PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement ("Proxy Statement") is being furnished to the stockholders of BioScrip, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board of Directors") of proxies in the enclosed form for use in voting at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") of the Company to be held on Wednesday, May 25, 2005 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Westchester Marriott Hotel, located at 670 White Plains Road, Tarrytown, New York 10591 and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. The shares of common stock, par value $.0001 per share (the "Common Stock"), represented by the proxies received, properly marked, dated, executed and not revoked will be voted at the Annual Meeting. These proxy solicitation materials are being mailed to stockholders on or about April 28, 2005. On March 12, 2005, Chronimed Inc. ("Chronimed") merged with a wholly owned subsidiary of MIM Corporation ("MIM"). As a result of the merger, Chronimed has become a wholly owned subsidiary of MIM, now known as BioScrip, Inc. The Annual Meeting will be the first annual meeting of stockholders of the combined company.

Instead of submitting your proxy with the paper proxy card, you may vote by telephone or electronically via the Internet. If you vote by telephone or via the Internet it is not necessary to return your proxy card. Please note that there are separate telephone and Internet voting arrangements depending upon whether your shares of Common Stock are registered in your name or in the name of a broker or bank.

Proposals; Record Date

At the Annual Meeting, the Company's stockholders will be asked:

1. To elect ten directors to the Board of Directors of the Company, each to hold office for a term of one year or until their respective successors shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified.
2. To ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the year ending December 31, 2005.
3. To transact such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

The close of business on Friday, April 15, 2005 has been fixed by the Board of Directors as the record date (the "Record Date") for determining stockholders of the Company entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. The only outstanding voting securities of the Company are shares of Common Stock. As of the close of business on the Record Date, 36,937,919 shares of Common Stock were issued and outstanding and were held of record by approximately 450 holders (in addition to approximately 8,000 stockholders whose shares were held in nominee name).

Voting and Solicitation

Each stockholder entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting may cast one vote in person or by proxy for each share of Common Stock held by such stockholder. To vote in person, a stockholder should come to the Annual Meeting with a completed proxy or, alternatively, the Company will give you a ballot to complete upon arrival at the Annual Meeting. To vote by mail using the proxy card, a stockholder should mark, sign, date and mail the enclosed proxy card as promptly as possible in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope. To vote by telephone, a stockholder should dial toll-free (800) 776-9437 using a touch-tone phone and follow the recorded instructions. To vote on the Internet, a stockholder should go to <http://www.voteproxy.com> and complete an electronic proxy card. When voting over the telephone or via the Internet, a stockholder will be asked to provide the company number and control number contained on the enclosed proxy card.

If on the Record Date a stockholder's shares of Common Stock were held in an account at a brokerage firm, bank, dealer, or other similar organization, then such stockholder is considered the beneficial owner of shares held in "street name" and these proxy materials are being forwarded by that organization, which is considered the stockholder of record for purposes of voting at the Annual Meeting. As a beneficial owner, any such stockholder has the right to direct his or her broker or other agent on how to vote the shares of Common Stock in his or her account. Beneficial owners of the Company's Common Stock are also invited to attend the Annual Meeting. However, since a beneficial owner is not the stockholder of record, he or she may not vote in person at the Annual Meeting unless he or she requests and obtains a valid proxy from his or her broker or other agent.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding on the Record Date is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Shares of Common Stock represented at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy but not voted will be counted for purposes of determining a quorum. Accordingly, abstentions and broker "non-votes" (shares as to which a broker or nominee has indicated that it does not have discretionary authority to vote) on a particular matter, including the election of directors, will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Certain matters submitted to a vote of stockholders are considered to be "routine" items upon which brokerage firms may vote in their discretion on behalf of their customers if such customers have not furnished voting instructions within a specified period of time prior to the Annual Meeting. On those matters determined to be "non-routine," brokerage firms that have not received instructions from their customers would not have discretion to vote. In the election of directors, the ten nominees who receive the greatest number of affirmative votes will be elected to the Board of Directors, without giving effect to abstentions and broker non-votes. Each other matter to be voted on by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting. On these matters, an abstention will have the same effect as a vote cast against the applicable resolution, while broker non-votes will be disregarded and have no effect on the applicable matter.

