 8.05 and the other Sections of this Indenture referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) below, and to have satisfied all of their other obligations under such Notes, the Note Guarantees, this Indenture and the Collateral Documents (and the Trustee, on demand of and at the expense of the Parent Issuer, shall execute such instruments reasonably requested by the Parent Issuer acknowledging the same) and to have cured all then existing Events of Default, except for the following provisions which will survive until otherwise terminated or discharged hereunder:

- (i) the rights of Holders of Notes issued under this Indenture to receive payments in respect of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes when such payments are due solely out of the trust referred to in Section 8.04;
- (ii) the Issuers' obligations with respect to the Notes under Article II concerning issuing temporary Notes, registration of such Notes, mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes and Section 3.06 concerning the maintenance of an office or agency for payment and money for security payments held in trust;
- (iii) the rights, powers, trusts, duties, indemnities, and immunities of the Trustee and the Collateral Agent hereunder and the Issuers' or Guarantors' obligations in connection therewith; and
- (iv) this Article VIII with respect to provisions relating to Legal Defeasance.

Subject to compliance with this Section 8.02, the Parent Issuer may exercise its option under this Section 8.02 notwithstanding the prior exercise of its option under Section 8.03.

Section 8.03 Covenant Defeasance. Upon the Parent Issuer's exercise under Section 8.01 of the option applicable to this Section 8.03, each Issuer and each of the Guarantors will, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 8.04, be released from each of their obligations under the Collateral Documents and the covenants contained in Sections 3.01, 3.02, 3.07, 3.08 (other than with respect to the Parent Issuer only), 3.09, 3.10, 3.11, 3.12, 3.13, 3.14, 3.15, 3.16, 3.17, 3.18, 3.19, 3.20, 3.21, 3.22, 3.23, 3.24 and 3.25 and Article IV (except Section 4.04 shall still apply to the Issuers), with respect to the outstanding Notes on and after the date the conditions set forth in Section 8.04 are satisfied (hereinafter, "Covenant Defeasance"), and the Notes will thereafter be deemed not "outstanding" for the purposes of any direction, waiver, consent or declaration or act of Holders (and the consequences of any thereof) in connection with such covenants, but will continue to be deemed "outstanding" for all other purposes hereunder. For this purpose, Covenant Defeasance means that, with respect to the outstanding Notes and Note Guarantees, the Issuers and the Guarantors may omit to comply with and shall have no liability in respect of any term, condition or limitation set forth in any such Collateral Document or covenant, whether directly or indirectly, by reason of any reference elsewhere herein or therein to any such Collateral Document or covenant or by reason of any reference in any such Collateral Document or covenant to any other provision herein or therein or in any other document and such omission to comply shall not constitute a Default or an Event of Default under Section 6.01, but, except as specified in this Section 8.03, the remainder of this Indenture and such Notes and Note Guarantees will be unaffected thereby. In addition, upon the Parent Issuer's exercise under Section 8.01 of the option applicable to this Section 8.03, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 8.04, Sections 6.01(b) or 6.01(c) (in each case solely with respect to the defeased covenants specified in the first sentence of this paragraph), 6.01(d), 6.01(e), 6.01(h), 6.01(i), 6.01(j) and 6.01(k) shall not constitute Events of Default.

Section 8.04 Conditions to Legal or Covenant Defeasance. In order to exercise either Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance under either Section 8.02 or 8.03:

(i) the Parent Issuer must irrevocably deposit with the Trustee, in trust, for the benefit of the Holders, cash in Dollars or U.S. Government Obligations or a combination thereof in such amounts as will be sufficient (in the case of any deposit that includes U.S. Government Obligations, in the written opinion of an Independent Financial Advisor), to pay the principal of and premium, if any, and interest due on the Notes issued under this Indenture on the Maturity Date or on the applicable Redemption Date, as the case may be, and the Parent Issuer must specify whether such Notes are being defeased to the Maturity Date or to a particular Redemption Date;

(ii) in the case of Legal Defeasance, the Parent Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel in the United States stating that, subject to customary assumptions and exclusions, (i) the Parent Issuer has received from, or there has been published by, the United States Internal Revenue Service a ruling or (ii) since the issuance of such Notes, there has been a change in the applicable U.S. federal income tax law, and in either case of clause (i) or (ii) stating that, and based thereon such Opinion of Counsel in the United States shall confirm that, subject to customary assumptions and exclusions, the holders of the Notes, in their capacity as holders of the Notes, will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such Legal Defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Legal Defeasance had not occurred;

(iii) in the case of Covenant Defeasance, the Parent Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel in the United States stating that, subject to customary assumptions and exclusions, the holders of the Notes, in their capacity as holders of the Notes, will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such Covenant Defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Covenant Defeasance had not occurred;

(iv) no Default or Event of Default (other than that resulting from borrowing funds to be applied to make such deposit and any similar and simultaneous deposit relating to the repayment in full and satisfaction of other Indebtedness and, in each case, the granting of Liens and the consummation of other transactions in connection therewith) shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit;

(v) such Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance shall not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under the First Lien Credit Agreement or any other material agreement or instrument (other than this Indenture) to which, any Issuer or any Guarantor is a party or by which any Issuer or any Guarantor is bound (other than under any similar debt instrument being similarly defeased and resulting from any borrowing of funds to be applied to make the deposit required to effect such Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance hereunder and to effect such defeasance under such other debt instrument, and, in each case, the granting of Liens in connection therewith);

(vi) the Parent Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate stating that the deposit was not made by the Parent Issuer with the intent of defeating, hindering, delaying, defrauding or preferring any creditors of the Parent Issuer; and

(vii) the Parent Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent provided for or relating to Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance, as the case may be, have been complied with.

Section 8.05 Deposited Money to be Held in Trust. Subject to Section 8.06, all money and U.S. Government Obligations (including the proceeds thereof) deposited with the Trustee (or other qualifying trustee, collectively for purposes of this Section 8.05, the "Trustee") pursuant to Section 8.04 in respect of the outstanding Notes will be held in trust and applied by the Trustee, in accordance with the provisions of such Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent (including the Parent Issuer acting as Paying Agent) as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of such Notes of all sums due and to become due thereon in respect of principal, premium and interest, but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

The Parent Issuer will pay and indemnify the Trustee against any tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against the cash or U.S. Government Obligations deposited pursuant to Section 8.04 or the principal and interest received in respect thereof other than any such tax, fee or other charge which by law is for the account of the Holders of the outstanding Notes.

Notwithstanding anything in this Article VIII to the contrary, the Trustee will deliver or pay to the Parent Issuer from time to time upon the request of the Parent Issuer any money or U.S. Government Obligations held by it as provided in Section 8.04 which, in the written opinion of an Independent Financial Advisor expressed in a written certification thereof delivered to the Trustee to the extent such requested amount consists of U.S. Government Obligations (which may be the opinion delivered under Section 8.04(i)), are in excess of the amount thereof that would then be required to be deposited to effect an equivalent Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance.

Section 8.06 Repayment to the Parent Issuer. Any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent, or then held by the Parent Issuer, in trust for the payment of the principal of, premium or interest on, any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, premium or interest has become due and payable shall be paid to the Parent Issuer on its written request unless an abandoned property law designates another Person or (if then held by the Parent Issuer) will be discharged from such trust; and the Holder of such Note will thereafter be permitted to look only to the Parent Issuer for payment thereof unless an abandoned property law designates another Person, and all liability of the Trustee or such Paying Agent with respect to such trust money, and all liability of the Parent Issuer as trustees thereof, will thereupon cease.

Section 8.07 Reinstatement. If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply any Dollars or U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with Section 8.02 or 8.03, as the case may be, by reason of any order or judgment of any court or Governmental Authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, then the Issuers' and the Guarantors' obligations under this Indenture and the Notes and the Note Guarantees will be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to Section 8.02 or 8.03 until such time as the Trustee or Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such money in accordance with Section 8.02 or 8.03, as the case may be; provided, however, that, if any Issuer makes any payment of principal of, premium or interest on, any Note following the reinstatement of its obligations, the Issuers will be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Notes to receive such payment from the money or U.S. Government Obligations held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

ARTICLE IX.

AMENDMENTS

Section 9.01 Without Consent of Holders. Notwithstanding Section 9.02 of this Indenture, any Issuer, any Guarantor (with respect to its Note Guarantee), as applicable, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent may amend, supplement or modify this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Guarantees and the Collateral Documents, and Trustee and/or the Collateral Agent shall enter into an amendment to any Intercreditor Agreement, without the consent of any Holder if such amendment, supplement or modification is made (x) prior to the Sell-Down Date, for any purposes set forth in clause (g), (j), (k) or (l) below and (y) thereafter, for any purpose set forth in clauses (a) through (l) below:

- (a) to (x) cure any ambiguity, omission, mistake, defect, error or inconsistency or (y) reduce the minimum denomination of the Notes;
- (b) to provide for the assumption by a successor Person of the obligations of any Issuer or a Guarantor under any Notes Document in accordance with Section 4.04(d);
- (c) to provide for uncertificated Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Notes;
- (d) to add to the covenants or provide for a Note Guarantee for the benefit of the Holders or surrender any right or power conferred upon the Parent Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary;
- (e) to make any change that does not adversely affect the rights of any Holder in any material respect;
- (f) at the Parent Issuer's election, to comply with any requirement of the SEC in connection with the qualification of this Indenture under the TIA, if such qualification is required;
- (g) to provide for any Restricted Subsidiary to provide a Note Guarantee or to add Note Guarantees;
- (h) to evidence and provide for the acceptance and appointment under this Indenture of a successor Trustee pursuant to the requirements hereof or to provide for the accession by the Trustee to any Notes Document;
- (i) to make any amendment to the provisions of this Indenture relating to the transfer and legending of Notes as permitted by this Indenture, including, without limitation, to facilitate the issuance and administration of Notes; provided, however, that (i) compliance with this Indenture as so amended would not result in Notes being transferred in violation of the Securities Act or any other applicable securities law and (ii) such amendment does not adversely affect the rights of Holders to transfer Notes in any material respect;

(j) to mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or grant any Lien in favor of the Collateral Agent for its benefit and the benefit of the Secured Parties as additional security for the payment and performance of all or any portion of the Secured Obligations, in any property or assets, including any which are required to be mortgaged, pledged or hypothecated, or in which a Lien is required to be granted to or for the benefit of the Trustee or the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Indenture, any of the other Notes Documents or otherwise;

(k) to provide for, effect, confirm and/or evidence the release, termination, discharge or retaking of any Note Guarantee in respect of, or Lien securing, the Secured Obligations when such release, termination, discharge or retaking is expressly required or expressly permitted under this Indenture; or

(l) to give effect to any increase in the Applicable Margin or the Adjusted LIBOR Rate Floor pursuant to clause (vi) of the definition of "Additional Second Lien Debt" or pursuant to the corresponding provisions in the definition of "Permitted Ratio Debt" or Section 4.01(jj).

Prior to the Sell-Down Date, the consent of the Controlling Parties shall be required for any Issuer, any Guarantor (with respect to its Note Guarantee), as applicable, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent to amend, supplement or modify this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Guarantees and the Collateral Documents if such amendment, supplement or modification is for any purposes set forth in clauses set forth in (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (h) or (i) above. Subject to Section 9.02, upon the request of the Parent Issuer, and upon receipt by the Trustee and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, of the documents described in Sections 9.06 and 13.03, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent, if applicable, will join with the Parent Issuer and the Guarantors, if applicable, in the execution of any amended or supplemental indenture or amendment or supplement to the Notes Documents, Intercreditor Agreements or any Collateral Documents unless such amended or supplemental indenture affects the Trustee's or Collateral Agent's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture, the Notes Documents, Intercreditor Agreements or any Collateral Document or otherwise, in which case the Trustee and Collateral Agent, if applicable, may in their discretion, but will not be obligated to, enter into such amended or supplemental indenture or amendment or supplement to the Notes Documents, Intercreditor Agreements or any Collateral Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, but without limiting the provisions of Section 3.13 and Section 3.15 hereof, an Opinion of Counsel shall not be required in connection with (i) the addition of a Guarantor under this Indenture upon execution and delivery by such Guarantor and the Trustee of a supplemental indenture to this Indenture, the form of which is attached as Exhibit F hereto, (ii) the addition of an Issuer under this Indenture upon execution and delivery by such Issuer and the Trustee of a supplemental indenture to this Indenture, the form of which is attached as Exhibit G hereto, or (iii) in each case, any supplement to the Collateral Documents or any Intercreditor Agreement in connection with the same.

After an amendment or supplement under this Section 9.01 becomes effective, the Parent Issuer shall mail or otherwise deliver to Holders a notice briefly describing such amendment or supplement. The failure to give such notice to all Holders, or any defect therein, shall not impair or affect the validity of an amendment or supplement under this Section 9.01.

Section 9.02 With Consent of Holders.

(a) Except as provided in this Section 9.02, the Issuers, the Guarantors (with respect to their Note Guarantee), as applicable and the Trustee and the Collateral Agent may amend or supplement this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Guarantees, the Collateral Documents and any Intercreditor Agreement with the consent of the Required Holders, including, without limitation, consents obtained in connection with a purchase of, or tender offer or exchange offer for, Notes, and, subject to Section 6.04 and 6.07, any existing Default or Event of Default (other than a Default or Event of Default in the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Notes, except a payment default resulting from an acceleration that has been rescinded) or compliance with any provision of this Indenture or the other Notes Documents may be waived with the consent of the Required Holders (including consents obtained in connection with a purchase of or tender offer or exchange offer for Notes). Section 2.08 and Section 13.05 shall determine which Notes are considered to be "outstanding" for the purposes of this Section 9.02.

(b) Without the consent of each Holder of Notes affected, an amendment, supplement or waiver may not, with respect to any Notes held by a non-consenting Holder:

- (i) reduce the principal amount of such Notes whose Holders must consent to an amendment;
- (ii) reduce the stated rate of or extend the stated time for payment of interest on any such Note;
- (iii) reduce the principal of, or extend the maturity date of, any Note;

(iv) reduce the premium payable upon the redemption of any such Note or change the time at which any such Note may be redeemed, in each case as set forth in Section 5.07; provided that any amendment to the notice requirements relating to a redemption of Notes may be made with the consent of the Required Holders;

(v) make any such Note payable in currency other than that stated in such Note;

(vi) impair the contractual right expressly set forth in this Indenture or the Notes of any Holder to receive payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such Holder's Notes on or after the due dates therefor or to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or with respect to such Holder's Notes;

(vii) waive a Default or Event of Default with respect to the nonpayment of principal, premium or interest with respect to such Notes (except pursuant to a rescission of acceleration of the Notes by the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of such Notes and a waiver of the payment default that resulted from such acceleration);

(viii) make any change to Section 6.10 or to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements or the other Notes Documents dealing with the application of proceeds of Collateral;

(ix) [reserved];

(x) release all or substantially all of the value of the Note Guarantees of the Guarantors (other than in accordance with the express terms of this Indenture and the other Notes Documents);

(xi) release all or substantially all of the Collateral in any transaction or series of related transactions (other than in accordance with the express terms of this Indenture and the other Notes Documents); or

(xii) make any change in the amendment or waiver provisions which require the Holders' consent described in this Section 9.02.

In addition, prior to the Sell-Down Date, any amendment or supplement to, or waiver in respect of, (i) the Closed Indenture Provision or (ii) this Section 9.02(b) shall, in each case of clauses (i) and (ii), require the consent of the Controlling Parties.

It shall not be necessary for the consent of the Holders under this Indenture to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment, supplement or waiver, but it shall be sufficient if such consent approves the substance thereof. A consent to any amendment, supplement or waiver under this Indenture by any Holder of the Notes given in connection with a tender or exchange of such Holder's Notes will not be rendered invalid by such tender or exchange.

Upon the request of the Parent Issuer, and upon the filing with the Trustee and Collateral Agent, as applicable, of evidence of the consent of the Holders of Notes as aforesaid, and upon receipt by the Trustee and Collateral Agent of the documents described in Section 9.06 and Section 13.03, the Trustee and Collateral Agent, if applicable, will join with the Issuers and the Guarantors, if applicable, in the execution of any amended or supplemental indenture or amendment or supplement to this Indenture or any other Notes Document unless such amended or supplemental indenture or amendment or supplement to this Indenture or such other Notes Document affects the Trustee's or Collateral Agent's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, in which case the Trustee and Collateral Agent, if applicable, may in their discretion, but will not be obligated to, enter into such amended or supplemental indenture or amendment or supplement to this Indenture or such other Notes Document.

After an amendment or supplement under this Section 9.02 becomes effective, the Parent Issuer shall mail or otherwise deliver to Holders a notice briefly describing such amendment or supplement. The failure to give such notice to all Holders, or any defect therein, shall not impair or affect the validity of an amendment or supplement.

Section 9.03 Note Purchase Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 9.01 or 9.02 or otherwise in this Article IX, this Article IX (other than this Section 9.03) shall not apply to the Note Purchase Agreement, it being understood that the Note Purchase Agreement may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified, and the terms thereof may be waived, in each case, in accordance with the terms set forth in the Note Purchase Agreement.

Section 9.04 Revocation and Effect of Consents and Waivers. Until an amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective, a consent to it by a Holder of a Note is a continuing consent by the Holder of a Note and every subsequent Holder of a Note or portion of a Note that evidences the same debt as the consenting Holder's Note, even if notation of the consent or waiver is not made on any Note. However, any such Holder of a Note or subsequent Holder of a Note may revoke the consent or waiver as to such Holder's Note or portion of its Note if a responsible corporate trust officer of the Trustee receives written notice of revocation before the date the amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective. An amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective in accordance with its terms and thereafter binds every Holder. The Parent Issuer may, but shall not be obligated to, fix a record date for the purpose of determining the Holders entitled to give their consent or take any other action described in this Section 9.04 or required or permitted to be taken pursuant to this Indenture. If a record date is fixed, then notwithstanding the immediately preceding paragraph, those Persons who were Holders at such record date (or their duly designated proxies), and only those Persons, shall be entitled to give such consent or to revoke any consent previously given or to take any such action, whether or not such Persons continue to be Holders after such record date. No such consent shall be valid or effective for more than 120 days after such record date unless the consent of the requisite Holders has been obtained.

Section 9.05 Notation on or Exchange of Notes. The Trustee may (but shall not be obligated to) place an appropriate notation about an amendment, supplement or waiver on any Note thereafter authenticated. The Parent Issuer in exchange for all Notes may issue and the Trustee shall, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, authenticate new Notes that reflect the amendment, supplement or waiver. Failure to make the appropriate notation or issue a new Note will not affect the validity and effect of such amendment, supplement or waiver.

Section 9.06 Trustee to Sign Amendments. The Trustee and Collateral Agent shall sign any amended or supplemental indenture authorized pursuant to this Article IX if the amendment or supplement does not adversely affect the rights, duties, liabilities or immunities of the Trustee and Collateral Agent. In executing any amended or supplemental indenture, the Trustee shall receive and shall be fully protected in conclusively relying upon, in addition to the documents required by Section 13.03, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such amended or supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture and is valid, binding and enforceable against the Issuers or any Guarantor, as the case may be, in accordance with its terms. Notwithstanding the foregoing but without limiting the provisions of Section 3.13 and Section 3.15, an Opinion of Counsel shall not be required in connection with the addition of a Guarantor under this Indenture upon execution and delivery by such Guarantor and the Trustee of a supplemental indenture to this Indenture, the form of which is attached as Exhibit F hereto, or any supplement to the Collateral Documents or any Intercreditor Agreement in connection with the same.

ARTICLE X.

NOTE GUARANTEE

Section 10.01 Note Guarantee. Each Guarantor hereby jointly and severally with the other Guarantors guarantees, as a primary obligor and not as a surety, to each Secured Party and their respective successors and permitted assigns, the obligations of the Issuers to promptly pay in full when due (whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, demand, by acceleration or otherwise) (a) the principal of and interest (including any interest, fees, costs or charges that would accrue but for the provisions of (i) Title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code after any bankruptcy or insolvency petition under Title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and (ii) any other Debtor Relief Laws) on the Notes (or, in the case of such guarantee by a Guarantor that is also an Issuer, the obligations of each other Issuer to promptly pay in full when due (whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, demand, by acceleration or otherwise) (a) the principal of and interest (including any interest, fees, costs or charges that would accrue but for the provisions of (i) Title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code after any bankruptcy or insolvency petition under Title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and (ii) any other Debtor Relief Laws) on the Notes), and (b) all other Secured Obligations from time to time owing to the Secured Parties by the Note Parties under any Notes Document (all such obligations described in clauses (a) and (b), including any future increases in the amounts thereof, being herein collectively called the “Guaranteed Note Obligations”). The Guarantors hereby jointly and severally agree that if the Issuers or other Guarantor(s) shall fail to pay in full when due (whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations, the Guarantors will promptly pay the same in cash, without any demand or notice whatsoever, and that in the case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations, the same will be promptly paid in full when due (whether at extended maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) in accordance with the terms of such extension or renewal.

Section 10.02 Obligations Unconditional. The obligations of the Guarantors under Section 10.01 shall constitute a guaranty of payment and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, are absolute, irrevocable and unconditional, joint and several, irrespective of the value, genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of the Guaranteed Note Obligations of the Issuers under this Indenture, the Notes, if any, or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein, or any substitution, release or exchange of any other guarantee of or security for any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations, and, to the extent permitted by applicable Law irrespective of any other circumstance whatsoever that might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a surety or Guarantor (except for payment in full). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, it is agreed that the occurrence of any one or more of the following shall not alter or impair the liability of the Guarantors hereunder which shall remain absolute, irrevocable and unconditional under any and all circumstances as described above:

- (i) at any time or from time to time, without notice to the Guarantors, to the extent permitted by Law, the time for any performance of or compliance with any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations shall be extended, or such performance or compliance shall be waived;
- (ii) any of the acts mentioned in any of the provisions of this Indenture or the Notes, if any, or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein shall be done or omitted (including incurring any increase or decrease in the principal amount of the Guaranteed Note Obligations or the rate of interest or the fees thereon);
- (iii) the maturity of any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations shall be accelerated, or any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations shall be amended in any respect, or any right under the Notes Documents or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein shall be amended or waived in any respect or any other guarantee of any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations or except as permitted pursuant to Section 10.09, any security therefor shall be released or exchanged in whole or in part or otherwise dealt with;
- (iv) any Lien or security interest granted to, or in favor of, any Holder or Agent as security for any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations shall fail to be perfected; or
- (v) the release of any other Guarantor pursuant to Section 10.09.

The Guarantors hereby expressly waive (to the fullest extent permitted by Law) diligence, presentment, demand of payment, protest and, to the extent permitted by Law, all notices whatsoever, and any requirement that any Secured Party exhaust any right, power or remedy or proceed against the Issuers under this Indenture or the Notes, if any, or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein, or against any other Person under any other guarantee of, or security for, any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations. The Guarantors waive, to the extent permitted by Law, any and all notice of the creation, renewal, extension, waiver, termination or accrual of any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations and notice of or proof of reliance by any Secured Party upon this Note Guarantee or acceptance of this Note Guarantee, and the Guaranteed Note Obligations, and any of them, shall conclusively be deemed to have been created, contracted or incurred in reliance upon this Note Guarantee, and all dealings between the Issuers and the Secured Parties shall likewise be conclusively presumed to have been had or consummated in reliance upon this Note Guarantee. This Note Guarantee shall be construed as a continuing, absolute, irrevocable and unconditional guarantee of payment without regard to any right of offset with respect to the Guaranteed Note Obligations at any time or from time to time held by Secured Parties, and the obligations and liabilities of the Guarantors hereunder shall not be conditioned or contingent upon the pursuit by the Secured Parties or any other Person at any time of any right or remedy against the Issuers or against any other Person which may be or become liable in respect of all or any part of the Guaranteed Note Obligations or against any collateral security or guarantee therefor or right of offset with respect thereto. This Note Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and be binding in accordance with and to the extent of its terms upon the Guarantors and the successors and permitted assigns thereof, and shall inure to the benefit of the Secured Parties, and their respective successors and permitted assigns, notwithstanding that from time to time during the term of this Indenture there may be no Guaranteed Note Obligations outstanding.

Section 10.03 Reinstatement. The obligations of the Guarantors under this Article X shall be automatically reinstated if and to the extent that for any reason any payment by or on behalf of the Issuers or other Note Party in respect of the Guaranteed Note Obligations is rescinded or must be otherwise restored by any holder of any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations, whether as a result of any proceedings in bankruptcy or reorganization or otherwise.

Section 10.04 Subrogation; Subordination. Each Guarantor hereby agrees that until the Termination Date it shall subordinate any claim and shall not exercise any right or remedy, direct or indirect, arising by reason of any performance by it of its guarantee in Section 10.01, whether by subrogation or otherwise, against the Issuers or any other Guarantor of any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations or any security for any of the Guaranteed Note Obligations. Any Indebtedness of any Note Party to any Non-Note Party permitted pursuant to 4.03(b) or (d) shall be subordinated to such Note Party's Secured Obligations in the manner set forth in the Intercompany Note evidencing such Indebtedness.

Section 10.05 Remedies. The Guarantors jointly and severally agree that, as between the Guarantors and the Secured Parties, the obligations of the Issuers under this Indenture and the Notes, if any, may be declared to be forthwith due and payable as provided in Section 6.02 (and shall be deemed to have become automatically due and payable in the circumstances provided in Section 6.02) for purposes of Section 10.01, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such declaration (or such obligations from becoming automatically due and payable) as against the Issuers and that, in the event of such declaration (or such obligations being deemed to have become automatically due and payable), such obligations (whether or not due and payable by the Issuers) shall forthwith become due and payable by the Guarantors for purposes of Section 10.01.

Section 10.06 Instrument for the Payment of Money. Each Guarantor hereby acknowledges that the guarantee in this Article X constitutes an instrument for the payment of money, and consents and agrees that any Holder or Agent, at its sole option, in the event of a dispute by such Guarantor in the payment of any moneys due hereunder, shall have the right to bring a motion-action under New York CPLR Section 3213.

Section 10.07 Continuing Guarantee. The guarantee in this Article X is a continuing guarantee of payment, and shall apply to all Guaranteed Note Obligations whenever arising.

Section 10.08 General Limitation on Guarantee Obligations. In any action or proceeding involving any state corporate limited partnership or limited liability company law, or any applicable state, federal or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other Law affecting the rights of creditors generally, if the obligations of any Guarantor (other than the Issuers) under Section 10.01 would otherwise be held or determined to be void, voidable, invalid or unenforceable, or subordinated to the claims of any other creditors, on account of the amount of its liability under Section 10.01, then, notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, the amount of such liability shall, without any further action by such Guarantor, any Note Party or any other Person, be automatically limited and reduced to the highest amount (after giving effect to the liability under this Note Guarantee and the right of contribution established in Section 10.10) that is valid and enforceable and not subordinated to the claims of other creditors as determined in such action or proceeding.

Section 10.09 Release of Guarantors. If, in compliance with the terms and provisions of the Notes Documents, (i) any Guarantor that is a Restricted Subsidiary of a Note Party ceases to be a Restricted Subsidiary of a Note Party in a transaction permitted hereunder, (ii) any Guarantor becomes an Excluded Subsidiary, (iii) any Guarantor is released pursuant to Section 2.06(a) of the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement or (iv) any Guarantor is released with the consent of the requisite Holders of Notes in accordance with Section 9.02 of this Indenture, including consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of Notes (any such Guarantor referred to in clause (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) a “Released Guarantor”), such Released Guarantor shall upon the consummation of the related transaction, change in status, request, approval, authorization or ratification be (in the case of clauses (i) and (iii) and (iv)) automatically released and (in the case of clause (ii)) released by the Trustee and the Collateral Agent pursuant to appropriate documentation following a written request from the Parent Issuer to the Trustee requesting such release, in each case, from its obligations under its Note Guarantee, this Indenture and the other Notes Documents; provided that no such release shall occur, and no such Guarantor shall constitute a Released Guarantor, if (x) such Guarantor continues to be a guarantor in respect of any other Second Lien Secured Obligations, any ABL Obligations, any First Lien Secured Obligations or any Junior Financing or (y) such Guarantor continues to constitute a Subsidiary of the Parent Issuer and becomes an Excluded Subsidiary under clause (a) of the definition thereof unless (i) no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time such Guarantor becomes an Excluded Subsidiary under clause (a) of the definition thereof and (ii) after giving Pro Forma Effect to such release and the consummation of the transaction that causes such Person to become an Excluded Subsidiary under clause (a) of the definition thereof, the Issuers and Restricted Subsidiaries shall be deemed to have made an Investment in, or a Restricted Payment in respect of, as applicable, such Person (as if such Person were then newly acquired or formed) and such Investment or Restricted Payment is permitted hereunder at such time.

In addition, each Guarantor will automatically be released from its obligations under its Note Guarantee, this Indenture and the other Notes Documents upon the occurrence of the Termination Date; provided the foregoing will not be construed to limit or undermine the provisions of this Indenture and the other Notes Documents that expressly survive the repayment or redemption of the Notes or the occurrence of the Termination Date.

The Trustee and the Collateral Agent shall execute and deliver any documents or instruments requested by the Issuers to effect, confirm and/or evidence the release of any Guarantor from its obligations under its Note Guarantee, the Indenture and the other Notes Documents pursuant to the first two paragraphs of this Section 10.09 upon receipt of an Officer’s Certificate stating that such release is required under the Notes Documents, the conditions precedent under the Notes Documents to such release have been met and that it is proper for the Trustee and the Collateral Agent to execute and deliver such documents or instruments. Neither the Trustee nor the Collateral Agent shall be liable for any such release undertaken in reliance upon any such Officer’s Certificate, and notwithstanding any term hereof or in any other Notes Document to the contrary, neither the Trustee nor the Collateral Agent shall be under any obligation to effect, confirm and/or evidence any such release, or execute and deliver any such document or instrument, unless and until it receives such Officer’s Certificate.

Section 10.10 Right of Contribution. Each Guarantor hereby agrees that to the extent that a Guarantor shall have paid more than its proportionate share of any payment made hereunder, such Guarantor shall be entitled to seek and receive contribution from and against any other Guarantor hereunder which has not paid its proportionate share of such payment. Each Guarantor’s right of contribution shall be subject to the terms and conditions of Section 10.04. The provisions of this Section 10.10 shall in no respect limit the obligations and liabilities of any Guarantor to the Secured Parties, and each Guarantor shall remain liable to the Secured Parties for the full amount guaranteed by such Guarantor hereunder.

Section 10.11 Independent Obligation. The obligations of each Guarantor under this Indenture are independent of the obligations of any other Guarantor, any other party or the Issuers, and a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against such Guarantor whether or not action is brought against any other Guarantor, any other party or the Issuers and whether or not any other Guarantor, any other party or the Issuers be joined in any such action or actions.

ARTICLE XI.

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE

Section 11.01 Satisfaction and Discharge. This Indenture will be discharged and will cease to be of further effect as to all Notes issued hereunder, when:

(a) either:

(A) all Notes that have been authenticated and delivered except lost, stolen or destroyed Notes that have been replaced or paid and Notes for whose payment money has theretofore been deposited in trust, have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation; or

(B) all such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation (i) have become due and payable by reason of the making of a notice of redemption or otherwise or (ii) will become due and payable within one year at the Maturity Date or (iii) are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the Parent Issuer;

(b) the Parent Issuer has deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee as trust funds in trust solely for the benefit of the Holders, cash in Dollars or U.S. Government Obligations, or a combination thereof, in an amount sufficient (in the case of any deposit that includes U.S. Government Obligations, in the written opinion of an Independent Financial Advisor) to pay and discharge the entire indebtedness on the Notes not previously delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, for principal, premium, if any, and interest to the date of deposit (in the case of Notes that have become due and payable), or to the Maturity Date or Redemption Date, as the case may be;

(c) such deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under the First Lien Credit Agreement or any other material agreement or instrument (other than the Notes Documents) to which any Issuer or any Guarantor is a party or by which any Issuer or any Guarantor is bound (other than under any similar debt instrument being similarly satisfied and discharged and resulting from any borrowing of funds to be applied to make the deposit required to effect such satisfaction and discharge hereunder and under such other debt instrument, and, in each case, the granting of Liens in connection therewith);

(d) the Parent Issuer has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable under this Indenture;

(e) the Parent Issuer has delivered irrevocable instructions to the Trustee to apply the deposited money toward the payment of such Notes issued hereunder at the Maturity Date or the Redemption Date, as the case may be; and

(f) the Parent Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate stating that all conditions precedent under this Article XI relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been satisfied.

Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, if money has been deposited with the Trustee pursuant to clause (b) of this Section 11.01, the provisions of Sections 11.02 and 8.06 will survive. In addition, nothing in this Section 11.01 will be deemed to discharge those provisions of Section 7.07 that, by their express terms, survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture.

Section 11.02 Application of Trust Money. Subject to the provisions of Section 8.06, all money deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 11.01 shall be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent (including the Parent Issuer acting as Paying Agent) as the Trustee may determine, to the Persons entitled thereto, of the principal (and premium, if any) and interest for whose payment such money has been deposited with the Trustee; but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply any money or U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with Section 11.01 by reason of any legal proceeding or by reason of any order or judgment of any court or Governmental Authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, the Issuers' and any Guarantor's obligations under this Indenture and the Notes shall be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to Section 11.01; provided that if the Parent Issuer has made any payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on, any Notes because of the reinstatement of its obligations, the Parent Issuer shall be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Notes to receive such payment from the money or U.S. Government Obligations held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

ARTICLE XII.

COLLATERAL

Section 12.01 Collateral Documents. The payment of the principal, interest and premium, if any, on the Notes and the Note Guarantees when due, whether on an Interest Payment Date, at maturity, by acceleration, repurchase, redemption or otherwise and whether by any Issuer pursuant to the Notes or by any Guarantor pursuant to its Note Guarantees, the payment of all other Secured Obligations of the Issuers and the Guarantors under this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Guarantee, the Collateral Documents and the other Notes Documents and performance of all other obligations of any Issuer and any Guarantor to any Secured Party under this Indenture, the Notes, any Note Guarantee and any other Notes Document, according to the terms hereunder or thereunder, are secured, subject to Permitted Liens, as provided in the Collateral Documents, which the Collateral Agent, the Issuers and the Guarantors have entered into simultaneously with the execution of this Indenture, and will be secured as provided in the Collateral Documents delivered after the date of this Indenture as required or permitted by this Indenture, subject to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements.

Section 12.02 Collateral Agent.

(a) The Collateral Agent agrees that it will hold the security interests in the Collateral created under the Collateral Documents to which it is a party as contemplated by this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreements, and any and all proceeds thereof, for the benefit of the Secured Parties without limiting the Collateral Agent's rights, including under this Section 12.02, to act in preservation of the security interest in the Collateral. The Collateral Agent is authorized and empowered to appoint one or more co-collateral agents as it deems necessary or appropriate; provided, however, that no collateral agent hereunder shall be personally liable by reason of any act or omission of any other collateral agent hereunder. Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody of the Collateral in the possession or control of the Collateral Agent, the Collateral Agent will not have any duty as to any other Collateral or any income thereon or as to preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining thereto. The Collateral Agent will be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody of the Collateral in its possession if the Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which it accords its own property, and the Collateral Agent will not be liable or responsible for any loss or diminution in the value of any of the Collateral by reason of the act or omission of any carrier, forwarding agency or other agent or bailee selected by the Collateral Agent in good faith.

(b) Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, or in the Collateral Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, neither the Trustee nor the Collateral Agent nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, attorneys or agents will be responsible or liable for the existence, genuineness, value or protection of any Collateral, for the legality, enforceability, effectiveness, or sufficiency of the Collateral Documents, or to determine whether all of the Collateral or the Collateral Documents have been properly and completely listed or delivered, as the case may be, for the creation, perfection, priority, sufficiency or protection of any Lien, for insuring or maintaining insurance on the Collateral including without limitation not being responsible for payment of any insurance premiums, Taxes, charges or assessments upon the Collateral or otherwise as to the maintenance of the Collateral, or for any defect or deficiency as to any such matters, or for any failure to demand, collect, foreclose or realize upon or otherwise enforce any of the Liens or Collateral Documents or any delay in doing so. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any Collateral Document, neither the Trustee nor the Collateral Agent nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, attorneys or agents will be responsible or liable for making any filings or recordings to perfect or maintain the perfection of the Collateral Agent's Lien in the Collateral, including without limitation, the filing of any UCC financing statements, continuation statements, Mortgages or any filings with respect to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office or U.S. Copyright Office.

(c) The Collateral Agent will be subject to such directions as may be given to it by the Trustee or the Required Holders from time to time (as required or permitted by this Indenture). Except as directed by the Trustee or the Required Holders as required or permitted by this Indenture or as required or permitted by the Collateral Documents and any other representatives, the Collateral Agent will not be obligated:

- (A) to act upon directions purported to be delivered to it by any Person;
- (B) to foreclose upon or otherwise enforce any Lien created under the Collateral Documents; or
- (C) to take any other action whatsoever with regard to any or all of the Liens, Collateral Documents or Collateral.

(d) The Collateral Agent will be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the enforcement of the Liens or Collateral Documents. The Collateral Agent shall apply the net proceeds of any action taken by it pursuant to and in accordance with Section 6.10 of this Indenture.

(e) In acting as Collateral Agent hereunder and under the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon and enforce each and all of the rights, privileges, powers, immunities, indemnities and benefits of the Trustee under Article VII; provided that any references in such Article VII to "Trustee" shall be references to "Collateral Agent." Further, the parties hereto and the Holders hereby agree and acknowledge that in the exercise of its rights under this Indenture, any Intercreditor Agreement and the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent may hold or obtain indicia of ownership primarily to protect the security interest of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral and that any such actions taken by the Collateral Agent shall not be construed as or otherwise constitute any participation in the management of such Collateral

(f) At all times when the Trustee is not itself the Collateral Agent, the Parent Issuer will deliver to the Trustee copies of all Collateral Documents delivered to the Collateral Agent and copies of all documents delivered to the Collateral Agent pursuant to the Collateral Documents.

(g) In all respects subject to the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement and any other limitations set forth herein and the other Note Documents, the Issuers and each Guarantor will, and each Guarantor will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, do or cause to be done all such acts and things as may be reasonably necessary or proper, or as may be required by the provisions of the Collateral Documents, to assure and confirm that the Collateral Agent holds, for the benefit of the Trustee and the Holders, duly created, enforceable and perfected second priority Liens as contemplated hereby and by the Collateral Documents, so as to render the same available for the security and benefit of the Secured Obligations secured thereby, according to the intent and purposes herein expressed. In all respects subject to the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement and any other limitations set forth herein and the other Note Documents, the Issuers and each Guarantor will take, and each Guarantor will cause its Subsidiaries to take, any and all actions reasonably required to cause the Collateral Documents to create and maintain, as security for the Secured Obligations of the Issuers hereunder, a valid and enforceable perfected second priority Lien in and on all the Collateral ranking in right and priority of payment as set forth in this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreement and subject to no other Liens other than as permitted by the terms of this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreement.

Section 12.03 Release of Liens. The Trustee and the Collateral Agent shall, and each Holder authorizes the Trustee and the Collateral Agent to, release (a) the Liens on the Collateral securing the Secured Obligations in whole upon the occurrence of the Termination Date, (b) the Liens on the Collateral securing the Secured Obligations in whole or in part, as applicable, with the consent of the requisite Holders of Notes in accordance with Section 9.02 of this Indenture, including consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of Notes and (c) any Lien securing the Secured Obligations in part solely as to a specific property subject to such Lien (and not any other property such as such Lien) if (i) such property subject to such Lien is Disposed (or is to be Disposed) to a Person that is not a Note Party as part of or in connection with any Disposition permitted under the Note Documents, (ii) such property subject to such Lien is owned by a Guarantor that is released from its obligations under its Note Guarantee, this Indenture and the other Notes Documents pursuant to Section 10.09 or (iii) such property subject to such Lien constitutes an Excluded Asset.

The Trustee and the Collateral Agent shall execute and deliver any documents or instruments requested by the Issuers to effect any release of Liens that the Trustee and Collateral Agent are required to effect pursuant to the first paragraph of this Section 12.03 upon receipt of an Officer's Certificate stating that such release is required under the Notes Documents, the conditions precedent under the Notes Documents to such release have been met and that it is proper for the Collateral Agent to execute and deliver such documents or instruments. Neither the Trustee nor the Collateral Agent shall be liable for any such release undertaken in reliance upon any such Officer's Certificate, and notwithstanding any term hereof or in any other Notes Document to the contrary, neither the Trustee nor the Collateral Agent shall be under any obligation to release any such Lien, or execute and deliver any such document or instrument, unless and until it receives such Officer's Certificate.

Section 12.04 Suits to Protect the Collateral. Subject to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements and the Collateral Documents, the Trustee is authorized and empowered (but without the obligation to do so) to institute and maintain, or direct the Collateral Agent to institute and maintain, such suits and proceedings to protect or enforce the Liens securing the Secured Obligations or to prevent any impairment of the Collateral by any acts which may be unlawful or in violation of any of the Collateral Documents or this Indenture, and such suits and proceedings to preserve or protect its interest and the interests of the Secured Parties in the Collateral (including suits or proceedings to restrain the enforcement of or compliance with any legislative or other governmental enactment, rule or order that may be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid if the enforcement of, or compliance with, such enactment, rule or order would impair the Liens created under the Collateral Documents or be prejudicial to the interests of the Secured Parties).

Section 12.05 Authorization of Actions to be Taken.

(a) Each Holder consents and agrees to the terms of each Collateral Document and the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement, as originally in effect and as amended, supplemented or replaced from time to time in accordance with its terms or the terms of this Indenture, and consents and agrees to the terms of any Parity Lien Intercreditor Agreement or Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement, authorizes and directs the Trustee and/or the Collateral Agent to enter into the Collateral Documents to which it is a party, authorizes and empowers the Trustee to direct the Collateral Agent to enter into, and the Trustee and/or the Collateral Agent to execute and deliver, the Intercreditor Agreements, and authorizes and empowers the Trustee and/or the Collateral Agent to bind the Secured Parties as set forth in the Collateral Documents to which it is a party and the Intercreditor Agreements and to perform its obligations and exercise its rights and powers thereunder. Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver, approval, exercise of judgment or discretion, designation or other action provided or permitted by this Indenture to be given, taken or exercised by the Collateral Agent, shall be given, taken or exercised by the Collateral Agent at the direction of the Trustee who, prior to the Sell-Down Date, shall seek directions from the Controlling Parties, and who, after the Sell-Down Date, shall seek directions from the Required Holders as required by the terms of this Indenture; provided that the Trustee may seek direction or consent from the Required Holders in connection with (i) the amendment or modification of any Intercreditor Agreement in effect prior to the Sell-Down Date or attached as an Exhibit hereto, in each case, other than to give effect to the incurrence or issuance of additional, replacement or refinancing Indebtedness permitted thereunder, the addition of an agent, trustee or other representative for the holders of any Indebtedness permitted thereunder or the addition of obligors with respect to Indebtedness subject thereto, (ii) entering into any Intercreditor Agreement attached hereto as an Exhibit other than on terms substantially similar to the terms set forth in such Exhibit (other than as permitted by clause (i) above) and (iii) acceptance of or consent to any Intercreditor Agreement that is not attached as an Exhibit hereto, in each case, that is required hereunder after the Sell-Down Date to be in form and substance acceptable or satisfactory to the Collateral Agent and that the Collateral Agent reasonably believes it is necessary to obtain such consent and direction from the Required Holders in order to avoid any financial liability in the exercise of such judgment or discretion. Any notice, agreement, certificate or other document delivered to the Collateral Agent by any Issuer, any Guarantor or any other Person in connection with any of the Notes Documents, shall promptly be delivered by the Collateral Agent to the Trustee (if the Collateral Agent is not the same entity as the Trustee).

(b) The Collateral Agent and the Trustee are authorized and empowered to receive for the benefit of the Secured Parties any funds collected or distributed under the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent or the Trustee is a party and to make further distributions of such funds to the Holders of Notes according to the provisions of this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreements.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 7.01, Section 7.02 and the Intercreditor Agreements, the Trustee may, at the written direction of the Required Holders, during the continuance of an Event of Default, direct, on behalf of the Holders, the Collateral Agent to take all actions it deems necessary or appropriate in order to:

- (i) foreclose upon or otherwise enforce any or all of the Liens created under the Collateral Documents;
- (ii) enforce any of the terms of the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent or Trustee is a party; or
- (iii) collect and receive payment of any and all Secured Obligations to the extent then due and payable.

Section 12.06 [Reserved].

Section 12.07 Powers Exercisable by Receiver or Trustee. In case the Collateral shall be in the possession of a receiver or trustee, lawfully appointed, the powers conferred in this Article XII upon an Issuer or a Guarantor with respect to the release, sale or other disposition of such property may be exercised by such receiver or trustee, and an instrument signed by such receiver or trustee shall be deemed the equivalent of any similar instrument of an Issuer or a Guarantor or of any Responsible Officer or Responsible Officers thereof required by the provisions of this Article XII; and if the Trustee shall be in the possession of the Collateral under any provision of this Indenture, then such powers may (but shall not be obligated to) be exercised by the Trustee.

Section 12.08 Release Upon Termination. In the event that the Parent Issuer delivers to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate certifying that the Termination Date has occurred, the Trustee shall deliver to the Parent Issuer and the Collateral Agent a notice stating that the Trustee, on behalf of the Holders, disclaims and gives up any and all rights it has in or to the Collateral, and any rights it has under the Collateral Documents, and upon receipt by the Collateral Agent of such notice, the Collateral Agent shall be deemed not to hold a Lien in the Collateral on behalf of the Trustee and shall do or cause to be done (at the written instruction and expense of the Parent Issuer) all acts reasonably requested by the Parent Issuer to release and discharge such Lien as soon as is reasonably practicable.

Section 12.09 Financing Statements. The Parent Issuer, at its expense, shall (1) cause any financing statement, continuation statement or other customary items to be filed, registered and recorded and to be refiled, reregistered and rerecorded in such manner and in such places as may be reasonably required by any present or future law in order to fully protect, preserve and perfect the Lien of this Indenture and the Collateral Documents and to protect, preserve and perfect the rights and security of the Secured Parties under this Indenture and the Collateral Documents and (2) perform or cause to be performed from time to time any other act as required by law, and execute and file or cause to be executed and filed any and all items of further assurance that may be reasonably necessary for such protection, in each case of (1) and (2), with copies thereof provided to the Collateral Agent. The Issuers, the Guarantors, the Collateral Agent and the Trustee shall, at the expense of the Parent Issuer, when so requested in writing by one another, execute all such items reasonably necessary to maintain, protect, perfect or preserve the interests assigned to the Collateral Agent under this Indenture, the Collateral Documents and the other Notes Documents.

Section 13.02 [Reserved].

Section 13.03 Certificate and Opinion as to Conditions Precedent. Upon any request or application by any Issuer or any of the Guarantors to the Trustee to take or refrain from taking any action under this Indenture or the other Notes Documents, such Issuer or such Guarantor, as the case may be, shall furnish to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel (except in connection with any action expressly authorized under this Indenture upon delivery of an Officer's Certificate only) in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee (which shall include the statements set forth in Section 13.04) stating that, in the opinion of the signers, all conditions precedent, if any, provided for in this Indenture or the other Notes Documents relating to the proposed action have been satisfied; provided that no Opinion of Counsel shall be required in connection with the order of the Parent Issuer to authenticate and deliver the Initial Notes in the aggregate principal amount of $400,000,000 on the date hereof pursuant to Section 2.02 hereof.

- (iv) a statement as to whether or not, in the opinion of such individual, such covenant or condition has been complied with.

Section 13.05 When Notes Disregarded. In determining whether the Holders of the required aggregate principal amount of Notes have concurred in any direction, waiver or consent, Notes owned by any Issuer, any Guarantor or any Affiliate of them shall be disregarded and deemed not to be outstanding, except that, for the purpose of determining whether the Trustee shall be protected in relying on any such direction, waiver or consent, only Notes which a Trust Officer of the Trustee has been notified in writing are so owned shall be so disregarded. Also, subject to the foregoing, only Notes outstanding at the time shall be considered in any such determination.

Section 13.06 Rules by Trustee, Paying Agent, Transfer Agent and Registrar. The Trustee may make reasonable rules for action by, or at meetings of, Holders. The Registrar, Transfer Agent and the Paying Agent may make reasonable rules for their functions.

Section 13.07 Legal Holidays. A “Legal Holiday” is any day that is not a Business Day. If a payment date is a Legal Holiday, payment shall be made on the next succeeding day that is not a Legal Holiday, and no interest shall accrue for the intervening period. If a regular Record Date is a Legal Holiday, the Record Date shall be the prior day that is not a Legal Holiday.

Section 13.08 Governing Law. THIS INDENTURE, THE NOTES AND THE NOTE GUARANTEES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

Section 13.09 Jurisdiction. The Issuers and the Guarantors agree that any suit, action or proceeding against an Issuer or a Guarantor brought by any Holder or the Trustee arising out of or based upon this Indenture, the Note Guarantee or the Notes may be instituted in any state or Federal court in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York, and any appellate court from any thereof, and each of them irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of such courts in any suit, action or proceeding. The Issuers and the Guarantors irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection to any suit, action, or proceeding that may be brought in connection with this Indenture, the Note Guarantee or the Notes, including such actions, suits or proceedings relating to securities laws of the United States of America or any state thereof, in such courts whether on the grounds of venue, residence or domicile or on the ground that any such suit, action or proceeding has been brought in an inconvenient forum. The Issuers and the Guarantors agree that final judgment in any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such court shall be conclusive and binding upon the Issuers or the Guarantors, as the case may be, and may be enforced in any court to the jurisdiction of which the Issuers or the Guarantors, as the case may be, are subject by a suit upon such judgment.

Nothing in this Indenture or in any other Notes Document shall affect any right that the Trustee, the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding to enforce any award or judgment or exercise any right under the Collateral Documents or against any Collateral or any other property of any Note Party in the courts of another forum in which jurisdiction can be established.

Section 13.10 Waivers of Jury Trial. EACH OF THE NOTE PARTIES AND THE SECURED PARTIES HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS INDENTURE OR THE OTHER NOTES DOCUMENTS.

Section 13.11 USA Patriot Act. The parties hereto acknowledge that in accordance with Section 326 of the USA Patriot Act, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent, like all financial institutions and in order to help fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering, is required to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each Person or legal entity that establishes a relationship or opens an account. The parties to this Indenture agree that they will provide the Trustee and the Collateral Agent with such information as each may request in order to satisfy the requirements of the USA Patriot Act.

Section 13.12 No Recourse Against Others. No director, officer, employee, incorporator or shareholder of any Issuer or any of their respective Subsidiaries or Affiliates, as such (other than the Issuers and the Guarantors), shall have any liability for any obligations of the Issuers or the Guarantors under the Notes, the Note Guarantees, this Indenture or the other Notes Documents or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of such obligations or their creation. Each Holder by accepting a Note waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Notes. Such waiver may not be effective to waive liabilities under the federal securities laws and it is the view of the SEC that such a waiver is against public policy.

Section 13.13 Successors. All agreements of each Issuer and each Guarantor in this Indenture and the Notes shall bind their respective successors. All agreements of the Trustee and the Collateral Agent in this Indenture shall bind their successors.

Section 13.14 Multiple Originals. The parties may sign any number of copies of this Indenture. Each signed copy shall be an original, but all of them together represent the same agreement. The exchange of copies of this Indenture and of signature pages by facsimile or pdf transmission shall constitute effective execution and delivery of this Indenture as to the parties hereto and may be used in lieu of the original Indenture for all purposes. Signatures of the parties hereto transmitted by facsimile or pdf shall be deemed to be their original signatures for all purposes.

Section 13.15 Service of Process

(a) Each Issuer and each Guarantor hereby irrevocably consents and agrees to the service of any and all legal process, summons, notices and documents in any such action, suit or proceeding brought against it by the Trustee or the Holders with respect to its obligations, liabilities or any other matter arising out of or in connection with this Indenture, the Notes, the Note Guarantees or any other Notes Documents, by serving a copy thereof upon any employee of any Issuer or any Guarantor (in such capacity, the “Process Agent”) at any business location that any of any Issuer or any Guarantor may maintain from time to time in the United States including, without limitation, at the offices of any Issuer, set forth in Section 13.01.

(b) Each Issuer and each Guarantor further hereby irrevocably consents and agrees to the service of any and all legal process, summons, notices and documents in any such action, suit or proceeding against them by (i) serving a copy thereof upon the Process Agent specified in paragraph (a) above, or (ii) or by mailing copies thereof by registered or certified air mail, postage prepaid, to such Issuer or such Guarantor, at its address specified in or designated pursuant to this Indenture. Each Issuer and each Guarantor agrees that the failure of the Process Agent specified in paragraph (a) to give any notice of such service to it shall not impair or affect in any way the validity of such service or any judgment rendered in any action or proceeding based thereon.

(c) Nothing herein shall in any way be deemed to limit the ability of the Trustee or any Holder to serve any such legal process, summons, notices and documents in any other manner permitted by applicable law or to obtain jurisdiction over any Issuer or any Guarantor or bring actions, suits or proceedings against them in such other jurisdictions, and in such manner, as may be permitted by applicable law.

(d) The provisions of this Section 13.15 shall survive any termination of this Indenture, in whole or in part, and shall survive delivery and payment for the Notes.

Section 13.16 Table of Contents; Headings. The table of contents, cross-reference table and headings of the Articles and Sections of this Indenture have been inserted for convenience of reference only, are not intended to be considered a part hereof and shall not modify or restrict any of the terms or provisions hereof.