Proxies in the accompanying form that are properly executed, duly returned to the Company and not revoked, or proxies which are submitted by telephone or via the Internet and not revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained therein. In the absence of specific instruction with respect to any or all of the proposals to be acted upon, proxies will be voted for the election of all of the nominees for director named in this Proxy Statement and in favor of Proposal 2. No matter currently is expected to be considered at the Annual Meeting other than the proposals set forth in this Proxy Statement and in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting. If any other matters are properly brought before the Annual Meeting for action it is intended that the persons named in the proxy and acting thereunder will vote in accordance with their discretion on such matters.

The presence of a stockholder at the Annual Meeting will not revoke such stockholder's proxy. However, a proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted by delivering to the Secretary of the Company (at the principal executive offices of the Company) a written notice of revocation, by executing and delivering a proxy bearing a later date or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Stockholders voting by telephone or via the Internet may also revoke their proxy by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person, by submitting the proxy in accordance with the instructions thereon or by voting again, at a later time, by telephone or via the Internet (a stockholder's latest telephone or Internet vote, as applicable, will be counted and all earlier votes will be disregarded). However, once voting on a particular matter is completed at the Annual Meeting, a stockholder will not be able to revoke his or her proxy or change his or her vote as to any matter or matters on which voting has been completed.

The solicitation of proxies will be conducted by mail and the Company will bear all associated costs of the solicitation process. These costs include the expenses of preparing and mailing proxy solicitation materials for the Annual Meeting and reimbursements paid to brokerage firms and others for their expenses incurred in forwarding such materials to beneficial owners of shares of Common Stock. The Company may conduct further solicitations personally, telephonically or by facsimile through its officers, directors and employees, none of whom will receive additional compensation for assisting with any such solicitations.

Adjournments and Postponements

Adjournments or postponements of the Annual Meeting may be made for the purpose of, among other things, soliciting additional proxies. Any adjournment or postponement may be made from time to time by approval of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting (whether or not a quorum exists) without further notice other than by an announcement made at the Annual Meeting. The Company does not currently intend to seek an adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting, but no assurance can be given that one will not be sought.

PROPOSAL 1.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The By-Laws of the Company provide that the number of directors shall be such number, currently ten, as is designated from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. Each director shall hold office for a term of one year or until his or her successor is elected at the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders and duly qualified, or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal.

In connection with the Company's merger with Chronimed, on March 12, 2005, the effective date of the merger, (i) Henry F. Blissenbach, Myron Z. Holubiak, David R. Hubers and Stuart A. Samuels, four director nominees of Chronimed, were appointed to fill vacancies on the Board created by the concurrent resignation of four of the Company's directors in connection with the merger, and (ii) Richard L. Robbins, a nominee chosen by the Company and agreed to by Chronimed, was appointed to fill a vacancy on the Board created by an increase in the number of directors constituting the entire Board.

The Board of Directors, based on the recommendation of its Nominating and Governance Committee, has nominated and recommends the election of the following ten persons to the Board of Directors of the Company, all of whom currently serve as directors: Henry F. Blissenbach, Richard A. Cirillo, Charlotte W. Collins, Louis T. DiFazio, Richard H. Friedman, Myron Z. Holubiak, David R. Hubers, Michael Kooper, Richard L. Robbins, and Stuart A. Samuels.

The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any of its nominees will be unable or unwilling to serve as a director if elected and, to the knowledge of the Board of Directors, each of its nominees intends to serve in such capacity for the entire term for which election is sought. However, should any nominee become unwilling or unable to accept nomination or election as a director of the Company, the proxies solicited by management will be voted (unless marked to the contrary) for such person or persons, if any, as shall be recommended by the Board of Directors. However, proxies will not be voted for the election of more than ten directors.

Information Concerning Meetings and Certain Committees

The Company has standing Audit, Nominating and Governance, and Compensation Committees.

The Audit Committee currently consists of Stuart A. Samuels (Chairman), Louis T. DiFazio, David R. Hubers and Richard L. Robbins. Each of the members of the Audit Committee satisfies the independence requirements of Rule 4200(a)(15) of the National Association of Securities Dealers listing standards and Rule 10A-3(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”). The Company’s Board of Directors has determined that Richard L. Robbins is an “audit committee financial expert” as that term is defined in Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K of the Exchange Act and is “independent” as set forth in Item 7(d)(3)(iv) of Schedule 14A of the Exchange Act. The Audit Committee is responsible, among its other duties, for overseeing the process of accounting and financial reporting of the Company and the audits of the financial statements of the Company; appointing, retaining and compensating the Company’s independent auditors; pre-approving all audit and non-audit services by the Company’s independent auditors; reviewing the scope of the audit plan and the results of each audit with management and the Company's independent accountants; reviewing the internal audit function; reviewing the adequacy of the Company's system of internal accounting controls and disclosure controls and procedures; and reviewing the financial statements and other financial information included in the Company's annual and quarterly reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"). The Audit Committee's duties are set forth in the Audit Committee's Charter which is available on the Company's website at www.bioscrip.com under the heading "Investors."

The Nominating and Governance Committee currently consists of Richard A. Cirillo (Chairman), Charlotte W. Collins, Myron Z. Holubiak and Stuart A. Samuels. Each member of the Nominating and Governance Committee is "independent" as set forth in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the National Association of Securities Dealers listing standards. The Nominating and Governance Committee operates pursuant to a written charter which is available on the Company's website at www.bioscrip.com under the heading "Investors." The Nominating and Governance Committee's functions include recommending to the Board of Directors the number and names of proposed nominees for election to the Board of Directors at the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders; identifying and recommending nominees to fill expiring and vacant seats on the Board of Directors; reviewing on an annual basis committee chairs and membership and recommending changes to the Board of Directors. Except as may be required by rules promulgated by the Nasdaq Stock Market or the Commission, it is the current sense of the Nominating and Governance Committee that there are no specific, minimum qualifications that must be met by each candidate for the Board of Directors, nor are there specific qualities or skills that are necessary for one or more of the members of the Board of Directors to possess. In evaluating the suitability of potential nominees for election as members of the Board of Directors, the Nominating and Governance Committee will take into consideration the current composition of the Board of Directors, including expertise, diversity, and balance of inside, outside and independent directors, as well as the general qualifications of the potential nominees, including personal and professional integrity, ability and judgment and such other factors deemed appropriate. The Nominating and Governance Committee will evaluate such factors, among others, and will not assign any particular weighting or priority to any of these factors. While the Nominating and Governance Committee has not established specific minimum qualifications for director candidates, the Committee believes that candidates and nominees must reflect a Board of Directors that is predominantly independent and is comprised of directors who (i) are of high integrity, (ii) have qualifications that will increase the overall effectiveness of the Board of Directors, including expertise and knowledge in various disciplines relevant to the Company's business and/or operations, and (iii) meet other requirements as may be required by applicable rules, such as financial literacy or financial expertise with respect to Audit Committee members. The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider recommendations for nominations from any reasonable source, including officers and directors as well as from stockholders of the Corporation who comply with the procedures set forth in the Company's By-Laws. See "Stockholder Proposals" on page 24 of this Proxy Statement. When appropriate, the Nominating and Governance Committee may retain executive recruitment firms to assist in identifying suitable candidates. The Nominating and Governance Committee will evaluate all stockholder recommended candidates on the same basis as any other candidate.

The Compensation Committee, currently comprised of Louis T. DiFazio (Chairman), Myron Z. Holubiak, David R. Hubers and Michael Kooper, reviews and approves the overall compensation strategy and policies for the Company. Each member of the Compensation Committee is "independent" as set forth in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the National Association of Securities Dealers listing standards. In addition, the Compensation Committee reviews and approves corporate performance goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company's executive officers and other senior management; reviews and approves the compensation and other terms of employment of the Company's Chief Executive Officer; and administers the Company's 2001 Incentive Stock Plan (the "2001 Plan"), the 1996 Incentive Stock Plan (the "1996 Plan") and the 1996 Non-Employee Directors Stock Incentive Plan (the "Directors Plan"). The Compensation Committee also administers the Chronimed Inc. Stock Options Plans which were assumed by the Company in connection with the merger (collectively, the "Chronimed Option Plans").

Table of Contents

During 2004, the Board of Directors held eight meetings, the Audit Committees held four meetings, the Nominating and Governance Committee held no meeting(s) and acted one time by written consent and the Compensation Committee held no meeting(s). Each director attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and the meetings of the committees of which he or she was a member in 2004. The Company expects each member of the Board of Directors to attend its annual meetings absent a valid reason, such as a schedule conflict. Eight members of the Board of Directors as constituted prior to the merger attended the Company's 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Corporate Governance

The Company is committed to having sound corporate governance principles and has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics for its Directors, Officers and Employees. The Code of Business Conduct and Ethics covers topics including, but not limited to, financial reporting, conflicts of interest, confidentiality of information, and compliance with laws and regulations. The Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, is available on the Company's website at www.bioscrip.com under the heading "Investors." The information contained in or connected to the Company's website is not incorporated by reference to or considered a part of this proxy statement. If any waivers of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics are granted, such waivers will be disclosed on a Form 8-K.