Section 13.17 Force Majeure. In no event shall the Trustee or the Collateral Agent be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, strikes, work stoppages, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services, it being understood that the Trustee and the Collateral Agent shall use reasonable best efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

Section 13.18 Severability. In case any provision in this Indenture or in the Notes shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

Section 13.19 First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement. Reference is made to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement. Each Holder, by its acceptance of a Note, (a) acknowledges that it has received a copy of each Intercreditor Agreement, (b) consents to the subordination of Liens provided for in the First Lien/Second Lien Agreement, (c) agrees that it will be bound by and will take no actions contrary to the provisions of each Intercreditor Agreement, (d) authorizes and instructs the Collateral Agent (or similar agent) hereunder to enter into each Intercreditor Agreement as agent and on behalf of such Holder and (e) if such Intercreditor Agreement subordinates the Liens securing the Secured Obligations, hereby consents to such subordination on the terms set forth in such Intercreditor Agreement. The foregoing provisions are intended as an inducement to the holders of First Lien Secured Obligations to extend credit to the Parent Issuer and such holders of First Lien Secured Obligations are intended third-party beneficiaries of such provisions. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of any Intercreditor Agreement and this Indenture, the provisions of such Intercreditor Agreement shall control.

Section 13.20 Judgment Currency. Each Issuer and each Guarantor agrees to indemnify each Secured Party against any loss incurred by such Secured Party as a result of any judgment or order being given or made against any Issuer or any Guarantor for any amount due hereunder and such judgment or order being expressed and paid in a currency (the “Judgment Currency”) other than Dollars and as a result of any variation as between (i) the rate of exchange at which the Dollar amount is converted into the Judgment Currency for the purpose of such judgment or order, and (ii) the rate of exchange in The City of New York at which such party on the date of payment of such judgment or order is able to purchase Dollars with the amount of the Judgment Currency actually received by such party if such party had utilized such amount of Judgment Currency to purchase Dollars as promptly as practicable upon such party’s receipt thereof. The foregoing indemnity shall constitute a separate and independent obligation of each Issuer and each Guarantor and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any such judgment or order as aforesaid. The term “rate of exchange” shall include any premiums and costs of exchange payable in connection with the purchase of, or conversion into, the relevant currency.

Section 13.21 Waiver of Immunities. To the extent any Issuer or any Guarantor or any of its properties, assets or revenues may have or may hereafter become entitled to, or have attributed to them, any right of immunity, on the grounds of sovereignty, from any legal action, suit or proceeding, from set-off or counterclaim, from the jurisdiction of any court, from service of process, from attachment upon or prior to judgment, or from attachment in aid of execution of judgment, or from execution of judgment, or other legal process or proceeding for the giving of any relief or for the enforcement of any judgment, in any jurisdiction in which proceedings may at any time be commenced, with respect to their obligations, liabilities or any other matter under or arising out of or in connection with this Indenture, the Notes or the Note Guarantees, each Issuer and each Guarantor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally, to the extent permitted by applicable law, waives and agrees not to plead or claim any such immunity and consents to such relief and enforcement.

Section 13.22 Calculation Agent. The Parent Issuer hereby appoints Ankura Trust Company, LLC to serve as calculation agent for the Notes (the “Calculation Agent”) and Ankura Trust Company, LLC hereby accepts such appointment. The Calculation Agent’s sole responsibility shall be (subject to Section 1.10) (i) to determine the Adjusted LIBOR Rate and the Applicable Rate when required by and in accordance with terms of paragraph 1 of the Notes and (ii) to notify the Parent Issuer and, upon written request, any Holder or Beneficial Owner of the Notes, of the Adjusted LIBOR Rate and/or Applicable Rate. In acting as Calculation Agent hereunder, the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon and enforce each and all of the rights, privileges, immunities, indemnities and benefits of the Trustee under Article VII; and any references in such Article VII to “Trustee” shall be references to “Calculation Agent.”

Section 13.23 Debt Assumption. Notwithstanding anything herein or in the Notes Documents to the contrary:

(a) On the Closing Date, immediately after the consummation of the Merger and upon the effectiveness of this Indenture, the Initial Issuer shall be the sole Issuer hereunder and under the Notes Documents.

(b) On the Closing Date, immediately after the payment of any Transaction Expenses payable on the Closing Date, the Company will become a party hereto and to the Notes Documents and will be the Parent Issuer and all rights, title, interests, liabilities, duties and obligations (including the Indebtedness and Obligations of the Initial Issuer) in, to and under this Indenture, the other Notes Documents and any other documents in connection therewith shall be, and shall be deemed to be, assumed by the Company and the Company agrees to pay, perform and discharge all of the Initial Issuer’s obligations and covenants as “Parent Issuer” and a “Note Party” thereunder in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and the other Notes Documents and otherwise be liable for such Indebtedness and to perform and discharge all of the Secured Obligations and any and all obligations under this Indenture, the other Notes Documents and any other documents in connection therewith (the transactions described in this Section 13.23, collectively, the “Debt Assumption”). [INSERT ORIGINAL ISSUE DISCOUNT LEGEND, IF APPLICABLE PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE]

Capitalized terms used herein have the meanings assigned to them in the Indenture referred to below unless otherwise indicated.

- (1) INTEREST. BIOSCRIP, INC., a Delaware corporation (the “Company” and, upon the consummation of the Debt Assumption the “Parent Issuer”), and any Subsidiary Issuer designated as an “Issuer” by the Parent Issuer pursuant to Section 2.13 of the Indenture (each, a “Subsidiary Issuer” and together with the Parent Issuer, the “Issuers”), jointly and severally, promise to pay with respect to each Interest Period (other than any Interest Period with respect to which the Parent Issuer is permitted to exercise the 100% PIK Option or the 50% PIK Option and does so exercise the 100% PIK Option or 50% PIK Option, as applicable) interest on the principal amount of this Note in cash at a rate per annum equal to the sum of (i) the Adjusted LIBOR Rate for such Interest Period plus (ii) the Applicable Margin (such sum of (i) and (ii), the “Applicable Rate”).

For any Interest Period ending on or prior to August 6, 2020, the Parent Issuer, in its sole discretion, may elect to pay 100% of the interest with respect to such Interest Period in kind (the “100% PIK Option”). In the event that the Parent Issuer is permitted to exercise the 100% PIK Option and does so exercise the 100% PIK Option with respect to any Interest Period, the Issuers, jointly and severally, promise to pay with respect to such Interest Period, interest on the principal amount of this Note at a rate per annum equal to (i) the Applicable Rate for such Interest Period plus (ii) an additional 1.00% per annum.

For any Interest Period ending on or prior to August 6, 2021, the Parent Issuer, in its sole discretion, may elect to pay 50% of the interest with respect to such Interest Period in kind, with the other 50% of the interest with respect to such Interest Period to be paid by the Issuers in cash (the “50% PIK Option”). In the event that the Parent Issuer is permitted to exercise the 50% PIK Option and does so exercise the 50% PIK Option with respect to any Interest Period, the Issuers, jointly and severally, promise to pay with respect to such Interest Period, interest on the principal amount of this Note at a rate per annum equal to (i) the Applicable Rate for such Interest Period plus (ii) an additional 0.50% per annum, with 50% of the interest for such Interest Period to be paid by the Issuers in kind and the other 50% of the interest for such Interest Period to be paid by the Issuers in cash.

For purposes of this Note, the Indenture and the other Note Documents, (x) the 100% PIK Option and the 50% PIK Option are each referred to as a “PIK Option” and (y) the interest that is payable in kind in respect of any Interest Period in which the Parent Issuer is permitted to exercise a PIK Option and does so exercise a PIK Option is referred to as “PIK Interest”.

In the event that the Parent Issuer elects to exercise the 100% PIK Option or the 50% PIK Option with respect to any Interest Period, it shall deliver a PIK Notice to the Trustee no later than the day that is fifteen days prior to the first day of such Interest Period, which PIK Notice (x) indicates which PIK Option is being exercised for such Interest Period and (y) certifies that the Parent Issuer is permitted to exercise such PIK Option for such Interest Period pursuant to the terms of the Indenture and the Notes and is so exercising such PIK Option for such Interest Period. The Parent Issuer shall be deemed to have exercised the applicable PIK Option indicated in the PIK Notice as being exercised with respect to any Interest Period if it delivers a PIK Notice for such Interest Period in accordance with the immediately preceding sentence and will be deemed to not have exercised a PIK Option for any Interest Period if it does not deliver a PIK Notice with respect to such Interest Period in accordance with the immediately preceding sentence; provided that, with respect to the Interest Period commencing on and including the Closing Date to but excluding November 6, 2019, (i) a PIK Notice indicating that the 100% PIK Option is being exercised and certifying that the Parent Issuer is permitted to exercise such PIK Option for such Interest Period shall be deemed to have been delivered to the Trustee in accordance with the procedures described in Section 2.01(e) of the Indenture and this Note and (ii) the 100% PIK Option shall be deemed to have been validly exercised for such Interest Period.

The Issuers shall pay the applicable amount of any PIK Interest for any applicable Interest Period in respect of this Note on the Interest Payment Date in respect of such Interest Period by increasing the principal amount of this Note at the end of such Interest Period by the amount of such PIK Interest (rounded up to the nearest whole Dollar) and the Issuers shall otherwise follow the procedures relating to the payment of PIK Interest described in the Indenture (including in Section 2.01(f) of the Indenture). Following any increase in the principal amount of this Note as a result of a PIK Payment, this Note will bear interest on such increased principal amount from and after the date of such PIK Payment.

The Issuer will pay interest, if any, quarterly in arrears on November 6, February 6, May 6 and August 6 of each year, or if any such day is not a Business Day, on the next succeeding Business Day (each, an “Interest Payment Date”). The first Interest Payment Date shall be November 6, 2019. Interest on the Notes shall accrue from the most recent date to which interest has been paid or, if no interest has been paid, from the date of issuance. The Issuers shall also pay accrued interest on the Notes, if any, in cash on the Maturity Date. The Issuers shall also pay in cash any additional interest required to be paid pursuant to Section 6.03 of the Indenture. Interest on the Notes will be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days and the actual number of days elapsed.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary and for the avoidance of doubt, (a) the payment of accrued and unpaid interest for any Interest Period ending after August 6, 2021, (b) the payment of any accrued and unpaid interest in connection with any redemption or repurchase of Notes pursuant to Article V of the Indenture (including Section 5.07 of the Indenture) or Section 3.23, 3.24 or 3.25 of the Indenture, as applicable, (c) the payment of any accrued and unpaid interest in connection with any defeasance or satisfaction and discharge of the Indenture, (d) the payment of any accrued and unpaid interest on the Maturity Date, (e) the payment of additional interest required to be paid pursuant to Section 6.03 of the Indenture and (f) the payment of any accrued and unpaid interest upon any acceleration of the Notes shall, in each case of clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f), be made solely in cash.

The Adjusted LIBOR Rate for any Interest Period shall be as determined by an agent appointed by the Parent Issuer to calculate the Adjusted LIBOR Rate and determine the Applicable Rate for the purposes of the Indenture (the “Calculation Agent”), which shall initially be the Trustee.

- (a) The Calculation Agent will, on each Determination Date, determine the Applicable Rate.
- (b) All percentages resulting from any of the above calculations will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred thousandth of a percentage point, with five one-millionths of a percentage point being rounded upwards (e.g., 4.876545 (or 0.04876545) being rounded to 4.87655 (or 0.0487655)). All dollar amounts used in or resulting from such calculations will be rounded to the nearest cent (with one-half cent being rounded upwards). The determination of the Applicable Rate by the Calculation Agent shall, in the absence of willful misconduct or manifest error, be binding on all parties.
- (c) The Calculation Agent will, upon the written request of the Holder or Beneficial Owner of any Note, provide the Applicable Rate then in effect with respect to the Notes.
- (d) Set forth below is a summary of certain of the defined terms used in this Note relating to the calculation of interest on the Notes:

“Adjusted LIBOR Rate” means, with respect to any Interest Period when used in reference to any Note, (a) the rate of interest (rounded upwards, if necessary, to the nearest 1/100th) as administered by ICE Benchmark Administration Limited appearing on Reuters Screen LIBOR01 Page (or otherwise on the Reuters screen) (or any successor or substitute page of such service, or any successor to such service as reasonably determined by the Calculation Agent) as the London interbank offered rate for deposits in U.S. dollars for a term of three months, at approximately 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the Determination Date (but if more than one such rate is specified on such page, the rate will be an arithmetic average of all such rates) or (b) if such rate described in clause (a) of this definition is not available, the rate of interest (rounded upwards, if necessary, to the nearest 1/100th) appearing in the money markets section of The Wall Street Journal (or any successor or substitute section of such periodical, or any successor to such periodical as reasonably determined by the Calculation Agent) as the London interbank offered rate for deposits in Dollars for a term of three months on the Determination Date; provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Note or in the Indenture, in no event shall the Adjusted LIBOR Rate be less than the Adjusted LIBOR Rate Floor.

“Adjusted LIBOR Rate Floor” means 0.00% per annum.

“Applicable Margin” means 8.75% per annum.

“Determination Date” means, with respect to any Interest Period, the second (2nd) Business Day immediately prior to the first day of such Interest Period.

“Interest Period” means the period commencing on and including an Interest Payment Date to but excluding the next succeeding Interest Payment Date, it being understood that the first Interest Period shall be from and including the Closing Date to but excluding November 6, 2019.

“Reuters Screen LIBOR01 Page” means the display page so designated on Reuters (or such other page as may replace that page on that service, or such other service as may be nominated as the information vendor).

- (2) METHOD OF PAYMENT. By no later than 12:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the date on which any principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Note is due and payable, the Issuers shall deposit with the Paying Agent a sum sufficient in immediately available funds to pay such principal, premium and interest when due. Interest on any Note which is payable, and is timely paid or duly provided for, on any Interest Payment Date shall be paid to the Person in whose name such Note (or one or more Predecessor Notes) is registered at the close of business on the preceding November 5, February 5, May 5 and August 5 (or, if such day is not a Business Day, on the prior day that is a Business Day), (i) in the case of cash interest, at the office or agency of the Parent Issuer maintained for such purpose pursuant to Section 2.03 of the Indenture and (ii) in the case of PIK Interest in accordance with the procedures described in paragraph 1 of this Note. The principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Notes (other than PIK Interest, which is payable as described in paragraph 1 of this Note) shall be payable at the office or agency of the Paying Agent or Registrar designated by the Parent Issuer maintained for such purpose (which shall initially be the office of the Trustee maintained for such purpose), or at such other office or agency of the Parent Issuer as may be maintained for such purpose pursuant to Section 2.03 of the Indenture; provided, however, that, at the option of the Paying Agent, each installment of interest may be paid by (i) check mailed to addresses of the Persons entitled thereto as such addresses shall appear on the Notes Register or (ii) wire transfer to an account with a bank located in the United States maintained by the payee, subject to the last sentence of this paragraph. Payments of cash in respect of Notes represented by a Global Note (including principal, premium, if any, and interest) will be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the accounts specified by DTC or any successor depository. Payments of cash in respect of Notes represented by Definitive Notes (including principal, premium, if any, and interest) held by a Holder of at least $1,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Notes represented by Definitive Notes will be made by wire transfer to a U.S. dollar account maintained by the payee with a bank in the United States if such Holder elects payment by wire transfer by giving written notice to the Trustee or the Paying Agent to such effect designating such account no later than 15 days immediately preceding the relevant due date for payment (or such other date as the Trustee may accept in its discretion). If an Interest Payment Date is a Legal Holiday, payment shall be made on the next succeeding day that is not a Legal Holiday, and no interest shall accrue for the intervening period. If a regular Record Date is a Legal Holiday, the Record Date for such Interest Payment Date shall be the prior day that is a Business Day. All cash payments on or in respect of the Notes (including principal, premium and interest) will be in Dollars.
- (3) PAYING AGENT, TRANSFER AGENT REGISTRAR. Initially, Ankura Trust Company, LLC, the Trustee under the Indenture, will act as Paying Agent, Transfer Agent and Registrar. The Parent Issuer may change any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Registrar without notice to any Holder. The Parent Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries may act in any such capacity.

- (4) INDENTURE. The Issuers issued the Notes under an Indenture dated as of August 6, 2019 (as amended, supplemented, waived or otherwise modified, the “Indenture”) among the Parent Issuer, the Subsidiary Issuers and Guarantors from time to time party thereto, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent. The terms of the Notes include those stated in the Indenture. The Notes are subject to all such terms, and Holders are referred to the Indenture for a statement of such terms. To the extent any provision of this Note conflicts with the express provisions of the Indenture, the provisions of the Indenture shall govern and be controlling. The Notes are secured obligations of the Issuers. The aggregate principal amount of the Notes that may be issued, authenticated and delivered under the Indenture is limited as provided in Section 2.02 of the Indenture.
- (5) OPTIONAL REDEMPTION. The Parent Issuer may redeem the Notes in accordance with Section 5.07 of the Indenture.
- (6) MANDATORY REDEMPTION. Subject to paragraph 7 below, the Issuers are not required to make mandatory redemption or sinking fund payments with respect to the Notes.
- (7) REPURCHASE AT THE OPTION OF HOLDER.
- (a) If there is a Change of Control, the Parent Issuer will be required to make a Change of Control Offer in accordance with Section 3.23 of the Indenture.
- (b) If any Issuer or a Restricted Subsidiary receives Net Proceeds from a Disposition or Prohibited Obligations, the Parent Issuer will be required, as applicable, to make an Asset Sale Offer in accordance with Section 3.24 of the Indenture or a Prohibited Obligations Offer in accordance with Section 3.25 of the Indenture.
- (8) NOTICE OF REDEMPTION. Notice of redemption shall be provided in accordance with Section 5.03 of the Indenture.
- (9) DENOMINATIONS, TRANSFER, EXCHANGE. The Notes are in registered form without coupons in denominations of $1.00 and integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof. The transfer of Notes may be registered and Notes may be exchanged as provided in the Indenture. The Registrar and the Trustee may require a Holder, among other things, to furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents and the Issuers may require a Holder to pay any taxes and fees required by law or permitted by the Indenture. The Issuers need not exchange or register the transfer of any Note or portion of a Note selected for redemption, except for the unredeemed portion of any Note being redeemed in part. Also, the Issuers need not exchange or register the transfer of any Notes for a period of 15 days before the mailing of a notice of redemption of Notes or during the period between a Record Date and the corresponding Interest Payment Date.
- (10) PERSONS DEEMED OWNERS. The registered Holder of a Note shall be treated as its owner for all purposes.
- (11) AMENDMENT, SUPPLEMENT AND WAIVER. The Notes Documents may be amended or supplemented as provided in the Indenture.
- (12) DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES. The Events of Default relating to the Notes are set forth in Section 6.01 of the Indenture. If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(f) of the Indenture with respect to any Issuer) occurs and is continuing, then and in every such case, the Notes may be accelerated in accordance with Section 6.02 of the Indenture. If an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(f) of the Indenture occurs with respect to any Issuer, then and in every such case, the Notes shall automatically accelerate in accordance with Section 6.02 of the Indenture.

- (13) SECURITY. The Notes will be secured by the Collateral. Reference is made to the Indenture and the Collateral Documents for terms relating to such security, including the release, termination and discharge thereof. Enforcement of the Collateral Documents is subject to the Intercreditor Agreements. The Issuers shall not be required to make any notation on this Note to reflect any grant of such security or any such release, termination or discharge.
- (14) TRUSTEE DEALINGS WITH THE ISSUERS. The Trustee, in its individual or any other capacity, may make loans to, accept deposits from, and perform services for the Issuers or their Affiliates, and may otherwise deal with the Issuers or their Affiliates, as if it were not the Trustee.
- (15) NO RECOURSE AGAINST OTHERS. No director, officer, employee, incorporator or shareholder of any Issuer or any of their respective Subsidiaries or Affiliates, in each case in their capacities as such (other than the Issuers and the Guarantors) shall have any liability for any obligations of the Issuers, or the Guarantors under the Notes, the Note Guarantees, the Indenture or the other Notes Documents or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation. Each Holder by accepting a Note waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Notes. Such waiver may not be effective to waive liabilities under the federal securities laws and it is the view of the SEC that such a waiver is against public policy.
- (17) AUTHENTICATION. This Note will not be valid until authenticated by the manual signature of the Trustee or an authenticating agent.
- (18) ABBREVIATIONS. Customary abbreviations may be used in the name of a Holder or an assignee, such as: TEN COM (= tenants in common), TEN ENT (= tenants by the entireties), JT TEN (= joint tenants with right of survivorship and not as tenants in common), CUST (= Custodian), and U/G/M/A (= Uniform Gifts to Minors Act).
- (19) CUSIP NUMBERS. Pursuant to a recommendation promulgated by the Committee on Uniform Security Identification Procedures, the Parent Issuer has caused CUSIP numbers to be printed on the Notes, and the Trustee shall use CUSIP numbers in notices of redemption as set forth in the Indenture. No representation is made as to the accuracy of such numbers either as printed on the Notes or as contained in any notice of redemption, and reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers placed thereon.
- (20) GUARANTEES. The Issuers' obligations under the Notes and all other Secured Obligations are fully and unconditionally guaranteed, jointly and severally, by the Guarantors from time to time party to the Indenture.
- (21) GOVERNING LAW. THIS NOTE SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

The Parent Issuer will furnish to any Holder upon written request and without charge a copy of the Indenture. Requests may be made to:

(c) Upon delivery to the Collateral Agent, any Pledged Securities shall be accompanied by stock or security powers, as applicable, duly executed in blank or other instruments of transfer reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent and by such other instruments and documents as the Controlling Party (if prior to the Sell-Down Date) or the Collateral Agent may reasonably request (other than instruments or documents governed by or requiring actions in any non-United States jurisdiction related to Equity Interests of Foreign Subsidiaries). Each delivery of Pledged Securities shall be accompanied by a schedule describing the securities, which schedule shall be deemed to supplement Schedule IV and made a part hereof; provided that failure to supplement Schedule IV shall not affect the validity of such pledge of such Pledged Securities. Each schedule so delivered shall supplement any prior schedules so delivered.

(d) The pledge and security interest granted in Section 2.01 are granted as security only and shall not subject the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to, or in any way alter or modify, any obligation or liability of any Grantor with respect to or arising out of the Pledged Collateral.

Section 2.03. Representations, Warranties and Covenants. Each Grantor represents, warrants and covenants to and with the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, that:

(a) as of the Closing Date, Schedule IV includes all Equity Interests, debt securities and promissory notes required to be pledged by such Grantor hereunder in order to satisfy the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement;

(b) the Pledged Equity issued by a Grantor or a wholly-owned Restricted Subsidiary have been duly and validly authorized and issued by the issuers thereof and are fully paid and non-assessable (other than Pledged Equity consisting of limited liability company interests or partnership interests which, pursuant to the relevant organizational or formation documents, cannot be fully paid and non-assessable);

(c) except for the security interests granted hereunder, under the ABL Financing Documents and the Second Lien Financing Documents, such Grantor (i) is, subject to any transfers made in compliance with the Indenture, the direct owner, beneficially and of record, of the Pledged Equity indicated on Schedule IV, (ii) holds the same free and clear of all Liens, other than (A) Liens created by the Collateral Documents and (B) other Liens permitted pursuant to Section 4.01 of the Indenture, and (iii) if reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent, will use commercially reasonable efforts to defend its title or interest thereto or therein against any and all Liens (other than the Liens permitted pursuant to this Section 2.03(c)), however arising, of all Persons whomsoever;

(d) as of the Closing Date, except for restrictions and limitations (i) imposed or permitted by the Notes Documents, the ABL Financing Documents, the Second Lien Financing Documents and Contractual Obligations permitted pursuant to Section 4.09 of the Indenture or securities laws generally and (ii) in the case of Pledged Equity of Persons that are not Subsidiaries, that are transfer restrictions that exist at the time of acquisition of Equity Interests in such Persons, the Pledged Collateral is freely transferable and assignable, and none of the Pledged Collateral is subject to any option, right of first refusal, shareholders agreement, charter or by-law provisions or contractual restriction of any nature that would reasonably be expected to prohibit, impair, delay or otherwise affect in any manner material and adverse to the Secured Parties the pledge of such Pledged Collateral hereunder, the sale or disposition thereof pursuant hereto or the exercise by the Collateral Agent of rights and remedies hereunder;

(e) [reserved];

(f) [reserved];

(g) by virtue of the execution and delivery by each Grantor of this Agreement, and delivery of the instruments or certificates, if any, evidencing the Pledged Securities to and continued possession by the Collateral Agent (or applicable First Lien Representative or other Second Lien Representative as bailee for the Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of the applicable Intercreditor Agreement) in the State of New York, the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties has a legal, valid and perfected lien upon and security interest in such Pledged Security as security for the payment in full when due (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) and performance of the Secured Obligations to the extent such perfection is governed by the UCC, subject only to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements, Liens permitted by Section 4.01 of the Indenture;

(h) the pledge effected hereby is effective to vest in the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, the rights of the Collateral Agent in the Pledged Collateral as set forth herein; and

(i) subject to the terms of this Agreement and to the extent permitted by applicable Law, each Grantor hereby agrees that upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and delivery of prior written notice as set forth in Section 2.06(a), it will comply with instructions of the Collateral Agent with respect to the Equity Interests in such Grantor that constitute Pledged Equity hereunder without further consent by the applicable owner or holder of such Equity Interests.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, to the extent any provision of this Agreement or the Indenture excludes any assets from the scope of the Pledged Collateral, or from any requirement to take any action to perfect any security interest in favor of the Collateral Agent in the Pledged Collateral, the representations, warranties and covenants made by any relevant Grantor in this Agreement with respect to the creation, perfection or priority (as applicable) of the security interest granted in favor of the Collateral Agent (including, without limitation, this Section 2.03) shall be deemed not to apply to such excluded assets.

Section 2.04. Certification of Limited Liability Company and Limited Partnership Interests. No interest in any limited liability company or limited partnership controlled by any Grantor that constitutes Pledged Equity shall be represented by a certificate unless (i) the limited liability company agreement or partnership agreement expressly provides that such interests shall be a “security” within the meaning of Article 8 of the UCC of the applicable jurisdiction, (ii) such certificate bears a legend indicating such interest represented thereby is such a “security”, and (iii) such certificate shall be delivered to the Collateral Agent in accordance with Section 2.02. Each Grantor further acknowledges and agrees that with respect to any interest in any limited liability company or limited partnership controlled on or after the Closing Date by such Grantor and pledged hereunder that is not a “security” within the meaning of Article 8 of the UCC, such Grantor shall at no time elect to treat any such interest as a “security” within the meaning of Article 8 of the UCC, nor shall such interest be represented by a certificate, unless such election and such interest is thereafter represented by a certificate that is promptly delivered to the Collateral Agent pursuant to Sections 2.02(a) and (c).

Section 2.05. Registration in Nominee Name; Denominations. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing and the Collateral Agent shall have given the Issuers three (3) Business Days' prior written notice of its intent to exercise such rights, (a) the Collateral Agent, on behalf of the Secured Parties, shall (subject to the Intercreditor Agreements) have the right to hold the Pledged Equity in its own name as pledgee, the name of its nominee (as pledgee or as sub-agent) or the name of the applicable Grantor, endorsed or assigned in blank or in favor of the Collateral Agent and each Grantor will promptly give to the Collateral Agent copies of any written notices or other written communications received by it with respect to Pledged Equity registered in the name of such Grantor and (b) the Collateral Agent shall have the right (subject to the Intercreditor Agreements) to exchange the certificates representing Pledged Equity for certificates of smaller or larger denominations for any purpose consistent with this Agreement, to the extent permitted by the documentation governing such Pledged Securities.

Section 2.06. Voting Rights; Dividends and Interest.

(a) Subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, unless and until an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing and the Collateral Agent shall have provided three (3) Business Days' prior written notice to the Issuers that the rights of the Grantors under this Section 2.06 are being suspended:

(i) Each Grantor shall be entitled to exercise any and all voting and/or other consensual rights and powers inuring to an owner of Pledged Securities or any part thereof and each Grantor agrees that it shall not exercise such rights in violation of this Agreement, the Indenture and the other Notes Documents.

(ii) The Collateral Agent shall promptly (after reasonable advance written notice) execute and deliver to each Grantor, or cause to be executed and delivered to such Grantor, at such Grantor's cost and expense, all such proxies, powers of attorney and other instruments as such Grantor may reasonably request for the purpose of enabling such Grantor to exercise the voting and/or consensual rights and powers it is entitled to exercise pursuant to subparagraph (i) above.

(iii) Each Grantor shall be entitled to receive and retain any and all dividends, interest, principal and other distributions paid on or distributed in respect of the Pledged Securities to the extent and only to the extent that such dividends, interest, principal and other distributions are permitted by, and otherwise paid or distributed in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the Indenture, the other Notes Documents and applicable Laws; provided that any noncash dividends, interest, principal or other distributions that would constitute Pledged Equity or Pledged Debt, whether resulting from a subdivision, combination or reclassification of the outstanding Equity Interests of the issuer of any Pledged Securities or received in exchange for Pledged Securities or any part thereof, or in redemption thereof, or as a result of any merger, consolidation, acquisition or other exchange of assets to which such issuer may be a party or otherwise, shall be and become part of the Pledged Collateral, and, if received by any Grantor, shall not be commingled by such Grantor with any of its other funds or property but shall be held separate and apart therefrom, shall be held for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties and shall (subject to the Intercreditor Agreements) be promptly (and in any event within fifteen (15) Business Days or such longer period as the Controlling Party (or, if after the Sell-Down Date but prior to the Discharge of the First Lien Secured Obligations, the Designated First Lien Representative³) may agree in its reasonable discretion) delivered to the Collateral Agent in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent). So long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Collateral Agent shall promptly deliver to each Grantor any Pledged Securities in its possession if requested to be delivered to the issuer thereof in connection with any exchange or redemption of such Pledged Securities permitted by the Notes Documents in accordance with this Section 2.06(a)(iii).

(b) Subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, after the Controlling Party (or, if after the Sell-Down Date, the Collateral Agent) shall have given three (3) Business Days' prior written notice to the Issuers of the suspension of the Grantors' rights under paragraph (a) of this Section 2.06, then all rights of any Grantor to dividends, interest, principal or other distributions that such Grantor is authorized to receive pursuant to paragraph (a)(iii) of this Section 2.06 shall cease, and all such rights shall thereupon become vested in the Collateral Agent, which (subject to the Intercreditor Agreements) shall have the sole and exclusive right and authority to receive and retain such dividends, interest, principal or other distributions. All dividends, interest, principal or other distributions received by any Grantor contrary to the provisions of this Section 2.06 shall be held for the benefit of the Collateral Agent, shall be segregated from other property or funds of such Grantor and shall (subject to the Intercreditor Agreements) be promptly (and in any event within fifteen (15) Business Days or such longer period as the Controlling Party (or, if after the Sell- Down Date, the Collateral Agent) may agree in its reasonable discretion) delivered to the Collateral Agent upon demand in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent). Any and all money and other property paid over to or received by the Collateral Agent pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (b) shall be retained by the Collateral Agent in an account to be established by the Collateral Agent upon receipt of such money or other property and (subject to the Intercreditor Agreements) shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.02. After all Events of Default have been cured or waived, the Collateral Agent shall promptly repay to each Grantor (without interest) all dividends, interest, principal or other distributions that such Grantor would otherwise be permitted to retain pursuant to the terms of paragraph (a)(iii) of this Section 2.06 and that remain in such account, and such Grantor's right to receive and retain any and all dividends, interest, principal and other distributions paid on or distributed in respect of the Pledged Securities shall be automatically reinstated.

(c) Subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, after the Collateral Agent shall have provided the Issuers with notice of the suspension of the rights of the Grantors under paragraph (a)(i) of this Section 2.06, then all rights of any Grantor to exercise the voting and consensual rights and powers it is entitled to exercise pursuant to paragraph (a)(i) of this Section 2.06, and the obligations of the Collateral Agent under paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 2.06, shall cease, and all such rights shall thereupon become vested in the Collateral Agent, which shall have the sole and exclusive right and authority to exercise such voting and consensual rights and powers; provided that, unless otherwise directed by the Required Holders, the Collateral Agent shall have the right from time to time following and during the continuance of an Event of Default to permit the Grantors to exercise such rights. After all Events of Default have been cured or waived, each Grantor shall have the exclusive right to exercise the voting and/or consensual rights and powers that such Grantor would otherwise be entitled to exercise pursuant to the terms of paragraph (a)(i) above, and the obligations of the Collateral Agent under paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 2.06 shall be reinstated.

(d) Any notice given by the Collateral Agent or the Controlling Party to the Issuers suspending the rights of the Grantors under this Section 2.06, (i) shall be given in writing, (ii) may be given with respect to one or more Grantors at the same or different times, (iii) may suspend the rights of one or more Grantors under paragraph (a)(i) or paragraph (a)(iii) of this Section 2.06 in part without suspending all such rights (as specified by the Collateral Agent in its sole and absolute discretion) and without waiving or otherwise affecting the Collateral Agent's rights to give additional notices from time to time suspending other rights so long as an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and (iv) shall be given in accordance with any applicable Intercreditor Agreement.

ARTICLE III.

provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, this Agreement shall not constitute a grant of a security interest in any Excluded Assets.

(b) Subject to Section 3.01(e), each Grantor hereby irrevocably authorizes the Collateral Agent (but without obligation) for the benefit of the Secured Parties at any time and from time to time to file in any relevant jurisdiction any financing statements and continuation statements (including fixture filings) with respect to the Collateral or any part thereof and amendments thereto that (i) indicate the Collateral as “all assets of the debtor, whether now existing or hereafter acquired” or “all personal property, whether now existing or hereafter acquired” of such Grantor or words of similar effect as being of an equal or lesser scope or with greater detail, and (ii) contain the information required by Article 9 of the UCC or the analogous legislation of each applicable jurisdiction for the filing of any financing statement or amendment, including whether (A) such Grantor is an organization, the type of organization and, if required, any organizational identification number issued to such Grantor and (B) in the case of a financing statement filed as a fixture filing, a sufficient description of the real property to which such Article 9 Collateral relates. Each Grantor agrees to provide such information to the Collateral Agent promptly upon any reasonable request.

(c) The Security Interest is granted as security only and shall not subject the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to, or in any way alter or modify, any obligation or liability of any Grantor with respect to or arising out of the Article 9 Collateral.

(d) The Collateral Agent is authorized to file (but without obligation) with the USPTO or the USCO (or any successor office) such documents as may be necessary or advisable for the purpose of perfecting, confirming, continuing, enforcing or protecting the Security Interest in United States Intellectual Property of each Grantor in which a security interest has been granted by each Grantor, with or without the signature of any Grantor, and naming any Grantor or the Grantor as debtors and the Collateral Agent as secured party.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Notes Documents, none of the Grantors shall be required, nor is the Collateral Agent authorized, (i) to perfect the Security Interests granted by this Agreement (including Security Interests in Investment Property and Fixtures) by any means other than by (A) filings pursuant to the UCC in the office of the secretary of state (or similar central filing office) of the relevant State(s), and filings in the applicable real estate records with respect to any fixtures relating to real property to the extent required by the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement, (B) filings in the USPTO and USCO with respect to Intellectual Property of any Grantor as expressly required elsewhere herein, (C) delivery to the Collateral Agent to be held in its possession of all Collateral consisting of certificated Pledged Collateral as expressly required elsewhere herein or (D) other methods expressly provided herein, (ii) to enter into any deposit account control agreement, securities account control agreement or any other control agreement with respect to any deposit account, securities account or any other Collateral that requires perfection by "control", except as expressly required by Section 2.02 hereof or Section 2.19 of the ABL Credit Agreement, (iii) to take any action in any non-United States jurisdiction or required by the laws of any non- United States jurisdiction in order to create any security interests in assets located or titled outside of the United States or to perfect any security interest in such assets, including any Intellectual Property registered in any non-U.S. jurisdictions (it being understood that there shall be no security agreements or pledge agreements governed under the laws of any non-United States jurisdiction or any requirement to make any filings in any foreign jurisdiction, including with respect to Intellectual Property registered in any non-U.S. jurisdiction), (iv) to perfect in any assets subject to a certificate of title statute unless perfection can be achieved by filing a UCC financing statement, (v) to deliver any Pledged Collateral except as expressly provided in Section 2.02, or (vi) to register, apply for the registration of, or deposit into escrow any Intellectual Property (including source code).

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, to the extent any provision of this Agreement or the Indenture excludes any assets from the scope of the Article 9 Collateral, or from any requirement to take any action to perfect any security interest in favor of the Collateral Agent in the Article 9 Collateral, the representations, warranties and covenants made by any relevant Grantor in this Agreement with respect to the creation, perfection or priority (as applicable) of the security interest granted in favor of the Collateral Agent (including, without limitation, Section 3.02) shall be deemed not to apply to such excluded assets.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the preparation, filing, recording, registration, publishing, form, content or continuation of any UCC financing statements, mortgages, assignments, conveyances, financing statements, transfer endorsements or similar instruments. For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer or any other applicable Grantor shall make all filings (including filings of continuation statements and amendments to UCC financing statements that may be necessary to continue the effectiveness of such UCC financing statements) necessary to maintain (at the sole cost and expense of the Issuer) the security interest created by any of the Notes Documents in the Article 9 Collateral as a first priority perfected security interest to the extent perfection is required by such Notes Documents, and promptly provide evidence thereof to the Collateral Agent.

Section 3.02. Representations and Warranties. Each Grantor represents and warrants, as to itself and the other Grantors, to the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties that:

(a) Subject to Liens permitted by Section 4.01 of the Indenture, each Grantor has good and valid rights in and title (except as otherwise permitted by the Notes Documents) to the Article 9 Collateral with respect to which it has purported to grant a Security Interest hereunder, except for (x) minor defects in title that do not materially interfere with its ability to conduct its business as currently conducted or as proposed to be conducted or to utilize such properties for their intended purposes, (y) where the failure to have such title or other interest could not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect and (z) Intellectual Property owned by a third party as to which such Grantor has been granted a License, and has full organizational power and authority to grant to the Collateral Agent the Security Interest in such Article 9 Collateral pursuant hereto and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, without the consent or approval of any Governmental Authority other than (i) any consent or approval that has been obtained or (ii) any consent or approval the failure of which to obtain could not reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Subject to Section 3.01(e): the UCC financing statements or other appropriate filings, recordings or registrations prepared based upon the information provided in the schedules hereto for filing in the applicable filing office (or specified by notice from the Issuers to the Collateral Agent after the Closing Date in the case of filings, recordings or registrations, in each case, as required by the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement and Sections 3.13 and 3.15 of the Indenture), are all the filings, recordings and registrations that are necessary to establish a legal, valid and perfected security interest in favor of the Collateral Agent (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) in respect of all Article 9 Collateral in which the Security Interest may be perfected by filing, recording or registration in the United States (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions pursuant to the UCC (other than filings required to be made in the USPTO and the USCO in order to perfect the Security Interest in Article 9 Collateral consisting of United States Patents, Trademarks and Copyrights).

(c) The Grantors represent and warrant that short-form Intellectual Property Security Agreements containing a description of all Article 9 Collateral owned by a Grantor consisting of material United States issued Patents (and Patents for which United States issuances are pending), material United States registered Trademarks (and Trademarks for which United States registration applications are pending) and material United States registered Copyrights, respectively (other than, in each case, any Excluded Assets) (such subset of Article 9 Collateral, collectively, “Material U.S. IP”), have been delivered to the Collateral Agent for recording by the USPTO and the USCO pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 261, 15 U.S.C. § 1060 or 17 U.S.C. § 205 and the regulations thereunder, as applicable, (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) in respect of all Article 9 Collateral consisting of registrations and applications for such Material U.S. IP and, except as would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, such Material U.S. IP are valid, subsisting and enforceable. To the extent a security interest may be perfected by filing, recording or registration in USPTO or USCO under the United States federal intellectual property laws, then no further or subsequent filing, re-filing, recording, rerecording, registration or re-registration is necessary to perfect the Security Interest in such Material U.S. IP (other than (i) such filings and actions as are necessary to perfect the Security Interest with respect to any Material U.S. IP (or registration or application for registration thereof) acquired or developed by any Grantor after the Closing Date and (ii) the UCC financing and continuation statements contemplated in Section 3.02(b)).

(d) The Security Interest constitutes (i) a legal and valid security interest in all the Article 9 Collateral securing the payment in full when due and performance of the Secured Obligations and (ii) subject to the filings described in Section 3.02(b) and (c), a perfected security interest in all Article 9 Collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing, recording or registering a financing statement or analogous document in the United States (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions pursuant to the UCC. Subject to Section 3.01(e) of this Agreement, the Closing Date Intercreditor Agreement and any other intercreditor agreement entered into pursuant to the Indenture or any other Notes Document, the Security Interest is and shall be prior to any other Lien on any of the Article 9 Collateral, other than (i) any statutory or similar Lien that has priority as a matter of Law and (ii) any Liens permitted pursuant to Section 4.01 of the Indenture.

(e) The Article 9 Collateral is owned by the Grantors free and clear of any Lien, except for Liens permitted pursuant to Section 4.01 of the Indenture. None of the Grantors has filed or consented to the filing of (i) any financing statement or analogous document under the UCC or any other applicable Laws covering any Article 9 Collateral that has not been terminated, (ii) any assignment in which any Grantor assigns any Article 9 Collateral or any security agreement that has not been terminated or similar instrument covering any Article 9 Collateral with the USPTO or the USCO or (iii) any assignment in which any Grantor assigns any Article 9 Collateral or any security agreement that has not been terminated or similar instrument covering any Article 9 Collateral with any foreign governmental, municipal or other office, which financing statement or analogous document, assignment, security agreement or similar instrument is still in effect, except, in each case, for Liens permitted pursuant to Section 4.01 of the Indenture and assignments permitted by the Note Purchase Agreement.

(f) Names.

(i) As of the Closing Date, the exact legal name of each Grantor, as such name appears in its respective certificate of incorporation or any other organizational document, is set forth in Schedule I(a) hereto. As of the Closing Date, each Grantor is (a) the type of entity disclosed next to its name in Schedule I(a) hereto and (b) a registered organization except to the extent disclosed in Schedule I(a). (ii) Attached hereto as Schedule III(b) is a schedule setting forth all of each Grantor's United States Copyrights, including the name of the registered owner and the registration number of each Copyright owned by each Grantor as of the Closing Date, in each case that constitutes Collateral.

Section 3.03. Covenants.

(a) The Issuers agree to notify the Collateral Agent in writing promptly, but in any event within 30 calendar days (or such longer period as the Controlling Party (or, if after the Sell-Down Date but prior to the Discharge of the First Lien Secured Obligations, the Designated First Lien Representative) may agree in its reasonable discretion), after any change in (i) the legal name of any Grantor, (ii) the identity or type of organization or corporate structure of any Grantor, (iii) the jurisdiction of organization of any Grantor, (iv) the organizational identification number of such Grantor, if any, but solely to the extent such organizational identification number is required to be set forth on financing statements under the applicable UCC or (v) the chief executive office of any Grantor.

(b) Subject to Section 3.01(e), each Grantor shall, at its own expense, upon the reasonable request of the Collateral Agent, take any and all commercially reasonable actions necessary to defend title to the Article 9 Collateral against all Persons, except with respect to Article 9 Collateral that such Grantor determines in its reasonable business judgment is no longer necessary or beneficial to the conduct of the business, and to defend the Security Interest of the Collateral Agent in the Article 9 Collateral and the priority thereof against any Lien not permitted pursuant to Section 4.01 of the Indenture (except to the extent that the Parent Issuer reasonably determines in good faith in consultation with the Controlling Party (or, if after the Sell Down Date but prior to the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations, the Applicable First Lien Representative), that the cost of such defense is excessive in relation to the benefit to the Secured Parties of such security interest and priority); provided that, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent any Grantor from discontinuing the operation or maintenance of any of its assets or properties if such discontinuance is (x) determined by such Grantor to be desirable in the conduct of its business and (y) permitted by the Indenture.

(c) Subject to Section 3.01(e) and any other express limitations in this Agreement, each Grantor agrees, at its own expense, to execute, acknowledge, deliver and cause to be duly filed all such further instruments and documents and take all such actions as the Collateral Agent may, subject to the terms of the Closing Date Intercreditor Agreement, from time to time reasonably request to better assure, preserve, protect and perfect the Security Interest and the rights and remedies created hereby, including the payment of any fees and taxes required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the granting of the Security Interest and the filing of any financing statements or other documents in connection herewith or therewith.

(d) Subject to Section 3.01(e), upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Collateral Agent, at its option, upon two (2) Business Days' prior written notice to the Issuers, may discharge past due taxes, assessments, charges, fees, Liens, security interests or other encumbrances at any time levied or placed on the Article 9 Collateral and not permitted pursuant to Section 4.01 of the Indenture, and may pay for the maintenance and preservation of the Article 9 Collateral to the extent any Grantor fails to do so as required by the Indenture, this Agreement or any other Notes Document and within a reasonable period of time after the Collateral Agent has requested that it do so, and each Grantor jointly and severally agrees to reimburse the Collateral Agent as to the extent required by the Indenture; provided, however, the Grantors shall not be obligated to reimburse the Collateral Agent with respect to any Intellectual Property that any Grantor has failed to maintain or pursue, or otherwise abandoned or allowed to lapse, terminate or be put into the public domain in accordance with Section 3.03(f)(iv). Nothing in this paragraph shall be interpreted as excusing any Grantor from the performance of, or imposing any obligation on the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party to cure or perform, any covenants or other promises of any Grantor with respect to taxes, assessments, charges, fees, Liens, security interests or other encumbrances and maintenance as set forth herein or in the other Notes Documents.

(e) Subject to Section 3.01(e) and to the ABL Intercreditor Agreement and the Closing Date Intercreditor Agreement, if at any time any Grantor shall take a security interest in any property of an Account Debtor or any other Person the value of which is in excess of $15,000,000 to secure payment and performance of an Account, such Grantor shall promptly grant a security interest to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties to the extent not already granted pursuant to this Agreement; provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, such grant shall not constitute a grant of a security interest in any Excluded Assets. Such grant need not be filed of public record unless necessary to continue the perfected status of the security interest against creditors of and transferees from the Account Debtor or other Person granting the security interest.

(f) Intellectual Property Covenants.

(i) Subject to clause (iv) below, except to the extent failure to act would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, with respect to registration or pending application of each item of its Intellectual Property for which such Grantor has standing to do so, each Grantor agrees to take, at its expense, all reasonable steps, including, without limitation, in the USPTO, the USCO and any other governmental authority located in the United States, to pursue the registration and maintenance of each Patent, Trademark, or Copyright issuance, registration or application now or hereafter included in the Intellectual Property of such Grantor that are not Excluded Assets.

(ii) Subject to clause (iv) below, except as would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, no Grantor shall do or permit any act or knowingly omit to do any act whereby any of its Intellectual Property, excluding Excluded Assets, may lapse, be terminated, or become invalid or unenforceable or placed in the public domain (or in the case of a trade secret, become publicly known).

(iii) Subject to clause (iv) below, except where failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, each Grantor shall take all reasonable steps to preserve and protect each item of its Intellectual Property, including, without limitation, maintaining the quality of any and all products or services used or provided in connection with any of the Trademarks, consistent with the quality of the products and services as of the Closing Date, and taking reasonable steps necessary to ensure that all licensed users of any of the Trademarks abide by the applicable license's terms with respect to standards of quality.

(iv) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement or any other Notes Document prevents or shall be deemed to prevent any Grantor from abandoning, disposing of, discontinuing the use or maintenance of, failing to pursue, or otherwise allowing to lapse, terminate or be put into the public domain, any of its Intellectual Property to the extent permitted by the Indenture.

(v) Within the same delivery period as required for the delivery of the annual Compliance Certificate required to be delivered under Section 3.02(a) of the Indenture the Issuers shall provide a list of any additional Material U.S. IP of all Grantors not previously disclosed to the Collateral Agent including such information as is necessary for such Grantor to make appropriate filings in the USPTO and USCO.

(g) Commercial Tort Claims. Subject to Section 3.01(e), if the Grantors shall at any time hold or acquire a Commercial Tort Claim where the applicable Grantor has a reasonable expectation of recovery in excess of $7,500,000 for which this clause has not been satisfied and for which a complaint in a court of competent jurisdiction has been filed, such Grantor shall, on the date on which a Compliance Certificate is delivered to the Collateral Agent pursuant to Section 3.02(a) of the Indenture for the fiscal quarter in which such complaint was filed, notify the Collateral Agent thereof in a writing signed by such Grantor including a summary description of such claim and grant to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in such writing a security interest therein and in the proceeds thereof, all upon the terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV.

Remedies

Section 4.01. Remedies Upon Default. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, it is agreed that the Collateral Agent shall have the right, subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, to exercise any and all rights afforded to a secured party with respect to the Collateral and the Secured Obligations, including the Guaranty and the Guaranteed Obligations, under this Agreement, the UCC or other applicable Law and also may (i) require each Grantor to, and each Grantor agrees that it will at its expense and upon request of the Collateral Agent, promptly assemble all or part of the Collateral as directed by the Collateral Agent and make it available to the Collateral Agent at a place and time to be designated by the Collateral Agent that is reasonably convenient to both parties; (ii) occupy any premises owned or, to the extent lawful and permitted, leased by any of the Grantors where the Collateral or any part thereof is assembled or located for a reasonable period in order to effectuate its rights and remedies hereunder or under Law, without obligation to such Grantor in respect of such occupation; provided that the Collateral Agent shall provide the applicable Grantor with written notice thereof prior to such occupancy; (iii) exercise any and all rights and remedies of any of the Grantors under or in connection with the Collateral, or otherwise in respect of the Collateral; provided that the Collateral Agent shall provide the applicable Grantor with written notice thereof prior to such exercise; (iv) [reserved] and (v) subject to the mandatory requirements of applicable Law and the notice requirements described below, sell or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the Collateral securing the Secured Obligations at a public or private sale or at any broker's board or on any securities exchange, for cash, upon credit or for future delivery as the Collateral Agent shall deem appropriate. The Collateral Agent shall be authorized at any such sale of securities (if it deems it advisable to do so) to restrict the prospective bidders or purchasers to Persons who will represent and agree that they are purchasing the Collateral for their own account for investment and not with a view to the distribution or sale thereof, and upon consummation of any such sale the Collateral Agent shall have the right to assign, transfer and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof the Collateral so sold. Each such purchaser at any sale of Collateral shall hold the property sold absolutely, free from any claim or right on the part of any Grantor, and each Grantor hereby waives (to the extent permitted by Law) all rights of redemption, stay and appraisal which such Grantor now has or may at any time in the future have under any Law now existing or hereafter enacted. The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to make any sale of Collateral regardless of notice of sale having been given. Subject to the mandatory requirements of applicable Law and the notice requirements described below, the Collateral Agent may adjourn any public or private sale from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed therefor, and such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place to which it was so adjourned.

The Collateral Agent shall give the applicable Grantors 10 days' written notice (which each Grantor agrees is commercially reasonable notice within the meaning of Section 9-611 of the UCC or its equivalent in other jurisdictions) of the Collateral Agent's intention to make any sale of Collateral. Such notice, in the case of a public sale, shall state the time and place for such sale and, in the case of a sale at a broker's board or on a securities exchange, shall state the board or exchange at which such sale is to be made and the day on which the Collateral, or portion thereof, will first be offered for sale at such board or exchange. Any such public sale shall be held at such time or times within ordinary business hours and at such place or places as the Collateral Agent may fix and state in the notice (if any) of such sale. At any such sale, the Collateral, or portion thereof, to be sold may be sold in one lot as an entirety or in separate parcels, as the Collateral Agent may (in its sole and absolute discretion) determine. The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to make any sale of any Collateral if it shall determine not to do so, regardless of the fact that notice of sale of such Collateral shall have been given. The Collateral Agent may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private sale or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for sale, and such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place to which the same was so adjourned. In case any sale of all or any part of the Collateral is made on credit or for future delivery, the Collateral so sold may be retained by the Collateral Agent until the sale price is paid by the purchaser or purchasers thereof, but the Collateral Agent shall not incur any liability in case any such purchaser or purchasers shall fail to take up and pay for the Collateral so sold and, in case of any such failure, such Collateral may be sold again upon like notice. At any public (or, to the extent permitted by Law, private) sale made pursuant to this Agreement, any Secured Party may bid for or purchase, free (to the extent permitted by Law) from any right of redemption, stay, valuation or appraisal on the part of any Grantor (all said rights being also hereby waived and released to the extent permitted by Law), the Collateral or any part thereof offered for sale and may make payment on account thereof by using any claim then due and payable to such Secured Party from any Grantor as a credit against the purchase price, and such Secured Party may, upon compliance with the terms of sale, hold, retain and dispose of such property without further accountability to any Grantor therefor. For purposes hereof, a written agreement to purchase the Collateral or any portion thereof shall be treated as a sale thereof; the Collateral Agent shall be free to carry out such sale pursuant to such agreement and no Grantor shall be entitled to the return of the Collateral or any portion thereof subject thereto, notwithstanding the fact that after the Collateral Agent shall have entered into such an agreement all Events of Default shall have been remedied and the Secured Obligations paid in full. As an alternative to exercising the power of sale herein conferred upon it, the Collateral Agent may proceed by a suit or suits at Law or in equity to foreclose this Agreement and to sell the Collateral or any portion thereof pursuant to a judgment or decree of a court or courts having competent jurisdiction or pursuant to a proceeding by a court-appointed receiver. Any sale pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4.01 shall be deemed to conform to the commercially reasonable standards as provided in Section 9-610(b) of the UCC or its equivalent in other jurisdictions.

Each Grantor irrevocably makes, constitutes and appoints the Collateral Agent (and all officers, employees or agents designated by the Collateral Agent) as such Grantor's true and lawful agent (and attorney-in-fact) during the continuance of an Event of Default and after three (3) Business Days' prior written notice to the Issuers of its intent to exercise such rights, for the purpose of (i) making, settling and adjusting claims in respect of Article 9 Collateral under policies of insurance, endorsing the name of such Grantor on any check, draft, instrument or other item of payment for the proceeds of such policies of insurance, (ii) making all determinations and decisions with respect thereto and (iii) obtaining or maintaining the policies of insurance required by Section 3.10 of the Indenture or to pay any premium in whole or in part relating thereto.