Stockholder Communications with the Board of Directors

Historically, the Company has not adopted a formal process for stockholder communications with the Board of Directors. Nevertheless, every effort has been made to ensure that the views of stockholders are heard by the Board of Directors or individual directors, as applicable, and that appropriate responses are provided to stockholders in a timely manner. We believe our responsiveness to stockholder communications to the Board of Directors has been excellent. Nevertheless, during the upcoming year the Nominating and Governance Committee will give full consideration to the adoption of a formal process for stockholder communications with the Board of Directors and, if adopted, publish it promptly and post it to the Company's website.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing the process of accounting and financial reporting of the Company and the audits and financial statements of the Company. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter which is reviewed annually by the Audit Committee. As set forth in the Audit Committee charter, management of the Company is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Company's financial statements and for the appropriateness of the accounting principles and reporting policies that are used by the Company. The independent auditors are responsible for auditing the Company's financial statements and expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Prior to the merger, in the performance of its oversight function, the Company's Audit Committee, as then constituted, reviewed and discussed with the Company's management and the Company's independent auditors the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004. The Audit Committee also discussed with the Company's independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 90. In addition, the Audit Committee has received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from the Company's independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as amended, and has considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence.

Based on the review and discussions described in the preceding paragraph above, the Audit Committee, as constituted prior to the merger, recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements referred to above be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 filed with the Commission.

Compensation of Directors

Each director who is not an officer or employee of the Company (an "Outside Director") receives fees of $1,500 per month and $500 per meeting of the Board of Directors and any committee thereof and is reimbursed for expenses incurred in connection with attending such meetings. In addition, each Outside Director is automatically granted under the Directors Plan (i) a non-qualified stock option to purchase 20,000 shares of Common Stock upon being elected to the Board of Directors and (ii) a non-qualified stock option to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock each year at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors immediately following the Company's annual meeting of stockholders; provided, that in order to be eligible to receive the additional option grant an Outside Director shall have been serving on the Board of Directors for at least six consecutive months. Directors who are also officers of the Company are not paid any directors fees or granted any options under the Directors Plan; provided, however, that such directors may receive options under the 1996 Plan and the 2001 Plan.

The exercise price of options granted to a director under the Directors Plan is equal to the fair market value of a share of Common Stock on the date of grant as determined under the Directors Plan. Options granted under the Directors Plan vest over three years, in three equal annual installments following the anniversary dates of the grant date. The Company has reserved 500,000 shares of Common Stock for issuance under the Directors Plan. Through April 25, 2005 (i) Richard A. Cirillo, Louis T. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS
A VOTE "FOR" EACH OF THE ABOVE-NAMED NOMINEES.

PROPOSAL 2.RATIFICATION OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS THE COMPANY'S INDEPENDENT AUDITORS FOR THE YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2005.

Ernst & Young LLP served as the Company's independent auditors for the year ended December 31, 2004 and the Audit Committee has appointed Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the year ended December 31, 2005. The Board of Directors is asking that the stockholders ratify the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors. While the Company's By-Laws do not require stockholder ratification, the Company is asking its stockholders to ratify this appointment because it believes such a proposal is a matter of good corporate practice. If the stockholders do not ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP, the Audit Committee will reconsider whether or not to retain Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors, but may determine to do so. Even if the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP is ratified by the stockholders, the Audit Committee may change the appointment at any time during the year if it determines that a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

A representative of Ernst & Young LLP is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and will have an opportunity to make a statement, if he or she desires to do so, and to be available to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.

Ernst & Young LLP also served as Chronimed's independent auditors for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee reviews and approves the overall compensation strategy and policies for the Company. In addition, the Compensation Committee reviews and approves corporate performance goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company's executive officers and other senior management; reviews and approves the compensation and other terms of employment of the Company's Chief Executive Officer; and administers the 2001 Plan, the 1996 Plan and the Directors Plan, as well as the Chronimed Option Plans. Each member of the Nominating and Governance Committee is "independent" as set forth in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the National Association of Securities Dealers listing standards.

Compensation Committee Report On Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee is responsible for overseeing and approving compensation levels for the Company's management, including the individuals named in the Summary Compensation Table. The Compensation Committee is also involved in the development and administration of management compensation policies and programs that are consistent with, linked to, and supportive of the basic strategic objective of maximizing stockholder value, while taking into consideration the activities, roles and responsibilities of the Company's senior management. The Compensation Committee is comprised of four independent directors.

The Company believes that a strong link should exist between management compensation and management's success in maximizing stockholder value. In 2002, the Company, through the Compensation Committee, retained a nationally recognized compensation consulting firm to review the competitiveness and effectiveness of the compensation program in order to ensure that the Company was providing strong incentives for senior management to remain in the employ of the Company, to deliver superior financial results and to provide significant potential rewards to senior management if the Company achieves aggressive but reasonable agreed upon financial goals each fiscal year. The consulting firm worked closely with the Compensation Committee and certain members of senior management.

Compensation Philosophy and Elements

The Compensation Committee adheres to four principles in discharging its responsibilities:

1. Annual bonuses and long-term compensation for senior management and key employees should be at risk, with actual compensation levels corresponding to the Company's actual financial performance and each participating executive's personal goals and accomplishments.
2. Over time, incentive compensation of the Company's management should focus more heavily on long-term rather than short-term accomplishments and results.
3. Equity-based compensation and equity ownership expectations should be used to provide management with clear and distinct links to stockholder interests.
4. The overall compensation programs should be structured to ensure the Company's ability to attract, retain, motivate and reward those individuals who are best suited to achieving the desired performance results, both long-term and short-term, while taking into account the role and responsibilities of the individual.

The compensation program provides management and participating employees with the opportunity to receive annual cash bonuses and long-term rewards if corporate, department and/or individual objectives are achieved. Specifically, participants may receive significant bonuses if the Company's financial performance goals and each individual's departmental and personal objectives are achieved. Under the compensation program, no participant may receive compensation payments in any year in excess of the $1 million limitation set forth in Section 162(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Any amounts payable in excess of such $1 million limitation will be mandatorily deferred to later years.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

In determining an appropriate salary, bonus and long-term incentive opportunity for Mr. Friedman, who served as the Company's Chief Executive Officer prior to the consummation of the merger in March 2005, the Compensation Committee considered, among other things, the compensation of chief executive officers of other public companies within its industry, the Company's overall financial performance, as well as the Chief Executive Officer's individual performance and his unique role since becoming Chairman and Chief Executive Officer in 1997. On March 12, 2005, upon consummation of the merger, Mr. Friedman resigned as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and currently serves as the Company's Chairman. Henry F. Blissenbach, the former President and Chief Executive Officer of Chronimed, currently serves as the Company's Chief Executive Officer. The terms of Mr. Blissenbach's employment agreement with the Company are described under "Employment Agreements" below.

The Compensation Committee exercised its judgment and discretion in determining the level of each element of compensation, individually and in aggregate, for Mr. Friedman in 2004.

Mr. Friedman was paid an annual base salary of $653,000 for 2004, which was increased to $699,000 in 2005. Neither Mr. Friedman, nor any other member of management, received a bonus based on 2004 performance. Any annual bonus to be paid to Mr. Friedman or any other member of management is a multiple of base salary. The multiple is based on Company earnings versus budget and other qualitative Company objectives. In addition to Mr. Friedman's base salary, he receives an annual grant of options to purchase 200,000 shares of the Company's common stock at the beginning of each year as well as certain fringe benefits, including an automobile allowance.

Deductibility of Compensation

Section 162(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 places a limit on the tax deduction for compensation in excess of $1 million paid to certain "covered employees" of a publicly held corporation (generally the company's chief executive officer and its next four most highly compensated executives). Under certain conditions, the statute allows the entity to preserve this tax deduction for certain qualified performance-based compensation.

Any bonuses payable to the CEO are believed to qualify as "performance-based" compensation with the meaning of section 162(m). The Compensation Committee, composed entirely of independent directors, adopted the Company's compensation programs and the entire Board of Directors approved Mr. Friedman's employment agreement. In order to qualify for favorable treatment under section 162(m), Mr. Friedman's amended employment agreement was structured such that he will not receive cash compensation in excess of $1 million in any one year but rather, would have any payments in excess of the $1 million limitation deferred to later periods.

Table of Contents

The Compensation Committee intends to continue to pursue a strategy of maximizing the deductibility of the compensation paid to the Company's management. However, the Compensation Committee retains the flexibility to provide compensation in an amount that may exceed the limit for tax deductibility under Section 162(m) and waive the mandatory deferral, as appropriate, whenever the Compensation Committee believes that payment of such compensation furthers the goals of the Company's executive compensation program, or is otherwise in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

Employment Agreements

In December 1998, Mr. Friedman entered into an employment agreement with the Company. Under Mr. Friedman's employment agreement, he was granted options to purchase 800,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $4.50 per share (the market price on December 2, 1998, the date of grant), 200,000 performance units and 300,000 restricted shares. The grants were canceled after the proposal seeking stockholder approval for the grants at the 1999 annual meeting of the Company's stockholders was withdrawn before a vote of the Company's stockholders.