If the Controlling Party (or if, after the Sell-Down Date, the Collateral Agent) shall determine to exercise its right to sell all or any of the Collateral of any Grantor pursuant to this Section 4.01, each Grantor agrees that, upon request of the Controlling Party (or if, after the Sell-Down Date, the Collateral Agent), such Grantor will, at its own expense, do or cause to be done all such other acts and things as may be necessary to make such sale of such Collateral or any part thereof valid and binding and in compliance with applicable law.

Section 4.02. Application of Proceeds. Subject to the ABL Intercreditor Agreement, the Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement, any First Lien Intercreditor Agreement and any other subordination and intercreditor agreement entered into pursuant to the Indenture or any other Notes Document, the Collateral Agent shall apply the proceeds of any collection or sale of Collateral, including any Collateral consisting of cash, in accordance with Section 6.10 of the Indenture.

The Collateral Agent shall have absolute discretion as to the time of application of any such proceeds, moneys or balances in accordance with this Agreement. Upon any sale of Collateral by the Collateral Agent (including pursuant to a power of sale granted by statute or under a judicial proceeding), the receipt of the Collateral Agent or of the officer making the sale shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser or purchasers of the Collateral so sold and such purchaser or purchasers shall not be obligated to see to the application of any part of the purchase money paid over to the Collateral Agent or such officer or be answerable in any way for the misapplication thereof.

The Collateral Agent shall have no liability to any of the Secured Parties for actions taken in reliance on information supplied to it as to the amounts of unpaid principal and interest and other amounts outstanding with respect to the Secured Obligations; provided that nothing in this sentence shall prevent any Grantor from contesting any amounts claimed by any Secured Party in any information so supplied. All distributions made by the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Section 4.02 shall be (subject to any decree of any court of competent jurisdiction) final (absent manifest error).

Each Grantor shall remain liable for any deficiency if the proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Collateral are insufficient to pay its Secured Obligations and, to the extent set forth herein and in the other Notes Documents, the fees and disbursements of any attorneys employed by any Secured Party to collect such deficiency.

Section 4.03. Grant of License to Use Intellectual Property. For the exclusive purpose of enabling the Collateral Agent to exercise rights and remedies under this Agreement at such time as the Collateral Agent shall be lawfully entitled to exercise such rights and remedies at any time after and during the continuance of an Event of Default, subject to the terms of the licenses, each Grantor hereby grants to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, a non-exclusive, royalty-free, limited license (until the termination or cure of the Event of Default) for cash, upon credit or for future delivery as the Collateral Agent shall deem appropriate to use (and to the extent permitted by the licenses, license or sublicense) any of the Intellectual Property included in the Article 9 Collateral now owned or hereafter acquired by such Grantor, and wherever the same may be located, and including in such license reasonable access to all media in which any of the licensed items may be recorded or stored and to all computer software and programs used for the compilation or printout thereof; provided, however, that all of the foregoing rights of the Collateral Agent shall expire immediately upon the termination or cure of all Events of Default and shall be exercised by the Collateral Agent solely during the continuance of an Event of Default and in connection with the Collateral Agent's exercise of remedies pursuant to Section 4.01 and upon 10 Business Days' prior written notice to the applicable Grantor, and nothing in this Section 4.03 shall require Grantors to grant any license that is prohibited by any rule of Law, statute or regulation, or is prohibited by, or constitutes a breach or default under or results in the termination of any contract, license, agreement, instrument or other document evidencing, giving rise to or theretofore granted, to the extent permitted by the Indenture, with respect to such property or otherwise unreasonably prejudices the value thereof to the relevant Grantor; provided, further, that any such license and any such license granted by the Collateral Agent to a third party shall include reasonable and customary terms and conditions necessary to preserve the existence, validity and value of the affected Intellectual Property, including without limitation, provisions requiring the continuing confidential handling of trade secrets, requiring the use of appropriate notices and prohibiting the use of false notices, quality control and inurement and goodwill provisions with regard to Trademarks, patent designation provisions with regard to Patents, copyright notices and restrictions on decompilation and reverse engineering of copyrighted software (it being understood and agreed that, without limiting any other rights and remedies of the Collateral Agent under this Agreement, any other Notes Document or applicable Law, nothing in the foregoing license grant shall be construed as granting the Collateral Agent rights in and to such Intellectual Property above and beyond (x) the rights to such Intellectual Property that each Grantor has reserved for itself and (y) in the case of Intellectual Property that is licensed to any such Grantor by a third party, the extent to which such Grantor has the right to grant a sublicense to such Intellectual Property hereunder). For the avoidance of doubt, the use of such license by the Collateral Agent may be exercised, subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, at the option of the Controlling Party (or if after the Sell-Down Date, the Collateral Agent), only during the continuance of an Event of Default. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Collateral Agent may also exercise the rights afforded under Section 4.01 of this Agreement with respect to Intellectual Property contained in the Article 9 Collateral.

ARTICLE V.

Subordination

Section 5.01. Subordination. Upon payment by any Grantor of any Secured Obligations, all rights of such Grantor against the Issuers or any other Grantor arising as a result thereof by way of right of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise shall in all respects be subordinate and junior in right of payment to the prior payment in full in cash of all the Secured Obligations (other than contingent indemnity obligations for then unasserted claims). If any amount shall erroneously be paid to the Issuers or any other Grantor on account of (i) such subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or similar right or (ii) any such indebtedness of the Issuer, the Parent Issuer or any other Grantor, such amount shall be held for the benefit of the Secured Parties and shall promptly be paid to the Collateral Agent to be credited against the payment of the Secured Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and the other Notes Documents. Subject to the foregoing, to the extent that any Grantor (other than the Issuer) shall, under this Agreement or the Indenture as a joint and several obligor, repay any of the Secured Obligations (an “Accommodation Payment”), then the Grantor making such Accommodation Payment shall be entitled to contribution and indemnification from, and be reimbursed by, each of the other Grantors in an amount equal to a fraction of such Accommodation Payment, the numerator of which fraction is such other Grantor’s Allocable Amount and the denominator of which is the sum of the Allocable Amounts of all of the Grantors. As of any date of determination, the “Allocable Amount” of each Grantor shall be equal to the maximum amount of liability for Accommodation Payments which could be asserted against such Grantor hereunder and under the Indenture without (a) rendering such Grantor “insolvent” within the meaning of Section 101 (32) of the Bankruptcy Code, Section 2 of the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act (“UFTA”) or Section 2 of the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act (“UFCA”), (b) leaving such Grantor with unreasonably small capital or assets, within the meaning of Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code, Section 4 of the UFTA, or Section 5 of the UFCA, or (c) leaving such Grantor unable to pay its debts as they become due within the meaning of Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code or Section 4 of the UFTA, or Section 5 of the UFCA.

ARTICLE VI.

Miscellaneous

Section 6.01. Notices. All communications and notices hereunder shall (except as otherwise expressly permitted herein) be in writing and given as provided in Section 13.01 of the Indenture. All communications and notices hereunder to the Issuers or any other Grantor shall be given to it in care of the Issuers as provided in Section 13.01 of the Indenture.

Section 6.02. Waivers; Amendment.

(a) No failure or delay by any Secured Party in exercising any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Notes Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges of the Secured Parties herein provided, and provided under each other Notes Document, are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by Law. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any Grantor therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by paragraph (b) of this Section 6.02, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the purchase of a Note or the provision of services under Secured Hedge Agreements shall not be construed as a waiver of any Default, regardless of whether any Secured Party may have had notice or knowledge of such Default at the time.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Collateral Agent and the Grantor or Grantors with respect to which such waiver, amendment or modification is to apply, subject to the Collateral and Guarantee Requirement and any consent required in accordance with Section 9.06 of the Indenture.

Section 6.03. Collateral Agent's Fees and Expenses; Indemnification.

(a) The parties hereto agree that the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to reimbursement of its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred hereunder as provided in Section 7.07 of the Indenture and the Collateral Agent and its agents and other representatives shall be entitled to indemnity for its actions in connection herewith as provided in Section 7.07 of the Indenture.

(b) Any such amounts payable as provided hereunder shall be additional Secured Obligations secured hereby and by the other Collateral Documents. The provisions of this Section 6.03 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the termination of this Agreement or any other Notes Document, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Secured Obligations, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Notes Document, any investigation made by or on behalf of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party, or any resignation by, or removal of, the Collateral Agent. All amounts due under this Section 6.03 shall be payable within 30 days of written demand therefor (together with backup documentation supporting such reimbursement request); provided, however, that such indemnitee shall promptly refund such amount to the extent that there is a final judicial or arbitral determination that such indemnitee was not entitled to indemnification rights with respect to such payment pursuant to the express terms of this Section 6.03.

Section 6.04. Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

Section 6.05. Survival of Agreement. All representations and warranties made by the Grantors hereunder and in the other Notes Documents and in the certificates or other instruments prepared or delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Secured Parties and shall survive the execution and delivery of the Notes Documents, the purchase of any Notes, regardless of any investigation made by any Secured Party or on its behalf and notwithstanding that any Secured Party may have had notice or knowledge of any Default or Event of Default at the time any credit is extended under the Indenture, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as this Agreement has not been terminated or released pursuant to Section 6.11 below.

Section 6.06. Counterparts; Effectiveness; Several Agreement. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery by facsimile or other electronic communication of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement shall be effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart of this Agreement. This Agreement shall become effective as to any Grantor when a counterpart hereof executed on behalf of such Grantor shall have been delivered to the Collateral Agent and a counterpart hereof shall have been executed on behalf of the Collateral Agent, and thereafter shall be binding upon such Grantor and the Collateral Agent and their respective permitted successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of such Grantor, the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective permitted successors and assigns, except that no Grantor shall have the right to assign or transfer its rights or obligations hereunder or any interest herein (and any such assignment or transfer shall be void) without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent, except to the extent permitted by this Agreement or the Indenture. This Agreement shall be construed as a separate agreement with respect to each Grantor and may be amended, restated, amended and restated, modified, supplemented, waived or released with respect to any Grantor without the approval of any other Grantor and without affecting the obligations of any other Grantor hereunder.

Section 6.07. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected or impaired thereby. The invalidity of a provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 6.08. Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Venue; Waiver of Jury Trial; Consent to Service of Process. The terms of Sections 13.08, 13.09 and 13.10 of the Indenture with respect to governing law, submission of jurisdiction, venue, consent to services of process and waiver of jury trial are incorporated herein by reference, mutatis mutandis, and the parties hereto agree to such terms.

Section 6.09. Headings. Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

Section 6.10. Security Interest Absolute. To the extent permitted by Law, all rights of the Collateral Agent hereunder, the Security Interest, the grant of a security interest in the Pledged Collateral and all obligations of each Grantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of (a) any lack of validity or enforceability of the Indenture, any other Notes Document, any agreement with respect to any of the Secured Obligations or any other agreement or instrument relating to any of the foregoing, (b) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any of the Secured Obligations, or any other amendment or waiver of or any consent to any departure from the Indenture, any other Notes Document or any other agreement or instrument, (c) any exchange, release or non-perfection of any Lien on other collateral, or any release or amendment or waiver of or consent under or departure from any guarantee, securing or guaranteeing all or any of the Secured Obligations or (d) any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a defense (other than defense of payment or performance) available to, or a discharge of, any Grantor in respect of the Secured Obligations or this Agreement. Nothing in this Security Agreement, the Indenture or any Security Document shall be interpreted as giving the Collateral Agent responsibility for or any duty concerning the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of any Lien or security interest in any Collateral or giving the Collateral Agent any obligation to take any action to procure or maintain such validity, perfection, priority or enforceability. The Collateral Agent shall have no obligation to clean-up or otherwise prepare the Collateral for sale. The Collateral Agent and each Secured Party shall use reasonable care with respect to the Collateral in its possession or under its control.

Section 6.11. Termination or Release.

(a) This Agreement and each other Collateral Document (in each case, other than with respect to provisions hereof that expressly survive termination), the Security Interest and all other security interests granted hereby or thereby shall terminate with respect to all Secured Obligations and any Liens arising therefrom shall be automatically released upon the satisfaction and discharge or defeasance of the Secured Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) ..

(b) A Grantor that is a Guarantor shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder and under any other Collateral Document to which it is a party and the Security Interest and all other Liens granted hereby or thereby to the Collateral Agent in the Collateral of such Grantor shall be automatically released upon the consummation of any transaction or upon any designation, in each case, permitted by the Indenture as a result of which such Grantor is released as a Guarantor pursuant to Section 10.02 of the Indenture.

(c) Upon (i) any Disposition by any Grantor of any Collateral that is permitted under the Indenture (other than a sale or transfer to another Note Party), (ii) the effectiveness of any written consent to the release of the Security Interest or other Liens granted hereby or by any other Collateral Document in any Collateral pursuant to Section 12.03 of the Indenture or (iii) any Collateral becoming an "Excluded Asset", the security interest in such Collateral shall be automatically released.

(d) The Security Interest and other Liens granted hereby or by any other applicable Collateral Document in any Collateral shall, with respect to such Collateral, be subordinated to another Lien permitted by Section 4.01 of the Indenture, in accordance with the terms of Section 12.02 of the Indenture, either (i) upon an election in writing by the Controlling Party (or, if after the Sell-Down Date, the Collateral Agent) to subordinate such security interest or (ii) in respect of Liens permitted by Section 4.01(b), (u), (w) and (aa) (solely with respect to clauses (b), (u) and (w)) of the Indenture, upon the Parent Issuer's written notice to the Collateral Agent thereof (with the Collateral Agent's prompt acknowledgement, not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned).

(e) In connection with any termination, subordination or release pursuant to paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this Section 6.11, the Collateral Agent shall execute and deliver to any Grantor, at such Grantor's expense, all documents that such Grantor shall reasonably request to evidence such termination, subordination or release and shall perform such other actions reasonably requested by such Grantor to effect such termination, subordination or release, including delivery of certificates, securities and instruments. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to this Section 6.11 shall be without recourse to or representation or warranty of any kind (either express or implied) by the Collateral Agent.

Section 6.12. Additional Grantors. Pursuant to the Indenture, certain additional Restricted Subsidiaries of the Note Parties and Successor Parent Issuer may be required to enter into this Agreement as Grantors. Upon execution and delivery by the Collateral Agent and a Restricted Subsidiary or Successor Parent Issuer of a Security Agreement Supplement, such Restricted Subsidiary shall become a Grantor hereunder with the same force and effect as if originally named as a Grantor herein. The execution and delivery of any such instrument shall not require the consent of any other Grantor hereunder. The rights and obligations of each Grantor hereunder shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the addition of any new Grantor as a party to this Agreement.

Section 6.13. Collateral Agent Appointed Attorney-in-Fact. Subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, each Grantor hereby appoints the Collateral Agent as the attorney-in- fact of such Grantor for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Agreement and taking any action and executing any instrument that the Collateral Agent may deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes hereof at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, which appointment is irrevocable and coupled with an interest. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, the Collateral Agent shall have the right, after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and notice by the Collateral Agent to the applicable Grantor of the Collateral Agent's intent to exercise such rights, with full power of substitution either in the Collateral Agent's name or in the name of such Grantor (a) to receive, endorse, assign and/or deliver any and all notes, acceptances, checks, drafts, money orders or other evidences of payment relating to the Collateral or any part thereof; (b) to demand, collect, receive payment of, give receipt for and give discharges and releases of all or any of the Collateral; (c) to sign the name of any Grantor on any invoice or bill of lading relating to any of the Collateral; (d) upon prior written notice to the Parent Issuer, to send verifications of Accounts Receivable to any Account Debtor; (e) to commence and prosecute any and all suits, actions or proceedings at Law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction to collect or otherwise realize on all or any of the Collateral or to enforce any rights in respect of any Collateral; (f) to settle, compromise, compound, adjust or defend any actions, suits or proceedings relating to all or any of the Collateral; (g) upon prior written notice to the Parent Issuer, to notify, or to require any Grantor to notify, Account Debtors to make payment directly to the Collateral Agent; (h) upon prior written notice to the Issuers, to otherwise communicate with any Account Debtor; (i) to obtain and adjust insurance required to be paid to the Collateral Agent or make any determination and decision with respect to such insurance policies; and (j) to use, sell, assign, transfer, pledge, make any agreement with respect to or otherwise deal with all or any of the Collateral, and to do all other acts and things necessary to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, as fully and completely as though the Collateral Agent were the absolute owner of the Collateral for all purposes; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring or obligating the Collateral Agent to make any commitment or to make any inquiry as to the nature or sufficiency of any payment received by the Collateral Agent, or to present or file any claim or notice, or to take any action with respect to the Collateral or any part thereof or the moneys due or to become due in respect thereof or any property covered thereby. The Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties shall be accountable only for amounts actually received as a result of the exercise of the powers granted to them herein, and neither they nor their officers, directors, employees or agents shall be responsible to any Grantor for any act or failure to act hereunder, except for their own gross negligence, bad faith, material breach or willful misconduct or that of any of their Affiliates, directors, officers, employees, counsel, agents, attorneys-in-fact or other representatives, in each case, as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. All sums disbursed by the Collateral Agent in connection with this paragraph shall be payable pursuant to the terms of Section 6.10 of the Indenture.

Section 6.14. General Authority of the Collateral Agent. By acceptance of the benefits of this Agreement and any other Collateral Documents, each Secured Party (whether or not a signatory hereto) shall be deemed irrevocably (a) to consent to the appointment of the Collateral Agent as its agent hereunder and under such other Collateral Documents, (b) to confirm that the Collateral Agent shall have the authority to act as the exclusive agent of such Secured Party for the enforcement of any provisions of this Agreement and such other Collateral Documents against any Grantor, the exercise of remedies hereunder or thereunder and the giving or withholding of any consent or approval hereunder or thereunder relating to any Collateral or any Grantor's obligations with respect thereto, (c) to agree that it shall not take any action to enforce any provisions of this Agreement or any other Collateral Document against any Grantor, to exercise any remedy hereunder or thereunder or to give any consents or approvals hereunder or thereunder except as expressly provided in this Agreement or any other Collateral Document and (d) to agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement and any other Collateral Documents. The Collateral Agent is executing and delivering this Agreement solely in its capacity as "collateral agent", and not in its individual or corporate capacity, under and pursuant to directions set forth in the Indenture under which it was appointed, and in so doing the Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the terms or sufficiency of this Agreement for any purpose. In entering into this Agreement, and in taking (or refraining from) any actions under or pursuant to this Agreement, the Collateral Agent shall be protected by and shall enjoy all of the rights, immunities, privileges, protections and indemnities granted to it under the Indenture and the other Notes Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each acknowledgment, agreement, consent or waiver (in each case whether express or implied) in this Agreement made by the Collateral Agent, whether on behalf of itself or any of the other Secured Parties, is made in reliance on the authority granted and direction to the Collateral Agent by the other Secured Parties as applicable pursuant to the authorization under the Indenture and the other Notes Documents.

Section 6.15. Reasonable Care. The Collateral Agent is required to use reasonable care in the custody and preservation of any of the Collateral in its possession; provided that the Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have used reasonable care in the custody and preservation of any of the Collateral, if such Collateral is accorded treatment substantially similar to that which the Collateral Agent accords its own property.

Section 6.16. Delegation; Limitation. The Collateral Agent may execute any of the powers granted under this Agreement and perform any duty hereunder either directly or by or through agents or attorneys-in-fact, and shall not be responsible to the Lenders for the gross negligence or willful misconduct of any agents or attorneys-in-fact selected by it with reasonable care and without gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Section 6.17. Reinstatement. The obligations of the Grantors under this Agreement shall be automatically reinstated if and to the extent that for any reason any payment by or on behalf of the Issuer, the Parent Issuer or other Note Party in respect of the Secured Obligations is rescinded, avoided, or must be otherwise restored by any holder of any of the Secured Obligations, whether as a result of any proceedings in bankruptcy or reorganization or otherwise.

Section 6.18. [Reserved].

Section 6.19. Intercreditor Agreements.

(a) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Liens and Security Interest granted to the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party pursuant to this Agreement, the exercise of any right or remedy by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party hereunder and all other terms and provisions of this Agreement, are subject to the terms and provisions of the ABL Intercreditor Agreement, the Closing Date Intercreditor Agreement, any First Lien Intercreditor Agreement and any other subordination and intercreditor agreement entered into pursuant to the Indenture or any other Notes Document. In the event of any conflict between the terms and conditions of the ABL Intercreditor Agreement, the Closing Date Intercreditor Agreement, any First Lien Intercreditor Agreement and any other subordination and intercreditor agreement entered into pursuant to the Indenture or any other Notes Document and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the terms and conditions of the ABL Intercreditor Agreement, the Closing Date Intercreditor Agreement, any First Lien Intercreditor Agreement and any other subordination and intercreditor agreement entered into pursuant to the Indenture or any other Notes Document, as applicable, shall govern and control in all respects and supersede the terms of this Agreement with respect to such conflict. No right, power or remedy granted to the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party hereunder shall be exercised by the Collateral Agent or such other Secured Party, and no direction shall be given by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party, in contravention of the ABL Intercreditor Agreement, the Closing Date Intercreditor Agreement, any First Lien Intercreditor Agreement and any other subordination and intercreditor agreement entered into pursuant to the Indenture or any other Notes Document.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or any other Notes Document, to the extent the provisions of any Notes Document require the delivery of, or control over, ABL Priority Collateral to be granted to the Collateral Agent at any time prior to the discharge of the ABL Obligations, then delivery of ABL Priority Collateral (as defined in the Indenture) (or control with respect thereto) shall instead be made to the ABL Agent, to be held in accordance with the ABL Financing Documents and the ABL Intercreditor Agreement, and each applicable Grantor's obligations hereunder or in any other Notes Document (including the representations and warranties made by it hereunder and in the other Notes Documents) with respect to such delivery or control shall be deemed satisfied by the delivery to the ABL Agent, acting as a gratuitous bailee or agent for perfection, in each case, of the Collateral Agent pursuant to the ABL Intercreditor Agreement. Furthermore, at all times prior to the discharge of the ABL Obligations, the Collateral Agent is authorized by the parties hereto to effect transfers of such Collateral at any time in its possession (and any "control" or similar agreements with respect to such Collateral) to ABL Agent.

Section 6.20. Administrative Agent as Bailee. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof or of any other Notes Document, for so long as the Discharge of First Lien Obligations shall not have occurred and the First Lien Documents shall require the delivery of possession or control to the Administrative Agent, or shall require the granting of a first priority Lien on Collateral in favor of the Administrative Agent, any covenant hereunder requiring the delivery of possession or control to the Collateral Agent of Collateral shall be deemed to have been satisfied if, prior to the Discharge of First Lien Obligations, such possession or control shall have been delivered to or given in favor of the Administrative Agent (or its agents or bailees), as gratuitous bailee, for the Collateral Agent in accordance with the Closing Date Intercreditor Agreement.

In furtherance of the foregoing, the parties hereto agree, subject to the other provisions of this Agreement:

(a) Upon request by the Designated First Lien Representative or the Designated Second Lien Representative, to cooperate in good faith (and to direct their counsel to cooperate in good faith) from time to time in order to determine the specific items included in the First Lien Collateral and the Second Lien Collateral and the steps taken to perfect their respective Liens thereon and the identity of the respective parties obligated under the First Lien Loan Documents and the Second Lien Debt Documents;

(b) [reserved];

(c) The existence of a maximum claim with respect to any real property subject to a mortgage which applies to all Secured Obligations shall not be deemed to be a difference in Collateral among any series, issue or class of First Lien Secured Obligations or Second Lien Secured Obligations; and

(b) Notwithstanding Section 2.03(a) above, the Designated Second Lien Representative may enforce any of its rights and exercise any of its remedies (other than credit bidding, which shall be permitted only as set forth in clause (a) above) (the actions permitted to be taken by any Second Lien Secured Party pursuant to Section 2.03(a) or this Section 2.03(b), the “Second Lien Permitted Actions”) with respect to the Second Lien Collateral after a period of 180 consecutive days has elapsed since the date on which the Designated Second Lien Representative has delivered to the Designated First Lien Representative written notice of either (1) an event of default under the Second Lien Debt Documents and the acceleration of the Second Lien Secured Obligations or (2) the non-payment at the final stated maturity of the Indebtedness then outstanding under the Second Lien Debt Documents (the “Standstill Period”); provided, however, that (i) notwithstanding the expiration of the Standstill Period or anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Designated Second Lien Representative or any other Second Lien Secured Party enforce or exercise any rights or remedies with respect to any Collateral if (1) the Designated First Lien Representative or any other First Lien Secured Party shall have commenced, and shall be diligently pursuing the enforcement or exercise of any rights or remedies with respect to all or a material portion of such Collateral or (2) the Grantor which has granted a security interest in such Collateral is then a debtor under or with respect to (or otherwise subject to) any Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding and (ii) after the expiration of the Standstill Period, so long as the Designated First Lien Representative has not commenced any action to enforce the Liens securing the First Lien Secured Obligations on all or any material portion of the Collateral, the Second Lien Secured Parties (or the Designated Second Lien Representative on their behalf) may, subject to the provisions of Article 7, enforce the Liens securing the Second Lien Secured Obligations with respect to all or any portion of the Collateral to the extent permitted hereunder. In furtherance of the foregoing, each Second Lien Representative on behalf of itself and each Second Lien Secured Party represented by it acknowledges and agrees that until the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations, the First Lien Credit Agreement Administrative Agent shall be entitled, subject to Section 2.03(b)(i), for the benefit of the holders of the First Lien Secured Obligations, to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with such Collateral as provided herein and in the First Lien Security Documents, without regard to any Lien securing the Second Lien Secured Obligations granted on the Collateral or any rights to which the holders of the Second Lien Secured Obligations would otherwise be entitled as a result of such Lien. Without limiting the foregoing, each Second Lien Representative on behalf of itself and each Second Lien Secured Party represented by it agrees that neither the Designated First Lien Representative nor any other First Lien Secured Party shall have any duty or obligation first to marshal or realize upon any type of Collateral (or any other collateral securing the First Lien Secured Obligations), or to sell, dispose of or otherwise liquidate all or any portion of the Collateral (or any other collateral securing the First Lien Secured Obligations), in any manner that would maximize the return to the Second Lien Secured Parties, notwithstanding that the order and timing of any such realization, sale, disposition or liquidation may affect the amount of net proceeds actually received by the Second Lien Secured Parties from such realization, sale, disposition or liquidation. Each Second Lien Representative on behalf of itself and each Second Lien Secured Party represented by it waives any claim it or such Second Lien Secured Party may now or hereafter have against the Designated First Lien Representative or any other First Lien Secured Party (or their representatives) arising out of (a) any actions which the Designated First Lien Representative or the other First Lien Secured Parties take or omit to take (including actions with respect to the creation, perfection or continuation of Liens on any Collateral, actions with respect to the foreclosure upon, sale, release or depreciation of, or failure to realize upon, any of the Collateral and actions with respect to the collection of any claim for all or any part of the First Lien Secured Obligations from any account debtor, guarantor or any other party) in accordance with the First Lien Security Documents or any other agreement related thereto or to the collection of the First Lien Secured Obligations or the valuation, use, protection or release of any Collateral, (b) any election by the Designated First Lien Representative or any of the First Lien Secured Parties, in any Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding of the application of Section 1111(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) and/or (c) any borrowing by any Grantor as debtor in possession, or any related grant of a security interest or administrative expense priority under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law). The First Lien Representatives and the First Lien Secured Parties, on the one hand, and the Second Lien Secured Parties, on the other hand, shall each be responsible for keeping themselves informed of (a) the financial condition of the Initial Borrower, the Parent Borrower and its Subsidiaries and all endorsers and/or guarantors of the First Lien Secured Obligations or the Second Lien Secured Obligations and (b) all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the First Lien Secured Obligations or the Second Lien Secured Obligations.

Section 2.05. No Interference.

(a) Each Second Lien Representative on behalf of itself and each Second Lien Secured Party represented by it agrees that, whether or not a Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Grantor, (i) it will not take or cause to be taken any action the purpose or effect of which is, or could be, to make any Lien on the Collateral securing any of the Second Lien Secured Obligations pari passu with, or to give such Second Lien Secured Party any preference or priority relative to, any Lien on the Collateral securing or purporting to secure any of the First Lien Secured Obligations, (ii) it will not challenge or question in any proceeding, or support any other Person in challenging or questioning in any proceeding, in each case including, without limitation, any Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding, the validity, allowability, or enforceability of any First Lien Secured Obligations or First Lien Security Document, or the validity, attachment, perfection or priority of any Lien on the Collateral securing or purporting to secure any of the First Lien Secured Obligations, or the validity or enforceability of the priorities, rights or duties established by or pursuant to other provisions of this Agreement, (iii) it will not contest, protest, object to, interfere with, hinder or delay, in any manner, whether by judicial proceedings or otherwise, any sale, transfer or other disposition of the Collateral, or any other exercise of remedies against any Collateral or any forbearance thereof, in each case, by any First Lien Secured Parties or the First Lien Representative acting on their behalf, (iv) it shall have no right to (A) direct any First Lien Representative or any First Lien Secured Party to exercise any right, remedy or power with respect to the Collateral or (B) except in connection with the taking of any Second Lien Permitted Actions, consent to the exercise by any First Lien Representative or any First Lien Secured Party of any right, remedy or power with respect to the Collateral, (v) it will not institute any suit or assert in any suit, Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding or other proceeding any claim against any First Lien Representative or any First Lien Secured Party seeking damages from or other relief by way of specific performance, instructions or otherwise with respect to, and neither any First Lien Representative nor any First Lien Secured Party shall be liable for, any action taken or omitted to be taken by any such First Lien Representative or any such First Lien Secured Party with respect to any Collateral securing such First Lien Secured Obligations; provided that nothing in this clause (v) shall prevent any Second Lien Secured Party from asserting or seeking to enforce any provision of any Second Lien Security Document (to the extent not prohibited by this Agreement) and (vi) it will not attempt, directly or indirectly, whether by judicial proceedings or otherwise, to challenge the enforceability of any provision of this Agreement; provided that nothing in this Section 2.05(a) shall prevent any Second Lien Secured Party from asserting or seeking to enforce any provision of this Agreement or taking any Second Lien Permitted Action.

(b) Each First Lien Representative on behalf of itself and each First Lien Secured Party represented by it agrees that, whether or not a Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Grantor, it will not challenge or question in any proceeding, or support any other Person in challenging or questioning in any proceeding, in each case including, without limitation, any Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding, the validity, allowability, or enforceability of any Second Lien Secured Obligations or Second Lien Security Document, or the validity, attachment, perfection or priority of any Lien on the Collateral securing or purporting to secure any of the Second Lien Secured Obligations, or the validity or enforceability of the priorities, rights or duties established by or pursuant to other provisions of this Agreement.

Section 2.06. Automatic Release of Second Liens. (a) The Designated First Lien Representative, for itself and on behalf of the First Lien Secured Parties, will have the exclusive right (subject to the provisions of the First Lien Loan Documents) to make determinations regarding the release of Liens on, or the disposition of, any Collateral in connection with the exercise of remedies with respect to the Collateral, without consultation with, consent of, or notice to, the Designated Second Lien Representative or any other Second Lien Secured Party. If, in connection with (i) any sale, transfer or other disposition of any Collateral by any Grantor to any Person that is not a Grantor (other than in connection with any enforcement or exercise of rights or remedies with respect to the Collateral which shall be governed by clause (ii)) permitted under the terms of the First Lien Loan Documents or consented to by the applicable First Lien Secured Parties under such First Lien Loan Documents (other than (A) in connection with the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations or (B) after the occurrence and during the continuance of any event of default under the Second Lien Debt Documents) or (ii) the enforcement or exercise of any rights or remedies with respect to the Collateral by the Designated First Lien Representative or any other First Lien Secured Party, including any sale, transfer or other disposition of Collateral, the Designated First Lien Representative, for itself and on behalf of the other First Lien Secured Parties, or any Grantor releases any of the First Liens (a "Release"), then the Liens on such Collateral securing any Second Lien Secured Obligations shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released, and the Designated Second Lien Representative shall, subject to delivery by the applicable Grantors of an officer's certificates stating that any such release of First Liens has become effective (or shall become effective concurrently with such release of the Liens on such Collateral securing such Second Lien Secured Obligations), for itself and on behalf of the other Second Lien Secured Parties, promptly execute and deliver to the Designated First Lien Representative and the applicable Grantors such termination statements, releases and other documents as the Designated First Lien Representative or any applicable Grantor may reasonably request to effectively confirm such Release; provided, that such release by such Designated Second Lien Representative, for itself or for the benefit of its Second Lien Secured Parties, shall not extend to or otherwise affect any of the rights of the Second Lien Secured Parties to the proceeds from any such sale, transfer or other disposition (subject to the relative Lien priorities set forth in this Agreement). Similarly, if the equity interests of any Person are foreclosed upon or otherwise sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of and in connection therewith the Designated First Lien Representative releases the First Liens on the property or assets of such Person or releases such Person from its guarantee of First Lien Secured Obligations, then the Second Liens on such property or assets of such Person and such Person's guarantee of Second Lien Secured Obligations shall be automatically released to the same extent.

(b) Until the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations occurs, the Designated Second Lien Representative, for itself and on behalf of the Second Lien Secured Parties, hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Designated First Lien Representative and any officer or agent of the Designated First Lien Representative, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full irrevocable power and authority in the place and stead of the Designated Second Lien Representative or such holder or in the Designated First Lien Representative's own name, from time to time in the Designated First Lien Representative's discretion, for the purpose of carrying out the terms of this Section 2.06, to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments which may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Section 2.06, including any endorsements or other instruments of transfer or release.

Section 2.07. Certain Agreements with Respect to Bankruptcy or Insolvency Proceedings. In the event of a Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding, each Second Lien Representative and the other Second Lien Secured Parties shall not, unless and until the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations occurs, directly or indirectly (i) seek in respect of any part of the Collateral or proceeds thereof or any Lien on the Collateral securing the Second Lien Secured Obligations that may exist thereon any relief from, or modification of, the automatic or other stay as provided in Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) or under any other applicable law or otherwise without the express written consent of the Designated First Lien Representative, or (except as otherwise provided below) seek or accept any form of adequate protection under either or both of Sections 362 and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) or under any other applicable law or otherwise with respect thereto, except Liens on replacement or additional collateral junior to the Liens on the Collateral securing and providing adequate protection for the First Lien Secured Obligations, a super-priority claim junior to that granted as adequate protection for the First Lien Secured Obligations, the accrual of interest and the current payment of reasonable out-of-pocket post-petition fees and expenses, including fees and disbursements of counsel and other professional advisors, incurred by the Second Lien Representatives (which the Second Lien Secured Parties agree will constitute adequate protection of their claims and interests), (ii) subject to the immediately succeeding paragraph, oppose or object to any adequate protection sought by or granted to any First Lien Secured Party in connection with the use of cash collateral or post-petition financing under Section 362, 363 or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) or under any other applicable law or otherwise, (iii) subject to the immediately succeeding paragraph, oppose or object to the use of cash collateral by a Grantor unless the Designated First Lien Representative shall have opposed or objected to such use of cash collateral (provided that, if the First Lien Secured Parties withdraw such opposition or objection, while any First Lien Secured Obligations remain outstanding, the Second Lien Secured Parties will also withdraw such opposition or objection), (iv) subject to the final sentence of this Section 2.07, oppose or object to (and will consent to) any post-petition financing (including any debtor in possession financing) provided by any of the First Lien Secured Parties or provided by a third party pursuant to Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) or under any other applicable law or otherwise (including on a priming basis, to the extent any Liens granted in favor of the First Lien Secured Parties that are providing, or any third-party provider of, DIP Financing are senior to, or rank pari passu with, the Liens on the Collateral securing the First Lien Secured Obligations and the Second Lien Secured Parties retain their Liens on the Collateral to secure the Second Lien Secured Obligations) (a "DIP Financing") unless the Designated First Lien Representative shall have opposed or objected to such DIP Financing; provided, that the foregoing shall not prevent the Second Lien Secured Parties from (x) proposing any other DIP Financing to any Grantor or to a court of competent jurisdiction or (y) objecting to any provision in any DIP Financing (i) relating to any provision or content of a plan of reorganization or liquidation that is inconsistent with this Agreement or (ii) requiring any Grantor to seek any approval for any plan of reorganization or liquidation that is inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, (v) oppose or object to the determination of the extent of any Liens held by any of the First Lien Secured Parties or the value or allowability of any claims of the First Lien Secured Parties under Section 506(a) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) or under any other applicable law or otherwise, (vi) oppose or object to the payment of interest (including, without limitation, Post-Petition Interest), fees, and expenses as provided under Sections 506(b) and (c) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) or under any other applicable law or otherwise to any First Lien Secured Party, (vii) oppose or object (and instead shall be deemed to have consented) to any disposition of any Collateral (including any credit bid by any First Lien Secured Party under Section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) or under any other applicable law or otherwise) free and clear of the Liens on the Collateral securing the Second Lien Secured Obligations or other claims under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) or otherwise, so long as the respective interests of the Second Lien Secured Parties attach to any net proceeds thereof subject to the relative Lien priorities in this Agreement, if the First Lien Secured Parties, or a representative authorized by the First Lien Secured Parties, shall consent to, or shall not have opposed or objected to, such disposition; provided, that the Second Lien Secured Parties shall not be prohibited from asserting any objections to the bidding and related procedures proposed to be utilized in connection with such disposition that may be raised by an unsecured creditor of the Grantors, (viii) credit bid all or any portion of the Second Lien Secured Obligations under Section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) or otherwise, except pursuant to the exercise of Permitted Second Lien Credit Bid Rights or (ix) (whether in the capacity of a secured creditor or an unsecured creditor) propose, vote in favor of or otherwise directly or indirectly support any plan of reorganization or other dispositive restructuring plan that is inconsistent with the priorities in this Agreement, without the consent of the Designated First Lien Representative. To the extent any Liens granted in favor of the First Lien Secured Parties that are providing, or any third-party provider of, DIP Financing are senior to, or rank pari passu with, the Liens on the Collateral securing the First Lien Secured Obligations or provided as adequate protection therefor, each Second Lien Representative will, for itself and on behalf of the other Second Lien Secured Parties represented by it, subordinate its Liens on the Collateral securing the Second Lien Secured Obligations to the Liens on the Collateral securing such DIP Financing and to any Liens provided to the First Lien Secured Parties as adequate protection on the terms of this Agreement, and to any "carve-out" agreed to by the First Lien Representatives or the other First Lien Secured Parties. This Agreement constitutes a "subordination agreement" under Section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) as well as all other applicable laws, and shall be effective and enforceable before, during and after the commencement of any Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding; all references herein to any Grantor shall include such Grantor as a debtor in possession and any receiver or trustee for such Grantor. If, in any Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding, debt obligations of the reorganized debtor secured by Liens upon any property of the reorganized debtor are distributed, pursuant to a plan of reorganization or similar dispositive restructuring plan, both on account of First Lien Secured Obligations and on account of Second Lien Secured Obligations, then, to the extent the debt obligations distributed on account of the First Lien Secured Obligations and on account of the Second Lien Secured Obligations are secured by Liens upon the same property, the provisions of this Agreement will survive the distribution of such debt obligations pursuant to such plan and will apply with like effect to the Liens securing such debt obligations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of clause (iv) of the first sentence of this Section 2.07 shall only be applicable as to the Second Lien Secured Parties with respect to any DIP Financing to the extent (x) the aggregate principal amount of the DIP Financing, plus (y) measured after giving effect to the DIP Financing and any payment of debt with the proceeds of such DIP Financing, the sum of (i) the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the loans, notes or debt securities outstanding under the First Lien Debt Facilities that will remain outstanding after giving effect to such DIP Financing and (ii) the aggregate face amount of any letters of credit issued and outstanding under the First Lien Debt Facilities that will remain outstanding after giving effect to such DIP Financing, does not exceed 115% of the sum of (i) the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the loans, notes or debt securities outstanding under the First Lien Debt Facilities as of the date on which the Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding is commenced plus (ii) the aggregate face amount of any letters of credit issued and outstanding under the First Lien Debt Facilities as of the date on which the Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding is commenced.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in any Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding, (i) if the First Lien Secured Parties (or any subset thereof) are granted adequate protection in the form of a Lien on additional or replacement collateral or super-priority claims in connection with any DIP Financing and/or use of cash collateral under Section 363 or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) or any similar provision of any other applicable law, then each Second Lien Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Second Lien Secured Party, may seek or request adequate protection (without objection from any First Lien Representative or any other First Lien Secured Party) in the form of a Lien on such additional or replacement collateral and/or (as applicable) a super-priority claim, which Lien or super-priority claim is subordinated to the Liens securing and providing adequate protection for all First Lien Secured Obligations and such DIP Financing (and all obligations relating thereto) on the same basis as the other Liens securing the Second Lien Secured Obligations are so subordinated to the Liens securing First Lien Secured Obligations under this Agreement and(ii) in the event any Second Lien Representatives, for themselves and on behalf of the Second Lien Secured Parties, seek or request adequate protection and such adequate protection is granted in the form of a Lien on additional or replacement collateral, then such Second Lien Representatives, for themselves and on behalf of each Second Lien Secured Party, agree that each First Lien Representative shall also be entitled to a senior priority Lien on such additional or replacement collateral as security and adequate protection for the First Lien Secured Obligations and any such DIP Financing and that any Lien on such additional or replacement collateral securing or providing adequate protection for the Second Lien Secured Obligations shall be subordinated to the Liens on such collateral securing the First Lien Secured Obligations and any such DIP Financing (and all obligations relating thereto) and any other Liens granted to the First Lien Secured Parties as adequate protection on the same basis as the other Liens securing the Second Lien Secured Obligations are so subordinated to such Liens on such collateral securing First Lien Secured Obligations under this Agreement.

Each Second Lien Representative, for itself and on behalf of the Second Lien Secured Parties represented by it, and each First Lien Representative, for itself and on behalf of the First Lien Secured Parties represented by it, acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) the grants of Liens pursuant to the First Lien Security Documents and the Second Lien Security Documents constitute two separate and distinct grants of Liens; and

(b) because of, among other things, their differing rights in the Collateral, the Second Lien Secured Obligations are fundamentally different from the First Lien Secured Obligations and must be separately classified in any plan of reorganization or similar dispositive restructuring plan proposed, confirmed, or adopted in a Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding.

To further effectuate the intent of the parties as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, if it is held that the claims of the First Lien Secured Parties and the Second Lien Secured Parties in respect of the Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of senior and junior secured claims), then each of the parties hereto hereby acknowledges and agrees that all distributions shall be made as if there were separate classes of senior and junior secured claims against the Grantors in respect of the Collateral (with the effect being that, to the extent that the aggregate value of the Collateral is sufficient (for this purpose ignoring all claims held by the Second Lien Secured Parties), the First Lien Secured Parties shall be entitled to receive, in addition to amounts distributed to them in respect of principal, pre-petition interest and other claims, all amounts owing (or that would be owing if there were such separate classes of senior and junior secured claims) in respect of Post-Petition Interest, including any additional interest payable pursuant to the First Lien Loan Documents, arising from or related to a default, whether or not a claim therefor is allowed or allowable in any Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding) before any distribution is made in respect of the claims held by the Second Lien Secured Parties with respect to the Collateral, with each Second Lien Representative, for itself and on behalf of the Second Lien Secured Parties represented by it, hereby acknowledging and agreeing to turn over to the Designated First Lien Representative, for itself and on behalf of the First Lien Secured Parties, Collateral or proceeds of Collateral otherwise received or receivable by them to the extent necessary to effectuate the intent of this sentence, even if such turnover has the effect of reducing the claim or recovery of the Second Lien Secured Parties).

Each Second Lien Representative and the other Second Lien Secured Parties shall not, unless and until the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations occurs, directly or indirectly assert, support or enforce any claim under Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law) or seek to recover any amounts that any Grantor may obtain by virtue of any claim under Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law), in each case, for costs or expenses of preserving or disposing of any Collateral or otherwise, and it will not accept the benefit of any such claims.

Each Second Lien Representative and the other Second Lien Secured Parties agrees that it shall not, directly or indirectly, oppose or seek to challenge any claim by any First Lien Representative or any other First Lien Secured Party for allowance in any Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding of First Lien Secured Obligations consisting of Post-Petition Interest. Each First Lien Representative and the other First Lien Secured Parties agrees that it shall not, directly or indirectly, oppose or seek to challenge any claim by any Second Lien Representative or any other Second Lien Secured Party for allowance in any Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding of Second Lien Secured Obligations consisting of Post-Petition Interest so long as the First Lien Secured Parties have received an allowed claim for Post-Petition Interest and then only to the extent of the value of the Liens of the Second Lien Secured Parties on the Collateral (after taking into account the amount of the First Lien Secured Obligations).

Section 2.08. Reinstatement. In the event that (i) the Discharge or any payment of First Lien Secured Obligations shall have occurred and any of such First Lien Secured Obligations shall subsequently, for whatever reason (including, but not limited to, an order or judgment for disgorgement or avoidance of a preference or fraudulent transfer under the Bankruptcy Code (or any comparable provision of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law), or any other law, or the settlement of any claim in respect thereof), be required to be returned or repaid, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be reinstated and fully applicable thereto until there shall thereafter have been a Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations then from and after such date of required return or repayment, such Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations shall be automatically deemed not to have occurred for all purposes of this Agreement and (ii) the Designated First Lien Representative or the other First Lien Secured Parties have released any Lien on Collateral and any such Liens are later reinstated, then the Designated Second Lien Representative, for itself and the benefit of the Second Lien Secured Parties, shall be granted a second priority Lien on such Collateral, subject to the subordination provisions of this Agreement.

Section 2.09. Purchase Right. Without prejudice to the enforcement of the First Lien Secured Parties' remedies, the First Lien Secured Parties agree that at any time following (a) acceleration of the First Lien Secured Obligations in accordance with the terms of the First Lien Loan Documents or (b) the commencement of a Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding by or against any Grantor (each, a "Purchase Event"), one or more of the Second Lien Secured Parties may request within 30 days after the first date on which a Purchase Event occurs, and the First Lien Secured Parties hereby offer the Second Lien Secured Parties the option, to purchase all, but not less than all, of the aggregate amount of First Lien Secured Obligations outstanding at the time of purchase at (a) in the case of First Lien Secured Obligations other than First Lien Secured Obligations arising under Swap Contracts or in connection with undrawn letters of credit, par (including any premium (to the extent then payable) set forth in the First Lien Credit Agreement or other applicable First Lien Loan Document on the date hereof, interest, expenses and fees (including Post-Petition Interest)), and (b) in the case of First Lien Secured Obligations arising under a Swap Contract, an amount equal to the greater of (i) all amounts payable by any Grantor under the terms of such Swap Contract in the event of a termination of such Swap Contract and (ii) the mark-to-market value of such Swap Contract, as determined by the counterparty to the Grantor thereunder with respect to such Swap Contract in accordance with the terms thereof and in accordance with customary methods for calculating mark-to-market amounts under similar arrangements by such counterparty, without warranty or representation or recourse (except for representations and warranties required to be made by assigning lenders pursuant to an Assignment and Assumption (as defined in the applicable First Lien Loan Document)). In the case of any First Lien Secured Obligations in respect of letters of credit (including reimbursement obligations in connection therewith), simultaneous with the purchase of the other First Lien Secured Obligations, the purchasing Second Lien Secured Parties shall provide First Lien Secured Parties who issued such letters of credit cash collateral in such amounts (not to exceed 103% thereof) as such First Lien Secured Parties determine is reasonably necessary to secure such First Lien Secured Parties in connection with any outstanding and undrawn letters of credit. If such right is exercised, the parties shall endeavor to close promptly thereafter but in any event within 10 Business Days of the request. If one or more of the Second Lien Secured Parties exercise such purchase right, it shall be exercised pursuant to documentation mutually acceptable to each of the Designated First Lien Representative and the Designated Second Lien Representative. If none of the Second Lien Secured Parties exercise such right within 30 days after the first date on which a Purchase Event occurs, the First Lien Secured Parties shall have no further obligations pursuant to this Section 2.09 for such Purchase Event and may take any further actions in their sole discretion in accordance with the First Lien Security Documents and this Agreement.

Section 2.10. New Liens. Subject to Sections 2.01(c), 2.01(d), and 2.06(a) and 2.07, each of the parties hereto (including the Parent Borrower, on behalf of itself and the other Grantors) agrees that, so long as the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations has not occurred, it shall not (i) permit any additional Liens on any asset or property of any Grantor to be granted to secure any Second Lien Secured Obligation unless a Lien has been granted on such asset or property to secure the First Lien Secured Obligations, with each such Lien to be subject to the provisions of this Agreement, or (ii) permit any additional Liens on any asset or property of any Grantor to be granted to secure any First Lien Secured Obligations unless a Lien has been granted on such asset to secure the Second Lien Secured Obligations, with each such Lien to be subject to the provisions of this Agreement. To the extent that the foregoing provisions are not complied with for any reason, without limiting any other rights and remedies available to the First Lien Representatives and/or the First Lien Secured Parties, the Designated Second Lien Representative, on behalf of the Second Lien Secured Parties, agrees that any amounts received by or distributed to any of them pursuant to or as a result of Liens granted in contravention of this Section 2.10 shall be subject to Section 7.01.

Section 2.11. Injunctive Relief. Should any Second Lien Secured Party, contrary to this Agreement, in any way take, attempt to or threaten to take any action with respect to the Collateral (including any attempt to realize upon or enforce any remedy with respect to this Agreement), or fail to take any action required by this Agreement, any First Lien Representative or any other First Lien Secured Party (in its or their own name or in the name of the applicable Grantor) may obtain relief against such Second Lien Secured Party by injunction, specific performance and/or other appropriate equitable relief, it being understood and agreed by the Designated Second Lien Representative on behalf of each Second Lien Secured Party that (a) the First Lien Secured Parties' damages from its actions may by that time be difficult to ascertain any may be irreparable and (b) each Second Lien Representative on behalf of itself and each Second Lien Secured Party represented by it waives any defense that the First Lien Secured Party cannot demonstrate damage and/or be made whole by the awarding of damages.

Section 2.12. Rights as Unsecured Creditors. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement or inconsistent with the priorities set forth in this Agreement, each Second Lien Representative and the Second Lien Secured Parties may exercise rights and remedies as unsecured creditors against any Grantor that is obligated to pay or has guaranteed the Second Lien Secured Obligations in accordance with the terms of the Second Lien Debt Documents and any Requirements of Law; provided that in the event that any Second Lien Secured Party becomes a judgment Lien creditor or other secured creditor, in each case, in respect of Collateral as a result of its enforcement of its rights as an unsecured creditor with respect to the Second Lien Secured Obligations, such judgment Lien shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement for all purposes (including in relation to the First Lien Secured Obligations) as the other Liens securing the Second Lien Secured Obligations are subject to this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit or subordinate (whether before or after the commencement of a Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding) the receipt, or the right to receive, by the Second Lien Representatives or any other Second Lien Secured Parties of the required payments of interest, principal and premiums (if any) (x) if the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations has occurred or (y) if the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations has not occurred so long as, in the case of this clause (y), such receipt is not the direct or indirect result of the exercise by the Second Lien Representatives or any other Second Lien Secured Party of rights or remedies with respect to the Collateral (including setoff or recoupment or credit bidding (other than pursuant to the Permitted Second Lien Credit Bid Rights)) or enforcement of any Lien held by any of them. Nothing in this Agreement impairs or otherwise adversely affects any rights or remedies any First Lien Secured Party may have.

ARTICLE 3
SUB-AGENCY FOR PERFECTION OF CERTAIN SECURITY INTERESTS

Each First Lien Representative acknowledges and agrees that if it shall at any time hold a Lien on any Second Lien Collateral that can be perfected by the possession or control of such Collateral or, to the extent applicable under any Security Documents, of any account in which such Collateral is held, and if such Collateral or any such account is in fact in the possession or under the control of such First Lien Representative (such Second Lien Collateral being the "Pledged Collateral"), such First Lien Representative will serve as gratuitous sub-agent and bailee for each applicable Second Lien Representative for the sole purpose of perfecting the Lien, if any, of such Second Lien Representative in such Pledged Collateral and shall have possession or control of such Pledged Collateral as agent on behalf of each applicable Second Lien Representative (such bailment being intended, among other things, to satisfy the requirements of Section 8-301(a)(2), 8-106(d)(3) and 9-313(c) of the Uniform Commercial Code, to the extent applicable). In addition, in the event any First Lien Representative has Lien filings against any intellectual property that is part of the Collateral and which filings are necessary for the perfection of Liens in such Collateral, each such First Lien Representative agrees to hold such Liens as non-fiduciary agent and gratuitous bailee for each Second Lien Representative and any assignee solely for the purpose of perfecting the security interest granted in such Liens pursuant to the Second Lien Debt Documents, subject to the terms and conditions of this Article 3. It is agreed that the obligations of each First Lien Representative and the rights of each Second Lien Representative and the other Second Lien Secured Parties in connection with any such sub-agency arrangement will be in all respects subject to the provisions of this Agreement. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, until the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations has occurred, the First Lien Representatives shall be entitled to deal with the Pledged Collateral in accordance with the terms of the First Lien Loan Documents as if the Liens of the Second Lien Secured Parties under the Second Lien Security Documents did not exist. The First Lien Representatives will be deemed to make no representation as to the adequacy of the steps taken by it or any of them to perfect the Lien on any such Pledged Collateral or the genuineness of any Pledged Collateral and shall have no responsibility to the Second Lien Representatives or any other Second Lien Secured Party for such perfection or genuineness; it being understood that the sole purpose of this Article is to enable the Second Lien Secured Parties to obtain a perfected second priority Lien on such Pledged Collateral to the extent that such perfection results from the possession or control of such Pledged Collateral or, to the extent applicable under any Security Documents, any such account by the First Lien Representatives. No First Lien Representative shall owe any fiduciary duty to any Second Lien Secured Party and the Second Lien Secured Parties hereby waive and release the First Lien Representatives and First Lien Secured Parties from all claims and liabilities relating to the any First Lien Representative's role under this Article 3. At such time as the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations shall have occurred, the applicable First Lien Representatives shall, to the extent that it is legally permitted to do so, take all such actions in their power as shall reasonably be requested by the Designated Second Lien Representative or the Parent Borrower to transfer possession of such Pledged Collateral to the Designated Second Lien Representative or to transfer direct control of such Pledged Collateral with any necessary endorsements of the First Lien Representatives (such endorsements shall be without recourse and without any representation or warranty) or, to the extent applicable under any Security Documents, any such account to the Designated Second Lien Representative (if there are then any Second Lien Secured Obligations outstanding); provided that if any such Pledged Collateral or any such account shall be subject to any other Lien senior to the Liens of the Designated Second Lien Representative on the Collateral, then the First Lien Representatives may instead transfer possession of such Pledged Collateral to the Person or Persons holding such senior Lien or their representative or take such actions in its power as shall reasonably be requested to transfer direct control of such Pledged Collateral or any such account to the Person or Persons holding such senior Lien or their representative. The Designated Second Lien Representative agrees that if it shall obtain possession or direct control of any Pledged Collateral or any account pursuant to the foregoing provisions and such Pledged Collateral or account shall thereafter become subject to a Lien securing the First Lien Secured Obligations, it will take all such actions as shall reasonably be requested by the Designated First Lien Representative to transfer possession of such Pledged Collateral to the Designated First Lien Representative or take such actions in its power as shall reasonably be requested to transfer direct control of such Pledged Collateral or any such account to the Designated First Lien Representative, all at the cost and expense of the Parent Borrower.