Based on the recommendation of the Company's compensation committee, Mr. Friedman's employment agreement was amended in 1999 and 2001, on August 9, 2004 and on October 28, 2004. Mr. Friedman's employment agreement provides for his employment as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company for a term of employment through November 30, 2006 (unless earlier terminated) at an initial base annual salary of $425,000. In December 2001, the Company's compensation committee approved an increase in Mr. Friedman's base annual salary to $594,000 and making an annual grant to Mr. Friedman of options to purchase 200,000 shares of the Company's common stock at the beginning of each year commencing January 1, 2002 and continuing through November 30, 2006. In 2003 the Compensation Committee approved increasing Mr. Friedman's base salary for 2004 to $653,400 and in January 2005 the Compensation Committee approved an increase in his base salary for 2005 to $699,133. Mr. Friedman is also entitled to receive certain fringe benefits, including an automobile allowance and is also eligible to participate in the Company's executive bonus program.

If Mr. Friedman's employment is terminated due to his death or disability, all vested options may be exercised by his estate for one year following termination; provided, however, that if he remains disabled for six months following his termination for disability, he will also be entitled to receive, for a period of two years following termination, his annual salary at the time of termination and continuing coverage under all benefit plans and programs to which he was previously entitled. If Mr. Friedman's employment is terminated by the Company without cause, (i) Mr. Friedman will be entitled to receive, for the longer of two years following termination and the period remaining in his term of employment under his employment agreement, his annual salary at the time of termination (less net proceeds of any long term disability or workers' compensation benefits) and continuing coverage under all benefit plans and programs to which he was previously entitled and (ii) all unvested options will vest and immediately become exercisable in accordance with their terms and Mr. Friedman will vest in all other pension or deferred compensation plans. If the Company terminates Mr. Friedman for cause, he will be entitled to receive only salary, bonus and other benefits earned and accrued through the date of termination. If Mr. Friedman terminates his employment for good reason, (a) he will be entitled to receive, for a period of two years following termination, his annual salary at the time of termination and continuing coverage under all benefit plans and programs to which he was previously entitled and (b) all unvested options will vest and immediately become exercisable in accordance with their terms and Mr. Friedman will vest in all other pension or deferred compensation plans. Upon a change of control that result in his termination by the Company or a material reduction in his duties, (1) Mr. Friedman will be entitled to receive, for the longer of three years following termination and the period remaining in his term of employment under his employment agreement, his annual salary at the time of termination and continuing coverage under all benefits plans and programs to which he was previously entitled and (2) all unvested options will vest and immediately become exercisable in accordance with their terms and Mr. Friedman will vest in all other pension or deferred compensation plans.

Under an August 9, 2004 amendment, Mr. Friedman agreed that being employed as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the combined company and terminating his position as Chief Executive Officer in connection with the merger did not constitute good reason for Mr. Friedman to terminate his employment agreement. As a result, the completion of the merger did not trigger Mr. Friedman's right to receive severance compensation or other termination benefits. In addition, under an October 28, 2004 amendment, in the event his employment agreement is not renewed upon its expiration, (i) he will be entitled to receive for period of one year following termination his annual salary at the time of termination and continuing coverage under all benefit plans and programs to which he was previously entitled and (ii) all unvested options will vest and immediately become exercisable in accordance with their terms.

During the term of employment and for one year following the later of his termination and his receipt of severance payments, Mr. Friedman may not directly or indirectly (other than with the Company) participate in the United States in any pharmacy benefit management business or other business that is at any time a material part of the Company's overall business. Similarly, for a period of two years following termination, Mr. Friedman may not solicit or otherwise interfere with the Company's relationship with any present or former Company employee or customer.

Mr. Blissenbach entered into an employment agreement with Chronimed effective July 1, 2003 with an initial three-year term expiring on July 1, 2006. The agreement automatically renews for two-year terms unless terminated for various reasons. Under the agreement, Mr. Blissenbach receives a base salary of not less than $415,000 per year and bonuses, stock option, and benefits commensurate with his position and responsibilities. His compensation package is subject to increase based on performance and board review. Mr. Blissenbach's employment agreement contains a non-competition provision for up to one year following termination of employment. Under Mr. Blissenbach's employment agreement, if his employment is terminated by Chronimed without cause or through delivery of a non-renewal notice or by him for good reason, Mr. Blissenbach is entitled to receive (1) his base salary through the date of termination, including the pro rated bonus earned for the partial year, if any, (2) base salary payments for a period of 24 months after termination at the rate in effect on the date of termination, payable monthly, (3) the average of any incentive compensation paid or payable by Chronimed for the two most recent fiscal years, payable monthly, (4) immediate vesting of all unvested stock options and (5) continuance of healthcare coverage, life insurance and general employee benefit plans of Chronimed for a period of two years or until Mr. Blissenbach becomes eligible for such insurance coverage from another employer. If Mr. Blissenbach's employment is terminated within two years of a change of control (as defined in the employment agreement) by him for good reason or by Chronimed without cause, Mr. Blissenbach is entitled to receive (1) his base salary through the date of termination, including the pro rated bonus earned for the partial year, (2) a lump sum payment equal to 36 months of Mr. Blissenbach's then current annualized base salary plus the aggregate annual bonus compensation paid for the preceding three full years or three times the target bonus for the year of termination, whichever is greater, (3) immediate vesting of all unvested stock options and (4) continued participation in medical, dental, life and disability insurance benefits at the same premium cost in effect for active employees for two years.

Pursuant to the terms and conditions of an amendment and assumption of employment agreement entered into among the Company, Chronimed and Mr. Blissenbach as of August 9, 2004, the Company agreed to employ, and Mr. Blissenbach agreed to accept employment as, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement as amended. Under the amended employment agreement, Mr. Blissenbach has agreed that being employed in such new positions and terminating his positions as Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of Chronimed will not give him the right to terminate the employment agreement for good reason.

In March 1999, Mr. Posner entered into an employment agreement with the Company that provides for his employment as the Company's Vice President and General Counsel for a term of employment through February 28, 2004 (unless earlier terminated) at an initial base annual salary of $230,000. Under his employment agreement, Mr. Posner was granted 60,000 restricted shares of common stock of the Company. The restricted shares are subject to restrictions on transfer and encumbrance through December 31, 2006 and are automatically forfeited to the Company upon termination of Mr. Posner's employment with the Company prior to December 31, 2006. Mr. Posner possesses voting rights with respect to the restricted shares, but is not entitled to receive dividends or other distributions, if any, paid with respect to the restricted shares. In addition, Mr. Posner's restricted shares shall vest and become immediately transferable without restriction upon the occurrence of the following termination events: (i) Mr. Posner is terminated early by the Company without cause, (ii) Mr. Posner terminates his employment for good reason, or (iii) after certain changes of control of the Company that result in Mr. Posner's termination by the Company or a material reduction of his duties with the Company. In addition, in the event that Mr. Posner is terminated without cause or he terminates his employment for good reason following a change of control of the Company, all restricted shares issued to Mr. Posner shall vest and become immediately payable. Upon termination, Mr. Posner is entitled to substantially the same entitlements as described above as Mr. Friedman. In addition, Mr. Posner is subject to the same restrictions on competition and non-interference as described above with respect to Mr. Friedman.

Under an amendment to Mr. Posner's employment agreement on October 28, 2004, good reason for termination by Mr. Posner now includes relocation of his principal location of employment more than 50 miles from his current location of employment in Elmsford, New York without his consent. In addition, the amendment provides that in the event Mr. Posner's employment agreement is not renewed upon its expiration, Mr. Posner will be entitled to receive all of the severance benefits described above, together with an amount equal to one year's salary.

In June 2001, Mr. Corvese entered into an employment letter agreement with the Company which provides for his employment until terminated by the Company or Mr. Corvese. In the event that Mr. Corvese is terminated by the Company or any successor without cause or he terminates his employment at any time for good reason, he is entitled to receive an amount equal to one year of salary. Mr. Corvese is subject to the same restrictions on competition and non-interference as described above with respect to Mr. Friedman.

Under an amendment to Mr. Corvese's employment agreement on December 1, 2004, good reason for termination by Mr. Corvese now includes relocation of his principal location of employment more than 50 miles from his current location of employment.

In January 2004, the Company entered into a severance arrangement with Mr. Carfora. Pursuant to the terms of the arrangement, if he is terminated by the Company or any successor without cause or he terminates his employment with the Company for good reason at any time prior to January 28, 2007, he is entitled to receive severance payments equal to one year of salary at his then current salary level and all outstanding unvested stock options previously granted to him and then held by him vest and become immediately exercisable and are otherwise exercisable in accordance with their terms. Mr. Carfora is subject to the same restrictions on competition and non-interference as described above with respect to Mr. Friedman.