ARTICLE 4
EXISTENCE AND AMOUNTS OF LIENS AND OBLIGATIONS

Whenever any Representative shall be required, in connection with the exercise of its rights or the performance of its obligations hereunder, to determine the existence or amount of any First Lien Secured Obligations or Second Lien Secured Obligations, or the existence of any Lien securing any such obligations, or the Collateral subject to any such Lien, it may request that such information be furnished to it in writing by the First Lien Representatives or the Second Lien Representatives and shall be entitled to make such determination on the basis of the information so furnished; provided, however, that if, notwithstanding the request of such Representative, such Representative shall fail or refuse reasonably promptly to provide the requested information, such Representative shall be entitled to determine such existence or amount by such method as it may, in the exercise of its good faith judgment, determine, including by reliance upon a certificate of the Parent Borrower. Each Representative may rely conclusively, and shall be fully protected in so relying, on any determination made by it in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sentence (or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction) and shall have no liability to any Secured Party or any affiliate thereof as a result of such determination.

ARTICLE 5
CONSENT OF GRANTORS

Each Grantor hereby consents to the provisions of this Agreement and the intercreditor arrangements provided for herein and agrees that the obligations of the Grantors under the First Lien Security Documents will in no way be diminished or otherwise affected by such provisions or arrangements.

ARTICLE 6
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF EACH REPRESENTATIVE

Each Representative represents and warrants to the other parties hereto that it has the requisite power and authority to enter into, execute, deliver, and carry out the terms of this Agreement on behalf of itself and the applicable First Lien Secured Parties represented by it (in the case of each First Lien Representative) and the applicable Second Lien Secured Parties represented by it (in the case of each Second Lien Representative).

ARTICLE 7
APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS

Section 7.01. Payment Over. With respect to the Collateral and any proceeds thereof, each Second Lien Representative and each other Second Lien Secured Party hereby agrees that if it shall obtain possession of any Collateral, or shall realize any proceeds or payment in respect of any such Collateral, whether pursuant to any Second Lien Security Document, in connection with the taking of any Second Lien Permitted Actions, or by the exercise of any rights available to it under any Requirements of Law or (except as otherwise provided in Section 2.07) in any Bankruptcy/Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise, or shall receive any Collateral or proceeds of Collateral, or any payment on account thereof, in each case, at any time prior to the occurrence of the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations and when such possession or receipt of proceeds or payment on Collateral is not expressly permitted by the terms of this Agreement, then it shall hold such Collateral, proceeds or payment in trust for the First Lien Secured Parties and forthwith transfer such Collateral, proceeds or payment, as the case may be, to the Designated First Lien Representative for the benefit of the First Lien Secured Parties in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct. Each Second Lien Representative on behalf of itself and each Second Lien Secured Party represented by it agrees that if, at any time, all or part of any payment with respect to the First Lien Secured Obligations previously made shall be rescinded for any reason whatsoever, such Second Lien Secured Party shall promptly pay over to the Designated First Lien Representative any payment (including any payment received under any agreement subordinating any Liens on the First Lien Collateral to the Liens securing the Second Lien Secured Obligations) received by it in respect of any First Lien Collateral and shall promptly turn any First Lien Collateral then held by it over to the Designated First Lien Representative, and the provisions set forth in this Agreement shall be reinstated as if such payment had not been made, until the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations occurs.

Section 7.02. Application of Proceeds. In furtherance of the foregoing, all Collateral and any proceeds or payment in respect of any Collateral received in connection with the enforcement of any of its rights or the exercise of any of its remedies with respect to the Collateral and all insurance or condemnation proceeds not remitted to any Grantor shall be applied by the First Lien Representatives to the First Lien Secured Obligations in such order as specified in the relevant First Lien Loan Documents. Upon the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations, the Designated First Lien Representative shall deliver to the Designated Second Lien Representative any proceeds of Collateral held by it in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements (such endorsements shall be without recourse and without any representation or warranty) or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct to be applied by the Second Lien Representatives to the Second Lien Secured Obligations in such order as specified in the Second Lien Debt Documents. Upon the occurrence of the Discharge of Second Lien Secured Obligations, the Designated Second Lien Representative shall deliver to the Parent Borrower any proceeds of Collateral held by it in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements (such endorsements shall be without recourse and without any representation or warranty) or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct.

Section 7.03. Insurance and Condemnation Awards. Until the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations occurs, the Designated First Lien Representative and the First Lien Secured Parties shall have the sole and exclusive right, subject to the rights of the Grantors under the First Lien Loan Documents, (a) to adjust settlement for any insurance policy covering the Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder and (b) to approve any award granted in any condemnation or similar proceeding affecting the Collateral. Subject to any rights of the Grantors to receive any such insurance proceeds or condemnation amounts under the First Lien Loan Documents, all such amounts shall be applied as set forth in Section 7.02, and without limiting any other rights and remedies available to the First Lien Representatives and/or the First Lien Secured Parties, the Designated Second Lien Representative, on behalf of the Second Lien Secured Parties, agrees that any amounts received by any of them in contravention of this Section 7.03 shall be subject to Section 7.01.

ARTICLE 8 OTHER AGREEMENTS

Section 8.01. Matters Related to First Lien Loan Documents.

(a) The First Lien Loan Documents may be amended, restated, Refinanced, waived, restructured, renewed, extended, supplemented or otherwise modified in accordance with their terms (including, in the case of this Agreement, in accordance with Section 9.02 hereof), and the indebtedness under the First Lien Loan Documents may be Refinanced, increased, renewed, extended or replaced, in each case, without the consent of any Second Lien Secured Party; provided, however, that, (i) without the prior written consent of the Designated Second Lien Representative, no First Lien Loan Document may be amended, restated, waived, restructured, renewed, extended, supplemented, Refinanced or otherwise modified, or entered into, to the extent such amendment, restatement, waiver, restructuring, renewal, extension, supplement, Refinancing or modification, or the terms of such new First Lien Loan Document, would contravene the provisions of this Agreement, it being understood that notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 8.01 but subject to any relevant limitations set forth elsewhere in this Agreement the First Lien Loan Documents may be amended, restated, Refinanced, waived, supplemented or otherwise modified in accordance with their terms in order to effect the making or provision of (w) any “Incremental Commitments” or “Incremental Equivalent Debt” under (and, in each case as defined in) the First Lien Credit Agreement or similar terms used in any Replacement First Lien Credit Agreement or Additional First Lien Debt Facility, (x) any Indebtedness incurred in connection with a “Refinancing Amendment” (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement), (y) any “Extension” (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement) or similar terms used in any Replacement First Lien Credit Agreement or Additional First Lien Debt Facility or (z) any Indebtedness incurred in connection with a “Permitted Repricing Amendment” or constituting a “Replacement Term Loan” (in each case as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement) or similar terms used in any Replacement First Lien Credit Agreement or Additional First Lien Debt Facility, in each case without notice to, or the consent of, the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent or any Second Lien Secured Party and (ii) notice of such amendment, waiver supplement, modification or consent shall be given to the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent no later than 30 days after its effectiveness; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the effectiveness and validity thereof.

Section 8.02. Matters Related to Second Lien Debt Documents. The Second Lien Debt Documents may be amended, restated, Refinanced, waived, restructured, renewed, extended, supplemented or otherwise modified in accordance with their terms (including, in the case of this Agreement, in accordance with Section 9.02 hereof), and the indebtedness under the Second Lien Debt Documents may be Refinanced, increased, renewed, extended or replaced, in each case, without the consent of any First Lien Secured Party; provided, however, that, (i) without the prior written consent of the Designated First Lien Representative, no Second Lien Debt Document may be amended, restated, waived, restructured, renewed, extended, supplemented, Refinanced or otherwise modified, or entered into, to the extent such amendment, restatement, waiver, restructuring, renewal, extension, supplement, Refinancing or modification, or the terms of such new Second Lien Debt Document would contravene the provisions of this Agreement, it being understood that notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 8.02 but subject to any relevant limitations set forth elsewhere in this Agreement, the Second Lien Debt Documents may be amended, restated, Refinanced, waived, supplemented or otherwise modified in accordance with their terms in order to effect the making or provision of “Additional First Lien Debt,” “Additional Junior Debt,” “Additional Second Lien Debt” or “Notes Refinancing Debt” (in each case as defined in the Second Lien Notes Indenture) or similar terms used in any Replacement Second Lien Debt Agreement or Additional Second Lien Debt Facility, in each case without notice to, or the consent of, the First Lien Credit Agreement Administrative Agent or any First Lien Secured Party and (ii) notice of such amendment, waiver supplement, modification or consent shall be given to the First Lien Credit Agreement Administrative Agent no later than 30 days after its effectiveness; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the effectiveness and validity thereof.

Section 8.03. Matters Related to Amendments of First Lien Security Documents. In the event any First Lien Representative enters into any amendment, supplement, modification, waiver or consent in respect of any of the First Lien Security Documents (excluding, in any event, this Agreement) for the purpose of adding to, or deleting from, or waiving or consenting to any departures from any provisions of, such First Lien Security Document or changing in any manner the rights of any parties thereunder in a manner that is applicable to the Second Lien Debt Facilities, then such amendment, waiver, supplement, modification, or consent shall apply automatically to any comparable provision of the comparable Second Lien Security Document without the consent of or action by any Second Lien Secured Party (with all such amendments, waivers, supplements, consents and modifications subject to the terms hereof); provided that (other than with respect to amendments, modifications or waivers that secure additional extensions of credit and add additional secured creditors and do not violate the express provisions of the Second Lien Debt Documents), (i) no such amendment, supplement, modification, waiver or consent shall have the effect of (A) removing assets subject to the Lien of any Second Lien Security Documents, except to the extent that a release of such Lien is permitted by Section 2.06, (B) imposing additional duties on, or materially and adversely affecting the immunities, privileges, protections and indemnities granted under the Second Lien Security Documents to, the Second Lien Representatives without their consent or (C) permitting other Liens on the Collateral not permitted under the terms of the Second Lien Debt Documents or this Agreement, (ii) any such amendment, waiver, supplement, modification or consent that materially and adversely affects the rights of the Second Lien Secured Parties and does not affect the First Lien Secured Parties in a like or similar manner shall not apply to the Second Lien Security Documents without the consent of the Designated Second Lien Representative and (iii) notice of such amendment, waiver supplement, modification or consent shall be given to the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent no later than 30 days after its effectiveness; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the effectiveness and validity thereof.

Section 8.04. Additional Debt Facilities. To the extent, but only to the extent, permitted by the provisions of the First Lien Loan Documents and the Second Lien Debt Documents in effect at the time of such incurrence, any Grantor may incur or issue and sell one or more series or classes of Additional First Lien Debt and one or more series or classes of Additional Second Lien Debt. Any such additional class or series of Additional Second Lien Debt (the "Second Lien Class Debt") may be secured by a Lien on the Second Lien Collateral, in each case under and pursuant to the relevant Second Lien Security Documents for such Second Lien Class Debt, if and subject to the condition that the Representative of any such Second Lien Class Debt (each, a "Second Lien Class Debt Representative"), acting on behalf of the holders of such Second Lien Class Debt becomes a party to this Agreement and the Second Lien Parity Intercreditor Agreement by satisfying conditions (i) through (iii), as applicable, of the immediately succeeding paragraph. Any such additional class or series of Additional First Lien Debt (the "First Lien Class Debt"; and the First Lien Class Debt and Second Lien Class Debt, collectively, the "Class Debt") may be secured by a Lien on the First Lien Collateral, in each case under and pursuant to the relevant First Lien Security Documents for such First Lien Class Debt, if and subject to the condition that the Representative of any such First Lien Class Debt (each, a "First Lien Class Debt Representative"; and the First Lien Class Debt Representatives and Second Lien Class Debt Representatives, collectively, the "Class Debt Representatives"), acting on behalf of the holders of such First Lien Class Debt, becomes a party to this Agreement and, if applicable, the First Lien Parity Intercreditor Agreement by satisfying the conditions set forth in clauses (i) through (iii), as applicable, of the immediately succeeding paragraph. Upon the joinder of any Class Debt Representative all related Secured Obligations shall also be subject to this Agreement.

In order for a Class Debt Representative to become a party to this Agreement:

(i) such Class Debt Representative shall have executed and delivered a Joinder Agreement substantially in the form of Annex II (with such changes as may be reasonably approved by the Designated First Lien Representative, the Designated Second Lien Representative and such Class Debt Representative) pursuant to which it becomes a Representative hereunder, and the Class Debt in respect of which such Class Debt Representative is the Representative and the related Secured Parties for whom the Class Debt Representative is the Representative become subject hereto and bound hereby and (x) such Class Debt Representative, if a First Lien Representative and if applicable, shall have become a party to the First Lien Parity Intercreditor Agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof; provided, further, that, if such Indebtedness will be the initial Additional First Lien Debt incurred by the Parent Borrower after the date hereof, then the Grantors, the First Lien Credit Agreement Administrative Agent and the Representative for such Indebtedness shall have executed and delivered the First Lien Parity Intercreditor Agreement or (y) such Class Debt Representative, if a Second Lien Representative and if applicable, shall have become a party to the Second Lien Parity Intercreditor Agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof; provided, further, that, if such Indebtedness will be the initial Additional Second Lien Debt incurred by the Parent Borrower after the date hereof, then the Grantors, the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent and the Representative for such Indebtedness shall have executed and delivered the Second Lien Parity Intercreditor Agreement;

(ii) the Parent Borrower shall have delivered to each other Representative a Designation substantially in the form of Annex III executed by an authorized officer of the Parent Borrower which Designation shall (A) designate Indebtedness as Additional First Lien Debt or Additional Second Lien Debt hereunder, (B) certify that the incurrence of such Indebtedness and its designation as such hereunder is permitted by each First Lien Loan Document and Second Lien Debt Document in effect at the time of such incurrence and (C) attach true and complete copies of each of the Second Lien Debt Documents or First Lien Loan Documents, as applicable, relating to such Class Debt, certified as being true and correct by an authorized officer of the Parent Borrower;

(iii) the Second Lien Debt Documents or First Lien Loan Documents, as applicable, relating to such Class Debt shall provide that each Secured Party with respect to such Class Debt will be subject to and bound by the provisions of this Agreement in its capacity as a holder of such Class Debt; and

(iv) upon the execution and delivery of a Joinder Agreement by a Class Debt Representative in accordance with this Section 8.04, each other Representative shall acknowledge receipt thereof by countersigning a copy thereof, subject to the terms of this Section 8.04 and returning the same to the new Class Debt Representative; provided that the failure of any Representative to so acknowledge or return the same shall not affect the status of such Indebtedness as First Lien Secured Obligations or Second Lien Secured Obligations hereunder if the other requirements of this Section 8.04 are complied with.

Section 8.05. Replacement First Lien Credit Agreement or Replacement Second Lien Debt Agreement. Any Grantor may Refinance the First Lien Credit Agreement with a Replacement First Lien Credit Agreement or the Second Lien Notes Indenture with a Replacement Second Lien Debt Agreement, as applicable, by satisfying conditions (i), (ii) and (iii), as applicable, of the immediately succeeding paragraph. Upon the Refinancing of the First Lien Credit Agreement or Second Lien Notes Indenture with a Replacement First Lien Credit Agreement or a Replacement Second Lien Debt Agreement, as applicable, the Discharge of the applicable Secured Obligations shall be deemed not to have occurred.

(i) Such Class Debt Representative shall have executed and delivered a Joinder Agreement substantially in the form of Annex II (with such changes as may be reasonably approved by the Designated First Lien Representative, the Designated Second Lien Representative and such Class Debt Representative) pursuant to which it becomes a Representative hereunder, and the Class Debt in respect of which such Class Debt Representative is the Representative and the related Secured Parties for whom the Class Debt Representative is the Representative become subject hereto and bound hereby and (x) such Class Debt Representative, if a First Lien Representative and if applicable, shall have become a party to the First Lien Parity Intercreditor Agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof or (y) such Class Debt Representative, if a Second Lien Representative and if applicable, shall have become a party to the Second Lien Parity Intercreditor Agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof;

(ii) the Parent Borrower shall have delivered to each Representative a Designation in substantially in the form of Annex III executed by an authorized officer of the Parent Borrower which Designation shall (A) designate a Replacement First Lien Credit Agreement or Replacement Second Lien Debt Agreement, as applicable, (B) certify that such designation is permitted by Section 8.01 or Section 8.02, as applicable and (C) attach true and complete copies of each of the Second Lien Debt Documents or First Lien Loan Documents, as applicable, relating to such Replacement First Lien Credit Agreement or Replacement Second Lien Debt Agreement, as applicable, certified as being true and correct by an authorized officer of the Parent Borrower;

(iii) the Second Lien Debt Documents or First Lien Loan Documents, as applicable, relating to such Replacement First Lien Credit Agreement or Replacement Second Lien Debt Agreement, as applicable, shall provide that each Secured Party under such Replacement First Lien Credit Agreement or Replacement Second Lien Debt Agreement, as applicable, will be subject to and bound by the provisions of this Agreement in its capacity as a holder of Indebtedness incurred pursuant to such Replacement First Lien Credit Agreement or Replacement Second Lien Debt Agreement, as applicable; and

(iv) upon the execution and delivery of a Designation by the Parent Borrower in accordance with this Section 8.05, each Representative shall acknowledge receipt thereof by countersigning a copy thereof, subject to the terms of this Section 8.05 and returning the same to each other Representative; provided that the failure of any Representative to so acknowledge or return the same shall not affect the status of such Indebtedness as First Lien Secured Obligations or Second Lien Secured Obligations hereunder if the other requirements of this Section 8.05 are complied with.

Any party hereto may change its address or telecopy number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the other parties hereto (and for this purpose a notice to the Parent Borrower shall be deemed to be a notice to each Grantor). All such notices and other communications shall be deemed to be given on the date of receipt if delivered by hand or overnight courier service or mailed by certified or registered mail, and all such notices and other communications sent by fax shall be deemed to have been given when sent (except that, if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient), in each case delivered, sent or mailed (properly addressed) to such party as provided in this Section 9.01 or in accordance with the latest unrevoked direction from such party given in accordance with this Section 9.01. Section 9.02. Waivers; Amendments. (a) No failure or delay on the part of any party hereto in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the parties hereto are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by paragraph (b) of this Section 9.02, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on any party hereto in any case shall entitle such party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) Except for the addition of a Representative or Grantor as a party hereto, in each case, as provided for herein, neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by each Representative and by the Parent Borrower and each other affected Grantor with respect to which such waiver, consent, amendment supplement or modification is to apply.

Section 9.03. Parties in Interest. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, as well as the other First Lien Secured Parties and Second Lien Secured Parties.

Section 9.04. Survival of Agreement. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by any party in this Agreement shall be considered to have been relied upon by the other parties hereto and shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

Section 9.05. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement constitutes the entire contract among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the First Lien Credit Agreement Administrative Agent and the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent and when the First Lien Credit Agreement Administrative Agent and the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent shall have received counterparts hereof that, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto, and thereafter shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

Section 9.06. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 9.07. Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process (a) THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

(b) ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH OR RELATED OR INCIDENTAL TO THE DEALINGS OF THE PARTIES HERETO OR ANY OF THEM WITH RESPECT TO THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE TRANSACTIONS RELATED THERETO, IN EACH CASE WHETHER NOW EXISTING OR HEREAFTER ARISING, SHALL BE BROUGHT IN THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK SITTING IN NEW YORK COUNTY (BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN) (OR ANY APPELLATE COURT THEREOF) OR OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF SUCH STATE (OR ANY APPELLATE COURT THEREOF), AND BY EXECUTION AND DELIVERY OF THIS AGREEMENT, EACH PARTY HERETO CONSENTS, FOR ITSELF AND IN RESPECT OF ITS PROPERTY, TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THOSE COURTS AND AGREES THAT IT WILL NOT COMMENCE OR SUPPORT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANOTHER JURISDICTION. EACH PARTY HERETO AGREES THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AND MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR IN ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW. EACH PARTY HERETO IRREVOCABLY WAIVES (TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW) ANY OBJECTION, INCLUDING ANY OBJECTION TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OR BASED ON THE GROUNDS OF FORUM NON CONVENIENS, WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE BRINGING OF ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN SUCH JURISDICTION IN RESPECT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR OTHER DOCUMENT RELATED THERETO. EACH PARTY HERETO IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT IN THE MANNER PROVIDED FOR NOTICES (OTHER THAN FACSIMILE OR ELECTRONIC MAIL) IN SECTION 9.01. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT WILL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY HERETO TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

Section 9.08. Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PERSON HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PERSON WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.08.

Section 9.09. Headings. Article and Section headings used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

Section 9.10. Further Assurances. Each First Lien Representative, on behalf of itself and the applicable First Lien Secured Parties under the First Lien Loan Documents, and each Second Lien Representative, on behalf of itself and the applicable Second Lien Secured Parties under the Second Lien Debt Documents, each agree that each of them shall take such further action and shall execute and deliver such additional documents and instruments (in recordable form, if requested) as the Designated First Lien Representative or the Designated Second Lien Representative may reasonably request to effectuate the terms of and the Lien priorities contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 9.11. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement and the rights and benefits hereof shall inure to the benefit of each of the parties hereto and its respective successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of and bind the Parent Borrower and the other Grantors, the First Lien Secured Parties and the Second Lien Secured Parties. Nothing in this Agreement shall impair, as between the Parent Borrower, and the other Grantors and the First Lien Representatives and the First Lien Secured Parties, and as between the Parent Borrower and the other Grantors and the Second Lien Representatives and the Second Lien Secured Parties, the obligations of the Parent Borrower and the other Grantors, which are absolute and unconditional, to pay principal, interest, fees and other amounts as provided in the First Lien Loan Documents and the Second Lien Debt Documents respectively.

Section 9.12. Provisions Solely to Define Relative Rights. The provisions of this Agreement are and are intended solely for the purpose of defining the relative rights of the First Lien Representatives and the First Lien Secured Parties on the one hand and the Second Lien Representatives and the Second Lien Secured Parties on the other hand. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of the First Lien Loan Documents or the Second Lien Debt Documents (other than, in each case, the ABL Intercreditor Agreement), the provisions of this Agreement shall govern and control. However, as among the First Lien Secured Parties, their rights and obligations are governed by, and any provisions herein regarding them are therefore subject to, the provisions of the First Lien Parity Intercreditor Agreement, if applicable, and as among the Second Lien Secured Parties, their rights and obligations are governed by, and any provisions herein regarding them are therefore subject to, the provisions of the Second Lien Parity Intercreditor Agreement, if applicable. This Agreement is subject to the ABL Intercreditor Agreement.

Section 9.13. Subrogation. With respect to the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets that any of the Second Lien Representatives or the other Second Lien Secured Parties pays over to any of the First Lien Representatives or the other First Lien Secured Parties under the terms of this Agreement, such Second Lien Secured Parties and Second Lien Representatives shall be subrogated to the rights of such First Lien Representatives and First Lien Secured Parties; provided, that each Second Lien Representative, on behalf of itself and the Second Lien Secured Parties represented by it, hereby agrees not to assert or enforce all such rights of subrogation it may acquire as a result of any payment hereunder until the Discharge of First Lien Secured Obligations has occurred. The Parent Borrower and the other Grantors each acknowledges and agrees that the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets received by any Second Lien Representative or other Second Lien Secured Party that are paid over to any First Lien Representative or other First Lien Secured Party pursuant to this Agreement shall not reduce any of the Second Lien Secured Obligations. Additional Grantors. Each Person that becomes a Grantor after the date hereof shall become a party to this Agreement upon execution and delivery by such Person of a Grantor Supplement in the form of Annex IV.

Section 9.15. Additional Intercreditor Agreements. Each party hereto agrees that the First Lien Secured Parties and/or their Representatives (as among themselves) and the Second Lien Secured Parties and/or their Representatives (as among themselves) may each enter into the ABL Intercreditor Agreement, the First Lien Parity Intercreditor Agreement and the Second Lien Parity Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable, or other intercreditor arrangements governing the rights, benefits and privileges as among the First Lien Secured Parties or the Second Lien Secured Parties, as the case may be, in respect of the Collateral, this Agreement and the other First Lien Security Documents or Second Lien Security Documents, as the case may be, including as to application of proceeds of the Collateral, voting rights, control of the Collateral and waivers with respect to the Collateral, in each case so long as the terms of such other intercreditor arrangements do not violate or conflict with the provisions of this Agreement or the other First Lien Loan Documents or Second Lien Debt Documents, as the case may be (or unless the applicable First Lien Secured Parties or Second Lien Secured Parties otherwise authorize their applicable Representative to enter into any such intercreditor arrangement).

Section 9.16. Certain Terms Concerning the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent. The Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent is executing and delivering this Agreement solely in its capacity as such and pursuant to the direction to so execute and deliver pursuant to the Second Lien Notes Indenture, and in so doing the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the terms or sufficiency of this Agreement for any purpose. The Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent shall enjoy all of the rights, immunities, privileges, protections and indemnities granted to it under the Second Lien Notes Indenture and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the provisions of Article VII and Section 12.02 of the Second Lien Notes Indenture applicable to the Second Lien Collateral Agent thereunder. The Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent shall have no duties or obligations under or pursuant to this Agreement other than such duties and obligations as may be expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Second Lien Collateral Agent shall not be deemed to owe any fiduciary duty to the First Lien Representatives and the First Lien Secured Parties. Whenever reference is made in this Agreement to any action by, consent, designation, specification, requirement or approval of, notice, request or other communication from, or other direction given or action to be undertaken or to be (or not to be) suffered or omitted by the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent or to any election, decision, opinion, acceptance, use of judgment, expression of satisfaction or other exercise of discretion, rights or remedies to be made (or not to be made) by the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent, it is understood that in all cases the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent shall be acting, giving, withholding, suffering, omitting, taking or otherwise undertaking and exercising the same (or shall not be undertaking and exercising the same) in accordance with the Second Lien Notes Indenture and the other Second Lien Debt Documents.

ARTICLE II

Priorities and Agreements with Respect to Shared Collateral

SECTION 2.01 Priority of Claims.

(a) Subject to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement, anything contained herein or in any of the Secured Credit Documents to the contrary notwithstanding (but subject to Section 1.03), if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, and the Controlling Collateral Agent or any Second-Lien Secured Party is taking action to enforce rights in respect of any Shared Collateral, or any distribution is made in respect of any Shared Collateral in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding of the Issuers or any other Grantor (including any adequate protection payments) or any Second-Lien Secured Party receives any payment pursuant to any intercreditor agreement (other than this Agreement) with respect to any Shared Collateral, the proceeds of any sale, collection or other liquidation of any such Shared Collateral by the Controlling Collateral Agent or any Second-Lien Secured Party or received by the Controlling Collateral Agent or any Second-Lien Secured Party pursuant to any such intercreditor agreement with respect to such Shared Collateral and proceeds of any such distribution (subject, in the case of any such payments, proceeds, or distribution, to the sentence immediately following) (all such payments, proceeds of any sale, collection or other liquidation of any Collateral and all proceeds of any such distribution being collectively referred to as "Proceeds"), shall be applied (i) FIRST, to the payment of all amounts owing to each Collateral Agent (in its capacity as such) pursuant to the terms of any Secured Credit Document, (ii) SECOND, subject to Section 1.03, to the payment in full of the Second-Lien Obligations of each Series on a ratable basis, with such Proceeds to be applied to the Second-Lien Obligations of a given Series in accordance with the terms of the applicable Secured Credit Documents; provided that following the commencement of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding with respect to any Grantor, solely as among the holders of Second-Lien Obligations and solely for purposes of this clause SECOND and not any other documents governing the Second-Lien Obligations, in the event the value of the Shared Collateral is not sufficient for the entire amount of Post-Petition Interest on the Second-Lien Obligations to be allowed under Section 506(a) and (b) of the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable provision of the Bankruptcy Code or other Bankruptcy Law in such Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, the amount of Second-Lien Obligations of each Series of Second-Lien Obligations shall include only the maximum amount of Post-Petition Interest on the Second-Lien Obligations allowable under Section 506(a) and (b) of the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable provision of the Bankruptcy Code or other Bankruptcy Law in such Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding; and (iii) THIRD, after payment of all Second-Lien Obligations, to the Issuers and the other Grantors or their successors or assigns, as their interests may appear, or to whomsoever may be lawfully entitled to receive the same, or as a court of competent jurisdiction may direct. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to any Shared Collateral upon which a third party (other than a Second-Lien Secured Party) has a Lien or security interest that is junior in priority to the security interest of any Series of Second-Lien Obligations but senior (as determined by appropriate legal proceedings in the case of any dispute) to the security interest of any other Series of Second-Lien Obligations (such third party, an "Intervening Creditor"), the value of any Shared Collateral or Proceeds allocated to such Intervening Creditor shall be deducted on a ratable basis solely from the Shared Collateral or Proceeds to be distributed in respect of the Series of Second-Lien Obligations with respect to which such Impairment exists.

(b) Notwithstanding the date, time, method, manner or order of grant, attachment or perfection of any Liens securing any Series of Second-Lien Obligations granted on the Shared Collateral and notwithstanding any provision of the Uniform Commercial Code of any jurisdiction, or any other applicable law or the Secured Credit Documents or any defect or deficiencies in the Liens securing the Second-Lien Obligations of any Series or any other circumstance whatsoever (but, in each case, subject to Section 1.03), each Second-Lien Secured Party hereby agrees that the Liens securing each Series of Second-Lien Obligations on any Shared Collateral shall be of equal priority.

SECTION 2.02 Actions with Respect to Shared Collateral; Prohibition on Contesting Liens.

(a) Subject to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement, only the Controlling Collateral Agent shall act or refrain from acting with respect to any Shared Collateral (including with respect to any intercreditor agreement with respect to any Shared Collateral). At any time when the Indenture Collateral Agent is the Controlling Collateral Agent, no Additional Second-Lien Secured Party shall or shall instruct any Collateral Agent to, and no Collateral Agent that is not the Controlling Collateral Agent shall, commence any judicial or nonjudicial foreclosure proceedings with respect to, seek to have a trustee, receiver, liquidator or similar official appointed for or over, attempt any action to take possession of, exercise any right, remedy or power with respect to, or otherwise take any action to enforce its security interest in or realize upon, or take any other action available to it in respect of, any Shared Collateral (including with respect to any intercreditor agreement with respect to any Shared Collateral), whether under any Additional Second-Lien Security Document, applicable law or otherwise, it being agreed that only the Indenture Collateral Agent, acting in accordance with the Indenture Collateral Documents, shall be entitled to take any such actions or exercise any such remedies with respect to Shared Collateral at such time.

(b) With respect to any Shared Collateral, (i) the Controlling Collateral Agent shall act only on the instructions of the Applicable Authorized Representative, (ii) the Controlling Collateral Agent shall not follow any instructions with respect to such Shared Collateral (including with respect to any intercreditor agreement with respect to any Shared Collateral) from any Non-Controlling Authorized Representative (or any other Second-Lien Secured Party other than the Applicable Authorized Representative) and (iii) no Non-Controlling Authorized Representative or other Second-Lien Secured Party (other than the Applicable Authorized Representative) shall, or shall instruct the Controlling Collateral Agent to, commence any judicial or non-judicial foreclosure proceedings with respect to, seek to have a trustee, receiver, liquidator or similar official appointed for or over, attempt any action to take possession of, exercise any right, remedy or power with respect to, or otherwise take any action to enforce its security interest in or realize upon, or take any other action available to it in respect of, any Shared Collateral (including with respect to any intercreditor agreement with respect to any Shared Collateral), whether under any Second-Lien Security Document, applicable law or otherwise, it being agreed that only the Controlling Collateral Agent, acting on the instructions of the Applicable Authorized Representative and in accordance with the applicable Secured Credit Documents, shall be entitled to take any such actions or exercise any such remedies with respect to Shared Collateral.

(c) Subject to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement, notwithstanding the equal priority of the Liens securing each Series of Second-Lien Obligations, the Controlling Collateral Agent (acting on the instructions of the Applicable Authorized Representative) may deal with the Shared Collateral as if such Controlling Collateral Agent had a senior Lien on such Collateral. No Non-Controlling Authorized Representative or Non-Controlling Secured Party will contest, protest or object to any foreclosure proceeding or action brought by the Controlling Collateral Agent, the Applicable Authorized Representative or the Controlling Secured Party or any other exercise by the Controlling Collateral Agent, the Applicable Authorized Representative or the Controlling Secured Party of any rights and remedies relating to the Shared Collateral, or to cause the Controlling Collateral Agent to do so. The foregoing shall not be construed to limit the rights and priorities of any Second-Lien Secured Party, the Controlling Collateral Agent or any Authorized Representative with respect to any Collateral not constituting Shared Collateral.

(d) Each of the Second-Lien Secured Parties agrees that it will not (and hereby waives any right to) question or contest or support any other Person in contesting, in any proceeding (including any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding), the perfection, priority, validity, attachment or enforceability of a Lien held by or on behalf of any of the Second-Lien Secured Parties on all or any part of the Collateral, or the provisions of this Agreement; provided that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent or impair the rights of any Collateral Agent or any Authorized Representative to enforce this Agreement.

SECTION 2.03 No Interference; Payment Over.

(a) Each Second-Lien Secured Party agrees that (i) it will not challenge or question in any proceeding the validity or enforceability of any Second-Lien Obligations of any Series or any Second-Lien Security Document or the validity, attachment, perfection or priority of any Lien under any Second-Lien Security Document or the validity or enforceability of the priorities, rights or duties established by or other provisions of this Agreement; (ii) it will not take or cause to be taken any action the purpose or intent of which is, or could be, to interfere, hinder or delay, in any manner, whether by judicial proceedings or otherwise, any sale, transfer or other disposition of the Shared Collateral by the Controlling Collateral Agent, (iii) except as provided in Section 2.02, it shall have no right to (A) direct the Controlling Collateral Agent or any other Second-Lien Secured Party to exercise, and shall not exercise, any right, remedy or power with respect to any Shared Collateral (including pursuant to any intercreditor agreement) or (B) consent to the exercise by the Controlling Collateral Agent or any other Second-Lien Secured Party of any right, remedy or power with respect to any Shared Collateral, (iv) it will not institute any suit or assert in any suit, bankruptcy, insolvency or other proceeding any claim against the Controlling Collateral Agent or any other Second-Lien Secured Party seeking damages from or other relief by way of specific performance, instructions or otherwise with respect to any Shared Collateral, and none of the Controlling Collateral Agent, any Applicable Authorized Representative or any other Second-Lien Secured Party shall be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Controlling Collateral Agent, such Applicable Authorized Representative or other Second-Lien Secured Party with respect to any Shared Collateral in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, (v) it will not seek, and hereby waives any right, to have any Shared Collateral or any part thereof marshaled upon any foreclosure or other disposition of such Collateral and (vi) it will not attempt, directly or indirectly, whether by judicial proceedings or otherwise, to challenge the enforceability of any provision of this Agreement; provided that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent or impair the rights of any of the Collateral Agents or any other Second-Lien Secured Party to enforce this Agreement.

(b) Subject to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement, each Second-Lien Secured Party hereby agrees that if it shall obtain possession of any Shared Collateral or shall realize any proceeds or payment in respect of any such Shared Collateral, pursuant to any Second-Lien Security Document or by the exercise of any rights available to it under applicable law or in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or through any other exercise of remedies (including pursuant to any intercreditor agreement), at any time prior to the Discharge of each Series of Second-Lien Obligations, then it shall hold such Shared Collateral, proceeds or payment in trust for the other Second-Lien Secured Parties and promptly transfer such Shared Collateral, proceeds or payment, as the case may be, to the Controlling Collateral Agent, to be distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.01 hereof.

SECTION 2.04 Automatic Release of Liens; Amendments to Second-Lien Security Documents.

(a) If, at any time the Controlling Collateral Agent forecloses upon or otherwise exercises remedies against any Shared Collateral resulting in a sale or disposition thereof, then (whether or not any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding is pending at the time) the Liens in favor of each other Collateral Agent for the benefit of each Series of Second-Lien Secured Parties upon such Shared Collateral will automatically be released and discharged as and when, but only to the extent, such Liens of the Controlling Collateral Agent on such Shared Collateral are released and discharged; provided that (i) the Liens in favor of each Collateral Agent for the benefit of each related Series of Second-Lien Secured Parties attach to any such proceeds of such sale or disposition with the same priority vis-à-vis all the other Second-Lien Secured Parties as existed prior to the commencement of such sale or other disposition, and any such Liens shall remain subject to the terms of this Agreement until application thereof pursuant to Section 2.01 and (ii) any proceeds of any Shared Collateral realized therefrom shall be applied pursuant to Section 2.01.

(b) Each Collateral Agent and Authorized Representative agrees to execute and deliver all such authorizations and other instruments as shall reasonably be requested by the Controlling Collateral Agent to evidence and confirm any release of Shared Collateral provided for in this Section 2.04 without the consent of any Second-Lien Secured Parties.

SECTION 2.05 Certain Agreements with Respect to Bankruptcy or Insolvency Proceedings.

(a) This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the commencement and continuance of any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code or any other Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding by or against any Grantor or any of its Subsidiaries. The relative rights as to the Shared Collateral and proceeds thereof shall continue after the commencement of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding on the same basis as prior to the date of the petition therefor. The parties hereto acknowledge that the provisions of this Agreement are intended to be enforceable as contemplated by Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. All references herein to any Grantor shall include such Grantor as a debtor-in-possession and any receiver or trustee for such Grantor.

(b) Subject to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement, if the Issuers and/or any other Grantor shall become subject to a case (a “Bankruptcy Case”) under the Bankruptcy Code or any other Bankruptcy Law and shall, as debtor(s)-in-possession, move for approval of financing (“DIP Financing”) to be provided by one or more lenders (the “DIP Lenders”) under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code or any equivalent provision of any other Bankruptcy Law or the use of cash collateral under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or any equivalent provision of any other Bankruptcy Law, each Second-Lien Secured Party (other than any Controlling Secured Party or the Authorized Representative of any Controlling Secured Party) agrees that it will not raise, join or support any objection to any such financing or to the Liens on the Shared Collateral securing the same (“DIP Financing Liens”) or to any use of cash collateral that constitutes Shared Collateral, unless the Controlling Collateral Agent or Authorized Representative of the Controlling Secured Parties shall then oppose or object (or join in or support any objection) to such DIP Financing or such DIP Financing Liens or use of cash collateral (and (x) to the extent that such DIP Financing Liens are senior to the Liens on any such Shared Collateral for the benefit of the Controlling Secured Parties, each Non-Controlling Secured Party will subordinate its Liens with respect to such Shared Collateral on the same terms as the Liens of the Controlling Secured Parties (other than any Liens of any Second-Lien Secured Parties constituting DIP Financing Liens) are subordinated thereto, and (ii) to the extent that such DIP Financing Liens rank pari passu with the Liens on any such Shared Collateral granted to secure the Second-Lien Obligations of the Controlling Secured Parties, each Non-Controlling Secured Party will confirm the priorities with respect to such Shared Collateral as set forth herein), in each case so long as (A) the Second-Lien Secured Parties of each Series retain the benefit of their Liens on all such Shared Collateral pledged to the DIP Lenders, including proceeds thereof arising after the commencement of such proceeding, with the same priority vis-à-vis all the other Second-Lien Secured Parties (other than any Liens of the Second-Lien Secured Parties constituting DIP Financing Liens) as existed prior to the commencement of the Bankruptcy Case, (B) the Second-Lien Secured Parties of each Series are granted Liens on any additional collateral pledged to any Second-Lien Secured Parties as adequate protection or otherwise in connection with such DIP Financing or use of cash collateral, with the same priority vis-à-vis the Second-Lien Secured Parties as set forth in this Agreement (other than any Liens of the Second-Lien Secured Parties constituting DIP Financing Liens), (C) if any amount of such DIP Financing or cash collateral is applied to repay any of the Second-Lien Obligations, such amount is applied pursuant to Section 2.01, and (D) if any Second-Lien Secured Parties are granted adequate protection, including in the form of periodic payments, in connection with such DIP Financing or use of cash collateral, the proceeds of such adequate protection are applied pursuant to Section 2.01; provided that this Agreement shall not limit the right of the Second-Lien Secured Parties of each Series to object to the grant of a Lien to secure the DIP Financing over any Collateral subject to Liens in favor of the Second-Lien Secured Parties of such Series or their Authorized Representative that shall not constitute Shared Collateral; and provided, further, that the Second-Lien Secured Parties receiving adequate protection shall not object to any other Second-Lien Secured Party receiving adequate protection comparable to any adequate protection granted to such Second-Lien Secured Parties in connection with a DIP Financing or use of cash collateral.

SECTION 2.06 Reinstatement. In the event that any of the Second-Lien Obligations shall be paid in full and such payment or any part thereof shall subsequently, for whatever reason (including an order or judgment for disgorgement or avoidance of a preference, fraudulent transfer, or other avoidance action under the Bankruptcy Code, any other Bankruptcy Law, or any similar law, or the settlement of any claim in respect thereof), be required to be returned or repaid, the terms and conditions of this Article II shall be fully applicable thereto until all such Second-Lien Obligations shall again have been paid in full in cash.

SECTION 2.07 Insurance. Subject to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement, as between the Second-Lien Secured Parties, the Controlling Collateral Agent (acting at the direction of the Applicable Authorized Representative) shall have the right to adjust or settle any insurance policy or claim covering or constituting Shared Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder and to approve any award granted in any condemnation or similar proceeding affecting the Shared Collateral.

SECTION 2.08 Refinancings, etc. The Second-Lien Obligations of any Series may, subject to the limitations set forth in the then extant Secured Credit Documents, be increased, extended, renewed, replaced, restated, supplemented, restructured, repaid, refunded, Refinanced (in whole or in part) or otherwise amended or modified from time to time, in each case, without notice to, or the consent (except to the extent a consent is otherwise required to permit the Refinancing transaction under any Secured Credit Document) of, any Second-Lien Secured Party of any other Series, all without affecting the priorities provided for herein or the other provisions hereof; provided that the Authorized Representative of the holders of any such Refinancing indebtedness shall have executed a Joinder Agreement on behalf of the holders of such Refinancing indebtedness.

SECTION 2.09 Possessory Collateral Agent as Gratuitous Bailee for Perfection.

(a) Subject to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement, to the extent not required to be delivered to the Designated First Lien Representative (as defined in the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement), the Possessory Collateral shall be delivered, or control thereof transferred, to the Controlling Collateral Agent and (pending delivery or transfer of control of the Possessory Collateral to the Controlling Collateral Agent) the Controlling Collateral Agent agrees to hold any Shared Collateral constituting Possessory Collateral in its possession or control (or in the possession or control of its agents or bailees) as gratuitous bailee for the benefit of each other Second-Lien Secured Party and any assignee solely for the purpose of perfecting the security interest granted in such Possessory Collateral, if any, pursuant to the applicable Second-Lien Security Documents, in each case, subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 2.09; provided that at any time a Second-Lien Secured Party (other than the Controlling Collateral Agent or its agents or bailees) is in possession or control of any Possessory Collateral, such Second-Lien Secured Party shall, at the request of the Issuers or the Controlling Collateral Agent (if not required to be delivered to the Designated First Lien Representative (as defined in the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement)), promptly deliver or transfer control of all Possessory Collateral in its possession to the Controlling Collateral Agent together with any necessary endorsements in its possession (or otherwise allow the Controlling Collateral Agent to obtain possession or control of such Possessory Collateral). The Issuers shall take such further action as is required to effectuate the transfer contemplated hereby and shall indemnify each Collateral Agent for loss or damage suffered by such Collateral Agent as a result of such transfer except for loss or damage suffered by such Collateral Agent as a result of its own willful misconduct, gross negligence or bad faith.

(b) The duties or responsibilities of each Collateral Agent under this Section 2.09 shall be limited solely to holding any Shared Collateral constituting Possessory Collateral as gratuitous bailee for the benefit of each other Second-Lien Secured Party for purposes of perfecting the Lien held by such Second-Lien Secured Parties thereon.

SECTION 2.10 Amendments to Security Documents.

(a) Without the prior written consent of the Indenture Collateral Agent (or, from and after the Discharge of Indenture Obligations, the Controlling Collateral Agent), each Additional Second-Lien Secured Party agrees that no Additional Second-Lien Security Document may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified or entered into to the extent such amendment, supplement or modification, or the terms of any new Additional Second-Lien Security Document would be prohibited by, or would require any Grantor to act or refrain from acting in a manner that would violate, any of the terms of this Agreement.

(b) Without the prior written consent of the Controlling Collateral Agent (determined for the purposes of this clause (b) as if the Discharge of Indenture Obligations had occurred), the Indenture Collateral Agent agrees that no Indenture Collateral Document may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified or entered into to the extent such amendment, supplement or modification, or the terms of any new Indenture Collateral Document would be prohibited by, or would require any Grantor to act or refrain from acting in a manner that would violate, any of the terms of this Agreement.

(c) In making determinations required by this Section 2.10, each Collateral Agent may conclusively rely on a certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Issuers stating that such amendment is permitted by Section 2.10(a) or (b), as the case may be.

ARTICLE III

Existence and Amounts of Liens and Obligations

SECTION 3.01 Determinations with Respect to Amounts of Liens and Obligations. Whenever a Collateral Agent or any Authorized Representative shall be required, in connection with the exercise of its rights or the performance of its obligations hereunder, to determine the existence or amount of any Second-Lien Obligations of any Series, or the Shared Collateral subject to any Lien securing the Second-Lien Obligations of any Series, it may request that such information be furnished to it in writing by each other Authorized Representative or Collateral Agent and shall be entitled to make such determination or not make any determination on the basis of the information so furnished; provided, however, that if an Authorized Representative or a Collateral Agent shall fail or refuse reasonably promptly to provide the requested information, the requesting Collateral Agent or Authorized Representative shall be entitled to make any such determination by such method as it may, in the exercise of its good faith judgment, determine, including by reliance upon a certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Issuers. Each Collateral Agent and each Authorized Representative may rely conclusively, and shall be fully protected in so relying, on any determination made by it in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sentence (or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction) and shall have no liability to any Grantor, any Second-Lien Secured Party or any other Person as a result of such determination.

ARTICLE IV

The Controlling Collateral Agent

ARTICLE 4.01 Authority.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, nothing herein shall be construed to impose any fiduciary or other duty on any Controlling Collateral Agent to any Non-Controlling Secured Party or give any Non-Controlling Secured Party the right to direct any Controlling Collateral Agent, except that each Controlling Collateral Agent shall be obligated to distribute proceeds of any Shared Collateral in accordance with Section 2.01 hereof.

(b) Subject to the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement, in furtherance of the foregoing, each Non-Controlling Secured Party acknowledges and agrees that the Controlling Collateral Agent shall be entitled, for the benefit of the Second-Lien Secured Parties, to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with any Shared Collateral as provided herein and in the Second-Lien Security Documents, as applicable, pursuant to which the Controlling Collateral Agent is the collateral agent for such Shared Collateral, without regard to any rights to which the Non-Controlling Secured Parties would otherwise be entitled as a result of the Second-Lien Obligations held by such Non-Controlling Secured Parties. Without limiting the foregoing, each Non-Controlling Secured Party agrees that none of the Controlling Collateral Agent, the Applicable Authorized Representative or any other Second-Lien Secured Party shall have any duty or obligation first to marshal or realize upon any type of Shared Collateral (or any other Collateral securing any of the Second-Lien Obligations), or to sell, dispose of or otherwise liquidate all or any portion of such Shared Collateral (or any other Collateral securing any Second-Lien Obligations), in any manner that would maximize the return to the Non-Controlling Secured Parties, notwithstanding that the order and timing of any such realization, sale, disposition or liquidation may affect the amount of proceeds actually received by the Non-Controlling Secured Parties from such realization, sale, disposition or liquidation. Except with respect to any actions expressly prohibited or required to be taken by this Agreement, each of the Second-Lien Secured Parties waives any claim it may now or hereafter have against any Collateral Agent or the Authorized Representative of any other Series of Second-Lien Obligations or any other Second-Lien Secured Party of any other Series arising out of (i) any actions which any Collateral Agent, Authorized Representative or the Second-Lien Secured Parties take or omit to take (including, actions with respect to the creation, perfection or continuation of Liens on any Collateral, actions with respect to the foreclosure upon, sale, release or depreciation of, or failure to realize upon, any of the Collateral and actions with respect to the collection of any claim for all or any part of the Second-Lien Obligations from any account debtor, guarantor or any other party) in accordance with the Second-Lien Security Documents or any other agreement related thereto or to the collection of the Second-Lien Obligations or the valuation, use, protection or release of any security for the Second-Lien Obligations, (ii) any election by any Applicable Authorized Representative or any holders of Second-Lien Obligations, in any proceeding instituted under the Bankruptcy Code, of the application of Section 1111(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or any equivalent provision of any other Bankruptcy Law or (iii) subject to Section 2.05, any borrowing by, or grant of a security interest or administrative expense priority under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code or any equivalent provision of any other Bankruptcy Law, by the Issuers or any of its Subsidiaries, as debtor-in-possession. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Controlling Collateral Agent shall not accept any Shared Collateral in full or partial satisfaction of any Second-Lien Obligations pursuant to Section 9-620 of the Uniform Commercial Code of any jurisdiction, without the consent of each Authorized Representative representing holders of Second-Lien Obligations for whom such Collateral constitutes Shared Collateral.

SECTION 4.02. Rights as a Second-Lien Secured Party. Any Person serving as a Collateral Agent or Authorized Representative hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Second-Lien Secured Party under any Series of Second-Lien Obligations that it holds as any other Second-Lien Secured Party of such Series and may exercise the same as though it were not a Collateral Agent or Authorized Representative and the term "Second-Lien Secured Party" or "Second-Lien Secured Parties" or (as applicable) "Indenture Secured Party", "Indenture Secured Parties", "Initial Additional Second-Lien Secured Party", "Initial Additional Second-Lien Secured Parties", "Additional Second-Lien Secured Party" or "Additional Second-Lien Secured Parties" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the Person serving as a Collateral Agent or Authorized Representative hereunder in its individual capacity. Such Person and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with any Grantor or any Subsidiary thereof or other Affiliate thereof as if such Person were not a Collateral Agent or Authorized Representative hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to any other Second-Lien Secured Party.

SECTION 4.03. Exculpatory Provisions. No Collateral Agent nor any Authorized Representative shall have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein and in the other Second-Lien Security Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no Collateral Agent nor any Authorized Representative:

(a) shall be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing;

(b) shall have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the other Second-Lien Security Documents that the Collateral Agent or Authorized Representative, as applicable, is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Applicable Authorized Representative; provided that no Collateral Agent nor any Authorized Representative shall be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose such Collateral Agent or such Authorized Representative to liability or that is contrary to any Second-Lien Security Document or applicable law;

(c) shall, except as expressly set forth herein and in the other Second-Lien Security Documents, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to the Issuers or any of their Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the Person serving as Collateral Agent or Authorized Representative, as the case may be, or any of its Affiliates in any capacity;

(d) shall be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (i) with the consent or at the request of the Applicable Authorized Representative, (ii) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable judgment) or (iii) in reliance on a certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Parent Issuer stating that such action is not prohibited by the terms of this Agreement; and

(e) shall be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Second-Lien Security Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, any Second-Lien Security Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Second-Lien Security Documents, (v) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral for any Series of Second-Lien Obligations, or (vi) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in any Secured Credit Document, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to such Collateral Agent or such Authorized Representative, as the case may be.

Upon such execution and delivery, such Person will become a Grantor hereunder with the same force and effect as if originally named as a Grantor herein. The execution and delivery of such instrument shall not require the consent of any other party hereunder and will be acknowledged by each Authorized Representative at such time. (2) will not contest, protest or object to any Enforcement Action brought by the Senior Collateral Agent or any other Senior Claimholder or any other exercise by the Senior Collateral Agent or any other Senior Claimholder of any rights and remedies relating to the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien under the Senior Documents or otherwise;

(3) subject to their rights under clause (a)(1) above, will not object to the forbearance by the Senior Collateral Agent or the other Senior Claimholders from bringing or pursuing any Enforcement Action or any other exercise of any rights or remedies relating to any Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien, in each case so long as any proceeds received by the Senior Collateral Agent with respect to such Collateral in excess of those necessary to achieve a Discharge of Senior Obligations are distributed in accordance with Section 4.1; and

(4) will not take or receive any Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien, or any proceeds of or payment with respect to any such Collateral, in connection with any Enforcement Action or any other exercise of any right or remedy with respect to any such Collateral or any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding in its capacity as a creditor or in connection with any insurance policy award or any award in a condemnation or similar proceeding (or deed in lieu of condemnation) with respect to any such Collateral, in each case unless and until the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred, except, (x) as between the First Lien Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent, as expressly permitted by the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement and (y) in connection with any foreclosure expressly permitted by Section 3.1(a)(1) to the extent such Junior Collateral Agent and its Related Claimholders are permitted to retain the proceeds thereof in accordance with Section 4.1.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, until the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred, except as expressly provided in Sections 3.1(a)(1), 3.1(c) and 6.3(b), the sole right of each Junior Collateral Agent and the other Junior Claimholders with respect to any Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien (other than inspection, monitoring, reporting and similar rights provided for in the Junior Financing Documents) is to hold a Lien on such Collateral pursuant to the Junior Collateral Documents for the period and to the extent granted therein and to receive a share of the proceeds thereof, if any, after the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred.

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit (i) the exercise of rights by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent during a Dominion Period (as defined in the ABL Credit Agreement), including the notification of depository institutions or any other person to deliver proceeds of ABL Priority Collateral to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, (ii) the reduction of advance rates or sub-limits by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or (iii) the imposition of any Reserve (as defined in the ABL Credit Agreement) by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent.

(b) Until the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred, whether or not any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Obligor, subject to Sections 3.1(a)(1), 3.1(c) and 6.3(b), the Senior Collateral Agents and the other Senior Claimholders shall have the exclusive right to commence and maintain an Enforcement Action or otherwise exercise any rights and remedies with respect to the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien (including set-off, recoupment and the right to “credit bid” their debt, except that the Junior Collateral Agents shall have the “credit bid” rights set forth in Section 3.1(c)(6)), and make determinations regarding the release or Disposition of, or restrictions with respect to, such Collateral in connection with any such Enforcement Action or other exercise of rights and remedies with respect to such Collateral, in each case without any consultation with or the consent of any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholder; provided that any proceeds received by any Senior Collateral Agent on account of such Collateral in excess of those necessary to achieve a Discharge of Senior Obligations are distributed in accordance with Section 4.1. In commencing or maintaining any Enforcement Action or otherwise exercising rights and remedies with respect to any Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien, the Senior Collateral Agents and the other Senior Claimholders may enforce the provisions of the Senior Documents and exercise rights and remedies thereunder, all in such order and in such manner as they may determine in the exercise of their sole discretion in compliance with any applicable law and without consultation with any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholder and regardless of whether any such exercise is adverse to the interest of any Junior Claimholder. Such exercise and enforcement shall include the rights of an agent appointed by the Senior Claimholders to sell or otherwise Dispose of Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien upon foreclosure, to incur expenses in connection with such sale or other Disposition, and to exercise all the rights and remedies of a secured creditor under the UCC or other applicable law and of a secured creditor under Debtor Relief Laws of any applicable jurisdiction.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Junior Collateral Agent and any other Junior Claimholder may:

(1) file a claim, proof of claim or statement of interest with respect to the Junior Obligations; provided that an Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any of the Obligor;

(2) take any action in order to create, perfect, preserve or protect (but not enforce) its Lien on the Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien to the extent (A) not adverse to the priority status of the Liens on such Collateral securing the Senior Obligations, or the rights of any Senior Collateral Agent or the other Senior Claimholders to exercise rights and remedies in respect thereof, and (B) not otherwise inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, including the automatic release of Liens provided in Section 5.1;

(3) file any necessary or appropriate responsive or defensive pleadings in opposition to any motion, claim, adversary proceeding or other pleading made by any Person objecting to or otherwise seeking the disallowance of the claims of the Junior Claimholders, including any claims or Liens secured by the Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien, if any, in each case to the extent not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement;

(4) vote on any plan of reorganization, arrangement, compromise or liquidation, file any proof of claim, make other filings and make any arguments and motions with respect to the Junior Obligations and the Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien that are, in each case, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; provided that (A) no filing of any claim or vote, or pleading relating to such claim or vote, to accept or reject a disclosure statement, plan of reorganization, arrangement, compromise or liquidation, or any other document, agreement or proposal similar to the foregoing by any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholder in respect of such Collateral may be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement and (B) neither any Junior Collateral Agent nor any other Junior Claimholder shall propose, vote to accept, or otherwise support a plan of reorganization that is inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement with respect to treatment of such Collateral;

(5) exercise any of its rights or remedies with respect to the Collateral (after the termination of the Standstill Period to the extent permitted by Section 3.1(a)(1)); and

(6) bid for or purchase any Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien at any public, private or judicial foreclosure upon such Collateral initiated by the Senior Collateral Agent or any other Senior Claimholder, or any sale of any such Collateral during an Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding; provided that any such bid may not include a "credit bid" in respect of any Junior Obligations unless the cash proceeds of such bid are otherwise sufficient to cause the Discharge of Senior Obligations.

(d) Subject to Sections 3.1(a)(1), 3.1(c) and 6.3(b) each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders:

(1) agrees that it and its Related Claimholders will not take any action that would hinder, delay, limit or prohibit any exercise of rights or remedies under the Senior Documents or is otherwise prohibited hereunder with respect to any Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien, including any collection or Disposition of any such Collateral, whether by foreclosure or otherwise, or that would limit, invalidate, avoid or set aside any Lien securing any Senior Obligations or any Senior Collateral Document or subordinate the priority of the Senior Obligations to the Junior Obligations with respect to such Collateral or grant the Liens on such Collateral securing the Junior Obligations equal ranking to the Liens securing the Senior Obligations;

(2) hereby waives any and all rights it or its Related Claimholders may have as a junior Lien creditor or otherwise (whether arising under the UCC or under any other law) to object to the manner in which the Senior Collateral Agents or the other Senior Claimholders seek to enforce or collect the Senior Obligations or the Liens securing the Senior Obligations with respect to the Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien, regardless of whether any action or failure to act by or on behalf of any Senior Collateral Agent or any other Senior Claimholders is adverse to the interest of any Junior Claimholders with respect to such Collateral; and

(3) hereby acknowledges and agrees that no covenant, agreement or restriction contained in the Junior Collateral Documents or any other Junior Document shall be deemed to restrict in any way the rights and remedies of any Senior Collateral Agent or the other Senior Claimholders with respect to the Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien as set forth in this Agreement and the Senior Documents.

(e) The Junior Collateral Agents and the other Junior Claimholders may exercise rights and remedies as unsecured creditors against the Obligors that have guaranteed or granted Liens to secure the Junior Obligations in accordance with the terms of the Junior Documents and applicable law (other than initiating or joining in an involuntary case or proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law with respect to any Obligor, prior to the termination of the Standstill Period; provided that (i) any such exercise shall not be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement (including Sections 2.2 and 6) and (ii) in the event that any Junior Claimholder becomes a judgment Lien creditor in respect of any Collateral as a result of its enforcement of its rights as an unsecured creditor with respect to the Junior Obligations, such judgment Lien shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement for all purposes (including in relation to the Senior Obligations) as the other Liens securing the Junior Obligations are subject to this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the receipt by any Junior Collateral Agent or Junior Claimholder of the required payments of principal, premium, interest, fees and other amounts due under the Junior Documents so long as such receipt is not the direct or indirect result of the exercise by a Junior Collateral Agent or other Junior Claimholder of rights or remedies as a secured creditor in respect of Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien.

3.2 Agreement among Term Loan Claimholders. Each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, solely as among themselves in such capacity and solely for their mutual benefit, hereby agrees that the Term Loan Collateral Agent designated as the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent shall have the sole right and power, as among the Term Loan Collateral Agents and the other Term Loan Claimholders, to take and direct any right or remedy with respect to Term Loan Priority Collateral in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the relevant Term Loan Collateral Documents and any other intercreditor agreement among the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent and each other Term Loan Collateral Agent. The Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent shall be entitled to the benefit of all the exculpatory, indemnity and reimbursement provisions set forth in any Term Loan Document for the benefit of any “administrative agent” or “collateral agent” (or any other agent or similar representative) with respect to any exercise by the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent of any of the rights or remedies under this Agreement, including any such exercise of any right or remedy with respect to any Term Loan Priority Collateral, or any other action or inaction by it in its capacity as the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent.

SECTION 4. Payments.

4.1 Application of Proceeds. So long as the Discharge of Senior Obligations has not occurred, whether or not any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Obligor, any Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien or any Proceeds (whether in cash or otherwise) thereof received in connection with any Enforcement Action or other exercise of rights or remedies by any Senior Collateral Agent or the other Senior Claimholders with respect to such Collateral (including any Disposition referred to in Section 5.1) or any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, shall be applied by the Senior Collateral Agent to the Senior Obligations in accordance with the terms of the Senior Documents, including any other intercreditor agreement among the Senior Collateral Agents. Upon the Discharge of Senior Obligations, the Senior Collateral Agent shall deliver to the Directing Junior Collateral Agent any remaining Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien and Proceeds thereof then held by it in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements (such endorsements shall be without recourse and without representation or warranty) to the Directing Junior Collateral Agent, or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct, to be applied by the Junior Collateral Agents to the Junior Obligations in accordance with the terms of the Junior Documents, including any intercreditor agreement among the Junior Collateral Agents.

4.2 Payments Over.

(a) So long as the Discharge of Senior Obligations has not occurred, whether or not any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Obligor, any Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien or Proceeds thereof (including any assets or proceeds subject to Liens that have been avoided or otherwise invalidated (including as a result of failure to perfect or lack of perfection)), any assets or proceeds subject to Liens referred to in Section 2.3, any amounts referred to in the last sentence of Section 6.3(b) or any other distribution (whether or not expressly characterized as such) in respect of such Collateral (including in connection with any Disposition of any such Collateral) received by any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholders in connection with any Enforcement Action or any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or other exercise of any right or remedy (including set-off or recoupment) relating to such Collateral in contravention of this Agreement or not in accordance with Section 4.1, or received by any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholders in connection with any insurance policy claim or any condemnation award (or deed in lieu of condemnation) in respect of such Collateral, in each case, shall be held in trust and forthwith paid over to the Directing Senior Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Senior Claimholders in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements, or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth in Section 6.3, so long as the Discharge of Senior Obligations has not occurred, if in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholders shall receive any distribution of money or other property in respect of or on account of the Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien (including any assets or proceeds subject to Liens that have been avoided or otherwise invalidated or any amounts referred to in the last sentence of Section 6.3(b)), such money, other property or amounts shall be held in trust and forthwith paid over to the Directing Senior Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Senior Claimholders in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements. Any Lien on Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien received by any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholders in respect of any of the Junior Obligations in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement.

(c) Until the Discharge of Senior Obligations occurs, each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders, hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Directing Senior Collateral Agent and any officer or agent of the Directing Senior Collateral Agent, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full irrevocable power and authority in the place and stead of such Junior Collateral Agent or any such Junior Claimholder or in the Directing Senior Collateral Agent's own name, from time to time in the Directing Senior Collateral Agent's discretion, for the purpose of carrying out the terms of this Section 4.2, to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments which may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Section 4.2, including any endorsements or other instruments of transfer or release. This power is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until the Discharge of Senior Obligations.

4.3 Mixed Collateral Proceeds. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above or in the definition of the ABL Priority Collateral or Term Loan Priority Collateral, in the event that Proceeds of Collateral are received from (or are otherwise attributable to the value of) a sale or other disposition of Collateral that involves a combination of ABL Priority Collateral and Term Loan Priority Collateral, the portion of such Proceeds that shall be allocated as Proceeds of ABL Priority Collateral for purposes of this Agreement shall be an amount equal to the net book value of such ABL Priority Collateral (except in the case of Accounts (as described in clause (i) of the definition of ABL Priority Collateral, and excluding any Accounts to the extent excluded pursuant to said clause (i)) which amount shall be equal to the face amount of such Accounts). In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above or in the definition of the ABL Priority Collateral or Term Loan Priority Collateral, to the extent Proceeds of Collateral are Proceeds received from (or are otherwise attributable to the value of) the sale or disposition of all or substantially all of the capital stock of any of the Subsidiaries of the Parent Borrower which is an Obligor, or all or substantially all of the assets of any such Subsidiary, such Proceeds shall constitute (1) first, in an amount equal to the face amount of the Accounts (as described in clause (i) of the definition of ABL Priority Collateral, and excluding any Accounts to the extent excluded pursuant to said clause (i)) and the net book value of (x) the Inventory and (y) cash, Money and cash equivalents (in the case of this clause (y), other than identifiable Proceeds of Term Loan Priority Collateral) owned by such Subsidiary at the time of such sale, ABL Priority Collateral and (2) second, to the extent in excess of the amounts described in preceding clause (1), Term Loan Priority Collateral. In the event that amounts are received in respect of capital stock of or intercompany loans issued to any Obligor in an Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, such amounts shall be deemed to be Proceeds received from a sale or disposition of ABL Priority Collateral and Term Loan Priority Collateral and shall be allocated as Proceeds of ABL Priority Collateral and Term Loan Priority Collateral in proportion to the ABL Priority Collateral and Term Loan Priority Collateral owned at such time by the issuer of such capital stock.

SECTION 5. Other Agreements.

5.1 Releases.

(a) In connection with any Enforcement Action by the Directing Senior Collateral Agent or any other exercise by the Directing Senior Collateral Agent of rights or remedies in respect of the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien (including any Disposition of any of such Collateral by any Obligor, with the consent of the Directing Senior Collateral Agent, after the occurrence and during the continuance of an “event of default” under the Senior Documents), in each case, prior to the Discharge of Senior Obligations, the Directing Senior Collateral Agent is irrevocably authorized (at the cost of the Obligors in accordance with the terms of the applicable Senior Financing Document and without any consent, sanction, authority or further confirmation from the Directing Junior Collateral Agent, any other Junior Claimholder or any Obligor): (i) to release any of its Liens on any part of such Collateral or any other claim over such Collateral that is the subject of such Enforcement Action, in which case the Junior Liens or any other claim over the asset that is the subject of such Enforcement Action, if any, of any Junior Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of the other Junior Claimholders, shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released to the same extent as the Liens or other claims of the Directing Senior Collateral Agent and each other Senior Collateral Agent are so released (and the Directing Senior Collateral Agent is irrevocably authorized to execute and deliver or enter into any release of such Liens or claims that may, in the discretion of the Directing Senior Collateral Agent, be considered necessary or reasonably desirable in connection with such releases); and (ii) if the Collateral that is the subject of such Enforcement Action consists of the equity interests of any Obligor, to release (x) such Obligor and any subsidiary of such Obligor from all or any part of its Senior Obligations, in which case such Obligor and any subsidiary of such Obligor shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released to the same extent from its Junior Obligations (it being understood that any Proceeds of such Enforcement Action with respect to such equity interests shall be dealt with in a manner consistent with Section 4.3), and (y) any Liens or other claims on any assets of such Obligor and any subsidiary of such Obligor, in which case the Junior Liens or other claims on such assets of each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of its Related Claimholders, shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released to the same extent as such Senior Liens of the Directing Senior Collateral Agent and each other Senior Collateral Agent are so released (and the Directing Senior Collateral Agent is irrevocably authorized to execute and deliver or enter into any release of such Liens or claims that may, in the discretion of the Directing Senior Collateral Agent, be considered necessary or reasonably desirable in connection with such releases). Each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of its Related Claimholders, promptly shall execute and deliver to the Directing Senior Collateral Agent or such Obligor such termination statements, releases and other documents as the Directing Senior Collateral Agent or such Obligor may request to effectively confirm the foregoing releases upon delivery to the Junior Collateral Agents of copies of such termination statements, releases and other documents used to effect such releases with respect to the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien securing the Senior Obligations from a Responsible Officer of the requesting party. In the case of any Disposition of any of the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien that is subject to this Section 5.1(a) by the Directing Senior Collateral Agent or by any Obligor with the consent of the Directing Senior Collateral Agent (the party so Disposing of such Collateral being called the “Disposing Party”), the Disposing Party shall take reasonable care (as determined in the reasonable credit judgment of the Directing Senior Collateral Agent or the reasonable business judgment of such Obligor, as the case may be) to obtain a fair market price under the prevailing market conditions and, if the Disposing Party is an Obligor, to conduct such Disposition in a commercially reasonable manner (it being understood that the Disposing Party shall have no obligation to postpone any such Disposition in order to achieve a higher price, and that any Disposition approved by any bankruptcy court in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding shall be conclusively presumed to be made at a fair market price and to have been conducted in a commercially reasonable manner). The proceeds of any such Disposition shall be applied in accordance with Section 4.1.

(b) If in connection with any sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition (collectively, a “Disposition”) of any Collateral by any Obligor permitted under the terms of both the Senior Financing Documents and the Junior Financing Documents (other than in connection with an Enforcement Action or other exercise of any Collateral Agent’s rights or remedies in respect of the Collateral, which shall be governed by Section 5.1(a) above), the Directing Senior Collateral Agent or any other Senior Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of any of the other Senior Claimholders, releases any of its Liens on any part of the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien, or releases any Obligor from its obligations under its guaranty of the Senior Obligations, in each case other than in connection with, or following, the Discharge of Senior Obligations, then the Liens, if any, of each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of its Related Claimholders, on such Collateral, and the obligations of such Obligor under its guaranty of the Junior Obligations, shall be automatically, unconditionally and simultaneously released; provided that such release by such Junior Collateral Agent, for itself or for the benefit of its Related Claimholders, shall not extend to or otherwise affect any of the rights of the Junior Claimholders to the proceeds from any such Disposition. Each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself or on behalf of its Related Claimholders, promptly shall execute and deliver to the Directing Senior Collateral Agent or such Obligor such termination statements, releases and other documents as the Directing Senior Collateral Agent or such Obligor may request to effectively confirm the foregoing releases upon delivery to the Junior Collateral Agents of copies of such termination statements, releases and other documents used to effect such release with respect to the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien securing the Senior Obligations from a Responsible Officer of the Parent Borrower or the Directing Senior Collateral Agent and an officer’s certificate of a Responsible Officer of the requesting party stating that such disposition has been consummated in compliance with the terms of the Junior Financing Documents.

(c) Until the Discharge of Senior Obligations occurs, each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders, hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Directing Senior Collateral Agent and any officer or agent of the Directing Senior Collateral Agent, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full irrevocable power and authority in the place and stead of such Junior Collateral Agent or such Junior Claimholders or in the Directing Senior Collateral Agent's own name, from time to time in the Directing Senior Collateral Agent's discretion, for the purpose of carrying out the terms of this Section 5.1, to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments which may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Section 5.1, including any endorsements or other instruments of transfer or release. This power is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until the Discharge of Senior Obligations.

(d) Until the Discharge of Senior Obligations occurs, to the extent that any Senior Collateral Agent or the other Senior Claimholders (i) have released any Lien on Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien or any Obligor from its obligation under its guaranty and any such Liens or guaranty are later reinstated or (ii) obtain any additional guarantees from any Obligor or any Domestic Subsidiary (as defined in the ABL Credit Agreement or First Lien Credit Agreement, as applicable) of the Parent Borrower, then each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders, shall be granted an additional Lien on such Collateral or guaranty from such Obligor, as applicable.

5.2 Insurance and Condemnation Awards. Until the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred, the Directing Senior Collateral Agent (acting at the direction of, or pursuant to authority granted by, the Required Senior Claimholders) shall have the sole and exclusive right, subject to the rights of the Obligors under the Senior Financing Documents, to settle or adjust claims over any insurance policy covering the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien (including in respect of business interruption insurance) in the event of any loss thereunder and to approve any award granted in any condemnation or similar proceeding (or any deed in lieu of condemnation) affecting such Collateral. Until the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred, and subject to the rights of the Obligors under the Senior Financing Documents, all proceeds of any such policy and any such award (or any payments with respect to a deed in lieu of condemnation) in respect of the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien shall be paid to the Directing Senior Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Senior Claimholders pursuant to the terms of the Senior Documents, including any other intercreditor agreement among the Senior Collateral Agents (including, without limitation, for purposes of cash collateralization of commitments, letters of credit constituting Senior Obligations and obligations under Swap Contracts governing any First Lien Secured Swap Obligations or Second Lien Secured Swap Obligations constituting Senior Obligations) and thereafter, if the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred, and subject to the rights of the Obligors under the Junior Financing Documents, to the Directing Junior Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Junior Claimholders to the extent required under the Junior Collateral Documents, and thereafter, if the Discharge of the Junior Obligations has occurred, to the owner of the subject property, as directed by the Parent Borrower or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct. Until the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred, if any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholders shall, at any time, receive any proceeds of any such insurance policy or any such award or payment in respect of Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien in contravention of this Agreement, it shall segregate and hold in trust and forthwith pay such proceeds over to the Directing Senior Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of Section 4.2.

5.3 Amendments to Financing Documents.

(a) Subject to, in the case of the Term Loan Documents, the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement and any other intercreditor agreement among the Term Loan Claimholders, Financing Documents may be amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented or otherwise modified in accordance with their terms, and the Financing Documents and any Obligations thereunder may be Refinanced, in each case, without notice to, or the consent of any Collateral Agent or any other Claimholder, all without affecting the Lien subordination or other provisions of this Agreement; provided that the holders of such Refinancing debt bind themselves in a writing addressed to the Collateral Agents and the other Claimholders to the terms of this Agreement or another intercreditor agreement that is reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agents, and any such amendment, restatement, amendment and restatement, supplement, modification or Refinancing shall not contravene the provisions of this Agreement or any other Financing Document.

(b) [Reserved.]

(c) In the event that any Senior Collateral Agent enters into any amendment, restatement, amendment and restatement, supplement or other modification in respect of or replaces any of the Senior Collateral Documents for purposes of adding to, or deleting from, or waiving or consenting to any departures from any provisions of any Senior Collateral Document or changing in any manner the rights of the applicable Senior Collateral Agent, the Senior Claimholders, or any Obligor thereunder, in each case in respect of the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien (including the release of any Liens on such Collateral securing the Senior Obligations), then such amendment, restatement, amendment and restatement, supplement or other modification in a manner that is applicable to all Senior Claimholders and all Senior Obligations shall apply automatically to any comparable provisions of each Comparable Junior Collateral Document without the consent of any Junior Collateral Agent, Junior Claimholder or any Obligor; provided, however that (1) such amendment, restatement, amendment and restatement, supplement or other modification does not (A) remove assets subject to any Liens on the Collateral securing any of the Junior Obligations or release any such Liens, except to the extent such release is permitted or required by Section 5.1 and provided there is a concurrent release of the corresponding Liens securing the Senior Obligations, (B) affect the rights or duties of any Junior Collateral Agent without its consent or (C) otherwise materially adversely affect the rights of the applicable Junior Claimholders or the interest of the applicable Junior Claimholders in such Collateral and not the Senior Collateral Agent or the Senior Claimholders that have a Senior Lien on the affected Collateral in a like manner, and (2) written notice of such amendment, restatement, amendment and restatement, supplement or other modification shall have been given to each Junior Collateral Agent within ten (10) Business Days of the effectiveness thereof (it being understood that the failure to deliver such notice shall not impair the effectiveness of any such amendment, restatement, amendment and restatement, supplement or other modification).

5.4 Confirmation of Subordination in Collateral Documents. (a) Each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, agrees that (x) the First Lien Credit Agreement and each other applicable First Lien Financing Document shall include the language in clause (i) below (y) the Second Lien Notes Indenture and each other applicable Second Lien Financing Document shall include the language in clause (ii) below and (z) each Term Loan Collateral Document shall include the language in clause (iii) below (or, in each case, language to similar effect approved by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent):

(i) “Each lender hereunder (a) acknowledges that it has received a copy of the Intercreditor Agreements, (b) agrees that it will be bound by and will take no actions contrary to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements and (c) authorizes and instructs the administrative agent or collateral agent (or similar agent) hereunder to enter into Intercreditor Agreements as agent and on behalf of such lender. The foregoing provisions are intended as an inducement to the lenders under the ABL Loan Documents, the holders of notes issued pursuant to the Second Lien Notes Indenture and any documentation governing other parity liens or junior lien Indebtedness permitted to be incurred hereunder to extend credit to the Parent Borrower and such lenders and holders are intended third-party beneficiaries of such provisions. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of any Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement, the provisions of such Intercreditor Agreement shall control. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other Loan Document, prior to the payment in full of the ABL Obligations to the extent that any Loan Party is required to give physical possession over any Collateral (other than Term Loan Priority Collateral) to the Administrative Agent under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, such requirement to give possession shall be satisfied if such Collateral is delivered to and held by the ABL Agent pursuant to the ABL Intercreditor Agreement or any other applicable Intercreditor Agreement entered into after the Closing Date.”

(ii) “Each Holder, by accepting a Note, (a) acknowledges that it has received a copy of each Intercreditor Agreement, (b) agrees that it will be bound by and will take no actions contrary to the provisions of each Intercreditor Agreement, (c) authorizes and instructs the collateral agent (or similar agent) hereunder to enter into each Intercreditor Agreement as agent and on behalf of such Holder and (d) if such Intercreditor Agreement subordinates the Liens securing the [Obligations], hereby consents to such subordination on the terms set forth in such Intercreditor Agreement. The foregoing provisions are intended as an inducement to the [Applicable Secured Parties] to extend credit to the Parent Borrower and such [Applicable Secured Parties] are intended third-party beneficiaries of such provisions. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of any Intercreditor Agreement and this Indenture, the provisions of such Intercreditor Agreement shall control.”

(iii) “Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Liens and the Security Interest granted to the [Administrative][Collateral] Agent pursuant to this Agreement and the exercise of any right or remedy by the [Administrative][Collateral] Agent hereunder are subject in all respects to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements. In the event of any conflict between the terms of any Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement, the terms of such Intercreditor Agreement shall govern and control.”

(b) The ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, agrees that (x) the ABL Credit Agreement shall include the language in clause (i) below and (y) each ABL Collateral Document shall include the language in clause (ii) below (or, in each case, language to similar effect approved by the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent):

(i) “Each Lender hereunder (a) acknowledges that it has received a copy of the ABL Intercreditor Agreement, (b) agrees that it will be bound by and will take no actions contrary to the provisions of the ABL Intercreditor Agreement, (c) authorizes and instructs the Administrative Agent to enter into the ABL Intercreditor Agreements as Administrative Agent and on behalf of such Lender and (d) hereby consents to the subordination of the Liens securing the Obligations on the terms set forth in the ABL Intercreditor Agreement. The foregoing provisions are intended as an inducement to the lenders under the [First Lien Loan Documents] and the [Second Lien Loan Documents] to extend credit to the Loan Parties and such lenders are intended third-party beneficiaries of such provisions. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of the ABL Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement, the provisions of the ABL Intercreditor Agreement shall control.”

(ii) “Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Liens and the Security Interest granted to the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Agreement and the exercise of any right or remedy by the Administrative Agent hereunder are subject in all respects to the provisions of the ABL Intercreditor Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of the ABL Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement, the terms of the ABL Intercreditor Agreement shall govern and control.”

5.5 Gratuitous Bailee/Agent for Perfection; Shared Collateral Documents.

(a) Each Collateral Agent agrees to hold that part of the Collateral that is in its possession or control (or in the possession or control of its agents or bailees) to the extent that possession or control thereof is taken to perfect a Lien thereon under the UCC or other applicable law (such Collateral being the “Pledged Collateral”) as gratuitous bailee on behalf of and for the benefit of each other Collateral Agent (such bailment being intended, among other things, to satisfy the requirements of Sections 8-106(d)(3), 8-301(a)(2) and 9-313(c) of the UCC) solely for the purpose of perfecting, or improving the priority of, the security interest granted under the Collateral Documents, subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 5.5; provided that, in the case of any such possession or control of Collateral by any Junior Collateral Agent, the foregoing shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any restriction set forth herein on such possession or control or of any breach by such Junior Collateral Agent of any terms of this Agreement in respect of such possession or control.

(b) Until the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred, each Senior Collateral Agent shall be entitled to deal with the Pledged Collateral that constitutes Collateral in which it has a Senior Lien in accordance with the terms of the Senior Financing Documents as if the Liens of any Junior Collateral Agent under the Junior Collateral Documents did not exist. The rights of each Junior Collateral Agent in Collateral in which it has a Junior Lien shall at all times be subject to the terms of this Agreement and to each Senior Collateral Agent’s rights under the Senior Financing Documents.

(c) No Collateral Agent shall have any obligation whatsoever to any Claimholder to ensure that the Pledged Collateral is genuine or owned by any of the Obligors or to preserve rights or benefits of any Person with respect thereto except as expressly set forth in this Section 5.5 or, in the case of any Junior Collateral Agent, the other provisions hereof (including the turnover provisions set forth in Section 4.2). The duties or responsibilities of each Collateral Agent under this Section 5.5 shall be limited solely to holding the Pledged Collateral as bailee in accordance with this Section 5.5 and, in the case of any Senior Collateral Agent, delivering the Pledged Collateral to the Directing Junior Collateral Agent upon a Discharge of Senior Obligations as provided in paragraph (e) below or, in the case of any Junior Collateral Agent, delivering the Pledged Collateral to the Directing Senior Collateral Agent in accordance with the provisions hereof (including the turnover provisions set forth in Section 4.2).

(d) Each Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders, hereby waives and releases each other Collateral Agent and each other Claimholder from all claims and liabilities arising pursuant to any Collateral Agent's role under this Section 5.5 as gratuitous bailee and gratuitous agent with respect to the Pledged Collateral; provided that, in the case of any possession or control of any Pledged Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien by any Junior Collateral Agent, the foregoing shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any restriction set forth herein on such possession or control or of any breach by such Junior Collateral Agent of any terms of this Agreement in respect of such possession or control. None of the Term Loan Collateral Agents or any other Term Loan Claimholders shall have by reason of the Term Loan Collateral Documents, the ABL Collateral Documents, the Shared Collateral Documents, this Agreement or any other document, a fiduciary relationship in respect of the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or any other ABL Claimholder, and it is understood and agreed that the interests of the Term Loan Collateral Agents and the other Term Loan Claimholders, on the one hand, and the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders, on the other hand, may differ and that the Term Loan Collateral Agents and the other Term Loan Claimholders shall be fully entitled to act in their own interest without taking into account the interests of the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or the other ABL Claimholders. Neither the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent nor any other ABL Claimholders shall have by reason of the ABL Collateral Documents, the Term Loan Collateral Documents, the Shared Collateral Documents, this Agreement or any other document, a fiduciary relationship in respect of any Term Loan Collateral Agent or any other Term Loan Claimholder, and it is understood and agreed that the interests of the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders, on the one hand, and the Term Loan Collateral Agents and the other Term Loan Claimholders, on the other hand, may differ and that the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders shall be fully entitled to act in their own interest without taking into account the interests of the Term Loan Collateral Agents or the other Term Loan Claimholders.

(e) Upon the Discharge of Senior Obligations, each Senior Collateral Agent shall deliver the remaining Pledged Collateral in its possession (if any) (or proceeds thereof) together with any necessary endorsements (such endorsement shall be without recourse and without any representation or warranty), first, to the Directing Junior Collateral Agent, to the extent the Discharge of Junior Obligations has not occurred and second, upon the Discharge of Junior Obligations, to the Obligors to the extent no Obligations remain outstanding (in each case, so as to allow such Person to obtain possession or control of such Pledged Collateral) or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct. Following the Discharge of Senior Obligations, each Senior Collateral Agent further agrees to take, at the expense of the Obligors (which expense reimbursement shall be subject to the provisions of the applicable Senior Document), all other actions reasonably requested by the Directing Junior Collateral Agent in connection with the Directing Junior Collateral Agent obtaining a first-priority interest in the Pledged Collateral that is in such Senior Collateral Agent's possession or control.

5.6 When Discharge of Senior Obligations Deemed to Not Have Occurred. If, substantially concurrently with or after the Discharge of Senior Obligations having occurred, the Parent Borrower or any other Obligor enters into any Refinancing of any Senior Financing Document evidencing a Senior Obligation, which Refinancing is permitted hereby and by the terms of the Junior Financing Documents, then such Discharge of Senior Obligations shall automatically be deemed not to have occurred for all purposes of this Agreement, and the obligations under such Refinancing of the Senior Financing Document shall automatically be treated as Senior Obligations for all purposes of this Agreement, including for purposes of the Lien priorities and rights in respect of Collateral set forth herein, and the New Senior Agent shall be a Senior Collateral Agent (and, if applicable in accordance with the definition of such term, the Directing Senior Collateral Agent) for all purposes of this Agreement. Upon receipt of a notice from the Parent Borrower or any other Obligor stating that the Parent Borrower or such other Obligor has entered into a Refinancing of any Senior Financing Document (which notice shall include the identity of the new senior collateral agent (such agent, the "New Senior Agent")), each Collateral Agent shall promptly (a) enter into such documents and agreements (including amendments or supplements to, or amendment and restatement of, this Agreement) as the Parent Borrower, such other Obligor or the New Senior Agent shall reasonably request in order to provide to the New Senior Agent the rights contemplated hereby, in each case consistent in all material respects with the terms of this Agreement, and (b) in the case of each Junior Collateral Agent only, deliver to the New Senior Agent (if it is the Directing Senior Collateral Agent) any Pledged Collateral in which the New Senior Agent is to have a Senior Lien held by it together with any necessary endorsements (or otherwise allow the New Senior Agent to obtain control of such Pledged Collateral). The New Senior Agent shall agree in a writing addressed to the other Collateral Agents and the other Claimholder to be bound by the terms of this Agreement, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders.

5.7 [Reserved].

5.8 Consent to License to Use Intellectual Property. Each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of its Related Claimholders (a) consents (without any representation, warranty or obligation whatsoever) to the grant by any Obligor to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent of a non-exclusive royalty-free license to use, subject to any limitations and restrictions in any relevant ABL Collateral Document, for a period not to exceed 180 days (commencing with the initiation of any enforcement of Liens by any of the Term Loan Collateral Agents (provided, in each case, that the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent has received notice thereof) or the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent (it being understood that such 180-day period shall not commence as a result of an exercise of rights solely in connection with the occurrence and continuation of a Dominion Period, as such term is defined in the ABL Credit Agreement (as in effect on the date hereof))) any Patent, Trademark or proprietary information of such Obligor that is subject to a Lien held by any Term Loan Collateral Agent (or any Patent, Trademark or proprietary information acquired by such purchaser, assignee or transferee from any Obligor, as the case may be) and (b) grants, in its capacity as a secured party (or as a purchaser, assignee or transferee, as the case may be), to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent a non-exclusive royalty-free license to use for a period not to exceed 180 days (commencing with (x) the initiation of any enforcement of Liens by any Collateral Agent (it being understood that such 180-day period shall not commence as a result of an exercise of rights solely in connection with the occurrence and continuation of a Dominion Period, as such term is defined in the ABL Credit Agreement (as in effect on the date hereof)) or (y) the purchase, assignment or transfer, as the case may be (provided, in each case, that the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent has received notice thereof)) any Patent, Trademark or proprietary information that is subject to a Lien held by any Term Loan Collateral Agent (or subject to such purchase, assignment or transfer, as the case may be), in each case in connection with the enforcement of any Lien held by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent upon any Inventory or other ABL Priority Collateral of any Obligor and to the extent the use of such Patent, Trademark or proprietary information is necessary or appropriate, in the good faith opinion of the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, to process, ship, produce, store, complete, supply, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of any such Inventory in any lawful manner. The 180 day license periods shall be tolled during the pendency of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding of any Obligor pursuant to which the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent is effectively stayed from enforcing its rights and remedies with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral.

5.9 Access to Information. If any Term Loan Collateral Agent takes actual possession of any documentation of an Obligor (whether such documentation is in the form of a writing or is stored in any data equipment or data record in the physical possession of any Term Loan Collateral Agent), then upon the reasonable request of the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and reasonable advance notice, the Term Loan Collateral Agents will permit the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or its representative to inspect and copy such documentation.

5.10 Access to Property to Process and Sell Inventory. (a) (i) If the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent commences any action or proceeding with respect to any of its rights or remedies (including any action of foreclosure but excluding any exercise of rights solely in connection with the occurrence and continuation of a Dominion Period, as such term is defined in the ABL Credit Agreement (as in effect on the date hereof)), enforcement, collection or execution with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral (“ABL Priority Collateral Enforcement Actions”) or if any Term Loan Collateral Agent commences any action or proceeding with respect to any of its rights or remedies (including any action of foreclosure), enforcement, collection or execution with respect to the Term Loan Priority Collateral, and such Term Loan Collateral Agent (or a purchaser at a foreclosure sale conducted in foreclosure of any Liens of any Term Loan Collateral Agent) takes actual or constructive possession of Term Loan Priority Collateral of any Obligor (“Term Loan Priority Collateral Enforcement Actions”), then the applicable Term Loan Claimholders shall (subject to, in the case of any Term Loan Priority Collateral Enforcement Action, a prior written request by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent to the applicable Term Loan Collateral Agent (the “Term Loan Priority Collateral Enforcement Action Notice”)) (x) cooperate with the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent (and with its officers, employees, representatives and agents) in its efforts to conduct ABL Priority Collateral Enforcement Actions in the ABL Priority Collateral and to finish any work-in-process and process, ship, produce, store, complete, supply, lease, sell or otherwise handle, deal with, assemble or dispose of, in any lawful manner, the ABL Priority Collateral, (y) not hinder or restrict in any respect the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent from conducting ABL Priority Collateral Enforcement Actions in the ABL Priority Collateral or from finishing any work-in-process or processing, shipping, producing, storing, completing, supplying, leasing, selling or otherwise handling, dealing with, assembling or disposing of, in any lawful manner, the ABL Priority Collateral, and (z) permit the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, its employees, agents, advisers and representatives, at the cost and expense of the ABL Claimholders, to enter upon any real property of the Obligors and to use the Term Loan Priority Collateral (including equipment, processors, computers and other machinery related to the storage or processing of records, documents or files and intellectual property), for a period commencing on (I) the date of the initial ABL Priority Collateral Enforcement Action or the date of delivery of the Term Loan Priority Collateral Enforcement Action Notice, as the case may be, and (II) ending on the earlier of the date occurring 180 days thereafter and the date on which all ABL Priority Collateral (other than ABL Priority Collateral abandoned by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent in writing) has been removed from such real property or the Term Loan Priority Collateral (such period, the “ABL Priority Collateral Processing and Sale Period”), for purposes of:

- (A) assembling and storing the ABL Priority Collateral and completing the processing of and turning into finished goods any ABL Priority Collateral consisting of work-in- process;
- (B) selling any or all of the ABL Priority Collateral located in or on such real property or Term Loan Priority Collateral, whether in bulk, in lots or to customers in the ordinary course of business or otherwise;
- (C) removing and transporting any or all of the ABL Priority Collateral located in or on such real property or Term Loan Priority Collateral;
- (D) otherwise processing, shipping, producing, storing, completing, supplying, leasing, selling or otherwise handling, dealing with, assembling or disposing of, in any lawful manner, the ABL Priority Collateral; and/or
- (E) taking reasonable actions to protect, secure, and otherwise enforce the rights or remedies of the ABL Claimholders and/or the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent (including with respect to any ABL Priority Collateral Enforcement Actions) in and to the ABL Priority Collateral; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Agreement shall restrict the rights of any Term Loan Collateral Agent from selling, assigning or otherwise transferring any Term Loan Priority Collateral prior to the expiration of such ABL Priority Collateral Processing and Sale Period if the purchaser, assignee or transferee thereof agrees in writing (for the benefit of the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders) to be bound by the provisions of this Section 5.10. If any stay or other order prohibiting the exercise of remedies with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction, such ABL Priority Collateral Processing and Sale Period shall be tolled during the pendency of any such stay or other order.

(ii) During the period of actual occupation, use and/or control by the ABL Claimholders and/or the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent (or their respective employees, agents, advisers and representatives) of any real property or Term Loan Priority Collateral, the ABL Claimholders and the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent shall be obligated to repair at their expense any physical damage to such real property or Term Loan Priority Collateral resulting from such occupancy, use or control, and to leave such real property or Term Loan Priority Collateral in substantially the same condition as it was at the commencement of such occupancy, use or control, ordinary wear and tear excepted. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the ABL Claimholders or the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent have any liability to the Term Loan Claimholders pursuant to this Section 5.10(a) as a result of any condition (including any environmental condition, claim or liability) on or with respect to such real property or the Term Loan Priority Collateral existing prior to the date of the exercise by the ABL Claimholders of their rights under this Section 5.10(a) and the ABL Claimholders shall have no duty or liability to maintain such real property or the Term Loan Priority Collateral in a condition or manner better than that in which it was maintained prior to the use thereof by the ABL Claimholders, or for any diminution in the value of such real property or the Term Loan Priority Collateral that results from ordinary wear and tear resulting from the use of such real property or the Term Loan Priority Collateral by the ABL Claimholders in the manner and for the time periods specified under this Section 5.10(a). Without limiting the rights granted in this Section 5.10(a), the ABL Claimholders shall cooperate with the Term Loan Claimholders in connection with any efforts made by the Term Loan Claimholders to sell the Term Loan Priority Collateral.

(b) The ABL Claimholders shall (i) use such real property and the Term Loan Priority Collateral in accordance with applicable law; (ii) obtain insurance for damage to property and liability to persons, including property and liability insurance, substantially similar to the insurance maintained by the Obligors, naming each of the Term Loan Collateral Agents as mortgagee, loss payee and additional insured, at no cost to the Term Loan Claimholders, but only to the extent such insurance is not otherwise in effect; and (iii) indemnify the Term Loan Claimholders from any claim, loss, damage, cost or liability arising out of any claim asserted by any third party as a result of any acts or omissions by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, or any of its agents or representatives, in connection with the exercise by the ABL Claimholders of their rights of access set forth in this Section 5.10. In no event shall any ABL Claimholders have any liability to the Term Loan Claimholders pursuant to this Section 5.10(b) or otherwise as a result of any condition on or with respect to such real property or the Term Loan Priority Collateral existing prior to the date of the exercise by the ABL Claimholders of their access rights under this Section 5.10(b), and the ABL Claimholders shall have no duty or liability to maintain such real property or the Term Loan Priority Collateral in a condition or manner better than that in which it was maintained prior to the access and/or use thereof by the ABL Claimholders.

(c) Each of the Term Loan Collateral Agents (x) shall, at the request of the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, provide reasonable cooperation to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent in connection with the manufacture, production, completion, handling, removal and sale of any ABL Priority Collateral by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent as provided above and (y) shall be entitled to receive, from the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, fair compensation and reimbursement for their reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with such cooperation, support and assistance to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent. Each of the Term Loan Collateral Agents and/or any such purchaser (or its transferee or successor) shall not otherwise be required to manufacture, produce, complete, remove, insure, protect, store, safeguard, sell or deliver any Inventory subject to any Lien held by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or to provide any support, assistance or cooperation to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent in respect thereof.

5.11 Obligor Consent. Each Obligor consents to the performance by each of the Term Loan Collateral Agents of the obligations set forth in Sections 5.8, 5.9 and 5.10 and acknowledges and agrees that no Term Loan Claimholder shall ever be accountable or liable for any action taken or omitted by any ABL Claimholder or its or any of their officers, employees, agents successors or assigns in connection therewith or incidental thereto or in consequence thereof.

SECTION 6. Insolvency or Liquidation Proceedings.

6.1 Finance and Sale Issues.

(a) Until the Discharge of Term Loan Obligations has occurred, if any Obligor shall be subject to any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding and the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent shall desire to permit the use of "Cash Collateral" (as such term is defined in Section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar Debtor Relief Law) constituting Term Loan Priority Collateral or to permit any Obligor to obtain financing, whether from the Term Loan Claimholders or any other Person, under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar Debtor Relief Law, that is (i) secured by Liens that are senior or pari passu with the Liens on the Term Loan Priority Collateral securing the Term Loan Obligations and (ii) secured by Liens that are junior to the Liens on the ABL Priority Collateral securing the ABL Obligations or not secured by the ABL Priority Collateral (each a "Term Loan DIP Financing"), then the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, agrees that it and its Related Claimholders will raise no objection to, or oppose or contest (or join with or support any third party opposing, objecting or contesting), such Cash Collateral use or Term Loan DIP Financing (including any proposed orders for such Cash Collateral use and/or Term Loan DIP Financing which are acceptable to the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent) and it and its Related Claimholders will be deemed to have consented to such Cash Collateral use or Term Loan DIP Financing (including such proposed orders), and to the extent the Liens on the Term Loan Priority Collateral securing the Term Loan Obligations are subordinated to or pari passu with such Term Loan DIP Financing, the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent will subordinate its Liens on the Term Loan Priority Collateral to the Liens securing such Term Loan DIP Financing (and all obligations relating thereto and any customary "carve-out" agreed to on behalf of the Term Loan Claimholders by the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent) and to all adequate protection Liens granted to the Term Loan Claimholders on property of the type constituting Term Loan Priority Collateral on the same basis as the Liens securing the ABL Obligations are subordinated to the Liens on the Term Loan Priority Collateral securing the Term Loan Obligations under this Agreement and will not request adequate protection or any other relief in connection therewith (except as expressly agreed by the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent or to the extent permitted by Section 6.3); provided that (i) the aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness for borrowed money under such DIP Financing plus the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Indebtedness for borrowed money under the Term Loan Financing Documents (which, for the avoidance of doubt, excludes any Term Loan Other Obligations) plus the aggregate face amount of any First Lien Letters of Credit (except any portion thereof that is no longer available for drawing as a result of any disbursement thereunder that has been reimbursed) does not exceed the Term Loan Cap Amount, (ii) the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders retain a Lien on the Collateral to secure the ABL Obligations, and, with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral only, with the same priority as existed prior to the commencement of the Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, (iii) the foregoing provisions of this Section 6.1(a) shall not prevent the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders from objecting to any provision in any Term Loan DIP Financing (or such use of Cash Collateral, as applicable) (x) relating to any provision or content of a plan of reorganization or liquidation that is inconsistent with this Agreement or (y) requiring any Obligor to seek any approval for any plan of reorganization or liquidation that is inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) Until the Discharge of ABL Obligations has occurred, if any Obligor shall be subject to any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding and the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent shall desire to permit the use of “Cash Collateral” (as such term is defined in Section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar Debtor Relief Law) constituting ABL Priority Collateral or to permit any Obligor to obtain financing, whether from the ABL Claimholders or any other Person, under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar Debtor Relief Law, that is (i) secured by Liens that are senior or pari passu with the Liens on the ABL Priority Collateral securing the ABL Obligations and (ii) secured by Liens that are junior to the Liens on the Term Loan Priority Collateral securing the Term Loan Obligations or not secured by the Term Loan Priority Collateral (each a “ABL DIP Financing”), then each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, agrees that it and its Related Claimholders will raise no objection to, or oppose or contest (or join with or support any third party opposing, objecting or contesting), such Cash Collateral use or ABL DIP Financing (including any proposed orders for such Cash Collateral use and/or ABL DIP Financing which are acceptable to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent) and it and its Related Claimholders will be deemed to have consented to such Cash Collateral use or ABL DIP Financing (including such proposed orders), and to the extent the Liens on the ABL Priority Collateral securing the ABL Obligations are subordinated to or pari passu with such ABL DIP Financing, each Term Loan Collateral Agent will subordinate its Liens on the ABL Priority Collateral to the Liens securing such ABL DIP Financing (and all obligations relating thereto and any customary “carve-out” agreed to on behalf of the ABL Claimholders by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent) and to all adequate protection Liens granted to the ABL Claimholders on property of the type constituting ABL Priority Collateral on the same basis as the Liens securing the Term Loan Obligations are subordinated to the Liens on the ABL Priority Collateral securing the ABL Obligations under this Agreement and will not request adequate protection or any other relief in connection therewith (except as expressly agreed by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or to the extent permitted by Section 6.3); provided that (i) the aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness for borrowed money under such DIP Financing plus the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Indebtedness for borrowed money under the ABL Financing Documents (which, for the avoidance of doubt, excludes any ABL Other Obligations) plus the aggregate face amount of any ABL Letters of Credit (except any portion thereof that is no longer available for drawing as a result of any disbursement thereunder that has been reimbursed) does not exceed the ABL Cap Amount, (ii) each Term Loan Collateral Agent and the other Term Loan Claimholders retain a Lien on the Collateral to secure the Term Loan Obligations, and, with respect to the Term Loan Priority Collateral only, with the same priority as existed prior to the commencement of the Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, (iii) the foregoing provisions of this Section 6.1(b) shall not prevent the Term Loan Collateral Agents and the Term Loan Claimholders from objecting to any provision in any ABL DIP Financing (or use of such Cash Collateral, as applicable) (x) relating to any provision or content of a plan of reorganization or liquidation that is inconsistent with this Agreement or (y) requiring any Obligor to seek any approval for any plan of reorganization or liquidation that is inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

(c) Each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders, agrees that it and its Related Claimholders will not seek consultation rights in connection with, and will raise no objection or oppose or contest (or join with or support any third party objecting, opposing or contesting), a motion to sell, liquidate or otherwise Dispose of Collateral in which the Junior Claimholders have a Junior Lien under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code if the requisite Senior Claimholders have consented to such sale, liquidation or other Disposition; provided that (1) to the extent the net cash proceeds of such sale or other Disposition are used to pay the principal amount of Indebtedness for borrowed money constituting Senior Obligations, or to reimburse disbursements under, or cash collateralize the face amount of, the Letters of Credit constituting Senior Obligations, the Liens of the Junior Claimholders shall attach to any remaining proceeds and (2) such motion does not impair the rights of the Junior Claimholders under Section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code; and provided, further, however, that the Junior Claimholders may assert any objection with respect to any proposed orders to retain professionals or set bid or related procedures in connection with such sale, liquidation or Disposition that may be raised by an unsecured creditor of the Obligors.

6.2 Relief from the Automatic Stay. Until the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred, each Junior Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders agrees that none of them shall (a) seek (or support any other Person seeking) relief from or modification of the automatic stay or any other stay in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding in respect of any of the Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien, in each case without the prior written consent of the Directing Senior Collateral Agent, or (b) oppose (or support any other Person in opposing) any request by any Senior Collateral Agent for relief from or modification of such stay.

6.3 Adequate Protection.

(a) The ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, agrees that none of them shall contest (or support any other Person contesting):

(i) any request by any Term Loan Collateral Agent or the other Term Loan Claimholders for adequate protection with respect to the Term Loan Priority Collateral under any Debtor Relief Law; or

(ii) any objection by any Term Loan Collateral Agent or the other Term Loan Claimholders to any motion, relief, action or proceeding based on such Term Loan Collateral Agent or the other Term Loan Claimholders claiming a lack of adequate protection with respect to the Term Loan Priority Collateral.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions in Section 6.3(a), in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding:

(i) if the Term Loan Claimholders (or any subset thereof) are granted adequate protection with respect to the Term Loan Priority Collateral in the form of a Lien on additional or replacement collateral in connection with any use of Cash Collateral or DIP Financing, then the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, may seek or request adequate protection in the form of a Lien on such additional or replacement collateral, which Lien will be subordinated to the Liens securing the Term Loan Obligations and such use of Cash Collateral or DIP Financing (and all obligations relating thereto) on the same basis as the other Liens securing the ABL Obligations are so subordinated to the Liens on the Term Loan Priority Collateral securing the Term Loan Obligations under this Agreement; and

(ii) the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders shall only be permitted to seek adequate protection with respect to their respective rights in the Term Loan Priority Collateral in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding in the form of (A) additional collateral; provided that as adequate protection for the Term Loan Obligations, each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, is also granted a Lien on such additional collateral that is senior to any Lien granted to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders; (B) replacement Liens on the Term Loan Priority Collateral; provided that as adequate protection for the Term Loan Obligations, each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, is also granted replacement Liens on the Term Loan Priority Collateral that are senior to any Lien granted to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders; (C) an administrative expense claim in respect of the Term Loan Priority Collateral; provided that as adequate protection for the Term Loan Obligations, each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, is also granted an administrative expense claim that is senior and prior to the administrative expense claim of the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders; (D) cash payments made with Term Loan Priority Collateral with respect to current fees and expenses; provided that (1) as adequate protection for the Term Loan Obligations, each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, is also granted cash payments made with Term Loan Priority Collateral with respect to current fees and expenses and (2) each Term Loan Collateral Agent may object to the amounts of fees and expenses sought by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders; and (E) cash payments made with Term Loan Priority Collateral with respect to interest on the ABL Obligations; provided that (1) as adequate protection for the Term Loan Obligations, each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, is also granted cash payments made with Term Loan Priority Collateral with respect to interest on the Term Loan Obligation represented by it, and (2) such cash payments do not exceed an amount equal to the interest accruing on the principal amount of ABL Obligations outstanding on the date such relief is granted at the interest rate under the applicable ABL Documents and accruing from the date the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent is granted such relief.