In October 2004, Mr. Pettengill entered into an employment letter agreement with the Company which provides for his employment as Chief Information Officer until terminated by the Company or Mr. Pettengill. Under the agreement, Mr. Pettengill is to be paid a base annual salary of $166,000 and is eligible to participate in the Company's executive bonus program. In the event that Mr. Pettengill is terminated by the Company or any successor without cause or he terminates his employment at any time for good reason, he is entitled to receive an amount equal to one year of salary and all outstanding unvested options then held by him shall vest and become immediately exercisable in accordance with their terms. Good reason for termination by Mr. Pettengill includes a reduction in his then current salary rate or the relocation of his principal location of employment more than 50 miles from his current location of employment. Mr. Pettengill is subject to the same restrictions on competition and non-interference as described above with respect to Mr. Friedman.

Mr. Zappa entered into an employment agreement with Chronimed effective February 1, 2003. The agreement remains in effect until terminated by mutual agreement or for cause as defined in the agreement. Under the agreement, Mr. Zappa receives a base salary of not less than $230,000 per year during the term of the agreement, and bonuses, stock options, and benefits commensurate with his position and responsibilities. If Mr. Keane accepts an offer to remain employed with Chronimed or becomes employed with the Company after completion of the merger, and within one year of completion of the merger Mr. Keane terminates his employment for good reason, or Chronimed or the Company, as the case may be, terminates his employment without cause, he is entitled to receive the severance benefits described above conditioned upon Mr. Keane entering into a general release of all claims against Chronimed and its successors.

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our directors, officers and beneficial owners of more than 10% of the Company's Common Stock to file with the Commission initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in beneficial ownership of the Company's Common Stock and other equity securities. Based solely on our review of the copies of such reports received by the Company or written representations from reporting persons, the Company believes that during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, the Company's officers, directors and holders of more than 10% of its common stock complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements, except for Mr. Richard Friedman, who filed a Form 4 on January 12, 2004 to report the grant of a stock option on January 2, 2004, and Mr. Barry A. STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

In accordance with the amended By-Laws of the Company, a stockholder who at any annual meeting of stockholders of the Company intends to nominate a person for election as a director or present a proposal must so notify the Secretary of the Company, in writing, describing such nominee(s) or proposal and providing information concerning such stockholder and the reasons for, and interest of, such stockholder in any such nomination or proposal. Generally, to be timely, such notice must be received by the Secretary not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days in advance of the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, provided that in the event that no annual meeting was held the previous year or the date of the annual meeting has been changed by more than 30 days from the date of the previous year's meeting, or in the event of a special meeting of stockholders called to elect directors, not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or public disclosure of the date of the meeting was made, whichever occurs first. For the Company's annual meeting to be held in 2006, any such notice must be received by the Company at its principal executive offices between February 24, 2006 and March 26, 2006 to be considered timely for purposes of the 2006 annual meeting. Any person interested in making such a nomination or proposal should request a copy of the relevant By-Law provisions from the Secretary of the Company. These time periods also apply in determining whether notice is timely for purposes of rules adopted by the Commission relating to the exercise of discretionary voting authority, and are separate from and in addition to the Commission's requirements (described below) that a stockholder must meet to have a proposal included in the Company's proxy statement.

Stockholder proposals intended to be presented at the 2006 annual meeting must be received by the Company at its principal executive offices no later than December 27, 2005, in order to be eligible for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and proxy card relating to that meeting. Upon receipt of any proposal, the Company will determine whether to include such proposal in accordance with regulations governing the solicitation of proxies.

HOUSEHOLDING

If you and other residents with the same last name at your mailing address own shares of Common Stock in street name, your broker or bank may have sent you a notice that your household will receive only one annual report and proxy statement for each company in which you hold stock through that broker or bank. This practice of sending only one copy of proxy materials is known as "householding." If you received a householding communication, your broker will send one copy of this Proxy Statement and one copy of the 2003 Annual Report to Stockholders to your address unless contrary instructions were given by any stockholder at that address. If you received more than one copy of the proxy materials this year and you wish to reduce the number of reports you receive in the future and save the Company the cost of printing and mailing these reports, your broker will discontinue the mailing of reports on the accounts you select if you mark the designated box on your proxy card, or follow the instructions provided when you vote over the Internet.

You may revoke your consent to householding at any time by calling 800-542-1061. The revocation of your consent to householding will be effective 30 days following its receipt.