(c) Each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, agrees that none of them shall contest (or support any other Person contesting):

(i) any request by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or the other ABL Claimholders for adequate protection with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral under any Debtor Relief Law; or

(ii) any objection by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or the other ABL Claimholders to any motion, relief, action or proceeding based on the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or the other ABL Claimholders claiming a lack of adequate protection with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions in Section 6.3(c), in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding:

(i) if the ABL Claimholders (or any subset thereof) are granted adequate protection with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral in the form of a Lien on additional or replacement collateral in connection with any use of Cash Collateral or DIP Financing, then each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, may seek or request adequate protection in the form of a Lien on such additional or replacement collateral, which Lien will be subordinated to the Liens securing the ABL Obligations and such use of Cash Collateral or DIP Financing (and all obligations relating thereto) on the same basis as the other Liens securing the Term Loan Obligations are so subordinated to the Liens on the ABL Priority Collateral securing the ABL Obligations under this Agreement; and

(ii) each Term Loan Collateral Agent and the other Term Loan Claimholders shall only be permitted to seek adequate protection with respect to their respective rights in the ABL Priority Collateral in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding in the form of (A) additional collateral; provided that as adequate protection for the ABL Obligations, the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, is also granted a Lien on such additional collateral that is senior to any Lien granted to the Term Loan Collateral Agents and the other Term Loan Claimholders; (B) replacement Liens on the ABL Priority Collateral; provided that as adequate protection for the ABL Obligations, the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, is also granted replacement Liens on the ABL Priority Collateral that are senior to any Lien granted to the Term Loan Collateral Agents and the other Term Loan Claimholders; (C) an administrative expense claim in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral; provided that as adequate protection for the ABL Obligations, the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, is also granted an administrative expense claim that is senior and prior to the administrative expense claim of the Term Loan Collateral Agents and the other Term Loan Claimholders; (D) cash payments made with ABL Priority Collateral with respect to current fees and expenses; provided that (1) as adequate protection for the ABL Obligations, the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, is also granted cash payments made with ABL Priority Collateral with respect to current fees and expenses and (2) the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent may object to the amounts of fees and expenses sought by the Term Loan Collateral Agents and the other Term Loan Claimholders; and (E) cash payments made with ABL Priority Collateral with respect to interest on the Term Loan Obligations; provided that (1) as adequate protection for the ABL Obligations, the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, is also granted cash payments made with ABL Priority Collateral with respect to interest on the ABL Obligation represented by it, and (2) such cash payments do not exceed an amount equal to the interest accruing on the principal amount of Term Loan Obligations outstanding on the date such relief is granted at the interest rate under the applicable Term Loan Documents and accruing from the date the Term Loan Collateral Agents are granted such relief.

6.4 No Waiver. Subject to Section 6.7(b), nothing contained herein shall prohibit or in any way limit any Senior Collateral Agent or any other Senior Claimholder from objecting in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise to any action taken by any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholders, including the seeking by any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholders of adequate protection or the asserting by any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholders of any of its rights and remedies under the Junior Financing Documents or otherwise, in each case in respect of such Junior Claimholder's Liens in respect of the Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien. Without limiting the foregoing, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Senior Claimholders shall not be deemed to have consented to, and expressly retain their rights to object to, the grant of adequate protection in the form of cash payments to the Junior Claimholders made pursuant to Section 6.3(b) or (d), as applicable.

6.5 Reinstatement. If any Senior Claimholder is required in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise to turn over or otherwise pay to the estate of any Obligor any amount paid in respect of Senior Obligations (a "Recovery"), then such Senior Claimholder shall be entitled to a reinstatement of its Senior Obligations with respect to all such recovered amounts on the date of such Recovery, and from and after the date of such reinstatement the Discharge of Senior Obligations and the Discharge of Term Loan Obligations or the Discharge of ABL Obligations, as applicable, shall be deemed not to have occurred for all purposes hereunder. If this Agreement shall have been terminated prior to such Recovery, this Agreement shall be reinstated in full force and effect, and such prior termination shall not diminish, release, discharge, impair or otherwise affect the obligations of the parties hereto from such date of reinstatement. Any amounts received by any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholder on account of the Junior Obligations after the termination of this Agreement shall, upon a reinstatement of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 6.5, be held in trust for and paid over to the Directing Senior Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Senior Claimholders, for application to the reinstated Senior Obligations. This Section 6.5 shall survive termination of this Agreement.

6.6 Reorganization Securities. If, in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, debt obligations of the reorganized debtor secured by Liens upon any property of the reorganized debtor are distributed pursuant to a plan of reorganization, arrangement, compromise or liquidation or similar dispositive restructuring plan, both on account of ABL Obligations and on account of Term Loan Obligations, then, to the extent the debt obligations distributed on account of the ABL Obligations and on account of the Term Loan Obligations are secured by Liens upon the same property, the provisions of this Agreement will survive the distribution of such debt obligations pursuant to such plan and will apply with like effect to the Liens securing such debt obligations.

6.7 Post-Petition Interest.

(a) Each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders, agrees that neither it nor its Related Claimholders shall oppose or seek to challenge (or join with any other Person opposing or challenging) any claim by any Senior Collateral Agent or any other Senior Claimholder for allowance in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding of Senior Obligations consisting of Post-Petition Interest to the extent of the value of the Senior Claimholders' Lien on the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien. Regardless of whether any such claim for Post-Petition Interest is allowed or allowable, and without limiting the generality of the other provisions of this Agreement, this Agreement expressly is intended to include, and does include the "rule of explicitness," and is intended to provide the Senior Claimholders with the right to receive payment of all Post-Petition Interest through distributions made pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement on account of the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien even though such Post-Petition Interest may not be not allowed or allowable against the bankruptcy estate of the Parent Borrower or any other Obligor under Section 502(b)(2) or Section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or under any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or any other Debtor Relief Law.

(b) Subject to Sections 6.3(b) and (d), none of any Senior Collateral Agent nor any of its Related Claimholders shall oppose or seek to challenge any claim by any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholder for allowance in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding of Junior Obligations consisting of Post-Petition Interest to the extent of the value of the Lien of any Junior Collateral Agent, on behalf of the Junior Claimholders, on the Junior Claimholders' Lien on the Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien (after taking into account the amount of the Senior Obligations).

6.8 Waivers. (a) Each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders, waives any claim it or its Related Claimholders may hereafter have against any Senior Claimholder arising out of (a) the election of any Senior Claimholder of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to any Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien or (b) any cash collateral or financing arrangement, or any grant of a security interest in connection with the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien, in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding so long as such actions are not in express contravention of the terms of this Agreement.

(b) Each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders, agrees that it will not assert or enforce any claim under Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar provision of any other Debtor Relief Law senior to or on a parity with the Senior Liens on the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien securing the Senior Obligations for costs or expenses of preserving or disposing of any such Collateral.

6.9 Separate Grants of Security and Separate Classification. Each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders, and each Senior Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders, acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) the grants of Liens pursuant to the Senior Collateral Documents and the Junior Collateral Documents constitute, and, in the case of the Shared Collateral Documents, are intended to constitute, two separate and distinct grants of Liens; and

(b) because of, among other things, their differing rights in the Collateral, the Junior Obligations are fundamentally different from the Senior Obligations and must, subject to applicable law, be separately classified in any plan of reorganization proposed or adopted in an Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding.

To further effectuate the intent of the parties as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, if it is held that the claims of the Senior Claimholders and the Junior Claimholders in respect of any Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of senior and junior secured claims), then each of the parties hereto hereby acknowledges and agrees that, subject to Sections 2.1 and 4.1, all distributions shall be made as if there were separate classes of senior and junior secured claims against the Obligors in respect of such Collateral with the effect being that, to the extent that the aggregate value of the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien is sufficient (for this purpose ignoring all claims held by the Junior Claimholders), the Senior Claimholders shall be entitled to receive, in addition to amounts distributed to them in respect of principal, pre-petition interest and other claims, all amounts owing (or that would be owing if there were such separate classes of senior and junior secured claims) in respect of Post-Petition Interest, including any additional interest payable pursuant to the Senior Documents arising from or related to a default, regardless of whether any such claim is allowed or allowable in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, before any distribution is made in respect of the claims held by the Junior Claimholders with respect to such Collateral, with each Junior Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of its Related Claimholders, hereby acknowledging and agreeing to turn over to the Directing Senior Collateral Agent, for itself and on behalf of the Senior Claimholders, such Collateral or proceeds of such Collateral or any other distribution (whether or not expressly characterized as such) in respect of such Collateral, otherwise received or receivable by them to the extent necessary to effectuate the intent of this sentence, even if such turnover has the effect of reducing the claim or recovery of the Junior Claimholders.

6.10 Effectiveness in Insolvency or Liquidation Proceedings. The parties acknowledge that this Agreement is a “subordination agreement” under Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and under comparable provisions of any other applicable Debtor Relief Law, which will be effective before, during and after the commencement of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. All references in this Agreement to any Obligor will include such Person as a debtor-in- possession and any receiver or trustee for such Person in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding.

SECTION 7. Reliance; Waivers; Etc.

7.1 Reliance. Other than any reliance on the terms of this Agreement, the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, acknowledges that it and its Related Claimholders have, independently and without reliance on any Term Loan Collateral Agent or any other Term Loan Claimholder, and based on documents and information deemed by them appropriate, made their own credit analysis and decision to enter into each of the ABL Documents (as applicable) and be bound by the terms of this Agreement, and they will continue to make their own credit decision in taking or not taking any action under the ABL Documents or this Agreement. Each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, acknowledges that it and its Related Claimholders have, independently and without reliance on the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or any other ABL Claimholder, and based on documents and information deemed by them appropriate, made their own credit analysis and decision to enter into each of the Term Loan Documents and be bound by the terms of this Agreement, and they will continue to make their own credit decision in taking or not taking any action under the Term Loan Documents or this Agreement.

7.2 No Warranties or Liability.

(a) The ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, acknowledges and agrees that, except as set forth in Section 8.14, no Term Loan Collateral Agent or other Term Loan Claimholders have made any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the execution, validity, legality, completeness, collectability or enforceability of any of the Term Loan Documents, the ownership of any Collateral or the perfection or priority of any Liens thereon. The Term Loan Claimholders will be entitled to manage and supervise their respective extensions of credit under the Term Loan Documents in accordance with law and as they may otherwise, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate.

(b) Each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, acknowledges and agrees that, except as set forth in Section 8.14, neither the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent nor other ABL Claimholders have made any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the execution, validity, legality, completeness, collectability or enforceability of any of the ABL Documents, the ownership of any Collateral or the perfection or priority of any Liens thereon. The ABL Claimholders will be entitled to manage and supervise their respective loans and extensions of credit under the ABL Documents in accordance with law and as they may otherwise, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate.

(c) The Term Loan Collateral Agents and the other Term Loan Claimholders shall have no duty to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or any of the other ABL Claimholders, and the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders shall have no duty to the Term Loan Collateral Agents or any of the other Term Loan Claimholders, to act or refrain from acting in a manner which allows, or results in, the occurrence or continuance of an event of default or default under any agreements with any Obligor (including the ABL Financing Documents and the Term Loan Financing Documents, but in each case other than this Agreement), regardless of any knowledge thereof which they may have or be charged with.

7.3 No Waiver of Lien Priorities.

(a) No right of the Senior Collateral Agents or any other Senior Claimholders, or any of them, to enforce any provision of this Agreement or of any Senior Document with respect to their Liens on the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien shall at any time in any way be prejudiced or impaired by any act or failure to act on the part of any Obligor or by any act or failure to act by any Senior Collateral Agent or any other Senior Claimholder, or by any noncompliance by any Person with the terms, provisions and covenants of this Agreement, any of the Senior Documents or any of the Junior Documents, regardless of any knowledge thereof which the Senior Collateral Agents or the other Senior Claimholders, or any of them, may have or be otherwise charged with.

(b) Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing paragraph (a) (but subject to the rights of the Senior Obligor under the Senior Documents and subject to the provisions of Section 5.3(a)), the Senior Collateral Agents and the other Senior Claimholders, or any of them, may at any time and from time to time in accordance with the Senior Documents and/or applicable law, without the consent of, or notice to, any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholders, without incurring any liabilities to any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholders and without impairing or releasing the Lien priorities and other benefits provided in this Agreement (even if any right of subrogation or other right or remedy of any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholders is affected, impaired or extinguished thereby) do any one or more of the following:

(1) make loans and advances to any Obligor or issue, provide or obtain Letters of Credit for the account of any Obligor or otherwise extend credit to any Obligor, in any amount and on any terms, whether pursuant to a commitment or as a discretionary advance and whether or not any default or event of default or failure of condition is then continuing;

(2) change the manner, place or terms of payment of, or change or extend the time of payment of, or amend, renew, exchange, increase or alter the terms of, any of the Senior Obligations or any Lien on any Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien or guaranty thereof or any liability of any Obligor, or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof (including any increase in or extension of the Senior Obligations, without any restriction as to the tenor or terms of any such increase or extension) or otherwise amend, renew, exchange, extend, modify or supplement in any manner any Liens held by any Senior Collateral Agent or any of the other Senior Claimholders, the Senior Obligations or any of the Senior Documents;

(3) sell, exchange, release, surrender, realize upon, enforce or otherwise deal with in any manner and in any order any part of the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien or any liability of any Obligor to any Senior Collateral Agent or any other Senior Claimholders, or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof;

(4) settle or compromise any Senior Obligation or any other liability of any Obligor or any security therefor or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof and apply any sums by whomsoever paid and however realized to any liability (including the Senior Obligations) in any manner or order;

(5) exercise or delay in or refrain from exercising any right or remedy against any Obligor or any security or any other Person or with respect to any security, elect any remedy and otherwise deal freely with any Obligor or any Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien and any security and any guarantor or any liability of any Obligor to the Senior Claimholders or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof; and

(6) release or discharge any Senior Obligation or any guaranty thereof or any agreement or obligation of any Obligor or any other Person or entity with respect thereto.

(c) Until the Discharge of Senior Obligations, each Junior Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, agrees not to assert and hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right to demand, request, plead or otherwise assert or otherwise claim the benefit of, any marshalling, appraisal, valuation or other similar right that may otherwise be available under applicable law with respect to the Collateral on which it has a Junior Lien or any other similar rights a junior secured creditor may have under applicable law.

7.4 Waiver of Liability.

(a) Each Junior Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, agrees that the Senior Collateral Agents and the other Senior Claimholders shall have no liability to any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholders, and each Junior Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, hereby waives any claim against any Senior Collateral Agent or any other Senior Claimholder, arising out of any and all actions which any Senior Collateral Agent or any other Senior Claimholders may take or permit or omit to take with respect to: (i) the Senior Documents (including, without limitation, any failure to perfect or obtain perfected security interests in the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien), (ii) the collection of the Senior Obligations or (iii) the foreclosure upon, or sale, liquidation or other Disposition of, any Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien. Each Junior Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, also agrees that the Senior Collateral Agents and the other Senior Claimholders have no duty, express or implied, fiduciary or otherwise, to them in respect of the maintenance or preservation of the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien, the Senior Obligations or otherwise. Neither the Senior Collateral Agents nor any other Senior Claimholder nor any of their respective directors, officers, employees or agents will be liable for failure to demand, collect or realize upon any of the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien or for any delay in doing so, or will be under any obligation to sell or otherwise Dispose of any such Collateral upon the request of any Obligor or upon the request of any Junior Collateral Agent, any other Junior Claimholder or any other Person or to take any other action whatsoever with regard to such Collateral or any part thereof. Without limiting the foregoing, each Junior Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, agrees that neither any Senior Collateral Agent nor any other Senior Claimholder (in directing the Senior Collateral Agent to take any action with respect to the Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien) shall have any duty or obligation to realize first upon any Collateral in which a Senior Claimholder has a Senior Lien or to sell or otherwise Dispose of all or any portion of such Collateral in any manner, including as a result of the application of the principles of marshaling or otherwise, that would maximize the return to any Senior Claimholders or any Junior Claimholders, notwithstanding that the order and timing of any such realization, sale or other Disposition may affect the amount of proceeds actually received by such Claimholders from such realization, sale or other Disposition.

(b) With respect to its share of the ABL Obligations, BoA shall have and may exercise the same rights and powers hereunder as, and shall be subject to the same obligations and liabilities as and to the extent set forth herein for, any other Claimholder, all as if BoA were not the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent. With respect to its share of the First Lien Obligations, BoA shall have and may exercise the same rights and powers hereunder as, and shall be subject to the same obligations and liabilities as and to the extent set forth herein for, any other Claimholder, all as if BoA were not the First Lien Credit Agreement Collateral Agent. With respect to its share of the Second Lien Obligations, Ankura shall have and may exercise the same rights and powers hereunder as, and shall be subject to the same obligations and liabilities as and to the extent set forth herein for, any other Claimholder, all as if Ankura were not the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent. The term "Claimholders" or any similar term shall, unless the context clearly otherwise indicates, include BoA, and Ankura, each in its individual capacity as a Claimholder. BoA and Ankura and their respective Affiliates may lend money to, and generally engage in any kind of business with, the Obligors or any of their Affiliates as if BoA were not acting as the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or the First Lien Credit Agreement Administrative Agent and Ankura were not acting as the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent and without any duty to account hereof to any other Claimholder.

7.5 Obligations Unconditional. All rights, interests, agreements and obligations of the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders and the Term Loan Collateral Agents and the other Term Loan Claimholders, respectively, hereunder (including the Lien priorities established hereby) shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of:

- (a) any lack of validity or enforceability of any ABL Documents or any Term Loan Documents;
- (b) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or, subject to the limitations set forth in Section 5.3, in any other terms of, all or any of the ABL Obligations or Term Loan Obligations, or any amendment or waiver or other modification, including any increase in the amount thereof, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, of the terms of any ABL Document or any Term Loan Document;
- (c) any exchange of any security interest in any Collateral or any other collateral, or any amendment, waiver or other modification, whether in writing or by course of conduct or otherwise, of all or any of the ABL Obligations or Term Loan Obligations or any guaranty thereof;
- (d) the commencement of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding in respect of any Obligor; or
- (e) any other circumstances which otherwise might constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, any Obligor in respect of the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, any other ABL Claimholder, the ABL Obligations, any Term Loan Collateral Agent, any other Term Loan Claimholder or the Term Loan Obligations in respect of this Agreement.

SECTION 8. Miscellaneous.

8.1 Conflicts.

(a) In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of the ABL Documents or the Term Loan Documents, the provisions of this Agreement shall govern and control.

(b) The parties hereto acknowledge, authorize and consent to the entry by the Term Loan Collateral Agents into the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement with respect to the rights and obligations of the Term Loan Collateral Agents and the other Term Loan Claimholders to each other in respect of the Term Loan Collateral, the provisions of the First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement shall control.

8.2 Effectiveness; Continuing Nature of this Agreement; Severability. This Agreement shall become effective when executed and delivered by the parties hereto. This is a continuing agreement of Lien subordination and each of the ABL Claimholders and the Term Loan Claimholders may continue, at any time and without notice to any Term Loan Collateral Agent or any other Term Loan Claimholder or the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or any other ABL Claimholder, to extend credit and other financial accommodations and lend monies to or for the benefit of any Obligor constituting ABL Obligations and/or Term Loan Obligations in reliance hereon. Each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, hereby waives any right it may have under applicable law to revoke this Agreement or any of the provisions of this Agreement. The ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, hereby waives any right it may have under applicable law to revoke this Agreement or any of the provisions of this Agreement. The terms of this Agreement shall survive, and shall continue in full force and effect, in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction. All references to any Obligor shall include such Obligor as debtor and debtor-in-possession and any receiver, trustee or similar Person for any Obligor (as the case may be) in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. This Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force and effect:

(a) with respect to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, the other ABL Claimholders and the ABL Obligations, upon the Discharge of ABL Obligations, subject to Section 5.6 and the rights of the ABL Claimholders under Section 6.5; and

(b) with respect to any Term Loan Collateral Agent, the other Term Loan Claimholders and the Term Loan Obligations, upon the Discharge of Term Loan Obligations.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, such termination shall not relieve any such party of its obligations incurred hereunder prior to the date of such termination.

8.3 Amendments; Waivers. Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be amended, modified or waived except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, each Term Loan Collateral Agent then party hereto and each Obligor then party hereto; provided that (a) the Obligors, the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent may, at the reasonable expense of the Obligors and without the written consent of any other ABL Claimholder or any other Term Loan Claimholder, agree to any amendment to or other modifications of this Agreement for the purpose of giving effect to Section 8.21 or any Refinancing of any ABL Obligations or Term Loan Obligations and (b) additional Obligors may be added as parties hereto upon the execution and delivery of a counterpart of the Intercreditor Joinder Agreement in the form of Exhibit A hereto in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.18. Each of the Obligors, ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent shall execute and deliver an amendment or other modification of this Agreement at the other's request to permit new creditors to become a party hereto as set forth in the proviso to the immediately preceding sentence. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other ABL Document or Term Loan Document, the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent may, with the consent of the Parent Borrower, make any amendments, restatements, amendment and restatements, supplements or other modifications to this Agreement to correct any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency contained herein without the consent of any other Person. Each waiver of the terms of this Agreement, if any, shall be a waiver only with respect to the specific instance involved and shall in no way impair the rights of the parties making such waiver or the obligations of the other parties owed to such party in any other respect or at any other time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Obligor shall have any right to consent to or approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement except (w) to the extent such amendment, modification or waiver imposes any additional obligation or liability upon such Obligor, (x) to the extent such Obligor's rights are directly and adversely affected by such amendment, modification or waiver, (y) to the extent applicable to such Obligor, with respect to any provision identified in Section 8.16 or (z) any amendment, modification or waiver of the ABL Cap Amount or the Term Loan Cap Amount, if the effect of such amendment, modification or waiver is to reduce the amount thereof from the amount thereof in effect on the date hereof; provided, however, that the Parent Borrower shall be given notice of any amendment, modification or waiver of this Agreement promptly after the effectiveness thereof (it being understood that the failure to deliver such notice to the Parent Borrower shall in no way impact the effectiveness of any such amendment, modification or waiver).

8.4 Information Concerning Financial Condition of the Obligors and their Subsidiaries. The ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders, on the one hand, and the Term Loan Collateral Agents (other than the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent) and the other Term Loan Claimholders, on the other hand, shall be responsible for keeping themselves informed of (a) the financial condition of the Obligors and their subsidiaries and all endorsers and/or guarantors of the ABL Obligations or the Term Loan Obligations and (b) all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the ABL Obligations or the Term Loan Obligations. The ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, the Term Loan Collateral Agents, the ABL Claimholders and the Term Loan Claimholders shall have no duty to advise any other party of information known to it or them regarding such condition or any such circumstances or otherwise. In the event the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, any Term Loan Collateral Agents, any ABL Claimholders or any Term Loan Claimholders, in its or their sole discretion, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any such information to any other party, it or they shall be under no obligation:

- (i) to make, and such person shall not make, any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the accuracy, completeness, truthfulness or validity of any such information so provided;
- (ii) to provide any additional information or to provide any such information on any subsequent occasion;
- (iii) to undertake any investigation; or
- (iv) to disclose any information, which pursuant to accepted or reasonable commercial finance practices, such party wishes to maintain confidential or is otherwise required to maintain confidential.

8.5 Subrogation. With respect to the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets that any Junior Collateral Agent or any other Junior Claimholder pays over to the Senior Collateral Agent or the other Senior Claimholders under the terms of this Agreement, such Junior Collateral Agent or such other Junior Claimholder shall be subrogated to the rights of each Senior Collateral Agent and the other Senior Claimholders; provided that each Junior Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, hereby agrees that neither it nor its Related Claimholders shall assert or enforce any such rights of subrogation it may acquire with respect to its Liens on the Collateral in which a Junior Claimholder has a Junior Lien as a result of any payment hereunder until the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred. Each Obligor acknowledges and agrees that the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets received by any Junior Collateral Agent or the other Junior Claimholders and paid over to the Senior Collateral Agent or the other Senior Claimholders pursuant to, and applied in accordance with, this Agreement, shall not relieve or reduce any of the Junior Obligations under the Junior Documents.

8.6 Application of Payments. All payments received by any Senior Collateral Agent or the other Senior Claimholders may be applied, reversed and reapplied, in whole or in part, to such part of the Senior Obligations as the Senior Claimholders, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate. Each Junior Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, consents to any extension or postponement of the time of payment of the Senior Obligations or any part thereof and to any other indulgence with respect thereto, to any substitution, exchange or release of any security which may at any time secure any part of the Senior Obligations and to the addition or release of any other Person primarily or secondarily liable therefor.

8.7 SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION; WAIVERS.

(a) EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO (IN THE CASE OF EACH COLLATERAL AGENT, FOR ITSELF AND ON BEHALF OF ITS RELATED CLAIMHOLDERS) HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY SUBMITS, FOR ITSELF AND ITS PROPERTY, TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK SITTING IN NEW YORK COUNTY AND OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT OF THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, AND ANY APPELLATE COURT FROM ANY THEREOF, IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, OR FOR RECOGNITION OR ENFORCEMENT OF ANY JUDGMENT, AND EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO (IN THE CASE OF EACH COLLATERAL AGENT, FOR ITSELF AND ON BEHALF OF ITS RELATED CLAIMHOLDERS) HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY AGREES THAT ALL CLAIMS IN RESPECT OF ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE HEARD AND DETERMINED IN SUCH NEW YORK STATE OR, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN SUCH FEDERAL COURT. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO (IN THE CASE OF EACH COLLATERAL AGENT, FOR ITSELF AND ON BEHALF OF ITS RELATED CLAIMHOLDERS) AGREES THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AND MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT. (IN THE CASE OF EACH COLLATERAL AGENT, FOR ITSELF AND ON BEHALF OF ITS RELATED CLAIMHOLDERS).

(b) EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT (IN THE CASE OF EACH COLLATERAL AGENT, FOR ITSELF AND ON BEHALF OF ITS RELATED CLAIMHOLDERS) IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN THE MANNER PROVIDED FOR NOTICES IN SECTION 8.8. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT WILL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW.

(c) EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES (IN THE CASE OF EACH COLLATERAL AGENT, FOR ITSELF AND ON BEHALF OF ITS RELATED CLAIMHOLDERS), TO THE FULLEST EXTENT IT MAY LEGALLY AND EFFECTIVELY DO SO, ANY OBJECTION WHICH THEY MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT IN ANY COURT REFERRED TO IN PARAGRAPH (A) OF THIS SECTION 8.7. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT.

EACH PARTY HERETO (IN THE CASE OF EACH COLLATERAL AGENT, FOR ITSELF AND ON BEHALF OF ITS RELATED CLAIMHOLDERS) (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

8.8 Notices. All notices to the ABL Claimholders and the Term Loan Claimholders permitted or required under this Agreement shall also be sent to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the related Term Loan Collateral Agent, respectively (and, for this purpose, (i) the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent shall be deemed to be an agent for the ABL Secured Swap Obligations and ABL Banking Services Obligations, (ii) the Directing First Lien Collateral Agent shall be deemed to be an agent for the First Lien Secured Swap Obligations and the First Lien Banking Services Obligations, and (iii) the Directing Second Lien Collateral Agent shall be deemed to be an agent for the Second Lien Secured Swap Obligations and the Second Lien Banking Services Obligations). Unless otherwise specifically provided herein, any notice hereunder shall be in writing and may be personally served, sent by facsimile or sent by other electronic transmission or United States mail or courier service and shall be deemed to have been given when delivered in person or by courier service and signed for against receipt thereof, upon receipt of facsimile or other electronic transmission, or three (3) Business Days after depositing it in the United States mail with postage prepaid and properly addressed. For the purposes hereof, the addresses of the parties hereto shall be as set forth below each party's name on the signature pages hereto, or, as to each party, at such other address as may be designated by such party in a written notice to all of the other parties.

8.9 Further Assurances. The ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, and each Term Loan Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and its Related Claimholders, and each Obligor, agrees that each of them shall take such further action and shall execute and deliver such additional documents and instruments (in recordable form, if requested) as the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent may reasonably request to effectuate the terms of and the Lien priorities contemplated by this Agreement.

8.10 CHOICE OF LAW. THIS AGREEMENT AND ANY CLAIM, CONTROVERSY, DISPUTE OR CAUSE OF ACTION (WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR TORT OR OTHERWISE) BASED UPON, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

8.11 Binding on Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, the ABL Claimholders, each First Lien Collateral Agent, the other First Lien Claimholders, each Second Lien Collateral Agent, the other Second Lien Claimholders and their respective successors and permitted assigns. If the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, any First Lien Collateral Agent or any Second Lien Collateral Agent resigns or is replaced pursuant to the ABL Documents, the First Lien Documents or the Second Lien Documents, as applicable, its successor shall be deemed to be a party to this Agreement and shall have all the rights of, and be subject to all the obligations of, this Agreement.

8.12 Headings. Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and shall not affect the construction of, or be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

8.13 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Agreement constitutes the entire contract among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the parties hereto and the parties hereto shall have received counterparts hereof which, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto, and thereafter shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic transmission (e.g., "PDF" or TIFF") shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

8.14 Authorization; Binding Effect on Claimholders. By its signature, each Person executing this Agreement on behalf of a party hereto represents and warrants to the other parties hereto that it is duly authorized to execute this Agreement. Each ABL Claimholder and each Term Loan Claimholder, by its acceptance of the benefits of the ABL Documents and Term Loan Documents, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have agreed to be bound by the agreements made herein, including the agreements made by any Collateral Agent on its behalf.

8.15 Exclusive Means of Exercising Rights under this Agreement.

(a) The ABL Claimholders shall be deemed to have irrevocably appointed the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent as their exclusive agent hereunder. Consistent with such appointment, the ABL Claimholders further shall be deemed to have agreed that only the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent (and not any individual claimholder or group of claimholders) as agent for the ABL Claimholders, or any of the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent's agents, shall have the right on their behalf to exercise any rights, powers, and/or remedies under or in connection with this Agreement (including bringing any action to interpret or otherwise enforce the provisions of this Agreement); provided that (i) holders of the ABL Secured Swap Obligations and the ABL Banking Services Obligations may exercise customary netting and set off rights under the ABL Swap Contracts and ABL Banking Services Agreements to which they are, respectively, a party, (ii) cash collateral may be held pursuant to the terms of the ABL Documents (including any relating to ABL Swap Contracts) and any such individual ABL Claimholder may act against such cash collateral in accordance with the terms of the relevant ABL Document or applicable law and (iii) the ABL Claimholders may exercise customary rights of setoff against depository or other accounts maintained with them in accordance with the terms of the relevant ABL Document or applicable law. Specifically, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no ABL Claimholder or group of ABL Claimholders, other than the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent (acting at the direction of, or pursuant to a grant of authority by, the Required ABL Claimholders), shall be entitled to take or file, and shall be precluded from taking or filing (whether in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise), any action, judicial or otherwise, to enforce any right or power or pursue any remedy under this Agreement (including any declaratory judgment or other action to interpret or otherwise enforce the provisions of this Agreement), except solely as provided in the proviso in the immediately preceding sentence.

(b) The Term Loan Claimholders shall be deemed to have irrevocably appointed the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent as their exclusive agent hereunder. Consistent with such appointment, the Term Loan Claimholders further shall be deemed to have agreed that only the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent (and not any individual claimholder or group of claimholders) as agent for the Term Loan Claimholders, or any of the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent's agents, shall have the right on their behalf to exercise any rights, powers, and/or remedies under or in connection with this Agreement (including bringing any action to interpret or otherwise enforce the provisions of this Agreement); provided that, subject to the limitations, restrictions and other agreements set forth herein, (i) holders of First Lien Secured Swap Obligations, the First Lien Banking Services Obligations, Second Lien Secured Swap Obligations and Second Lien Banking Services Obligations may exercise customary netting and set off rights under the First Lien Swap Contracts, the First Lien Banking Services Agreements, the Second Lien Swap Contracts and the Second Lien Banking Services Agreements to which they are, respectively, a party, (ii) cash collateral may be held pursuant to the terms of the Term Loan Documents (including any relating to First Lien Swap Contracts or Second Lien Swap Contracts) and any such individual Term Loan Claimholder may act against such cash collateral in accordance with the terms of the relevant Term Loan Document or applicable law and (iii) the Term Loan Claimholders may exercise customary rights of setoff against depository or other accounts maintained with them in accordance with the terms of the relevant Term Loan Document or applicable law. Specifically, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Term Loan Claimholder or group of Term Loan Claimholders, other than the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent (acting at the direction of, or pursuant to a grant of authority by, the Required Term Loan Claimholders), shall not be entitled to take or file, but instead shall be precluded from taking or filing (whether in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise), any action, judicial or otherwise, to enforce any right or power or pursue any remedy under this Agreement (including any declaratory judgment or other action to interpret or otherwise enforce the provisions of this Agreement), except solely as provided in the proviso in the immediately preceding sentence.

8.16 No Third Party Beneficiaries; Provisions Solely to Define Relative Rights. This Agreement and the rights and benefits hereof shall inure to the benefit of each of the parties hereto and its respective successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of each of the ABL Claimholders and the Term Loan Claimholders. The provisions of this Agreement are and are intended solely for the purpose of defining the relative rights of the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the other ABL Claimholders, on the one hand, and the Term Loan Collateral Agent and the other Term Loan Claimholders, on the other hand. None of the Obligors shall have any rights hereunder and no Obligor may rely on the terms hereof, other than any provision hereof expressly preserving any right of, or directly affecting, any Obligor under this Agreement, any ABL Document or any Term Loan Document, including Sections 3.1 (as to the definition of “Standstill Period”), 4.1, 5.1, 5.2, 5.3, 5.4, 5.6, 5.8, 5.9, 5.10, 6.1, 6.2, 7.1, 8.1, 8.2, 8.3, 8.6, 8.7, 8.8, 8.9, 8.10, 8.11, 8.13, 8.14, 8.15, this Section 8.16, Sections 8.17, 8.18, and 8.21. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to or shall impair the obligations of the Obligors, which are absolute and unconditional, to pay the ABL Obligations and the Term Loan Obligations as and when the same shall become due and payable in accordance with their terms.

8.17 No Indirect Actions. Unless otherwise expressly stated, if a party may not take an action under this Agreement, then it may not take that action indirectly, or support any other Person in taking that action directly or indirectly. “Taking an action indirectly” means taking an action that is not expressly prohibited for the party but is intended to have substantially the same effects as the prohibited action; provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 8.17 shall be deemed to limit the right of any party hereto to vote on any plan of reorganization, arrangement, compromise or liquidation or similar dispositive restructuring plan in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding to the extent not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

8.18 Obligors; Additional Obligors. It is understood and agreed that the Initial Borrower, the Parent Borrower and each other Obligor on the date of this Agreement shall constitute the original Obligors party hereto. The original Obligors hereby covenant and agree to cause each subsidiary of the Parent Borrower which becomes a “Guarantor” as defined in the ABL Credit Agreement, the First Lien Credit Agreement or the Second Lien Notes Indenture (or any similar term in any other First Lien Financing Document or Second Lien Financing Document) after the date hereof to become a party hereto (as an Obligor) by duly executing and delivering a counterpart of the Intercreditor Joinder Agreement in the form of Exhibit A hereto to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent in accordance with the relevant provisions of the relevant ABL Financing Documents and/or Term Loan Financing Documents, as applicable. The parties hereto further agree that, notwithstanding any failure to take the actions required by the immediately preceding sentence, each Person which becomes a “Guarantor” as defined in the ABL Credit Agreement, the First Lien Credit Agreement or the Second Lien Notes Indenture (or any similar term in any other ABL Financing Document or Term Loan Financing Document) at any time shall be subject to the provisions hereof as fully as if same constituted an Obligor party hereto and had complied with the requirements of the immediately preceding sentence.

8.19 Right of Collateral Agent to Continue. Any Person serving as a First Lien Collateral Agent shall be entitled to continue, including to continue to perform his, her or its rights, obligations and duties, as a First Lien Collateral Agent, notwithstanding whether any such Person has served or is serving as the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent. Without limiting the generality of the preceding sentence of this Section 8.19, any Person serving as a First Lien Collateral Agent shall be entitled to continue to so serve in such capacity (including to continue to perform any of such First Lien Collateral Agent's rights, obligations, and/or duties) even if any such Person has resigned as the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, but such resignation has not become effective for any reason, without any liability to any of the Claimholders by virtue of any such resignation and any of the circumstances relating in any manner whatsoever to such resignation.

8.20 Claimholders. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, it is understood and agreed that this Agreement only applies to the Claimholders in their capacities as holders of the Obligations. Without limiting the foregoing, this Agreement does not restrict or apply to the Claimholders in their capacities as holders of any Indebtedness or other obligations of the Obligors other than the Obligations, or in their capacities as holders of equity interests of the Obligors.

8.21 Additional Lien Obligations. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Obligors will be permitted from time to time to designate as an additional holder of First Lien Obligations and/or Second Lien Obligations hereunder each Person that is, or that becomes or is to become, the holder of any Additional Lien Obligations (or the Additional Liens Obligations Agent in respect of such Additional Liens Obligations). Upon the issuance or incurrence of any such Additional Lien Obligations:

(a) The Parent Borrower shall deliver to each of the Collateral Agents a certificate of a Responsible Officer stating that the applicable Obligors intend to enter or have entered into an Additional Lien Obligations Agreement and certifying that the issuance or incurrence of such Additional Lien Obligations and the Liens securing such Additional Lien Obligations are permitted by the ABL Financing Documents, and the then existing First Lien Financing Documents, and Second Lien Financing Documents. Each of the Additional Lien Obligations Agents, the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, the First Lien Collateral Agents and the Second Lien Collateral Agents shall be entitled to rely conclusively on the determination of the Parent Borrower that such issuance and/or incurrence is permitted under the ABL Financing Documents and the then existing First Lien Financing Documents and Second Lien Financing Documents if such determination is set forth in such officer's certificate delivered to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, the First Lien Collateral Agents and the Second Lien Collateral Agents; provided, however, that such determination will not affect whether or not the Obligors have complied with their undertakings in the ABL Financing Documents or the then existing First Lien Financing Document and Second Lien Financing Documents;

(b) the Additional Liens Obligations Agent for such Additional Lien Obligations shall execute and deliver to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, the First Lien Collateral Agents and the Second Lien Collateral Agents a joinder agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent, identifying whether such Additional Liens Obligations are First Lien Obligations or Second Lien Obligations and acknowledging that such Additional Liens Obligations and the holders of such Additional Liens Obligations shall be bound by the terms hereof to the extent applicable to the Claimholders, and

(c) the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and each existing Term Loan Collateral Agent shall promptly enter into such documents and agreements (including amendments, restatements, amendments and restatements, supplements or other modifications to this Agreement) as the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent or any existing Term Loan Collateral Agent (but no other ABL Claimholder or Term Loan Claimholder) or the Additional Lien Obligations Agent may reasonably request in order to provide to it the rights, remedies and powers and authorities contemplated hereby, in each case consistent in all respects with the terms of this Agreement; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, it is understood and agreed that any such amendment, restatement, amendment and restatement, supplement or other modification to this Agreement requested pursuant to this clause (c) may be entered into by the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the existing Term Loan Collateral Agents without the consent of any other ABL Claimholder or Term Loan Claimholder to effect the provisions of this Section 8.21 and may contain additional intercreditor terms applicable solely to the holders of such Additional Lien Obligations vis-à-vis the holders of the relevant obligations hereunder or the holders of such Additional Lien Obligations vis-à-vis the ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent and the ABL Claimholders or the Directing Term Loan Collateral Agent and the Term Loan Claimholders, as applicable.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement will be construed to allow any Obligor to incur additional Indebtedness unless otherwise permitted by the terms of each applicable ABL Financing Document, First Lien Financing Document and Second Lien Financing Document.

8.22 Additional Intercreditor Agreements. Subject to Section 8.1(b) of this Agreement, each party hereto agrees that the First Lien Claimholders (as among themselves) and the Second Lien Claimholders (as among themselves) may each enter into intercreditor agreements (or similar arrangements) with the applicable First Lien Collateral Agents or Second Lien Collateral Agents, as the case may be, governing the rights, benefits and privileges as among the First Lien Claimholders in respect of any or all of the First Lien Collateral, this Agreement and the First Lien Collateral Documents or as among the Second Lien Claimholders in respect of any or all of the Second Lien Collateral, this Agreement or the Second Lien Collateral Documents, as the case may be, including as to the application of proceeds of any Collateral, voting rights, control of any Collateral and waivers with respect to any Collateral, in each case so long as the terms thereof do not violate or conflict with the terms of this Agreement or the ABL Documents or the First Lien Documents or the Second Lien Documents, as applicable. In any event, if a respective intercreditor agreement (or similar arrangement) exists, the provisions thereof shall not be (or be construed to be) an amendment, modification or other change to this Agreement or any other ABL Document, First Lien Document or Second Lien Document, and the provisions of this Agreement and the other ABL Documents, First Lien Documents and Second Lien Documents shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof (as such provisions may be amended, modified or otherwise supplemented from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof, including to give effect to any intercreditor agreement (or similar arrangement)).

8.23 Certain Terms Concerning the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent. The Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent is executing and delivering this Agreement solely in its capacity as such and pursuant to the direction to so execute and deliver pursuant to the Second Lien Notes Indenture, and in so doing the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the terms or sufficiency of this Agreement for any purpose. The Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent shall enjoy all of the rights, immunities, privileges, protections and indemnities granted to it under the Second Lien Notes Indenture and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the provisions of Article VII and Section 12.02 of the Second Lien Notes Indenture applicable to the Second Lien Collateral Agent thereunder. The Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent shall have no duties or obligations under or pursuant to this Agreement other than such duties and obligations as may be expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Second Lien Collateral Agent shall not be deemed to owe any fiduciary duty to any ABL Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, the First Lien Credit Agreement Collateral Agent, ABL Claimholder and First Lien Claimholders. Whenever reference is made in this Agreement to any action by, consent, designation, specification, requirement or approval of, notice, request or other communication from, or other direction given or action to be undertaken or to be (or not to be) suffered or omitted by the Second Lien Collateral Agent or to any election, decision, opinion, acceptance, use of judgment, expression of satisfaction or other exercise of discretion, rights or remedies to be made (or not to be made) by the Second Lien Collateral Agent, it is understood that in all cases the Second Lien Collateral Agent shall be acting, giving, withholding, suffering, omitting, taking or otherwise undertaking and exercising the same (or shall not be undertaking and exercising the same) in accordance with the Second Lien Notes Indenture and the other Second Lien Debt Documents (as defined therein).

Capitalized terms used in this Note and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings specified in the First Lien Credit Agreement, ABL Credit Agreement or the Second Lien Notes Indenture, as applicable.

This Note (a) evidences loans, advances and other credit extensions, where, and to the extent that, both (i) the Payor is a Loan Party and (ii) the Payee is a Non-Loan Party and (b) is subject to the terms of the Credit Agreements.

Each Payee is hereby authorized (but not required) to record all loans and advances made by it to any Payor (all of which shall be evidenced by this Note), and all repayments or prepayments thereof, in its books and records, such books and records constituting prima facie evidence of the accuracy of the information contained therein.

Anything in this Note to the contrary notwithstanding, the indebtedness owed by any Payor that is a Loan Party to any Payee that is a Non-Loan Party (including the indebtedness evidenced by this Note but excluding any indebtedness owed by or to a Payor or Payee that is registered as a broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any other applicable Laws requiring such registration) (any such Payor and Payee with respect to any such indebtedness, an “Affected Payor” or “Affected Payee”, as relevant) shall be subordinate and junior in right of payment, to the extent and in the manner hereinafter set forth, to all Obligations as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement (the “First Lien Obligations”), all Obligations as defined in the ABL Credit Agreement (the “ABL Obligations”) and all Secured Obligations as defined in the Second Lien Notes Indenture (the “Second Lien Obligations”), including, without limitation, where applicable, under such Affected Payor’s guarantee of the First Lien Obligations, the ABL Obligations or the Second Lien Obligations (the Obligations, the ABL Obligations, the Second Lien Obligations and the foregoing obligations, including interest thereon, fees, and expenses, if any, accruing after the commencement of any proceedings referred to in clause (i) below, whether or not such interest, fees, or expenses is an allowed or allowable claim in such proceeding, being hereinafter collectively referred to as “Senior Indebtedness”):

(i) In the event of any insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings, and any receivership, liquidation, reorganization or other similar proceedings in connection therewith, relative to any Affected Payor or to its creditors, as such, or to its property, and in the event of any proceedings for voluntary liquidation, dissolution or other winding up of such Affected Payor, whether or not involving insolvency or bankruptcy, then (x) the holders of Senior Indebtedness shall be paid in full in cash in respect of all amounts constituting Senior Indebtedness (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) and no Letter of Credit shall remain outstanding (unless the Outstanding Amount of the LC Obligations related thereto has been Cash Collateralized or back-stopped by a letter of credit reasonably satisfactory to the applicable Issuing Bank or such Letter of Credit has been deemed reissued under another agreement reasonably acceptable to the applicable Issuing Bank) before any Affected Payee is entitled to receive (whether directly or indirectly), or make any demands for, any payment or distribution on account of this Note and (y) until the holders of Senior Indebtedness are paid in full in cash in respect of all amounts constituting Senior Indebtedness (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) and no Letter of Credit shall remain outstanding (unless the Outstanding Amount of the LC Obligations related thereto has been Cash Collateralized or back-stopped by a letter of credit reasonably satisfactory to the applicable Issuing Bank or such Letter of Credit has been deemed reissued under another agreement reasonably acceptable to the applicable Issuing Bank), any payment or distribution to which such Affected Payee would otherwise be entitled (other than (A) equity securities or (B) debt securities of such Affected Payor that are subordinated, to at least the same extent as this Note, to the payment of all Senior Indebtedness then outstanding (such securities being hereinafter referred to as “Restructured Debt Securities”)) in respect of this Note shall be made to the holders of Senior Indebtedness;

(ii) (x) if any Event of Default under Sections 8.01(a) or 8.01(f) of the First Lien Credit Agreement or ABL Credit Agreement or under Sections 6.01(a) or 6.01(f) of the Second Lien Notes Indenture occurs and is continuing and (y) subject to the ABL Intercreditor Agreement, the First Lien Agent, the ABL Agent or the Second Lien Agent delivers notice to the Borrowers instructing the Borrowers that such Agent is thereby exercising its rights pursuant to this clause (ii) (provided that no such notice shall be required to be given in the case of any Event of Default arising under Section 8.01(f) of either Credit Agreement or Section 6.01(f) of the Second Lien Notes Indenture), then no payment or distribution of any kind or character shall be made by or on behalf of the Affected Payor or any other Person on its behalf with respect to this Note until the Senior Indebtedness has been paid in full (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) and no Letter of Credit shall remain outstanding (unless the Outstanding Amount of the LC Obligations related thereto has been Cash Collateralized or back-stopped by a letter of credit reasonably satisfactory to the applicable Issuing Bank or such Letter of Credit has been deemed reissued under another agreement reasonably acceptable to the applicable Issuing Bank); and

(iii) if any payment or distribution of any character, whether in cash, securities or other property (other than Restructured Debt Securities), in respect of this Note shall (despite these subordination provisions) be received by any Payee in violation of clause (i) or (ii), such payment or distribution shall be held in trust for the benefit of, and shall be paid over or delivered to, the ABL Agent or the First Lien Agent (or after the discharge of First Lien Obligations (as defined in the ABL Intercreditor Agreement), the Second Lien Agent), as applicable, in each case on behalf of the applicable Secured Parties, to the extent necessary to pay all Senior Indebtedness in full in cash (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) and no Letter of Credit shall remain outstanding (unless the Outstanding Amount of the LC Obligations related thereto has been Cash Collateralized or back-stopped by a letter of credit reasonably satisfactory to the applicable Issuing Bank or such Letter of Credit has been deemed reissued under another agreement reasonably acceptable to the applicable Issuing Bank).

To the fullest extent permitted by law, no present or future holder of Senior Indebtedness shall be prejudiced in its right to enforce the subordination of this Note by any act or failure to act on the part of any Affected Payor or by any act or failure to act on the part of such holder or any trustee or agent for such holder. Each Affected Payee and each Affected Payor hereby agree that the subordination of this Note (a) is, with respect to the holders of Senior Indebtedness, intended to be and shall be enforceable as a subordination agreement within the meaning of Section 510(a) of the United States Bankruptcy Code or any similar provision under any other bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar law now or hereafter in effect and (b) is for the benefit of (i) each Agent and each Secured Party are obligees under this Note to the same extent as if their names were written herein as such and any of each Agent may, on behalf of itself, and each Secured Party, as applicable, proceed to enforce the subordination provisions herein to the extent applicable subject to the ABL Intercreditor Agreement.

For the sake of clarity, the Indebtedness evidenced by this Note owed by any Payor that is a Non-Loan Party shall not be subordinated to, and shall rank pari passu in right of payment with, any other obligation of such Payor.

Nothing contained in the subordination provisions set forth above is intended to or will impair, as between each Payor and each Payee, the obligations of such Payor, which are absolute and unconditional, to pay to such Payee the principal of and interest, if any, on this Note as and when due and payable in accordance with its terms, or is intended to or will affect the relative rights of such Payee and other creditors of such Payor other than the holders of Senior Indebtedness. For the avoidance of doubt, this Note as between each Payor and each Payee contains additional terms to any intercompany loan agreement between them and this Note does not in any way replace such intercompany loans between them nor does this Note in any way change the principal amount of any intercompany loans between them.

If, at any time, all or part of any payment with respect to Senior Indebtedness theretofore made is rescinded or avoided or must otherwise be returned by the holders of Senior Indebtedness for any reason whatsoever (including, without limitation, in connection with the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of the any Loan Party or such other Persons), the subordination provisions set forth herein shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, all as though such payment had not been made. Each Payor hereby waives presentment, demand, protest or notice of any kind in connection with this Note. Except to the extent of any taxes required by law to be withheld, all payments under this Note shall be made without offset, counterclaim or deduction of any kind.

This Note shall be binding upon each Payor and its successors and assigns, and the terms and provisions of this Note shall inure to the benefit of each Payee and its successors and assigns, including subsequent holders hereof.

From time to time after the date hereof, additional subsidiaries and affiliates of the Holdings Guarantors may become parties hereto (as Payor and/or Payee, as the case may be) by executing a counterpart signature page to this Note (each additional subsidiary, an “Additional Party”). Upon delivery of such counterpart signature page to the Payees, notice of which is hereby waived by the other Payors and Payees, each Additional Party shall be a Payor and/or a Payee, as the case may be, and shall be as fully a party hereto as if such Additional Party were an original signatory hereof. Each Payor expressly agrees that its obligations arising hereunder shall not be affected or diminished by the addition or release of any other Payor or Payee hereunder. This Note shall be fully effective as to any Payor or Payee that is or becomes a party hereto regardless of whether any other Person becomes or fails to become or ceases to be a Payor or Payee hereunder.

Indebtedness governed by this Note shall be maintained in “registered form” within the meaning of Section 163(f) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Payor or its designee (which shall, at the either Agent’s request, be such Agent, acting solely for these purposes as agent of the Payor) shall record the transfer of the right to payments of principal and interest on the indebtedness governed by this Note to holders of the Senior Indebtedness in a register (the “Register”), and no such transfer shall be effective until entered in the Register.

THIS NOTE SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

EXECUTION VERSION

REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT

THIS REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made as of August 6, 2019 among BioScrip, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), HC Group Holdings I, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, any each other Person who executes a Joinder as an "Investor" (collectively, the "Investors"), each Person who executes a Joinder as an "Executive" (collectively, the "Executives"), and each other Person who executes a Joinder as an "Other Holder" (collectively, the "Other Holders"). Except as otherwise specified herein, all capitalized terms used in this Agreement are defined in Exhibit A attached hereto.

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties to this Agreement hereby agree as follows:

Section 1 Demand Registrations.

(a) Requests for Registration. At any time and from time to time, the Majority Holders may request registration under the Securities Act of all or any portion of their Registrable Securities on Form S-1 or any similar long-form registration ("Long-Form Registrations") or on Form S-3 or any similar short-form registration ("Short-Form Registrations"), if available (any such requested registration, a "Demand Registration"). The Majority Holders may request that any Demand Registration be made pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act (a "Shelf Registration") and (if the Company is a WSKI at the time any such request is submitted to the Company or will become one by the time of the filing of such Shelf Registration) that such Shelf Registration be an automatic shelf registration statement (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act) (an "Automatic Shelf Registration Statement"). Each request for a Demand Registration must specify the approximate number or dollar value of Registrable Securities requested to be registered by the requesting Holders and (if known) the intended method of distribution. The Majority Holders will be entitled to request an unlimited number of Demand Registrations in which the Company will pay all Registration Expenses, whether or not any such registration is consummated.

(b) Notice to Other Holders. Within ten (10) days after receipt of any such request, the Company will give written notice of the Demand Registration to all other Holders and, subject to the terms of Section 1(e), will include in such Demand Registration (and in all related registrations and qualifications under state blue sky laws and in any related underwriting) all Registrable Securities with respect to which the Company has received written requests for inclusion therein within ten (10) days after the receipt of the Company's notice; provided that, with the consent of the Majority Holders, the Company may instead provide notice of the Demand Registration to all other Holders within three (3) Business Days following the non-confidential filing of the registration statement with respect to the Demand Registration so long as such registration statement is not an Automatic Shelf Registration Statement.

(c) Form of Registrations. All Long-Form Registrations will be underwritten registrations unless otherwise approved by the Majority Holders. Demand Registrations will be Short-Form Registrations whenever the Company is permitted to use any applicable short form and if the managing underwriters (if any) and the Majority Holders agree to the use of a Short-Form Registration.

(d) Shelf Registrations.

(i) For so long as a registration statement for a Shelf Registration (a “Shelf Registration Statement”) is and remains effective, the Majority Holders will have the right at any time or from time to time to elect to sell pursuant to an offering (including an underwritten offering) Registrable Securities available for sale pursuant to such registration statement (“Shelf Registrable Securities”). The Majority Holders may elect to sell Registrable Securities pursuant to an underwritten offering by delivering to the Company a written notice (a “Shelf Offering Notice”) specifying the number of Shelf Registrable Securities that the holders desire to sell pursuant to such underwritten offering (the “Shelf Offering”). As promptly as practicable, but in no event later than two (2) Business Days after receipt of a Shelf Offering Notice, the Company will give written notice of such Shelf Offering Notice to all other Holders of Shelf Registrable Securities that have been identified as selling stockholders in such Shelf Registration Statement and are otherwise permitted to sell in such Shelf Offering. The Company, subject to Section 1(e) and Section 7, will include in such Shelf Offering all Shelf Registrable Securities with respect to which the Company has received written requests for inclusion (which request will specify the maximum number of Shelf Registrable Securities intended to be disposed of by such Holder) within seven (7) days after the receipt of the Shelf Offering Notice. The Company will, as expeditiously as possible (and in any event within 20 days after the receipt of a Shelf Offering Notice), but subject to Section 1(e), use its best efforts to facilitate such Shelf Offering.

(ii) If the Majority Holders wish to engage in an underwritten block trade or bought deal off of a Shelf Registration Statement (either through filing an Automatic Shelf Registration Statement or through a take-down from an already existing Shelf Registration Statement) (an “Underwritten Block Trade”), then notwithstanding the time periods set forth in Section 1(d)(i), such Majority Holders will notify the Company of the Underwritten Block Trade not less than two (2) Business Days prior to the day such offering is first anticipated to commence. If requested by the Majority Holders, the Company will promptly notify other Holders of such Underwritten Block Trade and such notified Holders (each, a “Potential Block Participant”) may elect whether or not to participate no later than the next Business Day (i.e. one (1) Business Day prior to the day such offering is to commence) (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Majority Holders), and the Company will as expeditiously as possible use its best efforts to facilitate such Underwritten Block Trade (which may close as early as two (2) Business Days after the date it commences); provided further that, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1(d)(i), no Holder (other than Holders of Investor Registrable Securities) will be permitted to participate in an Underwritten Block Trade without the consent of the Majority Holders. Any Potential Block Participant’s request to participate in an Underwritten Block Trade shall be binding on the Potential Block Participant.

(iii) All determinations as to whether to complete any Shelf Offering and as to the timing, manner, price and other terms of any Shelf Offering contemplated by this Section 1(d) shall be determined by the Majority Holders, and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause any Shelf Offering to occur as promptly as practicable.

(iv) The Company will, at the request of the Majority Holders, file any prospectus supplement or any post-effective amendments and otherwise take any action necessary to include therein all disclosure and language deemed necessary or advisable by the Majority Holders to effect such Shelf Offering.

(e) Priority on Demand Registrations and Shelf Offerings. The Company will not include in any Demand Registration any securities which are not Registrable Securities without the prior written consent of the Majority Holders. If a Demand Registration or a Shelf Offering is an underwritten offering and the managing underwriters advise the Company in writing that in their opinion the number of Registrable Securities and (if permitted hereunder) other securities requested to be included in such offering exceeds the number of Registrable Securities and other securities (if any), which can be sold therein without adversely affecting the marketability, proposed offering price, timing or method of distribution of the offering, then the Company will include in such offering (prior to the inclusion of any securities which are not Registrable Securities): (i) first, the number of Investor Registrable Securities requested to be included which, in the opinion of such underwriters, can be sold, without any such adverse effect, pro rata among the respective Holders of Investor Registrable Securities on the basis of the number of Investor Registrable Securities owned by each such Holder; and (ii) second, the number of Registrable Securities requested to be included by Other Holders which, in the opinion of such underwriters, can be sold, without any such adverse effect, pro rata among the respective Other Holders on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities owned by each such Other Holder. In addition, if any Holders of Executive Registrable Securities have requested to include such securities in an underwritten offering and the managing underwriters for such offering advise the Company that in their opinion the inclusion of some or all of such Executive Registrable Securities could adversely affect the marketability, proposed offering price, timing and/or method of distribution of the offering, then the Company shall exclude from such offering the number of such Executive Registrable Securities identified by the managing underwriters as having any such adverse effect prior to the exclusion of any Registrable Securities of any other Holders as set forth in this Section 1(e).

(f) Restrictions on Demand Registration and Shelf Offerings

(i) The Company may postpone, for up to 90 days from the date of the request (the “Suspension Period”), the filing or the effectiveness of a registration statement for a Demand Registration or suspend the use of a prospectus that is part of a Shelf Registration Statement (and therefore suspend sales of the Shelf Registrable Securities) by providing written notice to the Holders if the Company determines that the offer or sale of Registrable Securities would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on any proposal or plan by the Company or any Subsidiary to engage in any material acquisition of assets or stock (other than in the ordinary course of business) or any material merger, consolidation, tender offer, recapitalization, reorganization, financing or other transaction involving the Company and upon advice of counsel, the sale of Registrable Securities pursuant to the registration statement would require disclosure of material non-public information not otherwise required to be disclosed under applicable law, and (x) the Company has a bona fide business purpose for preserving the confidentiality of such transaction, (y) disclosure would have a material adverse effect on the Company or the Company’s ability to consummate such transaction, or (z) such transaction renders the Company unable to comply with SEC requirements, in each case under circumstances that would make it impractical or inadvisable to cause the registration statement (or such filings) to become effective or to promptly amend or supplement the registration statement on a post-effective basis, as applicable. The Company may delay or suspend the effectiveness of a Demand Registration or Shelf Registration Statement pursuant to this Section 1(f)(i), only once in any twelve (12)-month period (for avoidance of doubt, in addition to the Company’s rights and obligations under Section 4(a)(vi)).

(ii) In the case of an event that causes the Company to suspend the use of a Shelf Registration Statement as set forth in paragraph (f)(i) above or pursuant to Section 4(a)(vi) (a “Suspension Event”), the Company will give a notice to the Holders whose Registrable Securities are registered pursuant to such Shelf Registration Statement (a “Suspension Notice”) to suspend sales of the Registrable Securities and such notice must state generally the basis for the notice and that such suspension will continue only for so long as the Suspension Event or its effect is continuing. Each Holder agrees not to effect any sales of its Registrable Securities pursuant to such Shelf Registration Statement (or such filings) at any time after it has received a Suspension Notice from the Company and prior to receipt of an End of Suspension Notice. A Holder may recommence effecting sales of the Registrable Securities pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement (or such filings) following further written notice to such effect (an “End of Suspension Notice”) from the Company, which End of Suspension Notice will be given by the Company to the Holders promptly following the conclusion of any Suspension Event.

(g) Selection of Underwriters. The Majority Holders will have the right to select the investment banker(s) and manager(s) to administer any underwritten offering in connection with a Demand Registration or Shelf Offering.

(h) Other Registration Rights. Except as provided in this Agreement, the Company will not grant to any Person(s) the right to request the Company or any Subsidiary to register any equity securities of the Company or any Subsidiary, or any securities convertible or exchangeable into or exercisable for such securities, without the prior written consent of the Majority Holders.

(i) Revocation of Demand Notice or Shelf Offering Notice. At any time prior to the effective date of the registration statement relating to a Demand Registration or the “pricing” of any offering relating to a Shelf Offering Notice, the Majority Holders may revoke such notice of a Demand Registration or Shelf Offering Notice on behalf of all Holders participating in such Demand Registration or Shelf Offering without liability to such Holders (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Majority Holders), in each case by providing written notice to the Company.

(j) Confidentiality. Each Holder agrees to treat as confidential the receipt of any notice hereunder (including notice of a Demand Registration, a Shelf Offering Notice and a Suspension Notice) and the information contained therein, and not to disclose or use the information contained in any such notice (or the existence thereof) without the prior written consent of the Company until such time as the information contained therein is or becomes available to the public generally (other than as a result of disclosure by such Holder in breach of the terms of this Agreement).

Section 2 Piggyback Registrations.

(a) Right to Piggyback. Whenever the Company proposes to register any of its equity securities under the Securities Act (including primary and secondary registrations, and other than pursuant to an Excluded Registration) (a "Piggyback Registration"), the Company will give prompt written notice (and in any event within three (3) Business Days after the public filing of the registration statement relating to the Piggyback Registration) to all Holders of its intention to effect such Piggyback Registration and, subject to the terms of Section 2(b) and Section 2(c), will include in such Piggyback Registration (and in all related registrations or qualifications under blue sky laws and in any related underwriting) all Registrable Securities with respect to which the Company has received written requests for inclusion therein within ten (10) days after delivery of the Company's notice; provided that the Company shall not be required to provide such notice or include any Registrable Securities in such registration if the Investor elects not to include any Investor Registrable Securities in such registration.

(b) Priority on Primary Registrations. If a Piggyback Registration is an underwritten primary registration on behalf of the Company, and the managing underwriters advise the Company in writing that in their opinion the number of securities requested to be included in such registration exceeds the number which can be sold in such offering without adversely affecting the marketability, proposed offering price, timing or method of distribution of the offering, the Company will include in such registration (i) first, the securities the Company proposes to sell, (ii) second, the Investor Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration which, in the opinion of the underwriters, can be sold without any such adverse effect, pro rata among the Holders of Investor Registrable Securities on the basis of the number of Investor Registrable Securities owned by each such Holder, (iii) third, the Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by Other Holders which, in the opinion of the underwriters, can be sold without any such adverse effect, pro rata among the Other Holders on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities owned by each such Other Holder, and (iv) fourth, other securities requested to be included in such registration which, in the opinion of the underwriters, can be sold without any such adverse effect. In addition, if any Holders of Executive Registrable Securities have requested to include such securities in a Piggyback Registration that is an underwritten primary offering on behalf of the Company and the managing underwriters for such offering advise the Company in writing that in their opinion the inclusion of some or all of such Executive Registrable Securities could adversely affect the marketability, proposed offering price, timing and/or method of distribution of the offering, the Company shall first exclude from such offering the number (which may be all) of such Executive Registrable Securities identified by the managing underwriters as having any such adverse effect prior to the exclusion of any securities in such offering.

(c) Priority on Secondary Registrations. If a Piggyback Registration is an underwritten secondary registration on behalf of holders of the Company's equity securities (other than Majority Holders), and the managing underwriters advise the Company in writing that in their opinion the number of securities requested to be included in such registration exceeds the number which can be sold in such offering without adversely affecting the marketability, proposed offering price, timing or method of distribution of the offering, the Company will include in such registration (i) first, the securities requested to be included therein by the holders requesting such registration which, in the opinion of the underwriters, can be sold without any such adverse effect, (ii) second, the Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration, pro rata among the Holders on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities owned by each such Holder which, in the opinion of the underwriters, can be sold without any such adverse effect, and (iii) third, other securities requested to be included in such registration which, in the opinion of the underwriters, can be sold without any such adverse effect. In addition, if any Holders of Executive Registrable Securities have requested to include such securities in a Piggyback Registration that is an underwritten secondary offering and the managing underwriters for such offering advise the Company in writing that in their opinion the inclusion of some or all of such Executive Registrable Securities could adversely affect the marketability, proposed offering price, timing or method of distribution of the offering, the Company shall be permitted to first exclude from such offering the number (which may be all) of such Executive Registrable Securities identified by the managing underwriters as having any such adverse effect prior to the exclusion of any securities in such offering.

(d) Right to Terminate Registration. The Company will have the right to terminate or withdraw any registration initiated by it under this Section 2, whether or not any holder of Registrable Securities has elected to include securities in such registration.

(e) Selection of Underwriters. If any Piggyback Registration is an underwritten offering, the selection of investment banker(s) and manager(s) for the offering must be approved by the Majority Holders, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed.

Section 3 Stockholder Lock-Up Agreements and Company Holdback Agreement.

(a) Stockholder Lock-up Agreements. In connection with any underwritten Public Offering, each Holder will enter into any lock-up, holdback or similar agreements requested by the underwriter(s) managing such offering, in each case with such modifications and exceptions as may be approved by the Majority Holders. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Holder hereby agrees that in connection with any Demand Registration, Shelf Offering or Piggyback Registration that is an underwritten Public Offering, not to (i) offer, sell, contract to sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of (including sales pursuant to Rule 144), directly or indirectly, any equity securities of the Company (including equity securities of the Company that may be deemed to be owned beneficially by such Holder in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC) (collectively, "Securities"), or any securities, options or rights convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for Securities (collectively, "Other Securities"), (ii) enter into a transaction which would have the same effect as described in clause (i) above, (iii) enter into any swap, hedge or other arrangement that transfers, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences or ownership of any Securities or Other Securities, whether such transaction is to be settled by delivery of such Securities or Other Securities, in cash or otherwise (each of (i), (ii) and (iii) above, a "Sale Transaction"), or (iv) publicly disclose the intention to enter into any Sale Transaction, commencing on the date on which the Company gives notice to the Holders that a preliminary prospectus has been circulated for such underwritten Public Offering or the "pricing" of such offering and continuing to the date that is 90 days following the date of the final prospectus (each such period, or such shorter period as agreed to by the managing underwriters, a "Holdback Period"), in each case with such modifications and exceptions as may be approved by the Majority Holders. The Company may impose stop-transfer instructions with respect to any Securities or Other Securities subject to the restrictions set forth in this Section 3(a) until the end of such Holdback Period.

(b) Company Holdback Agreement. The Company (i) will not file any registration statement for a Public Offering or cause any such registration statement to become effective, or effect any public sale or distribution of its Securities or Other Securities during any Holdback Period (other than as part of such underwritten Public Offering, or a registration on Form S-4 or Form S-8 or any successor or similar form which is (x) then in effect or (y) shall become effective upon the conversion, exchange or exercise of any then outstanding Other Securities) and (ii) will cause each holder of Securities and Other Securities (including each of its directors and executive officers) to agree not to effect any Sale Transaction during any Holdback Period, except as part of such underwritten registration (if otherwise permitted), unless approved in writing by the Majority Holders and the underwriters managing the Public Offering and to enter into any lock-up, holdback or similar agreements requested by the underwriter(s) managing such offering, in each case with such modifications and exceptions as may be approved by the Majority Holders.

Section 4 Registration Procedures.

(a) Company Obligations. Whenever the holders of Registrable Securities have requested that any Registrable Securities be registered pursuant to this Agreement or have initiated a Shelf Offering, the Company will use its best efforts to effect the registration and the sale of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended method of disposition thereof, and pursuant thereto the Company will as expeditiously as possible:

(i) prepare and file with (or submit confidentially to) the SEC a registration statement, and all amendments and supplements thereto and related prospectuses, with respect to such Registrable Securities and use its best efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective, all in accordance with the Securities Act and all applicable rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (provided that before filing or confidentially submitting a registration statement or prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto, the Company will furnish to the counsel selected by the Majority Holders covered by such registration statement copies of all such documents proposed to be filed or submitted, which documents will be subject to the review and comment of such counsel);

(ii) notify each Holder of (A) the issuance by the SEC of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of any registration statement or the initiation of any proceedings for that purpose, (B) the receipt by the Company or its counsel of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of the Registrable Securities for sale in any jurisdiction or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose, and (C) the effectiveness of each registration statement filed hereunder;

(iii) prepare and file with the SEC such amendments and supplements to such registration statement and the prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective for a period ending when all of the securities covered by such registration statement have been disposed of in accordance with the intended methods of distribution by the sellers thereof set forth in such registration statement (but not in any event before the expiration of any longer period required under the Securities Act or, if such registration statement relates to an underwritten Public Offering, such longer period as in the opinion of counsel for the underwriters a prospectus is required by law to be delivered in connection with sale of Registrable Securities by an underwriter or dealer) and comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by such registration statement during such period in accordance with the intended methods of disposition by the sellers thereof set forth in such registration statement;

(iv) furnish, without charge, to each seller of Registrable Securities thereunder and each underwriter, if any, such number of copies of such registration statement, each amendment and supplement thereto, the prospectus included in such registration statement (including each preliminary prospectus) (in each case including all exhibits and documents incorporated by reference therein), each amendment and supplement thereto, each Free Writing Prospectus and such other documents as such seller or underwriter, if any, may reasonably request in order to facilitate the disposition of the Registrable Securities owned by such seller (the Company hereby consenting to the use in accordance with all applicable laws of each such registration statement, each such amendment and supplement thereto, and each such prospectus (or preliminary prospectus or supplement thereto) or Free Writing Prospectus by each such seller of Registrable Securities and the underwriters, if any, in connection with the offering and sale of the Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement or prospectus);

(v) use its best efforts to register or qualify such Registrable Securities under such other securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as any seller reasonably requests and do any and all other acts and things which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable such seller to consummate the disposition in such jurisdictions of the Registrable Securities owned by such seller (provided that the Company will not be required to (A) qualify generally to do business in any jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be required to qualify but for this subparagraph or (B) consent to general service of process in any such jurisdiction or (C) subject itself to taxation in any such jurisdiction);

(vi) notify in writing each seller of such Registrable Securities (A) promptly after it receives notice thereof, of the date and time when such registration statement and each post-effective amendment thereto has become effective or a prospectus or supplement to any prospectus relating to a registration statement has been filed and when any registration or qualification has become effective under a state securities or blue sky law or any exemption thereunder has been obtained, (B) promptly after receipt thereof, of any request by the SEC for the amendment or supplementing of such registration statement or prospectus or for additional information, (C) at any time when a prospectus relating thereto is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the happening of any event or of any information or circumstances as a result of which the prospectus included in such registration statement contains an untrue statement of a material fact or omits any fact necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and, subject to Section 1(f), if required by applicable law or to the extent requested by the Majority Holder, the Company will use its best efforts to promptly prepare and file a supplement or amendment to such prospectus so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of such Registrable Securities, such prospectus will not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any fact necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (D) if at any time the representations and warranties contemplated by any underwriting agreement, securities sale agreement, or other similar agreement, relating to the offering shall cease to be true and correct in a manner that would have a material and adverse impact on the Company or the offering;

(vii) (A) use best efforts to cause all such Registrable Securities to be listed on each securities exchange on which similar securities issued by the Company are then listed and, if not so listed, to be listed on a securities exchange and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to arrange for at least two market makers to register as such with respect to such Registrable Securities with FINRA, and (B) comply (and continue to comply) with the requirements of any self-regulatory organization applicable to the Company, including without limitation all corporate governance requirements;

(viii) use best efforts to provide a transfer agent and registrar for all such Registrable Securities not later than the effective date of such registration statement;

(ix) enter into and perform such customary agreements (including, as applicable, underwriting agreements in customary form) and take all such other actions as the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities being sold or the underwriters, if any, reasonably request in order to expedite or facilitate the disposition of such Registrable Securities (including, without limitation, participating in "road shows," investor presentations, marketing events and other selling efforts and effecting a stock or unit split or combination, recapitalization or reorganization);

(x) make available for inspection by any seller of Registrable Securities, any underwriter participating in any disposition or sale pursuant to such registration statement and any attorney, accountant or other agent retained by any such seller or underwriter, all financial and other records, pertinent corporate and business documents and properties of the Company as will be necessary to enable them to exercise their due diligence responsibility, and cause the Company's officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and independent accountants to supply all information reasonably requested by any such seller, underwriter, attorney, accountant or agent in connection with such registration statement and the disposition of such Registrable Securities pursuant thereto;

(xi) take all reasonable actions to ensure that any Free-Writing Prospectus utilized in connection with any Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration or Shelf Offering hereunder complies in all material respects with the Securities Act, is filed in accordance with the Securities Act to the extent required thereby, is retained in accordance with the Securities Act to the extent required thereby and, when taken together with the related prospectus, prospectus supplement and related documents, will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(xii) otherwise use its best efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, and make available to its security holders, as soon as reasonably practicable, an earnings statement covering the period of at least twelve (12) months beginning with the first day of the Company's first full calendar quarter after the effective date of the registration statement, which earnings statement will satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 158 thereunder;

(xiii) permit any Holder which, in its sole and exclusive judgment, might be deemed to be an underwriter or a controlling person of the Company, to participate in the preparation of such registration or comparable statement and to allow such Holder to provide language for insertion therein, in form and substance satisfactory to the Company, which in the reasonable judgment of such Holder and its counsel should be included;

(xiv) use best efforts to prevent the issuance of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of a registration statement, or the issuance of any order suspending or preventing the use of any related prospectus or suspending the qualification of any Common Stock included in such registration statement for sale in any jurisdiction, and, in the event any such order is issued, use best efforts to promptly obtain the withdrawal of such order;

(xv) use its reasonable best efforts to cause such Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement to be registered with or approved by such other governmental agencies or authorities as may be necessary to enable the sellers thereof to consummate the disposition of such Registrable Securities;

(xvi) cooperate with the Holders covered by the registration statement and the managing underwriter or agent, if any, to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates (not bearing any restrictive legends) representing securities to be sold under the registration statement, or the removal of any restrictive legends associated with any account at which such securities are held, and enable such securities to be in such denominations and registered in such names as the managing underwriter, or agent, if any, or such Holders may request;

(xvii) if requested by any managing underwriter, include in any prospectus or prospectus supplement updated financial or business information for the Company's most recent period or current quarterly period (including estimated results or ranges of results) if required for purposes of marketing the offering in the view of the managing underwriter;

(xviii) take no direct or indirect action prohibited by Regulation M under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that to the extent that any prohibition is applicable to the Company, the Company will take such action as is necessary to make any such prohibition inapplicable;

(xix) cooperate with each Holder covered by the registration statement and each underwriter or agent participating in the disposition of such Registrable Securities and their respective counsel in connection with the preparation and filing of any applications, notices, registrations and responses to requests for additional information with FINRA, Nasdaq or any other national securities exchange on which the shares of Common Stock are or are to be listed, and to the extent required by the rules and regulations of FINRA, retain a Qualified Independent Underwriter acceptable to the managing underwriter;

(xx) in the case of any underwritten offering, use its best efforts to obtain, and deliver to the underwriter(s), in the manner and to the extent provided for in the applicable underwriting agreement, one or more cold comfort letters from the Company's independent public accountants in customary form and covering such matters of the type customarily covered by cold comfort letters;

(xxi) use its best efforts to provide (i) on the date that such Registrable Securities are delivered to the underwriters for sale in connection with a Demand Registration or Shelf Offering, if such securities are being sold through underwriters, or, if such securities are not being sold through underwriters, on the closing date of the applicable sale, (A) one or more legal opinions of the Company's outside counsel, dated such date, in form and substance as customarily given to underwriters in an underwritten public offering or, in the case of a non-underwritten offering, to the broker, placement agent or other agent of the Holders assisting in the sale of the Registrable Securities and (B) one or more "negative assurances letters" of the Company's outside counsel, dated such date, in form and substance as is customarily given to underwriters in an underwritten public offering or, in the case of a non-underwritten offering, to the broker, placement agent or other agent of the Holders assisting in the sale of the Registrable Securities, in each case, addressed to the underwriters, if any, or, if requested, in the case of a non-underwritten offering, to the broker, placement agent or other agent of the Holders assisting in the sale of the Registrable Securities and (ii) customary certificates executed by authorized officers of the Company as may be requested by any Holder or any underwriter of such Registrable Securities;

(xxii) if the Company files an Automatic Shelf Registration Statement covering any Registrable Securities, use its best efforts to remain a WKSII (and not become an ineligible issuer (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act)) during the period during which such Automatic Shelf Registration Statement is required to remain effective;

(xxiii) if the Company does not pay the filing fee covering the Registrable Securities at the time an Automatic Shelf Registration Statement is filed, pay such fee at such time or times as the Registrable Securities are to be sold; and

(xxiv) if the Automatic Shelf Registration Statement has been outstanding for at least three (3) years, at the end of the third year, refile a new Automatic Shelf Registration Statement covering the Registrable Securities, and, if at any time when the Company is required to re-evaluate its WKSI status the Company determines that it is not a WKSI, use its best efforts to refile the Shelf Registration Statement on Form S-3 and, if such form is not available, Form S-1 and keep such registration statement effective during the period during which such registration statement is required to be kept effective.

(b) Holder Obligations.

(i) It is agreed and understood that it shall be a condition precedent to the obligations of the Company to complete the registration pursuant to this Agreement with respect to the Registrable Securities of a particular Holder that (A) such Holder furnish to the Company such information regarding itself, the Registrable Securities held by it and the intended method of disposition of the Registrable Securities held by it as shall be reasonably required to effect the effectiveness of the registration of such Registrable Securities, and (B) such Holder execute such documents in connection with such registration as the Company may reasonably request, including, without limitation, a waiver of its registration rights hereunder to the extent a Holder elects not to have any of its Registrable Securities included in a particular registration statement.

(ii) Each Holder, by its acceptance of the Registrable Securities, agrees to cooperate with the Company as reasonably requested by the Company in connection with the preparation and filing of a registration statement hereunder, unless such Holder has notified the Company in writing of its election to exclude all of its Registrable Securities from such registration statement.

(iii) Each Holder covenants and agrees that it will comply with the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act as applicable to it or an exemption therefrom in connection with sales of Registrable Securities pursuant to any registration statement.

(c) Automatic Shelf Registration Statements. If the Company files any Automatic Shelf Registration Statement for the benefit of the holders of any of its securities other than the Holders, and the Holders of Investor Registrable Securities do not request that their Registrable Securities be included in such Shelf Registration Statement, the Company agrees that, at the request of the Majority Holders, it will include in such Automatic Shelf Registration Statement such disclosures as may be required by Rule 430B in order to ensure that the Holders of Investor Registrable Securities may be added to such Shelf Registration Statement at a later time through the filing of a prospectus supplement rather than a post-effective amendment. If the Company has filed any Automatic Shelf Registration Statement for the benefit of the holders of any of its securities other than the Holders, the Company shall, at the request of the Majority Holders, file any post-effective amendments necessary to include therein all disclosure and language necessary to ensure that the holders of Registrable Securities may be added to such Shelf Registration Statement.

(d) Additional Information. The Company may require each seller of Registrable Securities as to which any registration is being effected to furnish the Company such information regarding such seller and the distribution of such securities as the Company may from time to time reasonably request in writing, as a condition to such seller's participation in such registration.

(e) In-Kind Distributions. If an Investor (and/or any of their Affiliates) seek to effectuate an in-kind distribution of all or part of their Registrable Securities to their respective direct or indirect equityholders, the Company will, subject to any applicable lock-ups, work with the foregoing Persons to facilitate such in-kind distribution in the manner reasonably requested and consistent with the Company's obligations under the Securities Act.

(f) Suspended Distributions. Each Person participating in a registration hereunder agrees that, upon receipt of any notice from the Company of the happening of any event of the kind described in Section 4(a)(vi), such Person will immediately discontinue the disposition of its Registrable Securities pursuant to the registration statement until such Person's receipt of the copies of a supplemented or amended prospectus as contemplated by Section 4(a)(vi), subject to the Company's compliance with its obligations under Section 4(a)(vi).

(g) Other. To the extent that any of the Investors is or may be deemed to be an "underwriter" of Registrable Securities pursuant to any SEC comments or policies, the Company agrees that (i) the indemnification and contribution provisions contained in Section 6 shall be applicable to the benefit of such Investor in their role as an underwriter or deemed underwriter in addition to their capacity as a holder and (ii) such Investor shall be entitled to conduct the due diligence which they would normally conduct in connection with an offering of securities registered under the Securities Act, including without limitation receipt of customary opinions and comfort letters addressed to such Investor.

Section 5 Registration Expenses.

Except as expressly provided herein, all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Company or any Investor and their respective Affiliates in connection with the performance of or compliance with this Agreement and/or in connection with any Demand Registration, Piggyback Registration or Shelf Offering, whether or not the same shall become effective, shall be paid by the Company, including, without limitation, (i) all registration and filing fees, and any other fees and expenses associated with filings required to be made with the SEC or FINRA, (ii) all fees and expenses in connection with compliance with any securities or “blue sky” laws, (iii) all printing, duplicating, word processing, messenger, telephone, facsimile and delivery expenses (including expenses of printing certificates for the Registrable Securities in a form eligible for deposit with The Depository Trust Company or other depository and of printing prospectuses and Company Free Writing Prospectuses), (iv) all fees and disbursements of counsel for the Company and of all independent certified public accountants of the Company (including the expenses of any special audit and cold comfort letters required by or incident to such performance), (v) Securities Act liability insurance or similar insurance if the Company so desires or the underwriters so require in accordance with then-customary underwriting practice, (vi) all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the listing of the Registrable Securities on any securities exchange on which similar securities of the Company are then listed, (vii) all applicable rating agency fees with respect to the Registrable Securities, (viii) all reasonable fees and disbursements of one legal counsel for selling Holders selected by the Majority Holders together with any necessary local counsel as may be required by the Investors, (ix) any fees and disbursements of underwriters customarily paid by issuers or sellers of securities, (x) all fees and expenses of any special experts or other Persons retained by the Company or the Investors in connection with any registration statement (xi) all of the Company’s internal expenses (including all salaries and expenses of its officers and employees performing legal or accounting duties) and (xii) all expenses related to the “road-show” for any underwritten offering, including all travel, meals and lodging. All such expenses are referred to herein as “Registration Expenses.” The Company shall not be required to pay, and each Person that sells securities pursuant to a Demand Registration, Shelf Offering or Piggyback Registration hereunder will bear and pay, all underwriting discounts and commissions applicable to the Registrable Securities sold for such Person’s account and all transfer taxes (if any) attributable to the sale of Registrable Securities.

Section 6 Indemnification and Contribution.

(a) By the Company. The Company will indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by law and without limitation as to time, each Holder, such Holder’s officers, directors employees, agents, fiduciaries, stockholders, partners, members, affiliates, consultants and representatives, and any successors and assigns thereof, and each Person who controls such holder (within the meaning of the Securities Act) (the “Indemnified Parties”) against all losses, claims, actions, damages, liabilities and expenses (including with respect to actions or proceedings, whether commenced or threatened, and including reasonable attorney fees and expenses) (collectively, “Losses”) caused by, resulting from, arising out of, based upon or related to any of the following (each, a “Violation”) by the Company: (i) any untrue or alleged untrue statement of material fact contained in (A) any registration statement, prospectus, preliminary prospectus or Free-Writing Prospectus, or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or (B) any application or other document or communication (in this Section 6, collectively called an “application”) executed by or on behalf of the Company or based upon written information furnished by or on behalf of the Company filed in any jurisdiction in order to qualify any securities covered by such registration under the “blue sky” or securities laws thereof, (ii) any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading or (iii) any violation or alleged violation by the Company of the Securities Act or any other similar federal or state securities laws or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder applicable to the Company and relating to action or inaction required of the Company in connection with any such registration, qualification or compliance. In addition, the Company will reimburse such Indemnified Party for any legal or any other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with investigating or defending any such Losses. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company will not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such Losses result from, arise out of, are based upon, or relate to an untrue statement, or omission, made in such registration statement, any such prospectus, preliminary prospectus or Free-Writing Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto, or in any application, in reliance upon, and in conformity with, written information prepared and furnished in writing to the Company by such Indemnified Party expressly for use therein or by such Indemnified Party’s failure to deliver a copy of the registration statement or prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto after the Company has furnished such Indemnified Party with a sufficient number of copies of the same. In connection with an underwritten offering, the Company will indemnify such underwriters, their officers and directors, and each Person who controls such underwriters (within the meaning of the Securities Act) to the same extent as provided above with respect to the indemnification of the Indemnified Parties or as otherwise agreed to in the underwriting agreement executed in connection with such underwritten offering. Such indemnity and reimbursement of expenses shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of such Indemnified Party and shall survive the transfer of such securities by such seller.

(b) By Holders. In connection with any registration statement in which a Holder is participating, each such Holder will furnish to the Company in writing such information and affidavits as the Company reasonably requests for use in connection with any such registration statement or prospectus and, to the extent permitted by law, will indemnify the Company, its officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives, and each Person who controls the Company (within the meaning of the Securities Act) against any Losses caused by, resulting from, arising out of, based upon or related to any untrue statement of material fact contained in the registration statement, prospectus or preliminary prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, but only to the extent that such untrue statement or omission is contained in any information or affidavit so furnished in writing by such Holder expressly for use therein; provided that the obligation to indemnify will be individual, not joint and several, for each holder and will be limited to the net amount of proceeds received by such Holder from the sale of Registrable Securities pursuant to such registration statement.

(c) Claim Procedure. Any Person entitled to indemnification hereunder will (i) give prompt written notice to the indemnifying party of any claim with respect to which it seeks indemnification (provided that the failure to give prompt notice will impair any Person's right to indemnification hereunder only to the extent such failure has prejudiced the indemnifying party) and (ii) unless in such indemnified party's reasonable judgment a conflict of interest between such indemnified and indemnifying parties may exist with respect to such claim, permit such indemnifying party to assume the defense of such claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party. If such defense is assumed, the indemnifying party will not be subject to any liability for any settlement made by the indemnified party without its consent (but such consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). An indemnifying party who is not entitled to, or elects not to, assume the defense of a claim will not be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of more than one counsel for all parties indemnified by such indemnifying party with respect to such claim, unless in the reasonable judgment of any indemnified party a conflict of interest may exist between such indemnified party and any other of such indemnified parties with respect to such claim. In such instance, the conflicted indemnified parties will have a right to retain one separate counsel, chosen by the Majority Holders, at the expense of the indemnifying party.

(d) Contribution. If the indemnification provided for in this Section 6 is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unavailable to, or is insufficient to hold harmless, an indemnified party or is otherwise unenforceable with respect to any Loss referred to herein, then such indemnifying party will contribute to the amounts paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such Loss, (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the indemnifying party on the one hand and of the indemnified party on the other hand in connection with the statements or omissions which resulted in such Loss as well as any other relevant equitable considerations or (ii) if the allocation provided by clause (i) of this Section 6(d) is not permitted by applicable law, then in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only such relative fault but also the relative benefit of the Company on the one hand and of the sellers of Registrable Securities and any other sellers participating in the registration statement on the other in connection with the statement or omissions which resulted in such Losses, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations; provided that the maximum amount of liability in respect of such contribution will be limited, in the case of each seller of Registrable Securities, to an amount equal to the net proceeds actually received by such seller from the sale of Registrable Securities effected pursuant to such registration. The relative fault of the indemnifying party and of the indemnified party will be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue (or, as applicable alleged) untrue statement of a material fact or the omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the indemnifying party or by the indemnified party and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. The parties hereto agree that it would not be just or equitable if the contribution pursuant to this Section 6(d) were to be determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take into account such equitable considerations. The amount paid or payable by an indemnified party as a result of the Losses referred to herein will be deemed to include any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating or defending against any action or claim which is the subject hereof. No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) will be entitled to contribution from any Person who is not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

(e) Release. No indemnifying party will, except with the consent of the indemnified party, consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement that does not include as an unconditional term thereof giving by the claimant or plaintiff to such indemnified party of a release from all liability in respect to such claim or litigation.

(f) Non-exclusive Remedy; Survival. The indemnification and contribution provided for under this Agreement will be in addition to any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any indemnified party may have pursuant to law or contract (and the Company and its Subsidiaries shall be considered the indemnitors of first resort in all such circumstances to which this Section 6 applies) and will remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of the indemnified party or any officer, director or controlling Person of such indemnified party and will survive the transfer of Registrable Securities and the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

- Section 7 Cooperation with Underwritten Offerings. No Person may participate in any underwritten registration hereunder unless such Person (i) agrees to sell such Person's securities on the basis provided in any underwriting arrangements approved by the Person or Persons entitled hereunder to approve such arrangements (including, without limitation, pursuant to the terms of any over-allotment or "green shoe" option requested by the underwriters; provided that no Holder will be required to sell more than the number of Registrable Securities such Holder has requested to include in such registration) and (ii) completes, executes and delivers all questionnaires, powers of attorney, stock powers, custody agreements, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents and agreements required under the terms of such underwriting arrangements or as may be reasonably requested by the Company and the lead managing underwriter(s). To the extent that any such agreement is entered into pursuant to, and consistent with, Section 3, Section 4 and/or this Section 7, the respective rights and obligations created under such agreement will supersede the respective rights and obligations of the Holders, the Company and the underwriters created thereby with respect to such registration.
- Section 8 Subsidiary Public Offering. If, after an initial Public Offering of the common equity securities of one of its Subsidiaries, the Company distributes securities of such Subsidiary to its equityholders, then the rights and obligations of the Company pursuant to this Agreement will apply, mutatis mutandis, to such Subsidiary, and the Company will cause such Subsidiary to comply with such Subsidiary's obligations under this Agreement as if it were the Company hereunder.
- Section 9 Joinder. The Company may from time to time (with the prior written consent of the Majority Holders) permit any Person who acquires Common Equity (or rights to acquire Common Equity) to become a party to this Agreement and to be entitled to and be bound by all of the rights and obligations as a Holder by obtaining an executed joinder to this Agreement from such Person in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto (a "Joinder"). In addition, any transferee of Registrable Securities shall (with the prior written consent of the Majority Holders) be permitted to become a party to this Agreement and to be entitled to and be bound by all of the rights and obligations as a Holder by obtaining an executed Joinder. Upon the execution and delivery of a Joinder by such Person, the Common Equity held by such Person shall become the category of Registrable Securities (i.e. Investor, Executive or Other Holder Registrable Securities), and such Person shall be deemed the category of Holder (i.e. Investor, Executive or Other Holder), in each case as set forth on the signature page to such Joinder.

Section 10 General Provisions.

(a) Amendments and Waivers. Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of this Agreement may be amended, modified or waived only with the prior written consent of the Company and the Majority Holders. The failure or delay of any Person to enforce any of the provisions of this Agreement will in no way be construed as a waiver of such provisions and will not affect the right of such Person thereafter to enforce each and every provision of this Agreement in accordance with its terms. A waiver or consent to or of any breach or default by any Person in the performance by that Person of his, her or its obligations under this Agreement will not be deemed to be a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance by that Person of the same or any other obligations of that Person under this Agreement.

(b) Remedies. The parties to this Agreement will be entitled to enforce their rights under this Agreement specifically (without posting a bond or other security), to recover damages caused by reason of any breach of any provision of this Agreement and to exercise all other rights existing in their favor. The parties hereto agree and acknowledge that a breach of this Agreement would cause irreparable harm and money damages would not be an adequate remedy for any such breach and that, in addition to any other rights and remedies existing hereunder, any party will be entitled to specific performance and/or other injunctive relief from any court of law or equity of competent jurisdiction (without posting any bond or other security) in order to enforce or prevent violation of the provisions of this Agreement.

(c) Severability. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement will be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of this Agreement is held to be prohibited, invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable law or regulation in any jurisdiction, such prohibition, invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement in such jurisdiction or in any other jurisdiction, but this Agreement will be reformed, construed and enforced in such jurisdiction as if such prohibited, invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein.

(d) Entire Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement contains the complete agreement and understanding among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes and preempts any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the parties hereto, written or oral, which may have related to the subject matter hereof in any way.

(e) Successors and Assigns. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement will bind and inure to the benefit and be enforceable by the Company and its successors and permitted assigns and the Holders and their respective successors and permitted assigns (whether so expressed or not).

(f) Notices. In furtherance of the foregoing, the internal law of the State of Delaware will control the interpretation and construction of this Agreement (and all schedules and exhibits hereto), even though under that jurisdiction's choice of law or conflict of law analysis, the substantive law of some other jurisdiction would ordinarily apply.

At the request of any party hereto or to any such agreement or instrument, each other party hereto or thereto will re-execute original forms thereof and deliver them to all other parties. No party hereto or to any such agreement or instrument will raise the use of a facsimile machine or electronic mail to deliver a signature or the fact that any signature or agreement or instrument was transmitted or communicated through the use of a facsimile machine or electronic mail as a defense to the formation or enforceability of a contract and each such party forever waives any such defense.

BIOSCRIP, INC.DIRECTOR NOMINATION AGREEMENT

THIS DIRECTOR NOMINATION AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of August 6, 2019 by and among BioScrip, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and HC Group Holdings I, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Investor"). This Agreement will become effective (the "Effective Date") only upon the issuance of the Company's common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "Common Stock"), at the First Merger Effective Time, as such term is defined under that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 14, 2019, by and among the Company, Investor, HC Group Holdings II, Inc., a Delaware corporation, HC Group Holdings III, Inc., a Delaware corporation, Beta Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and Beta Sub, LLC, a Delaware corporation (as amended or modified, the "Merger Agreement").

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, each of the parties to this Agreement agrees as follows:

1. Board Nomination Rights.

(a) From the Effective Date until the date that Investor and its Affiliates (as defined below) cease to Beneficially Own shares of Common Stock representing at least 10% of the total voting power of the then outstanding Common Stock, at every meeting ("Election Meeting") of the board of directors of the Company (the "Board"), or a committee thereof, for which directors of the Company are appointed by the Board or are nominated to stand for election by stockholders of the Company, Investor shall have the right to nominate for election to the Board, or appoint to fill a vacancy on the Board, as applicable, in each case in accordance with the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws (the "Bylaws"), a number of representatives equal to the product obtained by multiplying (a) the percentage of the total voting power of the then outstanding Common Stock then Beneficially Owned by Investor and its Affiliates (the "Investor Voting Control") and (b) the authorized number of directors on the Board, including any vacancies, with such product rounded up to the nearest whole number in all cases (such persons, the "Nominees"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the number of Nominees at the Effective Date shall be eight, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to modify Section 1.6 of the Merger Agreement and in the event of a conflict between the provision of this Agreement and the Merger Agreement, the Merger Agreement shall control. "Beneficially Own" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 13d-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. "Affiliate" of any person shall mean any other person controlled by, controlling or under common control with such person; where "control" (including, with its correlative meanings, "controlling," "controlled by" and "under common control with") means possession, directly or indirectly, of power to direct or cause the direction of management or policies (whether through ownership of securities, by contract or otherwise).

(b) No reduction in the number of shares of Common Stock over which Investor retains voting control shall shorten the term of any incumbent director. At the Effective Date, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Board shall be comprised of 10 members and the initial Nominees shall be Timothy Sullivan, Elizabeth Q. Betten, Nitan Sahney, Harry M. Jansen Kraemer, Jr., John J. Arlotta, John Rademacher, Mark Vainisi and Alan Nielsen.

(c) In the event that any Nominee shall cease to serve as a director prior to the end of a term for which it has been duly elected because of such Nominee's removal, death, disability, disqualification or resignation from the Board, Investor shall be entitled to promptly designate such person's successor in accordance with this Agreement (regardless of the level of Investor Voting Control at the time of such designation, unless the Investor Voting Control at such time is less than 10% of the total voting power of the then outstanding Common Stock, in which case the Investor shall have no right to designate a replacement Nominee) and the Board shall use reasonable best efforts to promptly fill the vacancy with such successor Nominee; it being understood that any such designee shall serve the remainder of the term of the director whom such designee replaces.

(d) If a Nominee withdraws as a nominee prior to an Election Meeting or is otherwise unable to stand for election for any other reason (whether by reason of such person's death, disability, disqualification or otherwise), Investor shall be entitled to designate promptly a replacement Nominee prior to such Election Meeting.

(e) If the size of the Board is expanded, Investor shall be entitled to nominate a number of Nominees to fill the newly created vacancies such that the total number of Nominees serving on the Board following such expansion will be equal to that number of Nominees that Investor would be entitled to nominate in accordance with Section 1(a) if such expansion occurred immediately prior to an Election Meeting, and the Board shall appoint such Nominees to the Board.

(f) The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to maintain in effect at all times directors and officers indemnity insurance coverage on customary and reasonable terms, and the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws (each as may be further amended, supplemented or waived in accordance with its terms) shall at all times provide for indemnification, exculpation and advancement of expenses to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law.

(g) At such time as the Company ceases to be a "controlled company" and is required by applicable law or the Nasdaq Stock Market (the "Exchange") listing standards to have a majority of the Board comprised of "independent directors" (subject in each case to any applicable phase-in periods), Investor's Nominees shall include a number of persons that qualify as "independent directors" under applicable law and the Nasdaq Stock Market (the "Exchange") listing standards such that, together with any other "independent directors" then serving on the Board that are not Nominees, the Board is comprised of a majority of "independent directors"; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 1(g) shall require the Company to cause John C. Rademacher (or his successor as Chief Executive Officer) to resign from the Board and/or prevent the Company from nominating John C. Rademacher or the then current Chief Executive Officer for re-election to the Board after the Company ceases to qualify as a "controlled company" under the rules of the Exchange if serving as Chief Executive Officer at such time.

2. Company Obligations. The Company agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to ensure that prior to the date that Investor and its Affiliates cease to Beneficially Own shares of Common Stock representing at least 10% of the total voting power of the then outstanding Common Stock, (i) each Nominee is included in the Board's slate of nominees to the stockholders (the "Board's Slate") for each election of directors; and (ii) each Nominee designated by Investor in accordance with this Agreement is included in the proxy statement prepared by management of the Company in connection with soliciting proxies for every Election Meeting (each, a "Director Election Proxy Statement"), and at every adjournment or postponement thereof, and on every action or approval by written consent of the stockholders of the Company or the Board with respect to the election of members of the Board. The calculation of the number of Nominees that Investor is entitled to nominate to the Board's Slate for any election of directors shall be based on the Investor Voting Control immediately prior to the mailing to shareholders of the Director Election Proxy Statement relating to such election (or, if earlier, the filing of the definitive Director Election Proxy Statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission). Unless Investor notifies the Company otherwise prior to the mailing to shareholders of the Director Election Proxy Statement relating to an election of directors, the Nominees for such election shall be presumed to be the same Nominees currently serving on the Board, and no further action shall be required of Investor for the Board to include such Nominees on the Board's Slate; provided, that, in the event Investor is no longer entitled to nominate the full number of Nominees then serving on the Board, Investor shall provide advance written notice to the Company, of which currently servicing Nominee(s) shall be excluded from the Board Slate, and of any other changes to the list of Nominees. If Investor fails to provide such notice prior to the mailing to shareholders of the Director Election Proxy Statement relating to such election (or, if earlier, the filing of the definitive Director Election Proxy Statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission), a majority of the independent directors then serving on the Board shall determine which of the Nominees of the Investor then serving on the Board will be included in the Board's Slate. Furthermore, the Company agrees for so long as the Company qualifies as a "controlled company" under the rules of the Exchange the Company will elect to be a "controlled company" for purposes of the Exchange and will disclose in its annual meeting proxy statement that it is a "controlled company" and the basis for that determination. The Company and Investor acknowledge and agree that, as of the Effective Date, the Company will be a "controlled company."

3. Committees. From and after the Effective Date hereof until such time as Investor and its Affiliates cease to Beneficially Own shares of Common Stock representing at least 10% of the total voting power of the then outstanding Common Stock, Investor shall have the right to designate a number of members of each committee of the Board equal to the product obtained by multiplying (a) the Investor Voting Control and (b) the number of positions, including any vacancies, on the applicable committee with such product rounded up to the nearest whole number, provided that any such designee shall be a director and shall be eligible to serve on the applicable committee under applicable law or listing standards of the Exchange, including any applicable independence requirements (subject in each case to any applicable exceptions for "controlled companies"). Any additional members shall be determined by the Board. Nominees designated to serve on a Board committee shall have the right to remain on such committee until the next election of directors, regardless of the level of Investor Voting Control following such designation. Unless Investor notifies the Company otherwise prior to the time the Board takes action to change the composition of a Board committee, and to the extent Investor has the requisite Investor Voting Control to nominate a Board committee member at the time the Board takes action to change the composition of any such Board committee, any Nominee currently designated by the Investor to serve on a committee shall be presumed to be re-designated for such committee.

4. Obligations of Investor. As a condition to any Nominee's nomination for election or designation to fill a vacancy as a director of the Company hereunder, Investor shall (or shall cause the Nominee) promptly upon the request of the Company from time to time and on or prior to the date specified by the Company in such request, provide to the Company (i) such information as is required to be disclosed in a Director Election Proxy Statement under applicable law, (ii) an executed consent from the Nominee to be named as a nominee in the Company's Director Election Proxy Statement for the applicable stockholder meeting and to serve as a director if so elected, and (iii) such other information as the Company may reasonably and customarily request.

5. Amendment and Waiver. Any provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived if, but only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and is signed, in the case of an amendment, by the Company and Investor, or in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom the waiver is to be effective. No failure or delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. Investor shall not be obligated to nominate all (or any) of the Nominees it is entitled to nominate pursuant to this Agreement for any election of directors but the failure to do so shall not constitute a waiver of its rights hereunder with respect to future elections; provided, however, that in the event Investor fails to nominate all (or any) of the Nominees it is entitled to nominate pursuant to this Agreement prior to the mailing to shareholders of the Director Election Proxy Statement relating to such election (or, if earlier, the filing of the definitive Director Election Proxy Statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission), the Governance, Compliance and Nominating Committee of the Board shall be entitled to nominate individuals in lieu of such Nominees for inclusion in the Board's Slate and the applicable Director Election Proxy Statement with respect to the election for which such failure occurred and Investor shall be deemed to have waived its rights hereunder with respect to such election. The rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

6. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate automatically on the date that Investor and its Affiliates, collectively, cease to Beneficially Own shares of Common Stock representing at least 10% of the total voting power of the then outstanding Common Stock.

7. Benefit of Parties. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may not assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of Investor. Nothing herein contained shall confer or is intended to confer on any third party or entity that is not a party to this Agreement any rights under this Agreement.

8. Headings. Headings are for ease of reference only and shall not form a part of this Agreement.

9. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the law of the State of Delaware without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of laws thereof.

10. Jurisdiction. Any suit, action or proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement may be brought against any of the parties in any federal court located in the State of Delaware or any Delaware state court, and each of the parties hereby consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of such court (and of the appropriate appellate courts) in any such suit, action or proceeding and waives any objection to venue laid therein. Process in any such suit, action or proceeding may be served on any party anywhere in the world, whether within or without the jurisdiction of any such court. Without limiting the foregoing, each of the parties agrees that service of process upon such party at the address referred to in Section 17, together with written notice of such service to such party, shall be deemed effective service of process upon such party.

11. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT.

12. Entire Agreement. With the exception of the Merger Agreement, this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements (other than the Merger Agreement), understandings and negotiations, both written and oral among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

13. Counterparts; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original. In addition, whenever a financial ratio or test is to be calculated on a pro forma basis, the reference to the “Test Period” for purposes of calculating such financial ratio or test shall be deemed to be a reference to, and shall be based on, the most recently ended Test Period for which internal financial statements of the Parent Borrower are available (as determined in good faith by the Administrative Borrower). For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of the foregoing sentence shall not apply for purposes of calculating any such ratio or test for purposes of the definition of “Applicable Rate”, which shall be based on the financial statements delivered pursuant to Section 6.01(a) or (b), as applicable, for the relevant Test Period.

(b) For purposes of calculating any financial ratio or test or compliance with any covenant determined by reference to Consolidated EBITDA or Total Assets, Specified Transactions (with any incurrence or repayment of any Indebtedness in connection therewith to be subject to clause (d) of this Section 1.08 (other than Indebtedness incurred or repaid under any revolving credit facility or line of credit)) that have been made (i) during the applicable Test Period or (ii) if applicable as described in clause (a) above, subsequent to such Test Period and prior to or simultaneously with the event for which the calculation of any such ratio is made shall be calculated on a pro forma basis assuming that all such Specified Transactions (and any increase or decrease in Consolidated EBITDA, Total Assets and the component financial definitions used therein attributable to any Specified Transaction) had occurred on the first day of the applicable Test Period (or, in the case of Total Assets, on the last day of the applicable Test Period). If since the beginning of any applicable Test Period any Person that subsequently became a Restricted Subsidiary or was merged, amalgamated or consolidated with or into the Parent Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries since the beginning of such Test Period shall have made any Specified Transaction that would have required adjustment pursuant to this Section 1.08, then such financial ratio or test (or Consolidated EBITDA or Total Assets) shall be calculated to give pro forma effect thereto in accordance with this Section 1.08.

(c) Whenever pro forma effect is to be given to the Transactions, a Specified Transaction or the implementation of an operational initiative or operational change, the pro forma calculations shall be made in good faith by a responsible financial or accounting officer of the Administrative Borrower and may include, for the avoidance of doubt, the amount of “run-rate” cost savings, operating expense reductions, operating initiatives, other operating improvements and synergies projected by the Administrative Borrower in good faith to be realized as a result of specified actions taken, committed to be taken or expected to be taken (in the good faith determination of the Administrative Borrower) (calculated on a pro forma basis as though such cost savings, operating expense reductions, operating initiatives, other operating improvements and synergies had been realized on the first day of such period and as if such cost savings, operating expense reductions and synergies were realized during the entirety of such period) and “run-rate” means the full recurring benefit for a period that is associated with any action taken, committed to be taken or with respect to which substantial steps have been taken or are expected to be taken (including any savings expected to result from the elimination of a public target’s compliance costs with public company requirements) net of the amount of actual benefits realized during such period from such actions, and any such adjustments shall be included in the initial pro forma calculations of such financial ratios or tests and during any subsequent Test Period in which the effects thereof are expected to be realized relating to the Transactions, such Specified Transaction or such implementation of an operational initiative or operational change; provided that (A) such amounts are reasonably identifiable and factually supportable in the good faith judgment of the Administrative Borrower, (B) except as set forth in the definition of Consolidated EBITDA, such actions are taken, committed to be taken or with respect to which substantial steps have been taken or are expected to be taken no later than twenty-four (24) months after the date of the Transactions, such Specified Transaction or implementation of such operational initiative or operational change, (C) no amounts shall be added pursuant to this clause (c) to the extent duplicative of any amounts that are otherwise added back in computing Consolidated EBITDA (or any other components thereof), whether through a pro forma adjustment or otherwise, with respect to such period, (D) it is understood and agreed that, subject to compliance with the other provisions of this Section 1.08(c), amounts to be included in pro forma calculations pursuant to this Section 1.08(c) may be included in Test Periods in which the Specified Transaction to which such amounts relate to is no longer being given pro forma effect pursuant to Section 1.08(b) and (E) any increase in Consolidated EBITDA as a result of cost savings, operating expense reductions, operating initiatives, other operating improvements and synergies pursuant to this Section 1.08(c) (other than related to the Transactions) shall be subject to the limitation set forth in clause (a)(vii) of the definition of Consolidated EBITDA.

(d) In the event that (w) the Parent Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries incurs (including by assumption or guarantees) or repays (including by redemption, repayment, amortization, retirement, discharge, defeasance or extinguishment) any Indebtedness (other than Indebtedness incurred or repaid under any revolving credit facility or line of credit), (x) the Parent Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries issues, repurchases or redeems Disqualified Equity Interests, (y) any Restricted Subsidiary issues, repurchases or redeems Preferred Stock or (z) any Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries establishes or eliminates (or designates or undesignates) any Designated Revolving Commitments, in each case included in the calculations of any financial ratio or test, (i) during the applicable Test Period or (ii) subsequent to the end of the applicable Test Period and prior to or simultaneously with the event for which the calculation of any such ratio is made, then such financial ratio or test shall be calculated giving pro forma effect to such incurrence or repayment of Indebtedness, or such issuance or redemption of Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock, in each case to the extent required, as if the same had occurred on the last day of the applicable Test Period (except in the case of the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio (or similar ratio), in which case such incurrence, assumption, guarantee, redemption, repayment, retirement, discharge, defeasance or extinguishment of Indebtedness or such issuance, repurchase or redemption of Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock will be given effect, as if the same had occurred on the first day of the applicable Test Period) and for all purposes, such financial ratio or test shall be calculated giving pro forma effect to the full amount of any undrawn Designated Revolving Commitments as if such full amount of Indebtedness thereunder had been incurred thereunder throughout such period.

(e) If any Indebtedness bears a floating rate of interest and is being given pro forma effect, the interest on such Indebtedness shall be calculated as if the rate in effect on the date of the event for which the calculation of the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio (or similar ratio) is made had been the applicable rate for the entire period (taking into account any interest hedging arrangements applicable to such Indebtedness). Interest on a Capitalized Lease Obligation shall be deemed to accrue at an interest rate reasonably determined by a Financial Officer of the Administrative Borrower to be the rate of interest implicit in such Capitalized Lease Obligation in accordance with GAAP. Interest on Indebtedness that may optionally be determined at an interest rate based upon a factor of a prime or similar rate, a Eurocurrency Rate interbank offered rate, or other rate, shall be determined to have been based upon the rate actually chosen, or if none, then based upon such optional rate chosen as the Parent Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiaries may designate.

(f) (I) In connection with the calculation of the Total Net Leverage Ratio, the Senior Secured Net Leverage Ratio, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio or the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio for purposes of incurring Indebtedness (including Preferred Stock) or Disqualified Equity Interests under this Agreement, no effect (pro forma or otherwise) shall be given to any Indebtedness (or Preferred Stock) or Disqualified Equity Interests being incurred (or commitments obtained) on the same date (or on a such other subsequent date which otherwise require Pro Forma Effect to be given to such incurrence (or obtaining of commitments)) pursuant to any fixed dollar basket or basket based on Consolidated EBITDA; and (II) in connection with the calculation of the Total Net Leverage Ratio, the Senior Secured Net Leverage Ratio, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio or the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio for purposes of incurring any Lien under this Agreement, no effect (pro forma or otherwise) shall be given to any Liens being incurred on the same date (or on a such other subsequent date which otherwise require Pro Forma Effect to be given to such incurrence) pursuant to any fixed dollar basket or basket based on Consolidated EBITDA.

(g) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any Loan Document to the contrary, when (a) determining compliance with any provision of this Agreement which requires the calculation of the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio, the Senior Secured Net Leverage Ratio or the Total Net Leverage Ratio, (b) determining compliance with any provision of this Agreement which requires that no Default or Event of Default has occurred, is continuing or would result therefrom, (c) determining compliance with any provision of this Agreement which requires compliance with any representations and warranties set forth herein or (d) testing availability under baskets set forth in this Agreement (including baskets measured as a percentage of Consolidated EBITDA), in each case in connection with a Limited Condition Transaction, the date of determination of such ratio or other provisions, determination of whether any Default or Event of Default has occurred, is continuing or would result therefrom, determination of compliance with any representations or warranties or the availability under any baskets shall, at the option of the Administrative Borrower (the Administrative Borrower's election to exercise such option in connection with any Limited Condition Transaction, an "LCT Election", which LCT Election may be in respect of one or more of clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) above), be deemed to be the date the definitive agreements (or other relevant definitive documentation) for such Limited Condition Transaction are entered into (the "LCT Test Date"). If on a pro forma basis after giving effect to such Limited Condition Transaction and the other transactions to be entered into in connection therewith (including any incurrence or issuance of Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock and the use of proceeds thereof), with such ratios and other provisions calculated as if such Limited Condition Transaction or other transactions had occurred at the beginning of the most recent Test Period ending prior to the LCT Test Date for which internal financial statements are available (as determined in good faith by the Administrative Borrower), the Parent Borrower could have taken such action on the relevant LCT Test Date in compliance with the applicable ratios, default provisions or other provisions, such ratios, default provisions or other provisions shall be deemed to have been complied with on such date. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) if, following the LCT Test Date, any of such ratios, default provisions or other provisions are exceeded or breached as a result of fluctuations in such ratio (including due to fluctuations in Consolidated EBITDA or other components of such ratio (including due to fluctuations of the Target of any Limited Condition Transaction, including its cash and Cash Equivalents or the amount of such Indebtedness)) or other provisions at or prior to the consummation of the relevant Limited Condition Transaction, such ratios, default provisions or other provisions will not be deemed to have been exceeded or failed to have been satisfied as a result of such fluctuations solely for purposes of determining whether the Limited Condition Transaction is permitted hereunder and (ii) such ratios and compliance with such conditions shall not be tested at the time of consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction or related Specified Transactions. If the Administrative Borrower has made an LCT Election for any Limited Condition Transaction, then in connection with any subsequent calculation of any ratio, basket availability or compliance with any other provision hereunder on or following the relevant LCT Test Date and prior to the earliest of the date on which such Limited Condition Transaction is consummated and the date that the definitive agreement for such Limited Condition Transaction is terminated or expires without consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction, any such ratio, basket or compliance with any other provision hereunder shall be calculated on a pro forma basis assuming such Limited Condition Transaction and other transactions in connection therewith (including any incurrence or issuance of Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock, and the use of proceeds thereof) had been consummated on the LCT Test Date; provided that for purposes of any such calculation of the Fixed Charges Coverage Ratio, Fixed Charges will be calculated using an assumed interest rate for the Indebtedness to be incurred in connection with such Limited Condition Transaction based on the indicative interest margin contained in any financing commitment documentation with respect to such Indebtedness or, if no such indicative interest margin exists, as reasonably determined by the Administrative Borrower in good faith.

Section 1.09 Currency Generally.

For purposes of determining compliance with Sections 7.01, 7.03, 7.05, 7.06 and 7.13 and the definition of Permitted Investments with respect to any amount of Indebtedness or Investment in a currency other than Dollars, no Default shall be deemed to have occurred solely as a result of changes in rates of currency exchange occurring after the time such Indebtedness or Investment is incurred (so long as such Indebtedness or Investment, at the time incurred, made or acquired, was permitted hereunder).

For purposes of determining the Senior Secured Net Leverage Ratio, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio, the Total Net Leverage Ratio or any other leverage-based ratio or test under this Agreement, the amount of Indebtedness shall reflect the currency translation effects, determined in accordance with GAAP, of Swap Contracts permitted hereunder for currency exchange risks with respect to the applicable currency in effect on the date of determination of the Dollar equivalent of such Indebtedness.

ARTICLE II.
THE COMMITMENTS AND CREDIT EXTENSIONS

Section 2.01 The Loans.

(a) The Term Borrowings. (i) Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, each Term Lender severally agrees to make to Initial Borrower on the Closing Date one or more loans denominated in Dollars in an aggregate amount not to exceed the amount of such Term Lender's Term B Commitment; and (ii) subject to the terms and conditions set forth in any Incremental Amendment or Refinancing Amendment providing for, as applicable, the making, exchange, renewal, replacement or refinancing of Term Loans, each Term Lender party thereto severally agrees to, as applicable, make, exchange, renew or replace Term Loans on the date specified therein in an aggregate amount not to exceed the amount of such Term Lender's applicable Term Commitment as set forth therein. Amounts borrowed, exchanged, renewed or replaced under this Section 2.01(a) and repaid or prepaid may not be reborrowed. Term Loans may be Base Rate Loans or Eurocurrency Rate Loans, as further provided herein.

(b) [Reserved].

(c) Debt Assumption. Notwithstanding anything herein or in the Loan Documents to the contrary:

(i) On the Closing Date, immediately after the consummation of the Merger and upon the effectiveness of this Agreement, the Initial Borrower shall be the sole Borrower hereunder and under the Loan Documents.

(ii) On the Closing Date, immediately after the payment of any Transaction Expenses payable on the Closing Date, the Company will become a party hereto and to the Loan Documents and will be the Parent Borrower and all rights, title, interests, liabilities, duties and obligations (including the Indebtedness and Obligations of the Initial Borrower) in, to and under this Agreement, the other Loan Documents and any other documents in connection therewith shall be, and shall be deemed to be, assumed by the Company and the Company agrees to pay, perform and discharge all of the Initial Borrower's obligations and covenants as "Parent Borrower" and a "Loan Party" thereunder in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and otherwise be liable for such Indebtedness and to perform and discharge all of the Obligations and any and all obligations under this Agreement, the other Loan Documents and any other documents in connection therewith (the transactions described in this Section 2.01(c)(ii), collectively, the "Debt Assumption"). Immediately after the Debt Assumption, the Closing Date Refinancing shall be consummated

Section 2.02 Borrowings, Conversions and Continuations of Loans.

(a) Each Term Borrowing, each conversion of Term Loans from one Type to the other, and each continuation of Eurocurrency Rate Loans shall be made upon the Administrative Borrower's irrevocable notice to the Administrative Agent (provided that the notices in respect of the initial Credit Extensions, or in connection with any Permitted Acquisition or other transaction permitted under this agreement, may be conditioned on the occurrence of the Closing Date or the occurrence of such Permitted Acquisition or other transaction, as applicable, so long as the Borrowers indemnify the Lenders for any amounts that would be payable under Section 3.05), which may be given by (A) telephone, or (B) a Committed Loan Notice; provided that any telephonic notice (which shall be accompanied by an electronic mail notice prior to funding) by the Administrative Borrower must be confirmed promptly by delivery to the Administrative Agent of a written Committed Loan Notice no later than the date of funding, appropriately completed and signed by a Responsible Officer of the Administrative Borrower. Each such Committed Loan Notice must be received by the Administrative Agent not later than 12:00 noon (x) three (3) Business Days prior to the requested date of any Borrowing or continuation of Eurocurrency Rate Loans, any conversion of Base Rate Loans to Eurocurrency Rate Loans or any Borrowing of, continuation of or conversion into Loans that are denominated in a currency other than Dollars pursuant to Section 2.02(a) (vi) below or (y) on the requested date of any Borrowing of Base Rate Loans. Except as provided in Section 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16, each Borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of Eurocurrency Rate Loans shall be in a minimum principal amount of $1,000,000, or a whole multiple of $500,000 in excess thereof. Except as provided in Section 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16, each Borrowing of or conversion to Base Rate Loans shall be in a minimum principal amount of $500,000 or a whole multiple of $100,000 in excess thereof. Each Committed Loan Notice (whether telephonic or written) shall specify (i) whether the Borrowers are requesting a Term Borrowing, a conversion of Term Loans from one Type to the other or a continuation of Eurocurrency Rate Loans, (ii) the requested date of the Borrowing, conversion or continuation, as the case may be (which shall be a Business Day), (iii) the principal amount of Loans to be borrowed, converted or continued, (iv) the Class and Type of Loans to be borrowed or the Type of Loans to which existing Term Loans are to be converted, (v) if applicable, the duration of the Interest Period with respect thereto, (vi) with respect to Eurocurrency Rate Loans only, the currency of Loans to be borrowed, converted or continued, (vii) the Parent Borrower or Subsidiary Borrower to which such Loan shall be made and (viii) wire instructions of the account(s) to which funds are to be disbursed (it being understood, for the avoidance of doubt, that the amount to be disbursed to any particular account may be less than the minimum or multiple limitations set forth above so long as the aggregate amount to be disbursed to all such accounts pursuant to such Borrowing meets such minimums and multiples). If the Administrative Borrower fails to give a timely notice requesting a conversion or continuation, then the applicable Loans shall made or continued as the same Type of Loan, which if a Eurocurrency Rate Loan shall have a one month Interest Period. Any such automatic continuation of Eurocurrency Rate Loans shall be effective as of the last day of the Interest Period then in effect with respect to the applicable Eurocurrency Rate Loans. If the Administrative Borrower requests a Borrowing of, conversion to, or continuation of Eurocurrency Rate Loans in any such Committed Loan Notice, but fails to specify an Interest Period, it will be deemed to have specified an Interest Period of one (1) month.

(b) Following receipt of a Committed Loan Notice, the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Lender of the amount of its Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement of the applicable Class of Loans, and if no timely notice of a conversion or continuation is provided by the Administrative Borrower, the Administrative Agent shall notify each Lender of the details of any automatic continuation of Eurocurrency Rate Loans or continuation of Loans described in Section 2.02(a). In the case of each Borrowing, each Appropriate Lender shall make the amount of its Loan available to the Administrative Agent in Same Day Funds at the Administrative Agent's Office not later than 2:00 p.m. on the Business Day specified in the applicable Committed Loan Notice. The Administrative Agent shall make all funds so received available to the Borrowers in like funds as received by the Administrative Agent either by (i) crediting the account(s) of the Borrowers on the books of the Administrative Agent with the amount of such funds or (ii) wire transfer of such funds, in each case in accordance with instructions provided by the Borrowers to (and reasonably acceptable to) the Administrative Agent.

(c) Except as otherwise provided herein, a Eurocurrency Rate Loan may be continued or converted only on the last day of an Interest Period for such Eurocurrency Rate Loan unless the Borrowers pay the amount due, if any, under Section 3.05 in connection therewith. During the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders may require by notice to the Borrowers that no Loans may be converted to or continued as Eurocurrency Rate Loans.

(d) The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify the Borrowers and the Lenders of the interest rate applicable to any Interest Period for Eurocurrency Rate Loans upon determination of such interest rate. The determination of the Eurocurrency Rate by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error. At any time that Base Rate Loans are outstanding, the Administrative Agent shall notify the Borrowers and the Lenders of any change in the Administrative Agent's prime rate used in determining the Base Rate promptly following the public announcement of such change.

(e) After giving effect to all Term Borrowings, all conversions of Term Loans from one Type to the other, and all continuations of Term Loans as the same Type, there shall not be more than ten (10) Interest Periods in effect unless otherwise agreed between the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent.

(f) The failure of any Lender to make the Loan to be made by it as part of any Borrowing shall not relieve any other Lender of its obligation, if any, hereunder to make its Loan on the date of such Borrowing, but no Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Lender to make the Loan to be made by such other Lender on the date of any Borrowing.

(g) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the date of any Borrowing, or in the case of Base Rate Loans, prior to 1:00 p.m. on the date of such Borrowing, that such Lender will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender's Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement of such Borrowing, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement available to the Administrative Agent on the date of such Borrowing in accordance with paragraph (b) above, and the Administrative Agent may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the Borrowers on such date a corresponding amount. If the Administrative Agent shall have so made funds available, then, to the extent that such Lender shall not have made such portion available to the Administrative Agent, each of such Lender and the Borrowers severally agree to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand such corresponding amount together with interest thereon, for each day from the date such amount is made available to the Borrowers until the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent at (i) in the case of the Borrowers, the interest rate applicable at the time to the Loans comprising such Borrowing and (ii) in the case of such Lender, the Overnight Rate plus any administrative, processing, or similar fees customarily charged by the Administrative Agent in accordance with the foregoing. A certificate of the Administrative Agent submitted to any Lender with respect to any amounts owing under this Section 2.02(g) shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error. If the Borrowers and such Lender shall pay such interest to the Administrative Agent for the same or an overlapping period, the Administrative Agent shall promptly remit to the Borrowers the amount of such interest paid by the Borrowers for such period. If such Lender pays its share of the applicable Borrowing to the Administrative Agent, then the amount so paid shall constitute such Lender's Loan included in such Borrowing. Any payment by the Borrowers shall be without prejudice to any claim the Borrowers may have against a Lender that shall have failed to make such payment to the Administrative Agent.

(h) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any Lender may exchange, continue or rollover all of the portion of its Loans in connection with any refinancing, extension, loan modification or similar transaction permitted by the terms of this Agreement, pursuant to a cashless settlement mechanism approved by the Administrative Borrower, the Administrative Agent and such Lender.

Section 2.03 [Reserved].

Section 2.04 [Reserved].

Section 2.05 Prepayments.

(a) Optional. (i) The Borrowers may, upon notice to the Administrative Agent by the Borrowers, at any time or from time to time voluntarily prepay any Class or Classes of Term Loans and Revolving Credit Loans of any Class or Classes in whole or in part without premium or penalty (other than as required by Section 3.05 and except as provided in Section 2.05(a)(vi) below); provided that (1) such notice must be received by the Administrative Agent not later than 11:30 a.m. (A) three (3) Business Days prior to any date of prepayment of Eurocurrency Rate Loans and (B) on the date of prepayment of Base Rate Loans; (2) any prepayment of Eurocurrency Rate Loans shall be in a minimum principal amount of $1,000,000, or a whole multiple of $500,000 in excess thereof or, in each case, if less, the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding; and (3) any prepayment of Base Rate Loans shall be in a minimum principal amount of $500,000 or a whole multiple of $100,000 in excess thereof or, in each case, if less, the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding. Each such notice shall specify the date and amount of such prepayment and the Class(es) and Type(s) of Loans to be prepaid. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Appropriate Lender of its receipt of each such notice, and of the amount of such Lender's Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement of such prepayment. If such notice is given by the Borrowers, the Borrowers shall make such prepayment and the payment amount specified in such notice shall be due and payable on the date specified therein. Any prepayment of a Eurocurrency Rate Loan shall be accompanied by all accrued interest thereon, together with any additional amounts required pursuant to Section 2.05(a)(vi) and Section 3.05. In the case of each prepayment of the Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(a), the Borrowers may in its sole discretion select the Class or Classes of Borrowing or Borrowings (and the order of maturity of principal payments) to be repaid, and such payment shall be paid to the Appropriate Lenders in accordance with their respective Pro Rata Shares or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, (x) after any Extension, the Borrower may voluntarily prepay any Borrowing of any Class of non-extended Term Loans or non-extended Revolving Credit Loans (and terminate the related Revolving Credit Commitment) pursuant to which the related Extension Request was made without any obligation to prepay the corresponding Extended Term Loans or may voluntarily prepay any Borrowing of any Extended Term Loans or Extended Revolving Credit Loans (and terminate the related Extended Revolving Credit Commitment) pursuant to which the related Extension Request was made without any obligation to voluntarily prepay the corresponding non-extended Term Loans or non-extended Revolving Credit Loans and (y) after the incurrence or issuance of any Incremental Term Loans, Incremental Revolving Loans, Refinancing Term Loans, Refinancing Revolving Loans or Replacement Term Loans, the Borrower may voluntarily prepay (and terminate the related Commitment with respect to) any Borrowing of any Term B Loans or Revolving Credit Loans without any obligation to voluntarily prepay (or terminate the related Commitment with respect to) any Class of Incremental Term Loans, Incremental Revolving Loans, Refinancing Term Loans, Refinancing Revolving Loans or Replacement Term Loans, or may voluntarily prepay (and terminate the related Commitment with respect to) any Borrowing of any Class of Incremental Term Loans, Incremental Revolving Loans, Refinancing Term Loans, Refinancing Revolving Loans or Replacement Term Loans without any obligation to voluntarily prepay (or terminate the related Commitment with respect to) the Term B Loans, any other Term Loans or any Revolving Credit Loans; provided that any Incremental Loans effected as a Term Loan Increase or a Revolving Commitment Increase to any existing Class of Term Loans or Revolving Credit Loans and such existing Class of Term Loans or Revolving Credit Loans, as applicable, shall in all events be voluntarily prepaid on a pro rata basis.

(ii) [Reserved].

(iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Borrowers may rescind (or delay the date of prepayment identified in) any notice of prepayment under Section 2.05(a)(i) if such prepayment would have resulted from a refinancing of all or a portion of the applicable Facility or the occurrence of another event, which refinancing or other event shall not be consummated or shall otherwise be delayed; provided that the Borrowers shall pay to the applicable Lenders all amounts payable under Section 3.05 in connection with such rescission.

(iv) Voluntary prepayments (including contributions, assignments, open market purchases or transfers of any Class of Term Loans to the Borrowers under Section 10.07(k) or Section 10.07(l), which shall be deemed voluntary prepayments of the principal amount of the applicable Term Loans for purposes of this paragraph) of any Class of Term Loans permitted hereunder shall be applied to the remaining scheduled installments of principal thereof pursuant to Section 2.07(a) in a manner determined at the discretion of the Borrowers and specified in the notice of prepayment (and absent such direction, in direct order of maturity); and, subject to the other limitations expressly set forth in this Agreement, the Borrowers may elect to apply voluntary prepayments of Term Loans to one or more Class or Classes of Term Loans selected by the Borrowers.

(v) Notwithstanding anything in any Loan Document to the contrary, in addition to the terms set forth in Sections 2.05(a)(i) and 10.07, so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, any Borrower Party may (i) purchase outstanding Term Loans on a non-pro rata basis through open market purchases or (ii) prepay the outstanding Term Loans (which shall, for the avoidance of doubt, be automatically and permanently canceled immediately upon such prepayment), on the following basis:

(A) Any Borrower Party shall have the right to make a voluntary prepayment of Term Loans at a discount to par pursuant to a Borrower Offer of Specified Discount Prepayment, Borrower Solicitation of Discount Range Prepayment Offers or Borrower Solicitation of Discounted Prepayment Offers (any such prepayment, the “Discounted Term Loan Prepayment”), in each case made in accordance with this Section 2.05(a)(v) and without premium or penalty (other than as required by Section 3.05 and except as provided in Section 2.05(a)(vi) below).

(B) (1) Any Borrower Party may from time to time offer to make a Discounted Term Loan Prepayment by providing the Auction Agent with five (5) Business Days' notice (or such shorter period as agreed by the Auction Agent) in the form of a Specified Discount Prepayment Notice; provided that (I) any such offer shall be made available, at the sole discretion of the applicable Borrower Party, to (x) each Term Lender and/or (y) each Term Lender with respect to any Class of Term Loans on an individual Class basis, (II) any such offer shall specify the aggregate principal amount offered to be prepaid (the "Specified Discount Prepayment Amount") with respect to each applicable Class, the Class or Classes of Term Loans subject to such offer and the specific percentage discount to par (the "Specified Discount") of such Term Loans to be prepaid (it being understood that different Specified Discounts and/or Specified Discount Prepayment Amounts may be offered with respect to different Classes of Term Loans and, in such event, each such offer will be treated as a separate offer pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.05(a)(v)(B)), (III) the Specified Discount Prepayment Amount shall be in an aggregate amount not less than $5,000,000 and whole increments of $1,000,000 in excess thereof and (IV) each such offer shall remain outstanding through the Specified Discount Prepayment Response Date. The Auction Agent will promptly provide each Appropriate Lender with a copy of such Specified Discount Prepayment Notice and a form of the Specified Discount Prepayment Response to be completed and returned by each such Term Lender to the Auction Agent (or its delegate) by no later than 5:00 p.m., on the third Business Day after the date of delivery of such notice to such Lenders (which date may be extended for a period not exceeding three (3) Business Days upon notice by the applicable Borrower Party to, and with the consent of, the Auction Agent) (the "Specified Discount Prepayment Response Date").

(2) Each Term Lender receiving such offer shall notify the Auction Agent (or its delegate) by the Specified Discount Prepayment Response Date whether or not it agrees to accept a prepayment of any of its applicable then outstanding Term Loans at the Specified Discount and, if so (such accepting Lender, a "Discount Prepayment Accepting Lender"), the amount and the Classes of such Lender's Term Loans to be prepaid at such offered discount. Each acceptance of a Discounted Term Loan Prepayment by a Discount Prepayment Accepting Lender shall be irrevocable. Any Term Lender whose Specified Discount Prepayment Response is not received by the Auction Agent by the Specified Discount Prepayment Response Date shall be deemed to have declined to accept the applicable Borrower Offer of Specified Discount Prepayment.

(3) If there is at least one Discount Prepayment Accepting Lender, the relevant Borrower Party will make a prepayment of outstanding Term Loans pursuant to this paragraph (B) to each Discount Prepayment Accepting Lender on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date in accordance with the respective outstanding amount and Classes of Term Loans specified in such Lender's Specified Discount Prepayment Response given pursuant to subsection (2) above; provided that, if the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans accepted for prepayment by all Discount Prepayment Accepting Lenders exceeds the Specified Discount Prepayment Amount, such prepayment shall be made pro rata among the Discount Prepayment Accepting Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts accepted to be prepaid by each such Discount Prepayment Accepting Lender and the Auction Agent (in consultation with such Borrower Party and subject to rounding requirements of the Auction Agent made in its reasonable discretion) will calculate such proration (the "Specified Discount Proration"). The Auction Agent shall promptly, and in any case within three (3) Business Days following the Specified Discount Prepayment Response Date, notify (I) the relevant Borrower Party of the respective Term Lenders' responses to such offer, the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date, the aggregate principal amount of the Discounted Term Loan Prepayment and the Classes to be prepaid, (II) each Term Lender of the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date, and the aggregate principal amount and the Classes of Term Loans to be prepaid at the Specified Discount on such date and (III) each Discount Prepayment Accepting Lender of the Specified Discount Proration, if any, and confirmation of the principal amount, Class and Type of Term Loans of such Lender to be prepaid at the Specified Discount on such date. Each determination by the Auction Agent of the amounts stated in the foregoing notices to the Borrower Party and such Term Lenders shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes absent manifest error. The payment amount specified in such notice to the Borrower Party shall be due and payable by such Borrower Party on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date in accordance with subsection (F) below (subject to subsection (J) below).

(C) (1) Any Borrower Party may from time to time solicit Discount Range Prepayment Offers by providing the Auction Agent with five (5) Business Days' notice (or such shorter period as agreed by the Auction Agent) in the form of a Discount Range Prepayment Notice; provided that (I) any such solicitation shall be extended, at the sole discretion of such Borrower Party, to (x) each Term Lender and/or (y) each Term Lender with respect to any Class of Term Loans on an individual Class basis, (II) any such notice shall specify the maximum aggregate principal amount of the relevant Term Loans (the "Discount Range Prepayment Amount"), the Class or Classes of Term Loans subject to such offer and the maximum and minimum percentage discounts to par (the "Discount Range") of the principal amount of such Term Loans with respect to each relevant Class of Term Loans willing to be prepaid by such Borrower Party (it being understood that different Discount Ranges and/or Discount Range Prepayment Amounts may be offered with respect to different Classes of Term Loans and, in such event, each such offer will be treated as a separate offer pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.05(a)(v)(C)), (III) the Discount Range Prepayment Amount shall be in an aggregate amount not less than $5,000,000 and whole increments of $1,000,000 in excess thereof and (IV) each such solicitation by a Borrower Party shall remain outstanding through the Discount Range Prepayment Response Date. The Auction Agent will promptly provide each Appropriate Lender with a copy of such Discount Range Prepayment Notice and a form of the Discount Range Prepayment Offer to be submitted by a responding Lender to the Auction Agent (or its delegate) by no later than 5:00 p.m., on the third Business Day after the date of delivery of such notice to such Lenders (which date may be extended for a period not exceeding three (3) Business Days upon notice by the applicable Borrower Party to, and with the consent of, the Auction Agent) (the "Discount Range Prepayment Response Date"). Each Term Lender's Discount Range Prepayment Offer shall be irrevocable and shall specify a discount to par within the Discount Range (the "Submitted Discount") at which such Lender is willing to allow prepayment of any or all of its then outstanding Term Loans of the applicable Class or Classes and the maximum aggregate principal amount and Classes of such Lender's Term Loans (the "Submitted Amount") such Term Lender is willing to have prepaid at the Submitted Discount. Any Term Lender whose Discount Range Prepayment Offer is not received by the Auction Agent by the Discount Range Prepayment Response Date shall be deemed to have declined to accept a Discounted Term Loan Prepayment of any of its Term Loans at any discount to their par value within the Discount Range.

(2) The Auction Agent shall review all Discount Range Prepayment Offers received on or before the applicable Discount Range Prepayment Response Date and shall determine (in consultation with such Borrower Party and subject to rounding requirements of the Auction Agent made in its sole reasonable discretion) the Applicable Discount and Term Loans to be prepaid at such Applicable Discount in accordance with this subsection (C). The relevant Borrower Party agrees to accept on the Discount Range Prepayment Response Date all Discount Range Prepayment Offers received by the Auction Agent within the Discount Range by the Discount Range Prepayment Response Date, in the order from the Submitted Discount that is the largest discount to par to the Submitted Discount that is the smallest discount to par, up to and including the Submitted Discount that is the smallest discount to par within the Discount Range (such Submitted Discount that is the smallest discount to par within the Discount Range being referred to as the "Applicable Discount") which yields a Discounted Term Loan Prepayment in an aggregate principal amount equal to the lower of (I) the Discount Range Prepayment Amount and (II) the sum of all Submitted Amounts. Each Term Lender that has submitted a Discount Range Prepayment Offer to accept prepayment at a discount to par that is larger than or equal to the Applicable Discount shall be deemed to have irrevocably consented to prepayment of Term Loans equal to its Submitted Amount (subject to any required proration pursuant to the following subsection (3)) at the Applicable Discount (each such Term Lender, a "Participating Lender").

(3) If there is at least one Participating Lender, the relevant Borrower Party will prepay the respective outstanding Term Loans of each Participating Lender on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date in the aggregate principal amount and of the Classes specified in such Lender's Discount Range Prepayment Offer at the Applicable Discount; provided that if the Submitted Amount by all Participating Lenders offered at a discount to par greater than the Applicable Discount exceeds the Discount Range Prepayment Amount, prepayment of the principal amount of the relevant Term Loans for those Participating Lenders whose Submitted Discount is a discount to par greater than or equal to the Applicable Discount (the "Identified Participating Lenders") shall be made pro rata among the Identified Participating Lenders in accordance with the Submitted Amount of each such Identified Participating Lender and the Auction Agent (in consultation with such Borrower Party and subject to rounding requirements of the Auction Agent made in its sole reasonable discretion) will calculate such proration (the "Discount Range Proration"). The Auction Agent shall promptly, and in any case within five (5) Business Days following the Discount Range Prepayment Response Date, notify (I) the relevant Borrower Party of the respective Term Lenders' responses to such solicitation, the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date, the Applicable Discount, the aggregate principal amount of the Discounted Term Loan Prepayment and the Classes to be prepaid, (II) each Term Lender of the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date, the Applicable Discount, and the aggregate principal amount and Classes of Term Loans to be prepaid at the Applicable Discount on such date, (III) each Participating Lender of the aggregate principal amount and Classes of such Term Lender to be prepaid at the Applicable Discount on such date, and (IV) if applicable, each Identified Participating Lender of the Discount Range Proration. Each determination by the Auction Agent of the amounts stated in the foregoing notices to the relevant Borrower Party and Term Lenders shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes absent manifest error. The payment amount specified in such notice to the applicable Borrower Party shall be due and payable by such Borrower Party on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date in accordance with subsection (F) below (subject to subsection (J) below).

(D) (1) Any Borrower Party may from time to time solicit Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers by providing the Auction Agent with five (5) Business Days' notice (or such shorter period as agreed by the Auction Agent) in the form of a Solicited Discounted Prepayment Notice; provided that (I) any such solicitation shall be extended, at the sole discretion of such Borrower Party, to (x) each Term Lender and/or (y) each Lender with respect to any Class of Term Loans on an individual Class basis, (II) any such notice shall specify the maximum aggregate amount of the Term Loans (the "Solicited Discounted Prepayment Amount") and the Class or Classes of Term Loans the applicable Borrower Party is willing to prepay at a discount (it being understood that different Solicited Discounted Prepayment Amounts may be offered with respect to different Classes of Term Loans and, in such event, each such offer will be treated as a separate offer pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.05(a)(v)(D)), (III) the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Amount shall be in an aggregate amount not less than $5,000,000 and whole increments of $1,000,000 in excess thereof and (IV) each such solicitation by a Borrower Party shall remain outstanding through the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date. The Auction Agent will promptly provide each Appropriate Lender with a copy of such Solicited Discounted Prepayment Notice and a form of the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offer to be submitted by a responding Lender to the Auction Agent (or its delegate) by no later than 5:00 p.m., on the third Business Day after the date of delivery of such notice to such Term Lenders (which date may be extended for a period not exceeding three (3) Business Days upon notice by the Borrower Party to the Auction Agent) (the "Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date"). Each Term Lender's Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offer shall (x) be irrevocable, (y) remain outstanding until the Acceptance Date, and (z) specify both a discount to par (the "Offered Discount") at which such Term Lender is willing to allow prepayment of its then outstanding Term Loans and the maximum aggregate principal amount and Classes of such Term Loans (the "Offered Amount") such Term Lender is willing to have prepaid at the Offered Discount. Any Term Lender whose Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offer is not received by the Auction Agent by the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date shall be deemed to have declined prepayment of any of its Term Loans at any discount.

(2) The Auction Agent shall promptly provide the relevant Borrower Party with a copy of all Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers received on or before the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date. Such Borrower Party shall review all such Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers and select the largest of the Offered Discounts specified by the relevant responding Term Lenders in the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers that is acceptable to the Borrower Party in its sole discretion (the “Acceptable Discount”), if any. If the Borrower Party elects, in its sole discretion, to accept any Offered Discount as the Acceptable Discount, then as soon as practicable after the determination of the Acceptable Discount, but in no event later than by the third Business Day after the date of receipt by such Borrower Party from the Auction Agent of a copy of all Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers pursuant to the first sentence of this subsection (2) (the “Acceptance Date”), the Borrower Party shall submit an Acceptance and Prepayment Notice to the Auction Agent setting forth the Acceptable Discount. If the Auction Agent shall fail to receive an Acceptance and Prepayment Notice from the Borrower Party by the Acceptance Date, such Borrower Party shall be deemed to have rejected all Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers.

(3) Based upon the Acceptable Discount and the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers received by Auction Agent by the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date, within three (3) Business Days after receipt of an Acceptance and Prepayment Notice (the “Discounted Prepayment Determination Date”), the Auction Agent will determine (with the consent of such Borrower Party and subject to rounding requirements of the Auction Agent made in its sole reasonable discretion) the aggregate principal amount and the Classes of Term Loans (the “Acceptable Prepayment Amount”) to be prepaid by the relevant Borrower Party at the Acceptable Discount in accordance with this Section 2.05(a)(v)(D). If the Borrower Party elects to accept any Acceptable Discount, then the Borrower Party agrees to accept all Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offers received by Auction Agent by the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date, in the order from largest Offered Discount to smallest Offered Discount, up to and including the Acceptable Discount. Each Term Lender that has submitted a Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offer with an Offered Discount that is greater than or equal to the Acceptable Discount shall be deemed to have irrevocably consented to prepayment of Term Loans equal to its Offered Amount (subject to any required pro-rata reduction pursuant to the following sentence) at the Acceptable Discount (each such Lender, a “Qualifying Lender”). The Borrower Party will prepay outstanding Term Loans pursuant to this subsection (D) to each Qualifying Lender in the aggregate principal amount and of the Classes specified in such Lender’s Solicited Discounted Prepayment Offer at the Acceptable Discount; provided that if the aggregate Offered Amount by all Qualifying Lenders whose Offered Discount is greater than or equal to the Acceptable Discount exceeds the Solicited Discounted Prepayment Amount, prepayment of the principal amount of the Term Loans for those Qualifying Lenders whose Offered Discount is greater than or equal to the Acceptable Discount (the “Identified Qualifying Lenders”) shall be made pro rata among the Identified Qualifying Lenders in accordance with the Offered Amount of each such Identified Qualifying Lender and the Auction Agent (in consultation with such Borrower Party and subject to rounding requirements of the Auction Agent made in its sole reasonable discretion) will calculate such proration (the “Solicited Discount Proration”). On or prior to the Discounted Prepayment Determination Date, the Auction Agent shall promptly notify (I) the relevant Borrower Party of the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date, the Acceptable Prepayment Amount comprising the Discounted Term Loan Prepayment and the Classes to be prepaid, (II) each Term Lender of the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date, the Acceptable Discount, the Acceptable Prepayment Amount of all Term Loans and the Classes to be prepaid at the Applicable Discount on such date, (III) each Qualifying Lender of the aggregate principal amount and the Classes of such Term Lender to be prepaid at the Acceptable Discount on such date, and (IV) if applicable, each Identified Qualifying Lender of the Solicited Discount Proration. Each determination by the Auction Agent of the amounts stated in the foregoing notices to such Borrower Party and Term Lenders shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes absent manifest error. The payment amount specified in such notice to such Borrower Party shall be due and payable by such Borrower Party on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date in accordance with subsection (F) below (subject to subsection (J) below).

(E) In connection with any Discounted Term Loan Prepayment, the Borrower Parties and the Term Lenders acknowledge and agree that the Auction Agent may require as a condition to any Discounted Term Loan Prepayment, the payment of customary, reasonable and documented fees and out-of-pocket expenses from a Borrower Party in connection therewith.

(F) If any Term Loan is prepaid in accordance with paragraphs (B) through (D) above, a Borrower Party shall prepay such Term Loans on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date without premium or penalty (other than as required by Section 3.05 and except as provided in Section 2.05(a)(vi) below). The relevant Borrower Party shall make such prepayment to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Discount Prepayment Accepting Lenders, Participating Lenders, or Qualifying Lenders, as applicable, at the Administrative Agent's Office in immediately available funds not later than 1:00 p.m. on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date and all such prepayments shall be applied to the relevant tranche or Class of Term Loans as the applicable Borrower Party shall so specify in the applicable offer. The Term Loans so prepaid shall be accompanied by all accrued and unpaid interest on the par principal amount so prepaid up to, but not including, the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date. Each prepayment of the outstanding Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(a)(v) shall be paid to the Discount Prepayment Accepting Lenders, Participating Lenders, or Qualifying Lenders, as applicable, and shall be applied to the relevant Term Loans of such Lenders in accordance with their respective Pro Rata Share or other applicable share under this Agreement. The aggregate principal amount of the Classes and installments of the relevant Term Loans outstanding shall be deemed reduced by the full par value of the aggregate principal amount of the Classes of Term Loans prepaid on the Discounted Prepayment Effective Date in any Discounted Term Loan Prepayment. In connection with each prepayment pursuant to this Section 2.05(a)(v), each Lender participating in any prepayment described in this Section 2.05(a)(v) acknowledges and agrees that in connection therewith, (1) the Borrowers or any Borrower Party then may have, and later may come into possession of, Excluded Information, (2) such Lender has independently, and without reliance on the Borrowers, any of their Subsidiaries, the Administrative Agent or any of their respective Affiliates, made its own analysis and determination to participate in such prepayment notwithstanding such Lender's lack of knowledge of the Excluded Information, (3) none of the Borrowers, Borrower Parties or Sponsor or any of their respective Affiliates shall be required to make any representation that it is not in possession of Material Non-Public Information and all parties to the relevant transactions shall render customary "big boy" disclaimer letters, (4) none of the Borrowers, their Subsidiaries, the Administrative Agent or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any liability to such Lender, and such Lender hereby waives and releases, to the extent permitted by law, any claims such Lender may have against the Borrowers, their Subsidiaries, the Administrative Agent and their respective Affiliates, under applicable laws or otherwise, with respect to the nondisclosure of the Excluded Information, and (5) the Excluded Information may not be available to the Administrative Agent or the other Lenders.

(G) To the extent not expressly provided for herein, each Discounted Term Loan Prepayment shall be consummated pursuant to procedures consistent with the provisions in this Section 2.05(a)(v), established by the Auction Agent acting in its reasonable discretion and as reasonably agreed by the applicable Borrower Party.

(H) Notwithstanding anything in any Loan Document to the contrary, for purposes of this Section 2.05(a)(v), each notice or other communication required to be delivered or otherwise provided to the Auction Agent (or its delegate) shall be deemed to have been given upon the Auction Agent's (or its delegate's) actual receipt during normal business hours of such notice or communication; provided that any notice or communication actually received outside of normal business hours shall be deemed to have been given as of the opening of business on the next Business Day.

(I) Each of the Borrower Parties and the Term Lenders acknowledge and agree that the Auction Agent may perform any and all of its duties under this Section 2.05(a)(v) by itself or through any Affiliate of the Auction Agent and expressly consents to any such delegation of duties by the Auction Agent to such Affiliate and the performance of such delegated duties by such Affiliate. The exculpatory provisions pursuant to this Agreement shall apply to each Affiliate of the Auction Agent and its respective activities in connection with any Discounted Term Loan Prepayment provided for in this Section 2.05(a)(v) as well as activities of the Auction Agent.

(J) Each Borrower Party shall have the right, by written notice to the Auction Agent, to revoke in full (but not in part) its offer to make a Discounted Term Loan Prepayment and rescind the applicable Specified Discount Prepayment Notice, Discount Range Prepayment Notice or Solicited Discounted Prepayment Notice therefor at its discretion at any time on or prior to the applicable Specified Discount Prepayment Response Date, Discount Range Prepayment Response Date or Solicited Discounted Prepayment Response Date (and if such offer is revoked pursuant to the preceding clauses, any failure by such Borrower Party to make any prepayment to a Lender, as applicable, pursuant to this Section 2.05(a)(v) shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default under Section 8.01 or otherwise).

(vi) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that, prior to the date that is the twelve month anniversary of the Closing Date, any Borrower (x) voluntarily prepays, repays, refinances, substitutes or replaces any Term B Loans pursuant to a Repricing Transaction or makes any prepayment pursuant to Section 2.05(b)(iii) or (iv) that constitutes a Repricing Transaction, or (y) effects any amendment of this Agreement resulting in a Repricing Transaction, the Borrowers shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of each of the applicable Term Lenders, (I) in the case of clause (x), a prepayment fee of 1.00% of the aggregate principal amount of the Term B Loans so prepaid, repaid, refinanced, substituted or replaced and (II) in the case of clause (y), a fee equal to 1.00% of the aggregate principal amount of the applicable Term B Loans outstanding immediately prior to such amendment that is subject to such Repricing Transaction. Such amounts shall be due and payable on the date of effectiveness of such Repricing Transaction.

(b) Mandatory. (i) Commencing with the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020, within five (5) Business Days after the applicable Compliance Certificate for such fiscal year has been delivered pursuant to Section 6.02(a) (such date, the “ECF Payment Date”), the Borrowers shall, subject to clause (b)(vii) of this Section 2.05, cause to be prepaid an aggregate principal amount of Term Loans in an amount equal to (A) the Applicable ECF Percentage of Excess Cash Flow, if any, for the fiscal year covered by such financial statements minus (B) the sum of (1) all voluntary prepayments or repurchases in cash of (x) Term Loans or Incremental Equivalent Debt secured by any Applicable Lien or other Indebtedness constituting First Lien Obligations (other than Indebtedness described in clause (2)), or (y) any refinancing, replacement or extension of any of the foregoing (in each case, including any debt buyback conducted pursuant to a Dutch auction or open market purchase), in each case, during such fiscal year (to the extent not deducted from Excess Cash Flow in any prior period or pursuant to this clause (B) in the prior year) or after such fiscal year-end and prior to the ECF Payment Date (limited in the case of any voluntary prepayments made pursuant to Section 2.05(a)(v), Section 10.07(k) or Section 10.07(l), and in the case of repurchases of Indebtedness made at a discount to par, to the discounted amount actually paid in cash in respect of the principal amount of Term Loans or other Indebtedness (as opposed to the face amount so prepaid or repurchased)), (2) all voluntary prepayments of ABL Revolving Loans, Revolving Credit Loans and other revolving loans constituting First Lien Obligations during such fiscal year (to the extent not deducted from Excess Cash Flow in any prior period or this clause (B) in the prior year) or after year-end and prior to the ECF Payment Date, to the extent the ABL Revolving Credit Commitments, the Revolving Credit Commitments or revolving commitments in respect of such other revolving loans, as the case may be, are permanently reduced by the amount of such payments, and (3) all voluntary prepayments in cash of the any ABL Revolving Loans made on the Closing Date to account for any OID or upfront fees, and, in the case of each of the immediately preceding clauses (B)(1) through (B)(3), except to the extent such payments are funded with the proceeds of long-term Indebtedness (other than revolving Indebtedness) of a Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries; provided that a prepayment of Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(b)(i) in respect of any fiscal year shall only be required in the amount (if any) by which aggregate amount that would otherwise be due for such fiscal year exceeds $15,000,000; provided, further, that to the extent the sum of the amounts specified in clause (B) exceed the prepayments required to be made pursuant to clause (A), the full amount of any such excess shall carry over and be deducted from required payments in subsequent years until such time as no excess remains.

(ii) If any Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries Disposes of any property or assets (other than any Disposition of any property or assets permitted by Section 7.05(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) (except as set forth in the proviso thereof), (g), (h), (i), (k), (l), (m), (n), (o), (p), (q), (r), (s), (t), (u), (v), (w), (x), (z), (y) or (aa)) or (2) any Casualty Event occurs, which results in the receipt by any Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of Net Proceeds, the Borrowers shall cause to be prepaid on or prior to the date which is ten (10) Business Days after the date of the receipt by any Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary of such Net Proceeds (or if the Parent Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary intends to use proceeds of any such non-excluded Disposition within the applicable Reinvestment Period or has contractually committed prior to the last day of such Reinvestment Period to use such proceeds, in each case in accordance with the first proviso in clause (a) of the definition of Net Proceeds, the Borrowers shall cause to be prepaid any such proceeds constituting Net Proceeds in accordance with such proviso on or prior to the date which is ten (10) Business Days after the expiration of such Reinvestment Period), subject to clause (b)(vii) of this Section 2.05, an aggregate principal amount of Term Loans in an amount equal to 100% of all such Net Proceeds received.

(iii) If any Borrower or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries incurs or issues any Indebtedness, Disqualified Equity Interests or Preferred Stock from and after the Closing Date not permitted to be incurred or issued pursuant to Section 7.03, the Borrowers shall cause to be prepaid an aggregate principal amount of Term Loans in an amount equal to 100% of all Net Proceeds received therefrom on or prior to the date which is five (5) Business Days after the receipt by such Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary of such Net Proceeds.

(iv) If any Borrower incurs or issues any Refinancing Term Loans, Refinancing Revolving Loans or Refinancing Equivalent Debt to refinance any Class (or Classes) of Loans resulting in Net Proceeds (as opposed to such Refinancing Term Loans, Refinancing Revolving Loans or Refinancing Equivalent Debt arising out of an exchange of existing Term Loans or Revolving Credit Loans for such Refinancing Term Loans, Refinancing Revolving Loans or Refinancing Equivalent Debt), the Borrowers shall cause to be prepaid an aggregate principal amount of such Class (or Classes) of Loans so refinanced in an amount equal to 100% of all Net Proceeds (other than any amounts applied to accrued and unpaid interest, tender premium, prepayment penalty or premium on the applicable Refinanced Debt or to defeasance costs and any fees and expenses (including original issue discount, upfront fees or similar fees) incurred in connection with the issuance of such new Indebtedness) received therefrom on or prior to the date which is five (5) Business Days after the receipt by the Borrowers of such Net Proceeds.

(v) [Reserved].

(vi) Each prepayment of Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(b), (A) shall be applied either (x) ratably to each Class of Term Loans then outstanding, except that the Borrowers may direct that any proceeds of Refinancing Term Loans, Refinancing Revolving Loans or Refinancing Equivalent Debt shall be applied to the Class or Classes of Term Loans being refinanced as selected by the Borrowers or (y) as requested by the Borrowers in the notice delivered pursuant to clause (vii) below, to any Class or Classes of Term Loans with an earlier Maturity Date as compared with the remaining Classes of Term Loans then outstanding, (B) shall be applied, with respect to each such Class for which prepayments will be made, in a manner determined at the discretion of the Borrowers in the applicable notice and, if not specified, in direct order of maturity to repayments thereof required pursuant to Section 2.07(a) (for the avoidance of doubt, such application shall be unaffected by whether or not there are any Declined Proceeds resulting from such mandatory prepayment) and (C) shall be paid to the Appropriate Lenders in accordance with their respective Pro Rata Share (or other applicable share provided by this Agreement) of each such Class of Term Loans, subject to clause (vii) of this Section 2.05(b). Notwithstanding clause (A) above, any Incremental Amendment, Refinancing Amendment or Extension Amendment may provide (including on an optional basis as elected by the Borrowers) for a less than ratable application of prepayments to any Class of Term Loans established thereunder. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, if at the time that any such prepayment under Section 2.05(b)(i) or (b)(ii) would be required, any Borrower (or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries) is required to prepay or offer to repurchase Indebtedness that is secured by Liens on a pari passu basis in respect of the Term Loan Priority Collateral with Liens securing the Obligations pursuant to the terms of the documentation governing such Indebtedness with Excess Cash Flow or the Net Proceeds of such Disposition or Casualty Event (such Indebtedness required to be offered to be so repurchased, “Other Applicable Indebtedness”), then the Borrowers may apply such Excess Cash Flow or Net Proceeds on a pro rata basis (determined on the basis of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Term Loans and Other Applicable Indebtedness required to be so prepaid at such time; provided that the portion of such Excess Cash Flow or Net Proceeds allocated to the Other Applicable Indebtedness shall not exceed the amount of such Excess Cash Flow or Net Proceeds required to be allocated to the Other Applicable Indebtedness pursuant to the terms thereof, and the remaining amount, if any, of such Excess Cash Flow or such Net Proceeds shall be allocated to the Term Loans in accordance with the terms hereof) to the prepayment of the Term Loans and to the repurchase or prepayment of Other Applicable Indebtedness, and the amount of prepayment of the Term Loans that would have otherwise been required pursuant to Section 2.05(b)(i) or 2.05(b)(ii), as applicable, shall be reduced accordingly; provided, further, that to the extent the holders of Other Applicable Indebtedness decline to have such indebtedness repurchased or prepaid, the declined amount shall promptly (and in any event within ten (10) Business Days after the date of such rejection) be applied to prepay the Term Loans in accordance with the terms hereof without giving effect to this sentence.

(vii) The Administrative Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent in writing of any mandatory prepayment of Term Loans required to be made by it pursuant to clauses (i) through (iv) of this Section 2.05(b) at least three (3) Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment (provided that in the case of clause (ii) or (iv) of this Section 2.05(b), the Administrative Borrower may rescind (or delay the date of prepayment identified in) such notice if such prepayment would have resulted from a refinancing of all or any portion of the applicable Facility or other conditional event, which refinancing or other conditional event shall not be consummated or shall otherwise be delayed). Each such notice shall specify the date of such prepayment and provide a reasonably detailed calculation of the aggregate amount of such prepayment to be made by the Borrowers. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Appropriate Lender of the contents of the Administrative Borrower's prepayment notice and of such Appropriate Lender's Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for in this Agreement of the prepayment. Each Term Lender may reject all of its Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for in this Agreement of any mandatory prepayment (such declined amounts, the "Declined Proceeds") of Term Loans required to be made pursuant to clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of this Section 2.05(b) by providing written notice (each, a "Rejection Notice") to the Administrative Agent and the Administrative Borrower no later than 5:00 p.m. one Business Day after the date of such Lender's receipt of notice from the Administrative Agent regarding such prepayment. Each Rejection Notice from a given Lender shall specify the principal amount of the mandatory repayment of Term Loans to be rejected by such Lender. If a Term Lender fails to deliver a Rejection Notice to the Administrative Agent within the time frame specified above or such Rejection Notice fails to specify the principal amount of the Term Loans to be rejected, any such failure will be deemed an acceptance of the total amount of such mandatory prepayment of Term Loans. To the extent such non-declining Term Lenders elect to decline their Pro Rata Share of such Declined Proceeds, any Declined Proceeds remaining thereafter shall be retained by the Borrowers.

(viii) Foreign Dispositions and Foreign Excess Cash Flow. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Section 2.05, (i) to the extent that any or all of the Net Proceeds of any Disposition by a Foreign Subsidiary ("Foreign Disposition"), the Net Proceeds of any Casualty Event from a Foreign Subsidiary (a "Foreign Casualty Event") or Excess Cash Flow attributable to Foreign Subsidiaries are prohibited, restricted or delayed by applicable local law (or, in the case of any Foreign Subsidiary that is not wholly-owned by a Borrower, by such Foreign Subsidiary's Organization Documents or other agreement (so long as such restrictions were not implemented for the purpose of avoiding mandatory prepayment requirements)) from being repatriated to the United States, an amount equal to the portion of such Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow so affected will not be required to be applied to repay Term Loans at the times provided in this Section 2.05(b) so long, but only so long, as the applicable local law or applicable Organization Documents will not permit repatriation to the United States (each Borrower hereby agreeing to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the applicable Foreign Subsidiary to promptly take all actions reasonably required by the applicable local law to permit such repatriation or otherwise overcome or eliminate any such restrictions on repatriation even if such Borrower does not intend to actually repatriate such cash, so that an amount equal to the full amount of such Excess Cash Flow or Net Proceeds, as applicable, will otherwise be subject to repayment under this Section 2.05), and once such repatriation of any of such affected Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow is permitted under the applicable local law, an amount equal to such Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow will be promptly applied (net of additional taxes that are or would be payable or reserved against as a result thereof) to the repayment of the Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(b) to the extent provided herein and (ii) to the extent that such Borrower has determined in good faith that repatriation of any of or all the Net Proceeds of any Foreign Disposition or any Foreign Casualty Event or Excess Cash Flow attributable to Foreign Subsidiaries would have adverse tax or regulatory consequences to the Borrowers or any of their direct or indirect shareholders or Subsidiaries (as determined in good faith by such Borrower) an amount equal to such Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow so affected will not be required to be applied to repay Term Loans at the times provided in this Section 2.05(b). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to require any Foreign Subsidiary to repatriate cash to the United States.

(c) Interest Funding Losses, Etc. (i) Except to the extent otherwise agreed by each Lender so being prepaid, all prepayments of Loans (other than any Revolving Credit Loan that is a Base Rate Loan) shall be accompanied by all accrued and unpaid interest thereon to but not including the date of such prepayment (which, in the case of prepayments pursuant to Section 2.05(a)(v)(F) shall be the accrued and unpaid interest on the par principal amount so prepaid up to, but not including, the applicable Discounted Prepayment Effective Date), together with, in the case of any such prepayment of a Eurocurrency Rate Loan on a date prior to the last day of an Interest Period therefor, any amounts owing in respect of such Eurocurrency Rate Loan pursuant to Section 3.05.
